"HOOSIER AT LARGE"

The Citizen's Favorite Author
Writes A Western and Heads
For Delong, Indiana

JUST CALL ME MONEYBAGS, pardner. I've assured my fortune and nixed my niche in notoriety. I've composed an adult Western! Shucks, warn't nothing to it.

AL SPIERS

First thing I needed, obviously, was a clever, catchy title. How to get it? Pshaw — it's as simple as mowing down a streetful of villains. Just tap the map!

SO TO THE ATLAS! Nevada and Kansas already having been invaded, I dug deep in the heart of Texas for my title.

Reluctantly I rejected such real and romantic rippers as Magic City, Exit, Sealp Creek, Wink, Loving, Kickapoo, Abernathy, Roundup, Pointblank, Paradise, Red Barn, Peacock, Saipie, Battle, Draw, Bigfoot, Cross Cut, Bounce, and Flat Top.

I was attracted to, but resisted, Pep and Energy. (Can't you see a breakfast food sponsor's mind snapping, crackling, and popping at the idea?)

I toyed, too, with a Texas town named China (a Western Charlie Chan?), and another labeled Little Chicago (Capone on a horse?).

FINALLY, MY eyes settled on a tiny town that sent shivers of joy tingling through me. Eureka, this was it! Oh, so apropos! The name of this Texas village, then would signal the start of my program with the 21-inch declaration:

"DULL!"

THERE, THEN, was our title — really the hardest part. Now for the story line...

I named my lead character Babbitt Fiske. He's short, plump, toothless, hairless, hatless. His wardrobe: Sneakers, soiled trousers, a filthy sweatshirt. His weapon: An elephant gun.

Although Babbitt can't hit the Last Chance Saloon at 50 stagers, he cleverly overcomes this deficiency by waiting till the opportune moment and shooting his toes in the back.

HE'S OUR HERO.

As our first show opens, we see Babbitt pedaling into the town of Dull on his skinny-tire bicycle. (He hates horses.)

The townspeople ignore him as he dismounts at the hitching post, spends several minutes working his trouser cuff loose from the bicycle chain, leans his bike on a horse and saunters into the marshal's office.

A DEPUTY GREETED him. He is young, clean-shaven, neat, and articulate. He is not asleep and his feet are not on the desk. He doesn't even own a spittoon.

"Yes sir, may I help you?" he

Dining Hall At Academy Again Makes Headlines

Campus Landmark 50 Years Old

The "Way Back When" columns of many Hoosier newspapers during the past few days have carried a Culver item of 50 years ago which should be of great interest locally.

Typical is this April 15, 1911 item reprinted in The Indianapolis Times:

"Governor and Mrs. Thomas R. Marshall and Meredith Nicholson were in Culver where the Governor delivered an address at the dedication of the new mess hall at Culver Military Academy."

Last week's Citizen published this April 20, 1911 item:

"Easter weekend, which included the opening of the new $125,000 mess hall, brought great crowds to the Academy."

Colorful Governor Here

It will be recalled that Tom Marshall later became Vice-President of the United States under President Woodrow Wilson. The colorful Columbia City lawyer is well remembered for his classic remark: "What this country needs most is a good 5-cent cigar."

of Indiana's famous literary giants and one of his best-sellers, "The House of A Thousand Candles," was written right here on the East Shore of Lake Maxinkuckee.

$1 Million Cost Today?

It is estimated that the 50-year-old building, now referred to as the dining hall on the campus, would today cost at least $1 million to construct.

Daylight Savings Time In Effect Next Sunday

Don't Forget To Set Clocks Ahead

The Citizen has been informed by A. R. McKesson, president of the Town Board, that at the last meeting of that body it was decided that Culver and the surrounding area will follow the usual custom and change to Daylight Savings Time at 2 a.m. next Sunday, April 30.

Don't forget to turn your clocks and watches ahead one hour before retiring next Saturday night!

For the next several months the horrible confusion in time among Indiana cities will be ended — the whole State will be on the same time and for that we are most thankful.

PAT BOONE takes time out from rehearsing his Bulova Spectacular over ABC to set clock ahead for Daylight Saving Time.

Rain, Rain, Go Away, Come Again Some Other Day!

The fellow who wrote the above headline was all wet — and rightly so because it has been raining off and on in the Culver area since last Friday!

Torrential rains and tremendous hailstones were the weather menu on Saturday and Sunday. It was necessary to ford State Road 17 a dozen times Sunday night between Logansport and our fair city. The Yellow River is out of its banks at Plymouth and fields are full of pretty good-sized lakes. Inundated areas are spread clear across the state and flood damage will be heavy.

Mobile X-Ray Unit Will Be In Culver Friday, April 28

Mrs. Richard Hoesel introduced Mrs. Newton White who demonstrated her talent by doing an oil painting before the group. She also answered questions about art. Mrs. Ted Strang, president, presided over the business meeting and Mrs. Hugo Anderson reported on the success of the recent square dance.

Mrs. Campbell told of plans being made for the club outing which will be a trip to Chicago in June to see, "The Musical Gypsy."

Each officer gave a report of her duties throughout the year following which Mrs. Anderson, trustee, presented Mrs. Strang with a lovely past president's pin to signify her year of office. Miss Carol Freeman was welcomed into the club as a new member and Mrs. Roger Thews told of the club being guests of the Argos Junior Civic League on April 12. The thought for the day was given by Mrs. Strang.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Bernard Busart and Mrs. Patrick Hallinan. Mrs. William Snyder and Mrs. Robert McKinnis presided at the beautifully decorated tea table.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Carter spent Sunday in Alvin, Ill. visiting Mr. Carter's brother, Homer Carter.

Introducing: The
New Republican
State Chairman

Attended Both I.U.
And Cornell

THOMAS A. GALLMEYER
G.O.P. State Chairman

Don't expect the traditional easy-going decorum of a law office if you visit the new state chairman of the Republican party in his 17th floor offices in the Lincoln Bank Tower in Fort Wayne.

Chairman Thomas A. Gallmeyer (he is also chairman of the Fourth Congressional District Republican organization and the Allen County Republican Central Committee) will probably be talking long distance to some important business or political person in a far away place.

Meanwhile, his efficient secretary, Mrs. McKnight, may be holding two or more other long distance calls from Washington, Indianapolis, or other cities while she handles local calls and callers with appointments to see her busy boss.

Yet, once inside Tom Gallmeyer's office, his calm and deliberate way effectively separates the conference from the hustle-bustle just outside the private office door.

Only 38 Years Old

The new state chairman is active in his legal practice and business, as well as in politics. That makes him an exciting person to know for his 38 years.

Born Dec. 1, 1922, he was educated in Fort Wayne elementary schools and South Side High School, Fort Wayne.

His college career was interrupted by service in the Infantry while attending Indiana University where he completed three years of his preparation for a law degree.

A Cornell Graduate
After his Army service, he was graduated from Cornell University in 1949 with his degree in law. Perhaps he became accustomed to his life of varied interests at I.U. where he was a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity, the Indiana Union Board, Sphinx Club, Blue Key, Phi Eta Sigma, Skull and Crescent, and other honorary organizations.

Now a Captain in the Infantry, Gallmeyer entered the service as a private in 1943. After his graduation from Officer Candidate School, he was assigned to a Chinese language school, later assigned to duty in the West Indies.

Democrat Father-in-Law!
Upon graduation from Cornell, he established his own office in Fort Wayne. In 1952, Gallmeyer formed a new law firm with Sol Rothberg and Richard Doerner. Later the firm became Rothberg, Gallmeyer, Doerner & Strutz, but when Doerner became president of a local bank, the name was changed to Rothberg, Gallmeyer & Strutz as it remains today. Judge Clarence McNabb, a long-time stalwart of the Democrat party in Fort Wayne and Gallmeyer's father-in-law, maintains offices with the firm.

In spite of mixed emotions regarding the opposed political affiliations of her husband and father, Marjorie, Mrs. Thomas A. Gallmeyer, stands firmly behind her husband in Republican ranks. It has been said that no small part of Gallmeyer's success stems from the loyalty and devotion of his wife who, instead of the sometimes tolerant annoyance with the interruptions, always has a cheerful word for a caller or a friend.

Member Of Lutheran Church
The Gallmeyers have two children, Thomas M., 13, and Ann Elizabeth, 15. The family attends the Fort Wayne Trinity English Lutheran Church.

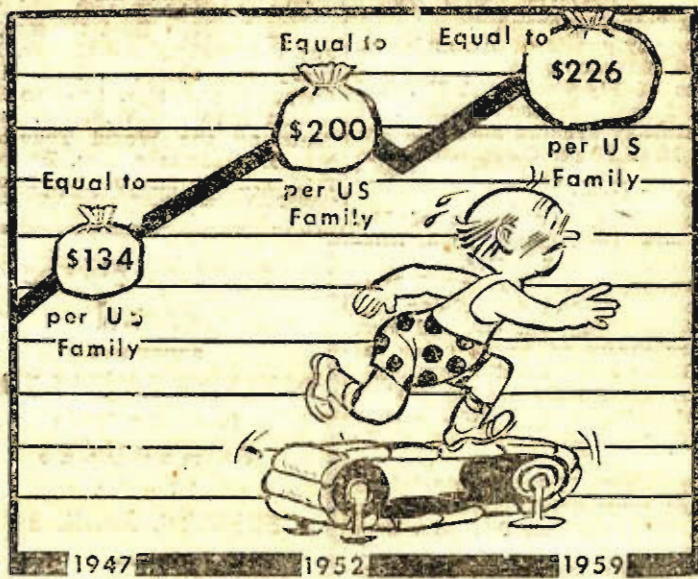

Gallmeyer began his political career by supporting Fourth District Republican Congressman E. Ross Adair for election to his first term in 1950. Later, he became chairman of the Young Republican Club of Allen County. He was moved to Fourth District chairman of the Young Republicans.

In 1954 he was defeated for county chairman of the Allen County Republican Central Committee, but was elected to that post in 1955. He has held the post since that time. A year later, 1956, he was elected to district chairman of the Fourth District Republican Central Committee and has remained in that office also.

You'll Like Him!

If you have the chance to meet Tom Gallmeyer, you'll like him. If you don't, he will bear watching. For his eventful life has so far included the successes politicians like to dream about. A bold executive, an effective administrator, the new Republican state chairman believes in old-fashioned American and Republican principles. But he is not against bold action to "sell" the advantages of those principles to the voters.

FEDERAL PAYROLL PER U.S. FAMILY

Payrolls for civilian employees of the Executive Branch of the Federal government last year reached an estimated $12.3 billion, the equivalent of $226 for each U.S. family, up $92 per family since 1947. Currently, a drive is underway in Congress to provide a Federal workers' salary boost at an estimated cost of about $1 billion.

He has found the unconventional approach to politics — the conventional approach to business — to be dramatically successful. Nevertheless, he believes in bringing in as many persons as possible into a campaign; so, chances are you'll meet him.

North Judson School
To Present Two
Operettas May 5

"Theatre in the Round" will come to North Judson Friday, May 5, when the Choral Department of the High School will present two operettas for the public. The operettas are "The Lowland Sea," a story based in part on the Enoch Arden legend, and the ever-popular "H.M.S. Pinafore" by Gilbert and Sullivan.

"The Lowland Sea" by Sundgaard and Wilder is a rather recent addition to the musical shows produced by high school groups, and is technically an opera, because of the seriousness of the story.

Selected members of the 5-6th grade choirs comprise the cast and chorus of "H.M.S. Pinafore." Both productions are under the direction of Darrell Church, North Judson High School Vocal Director, and will take place in the High School Gym at 8 p.m. CDT on Friday, May 5.

THE TEEPEE

Trackmen Find Weak Events

By Earl Mishler

Culver's opening track meet of the season saw Coach Jim Cox's boys lose a heart-breaker to La-Paz by the margin of a mere one point. The meet was still undecided with only the two relays yet to be run. Culver had to win them both to beat the hosts, but were able to capture only the 880 relay. The previous evening, the scheduled season opener at Knox was cancelled because of inclement weather.

At this early stage of the season, it is obvious where the team's strength and weakness lie. With speedsters such as Larry Davis, Sam Medbourn, and George Baker, Culver is strong in the sprints, middle distance runs, and relays. However, there seems to be a glaring weakness in the field events, notably the pole vault. With the season having just begun, it is hoped that these weaknesses can be corrected. If so, Coach Cox's lads should end the 1960-61 sports activity on a pleasing note.

Sunshine Girls Plan For Senior Breakfast

By Karen Kemple

The Sunshine Society met in the projection room April 19, 1961. Elouise Tanner led the creed and Judy Kimmel led the song. We had a movie from the Indiana State Board of Health entitled "The Innocent Party."

The scrapbook committee met with Susan Muehlhausen, chairman. Committees also met to make plans for the Senior Breakfast, which is to be held on May 17, at 6:45 a.m. The chairmen and their committees are as follows: reservations, Janet Logan; decorations, Kathy Clyne; favors, Cheryl Dillon; food, Sheryl Hohman; program, Lana Berger; and clean-up, Susan Ruhnow.

Bands and Choir To Present Concert

The choir and bands will present a spring convocation on Thursday, May 18 at 11:15 a.m. in the gym. At this time the senior choir awards will be presented. Parents are invited to attend. The senior band is preparing for the commencement exercises. It is the first time the band has played at commencement for a number of years.

How Classes View Election

By Sam Medbourn

FRESHMEN: Is school "To be or not to be, that is the question"; "Give students liberty or give them death"; "Vote for M..." and be saved from this tyrannous rule by a few" (teachers).

These few campaign speech remarks were immediately followed by a tremendous outburst of patriotic chants and applause. However, our rulers (teachers) did not take such speeches to be emphatically sound, for their own precious well-being and security. After the rulers (teachers) made desperate rebellious attempts (sounding the bell for next period class,) the patriots, not by choice, mind you, disembarked and continued on their various ways back to drudgery and confinement, but only to resume their chants for freedom during the next five minute rest period. Yes, CHS's youngest class is really counting on a complete overthrow of the undemocratic rule. In time, of course, they will learn, as did the generations before, present rule (teachers) is an impossible one to overthrow. But Good Luck to you anyway, Freshmen.

SOPHOMORES: The Sophomores, dauntless as they might be, still had left in them a little spirit of freedom, so they helped their Freshmen patriots in any way they could, even though they knew the situation was impossible, and even though their own campaigning had nothing whatsoever to do with the overthrow of the rule they were now obeying.

The Sophomores campaigning was more subtle and relaxed than the Freshmen. Between their fudge sales and helping the Freshmen with their campaign, the Sophomores found little time to do much campaigning themselves. After all, what use is campaigning when the situation is impractical, impossible, impartial, and all the other im's, anyway. So the Sophomores merely nominated and voted with little will to make known their gripes, since campaigning would be such wasted effort, as they all well knew. Well, good-bye, depressed Sophomores. Your efforts were not entirely in vain.

JUNIORS: Ah, carefree, diligent Juniors! Too far gone to care about the efforts of the Sophomores and Freshmen, and so enthusiastic about becoming Seniors next year, that they're in a world of their own. They, the Juniors, are too busy in their plays, suppers, dances, and what-not, to campaign at all. They merely nominate and elect with no dominating campaign issues involved. I guess there isn't much to say about these poor creatures lost in their world of Euphoria. (Good word!)

SENIORS: Now here is a group that need not concern themselves with who gets what in the school election. This is mainly because of the fact that they are too confused to care! What I mean is that after counting several hundred votes, one doesn't realize the value of that vote. Of course, there is another minor item that might lead these mighty Seniors into this care-free state, and that is the realization that the Senior Trip is only two (2) school days away. Then, graduation. But, beware, you high and mighty, this is only the beginning of the end.

Herbie Star Of Track Team

By Anne Behmer, Merrie Kay Stoneburner

Hurri' Herbie Hercules is leading the CHS track team at this point in the season. Up until this time some of our formidable opponents have been Podunk Center, Toto Tech, Zebra Junction, and Judson Corners. Herbie has turned in a tremendous performance at each of these meets, but his teammates, namely Gary Gallop, Leo Little, and Tom Twinkletoes, were too busy watching the girls, oh, I mean spectators, of course, to help CHS in his losing cause. Coach Jim Cocklebur commented after the meet, "No, I'm not disappointed. I like girls too!" (We wonder if Mrs. Cocklebur is aware of this?)

Due to a slight disagreement with the "Man Downstairs" this is Herbie's fifth year at CHS. The underclassmen are sincerely hoping he tries for his sixth.

After track practice and on Saturdays, Herbie may be found riding a tractor as he helps conserve our natural resources.

Herbie is an active member of the Varsity Club and if in school next year, plans to run for president of this popular organization.

We feel Herbie represents CHS well in track and will be on hand when the track team will be in charge of drying out the track field.

The entire student body wants to wish Herbie and the remainder of the team success in the rest of their meets.

So, have track shoes, will run, jump, throw, —oh well, WIN!

Freshmen Girls Visit Aubbee For Play Day

By Beverly Barshes

On Friday, April 14, the Culver high school girls' gym class was invited to Aubbee to attend a play day. We left after school and arrived back in Culver about 8:00 p.m. We played kickball, volleyball, soccer, tumbling, and then toured their school. Afterwards they served us a light supper and then we danced until 7:30. It was a lot of fun and we hope we can have something similar for them before the end of school.

Grade Pupils Keep Busy

By Carolee Easterday

Mrs. Keyser: Having finished our regular reading books and taken our tests, we are now reading in extra books to strengthen our vocabularies. Gary Strang made a perfect score of 105 on the reading test. Jeff Zechiel had a birthday April 16, and Carol Dehne and Roger Smith celebrated theirs on April 17. All three brought treats to school.

Mrs. Barton: Metta Zetty brought cookies for our milk break. Thank you, Metta.

Ginger

By Susan Shel

Ginger is a scalawag
Ginger is a pup
He got into the cellar way
And ate the sausage up
He got into a cubby hole
And carried off a shoe
There's hardly any naughty trick
That Ginger doesn't do.

Mrs. Allen: Mary Ann Easterday was the first person to say her arithmetic combinations of addition and subtraction. We all enjoyed the snow on Monday, and were glad to see everyone at school Tuesday. We visited the town library, and were glad to have Mrs. Scruggs show us the various books. Several of the children brought books home with them.

Miss Page: The following students received perfect scores on their six weeks spelling test: Karen Dehne, Mark Heiser, Angela Liette, Cynthia Marshall, Deborah Martin, Jane Shock, and David Williams.

Mrs. Carter: The following had birthdays during the past week: Bonnie Day, David Hoesel and Margaret Ruhnow. We have learned how to carry in multiplication and are getting a lot of practice in it. We completed our social studies and our science books. Some of the students made posters about "Be Kind to Animals' Week."

Mr. Weaver: Everyone has been getting makeup work done before the end of another six-week period. Yesterday we all wrote poems for our English assignment some of these poems were very good; however, Vicki Helber had one of the better poems. It read as follows:

Arithmetic is hard sometimes
Like counting up ten times, ten times

I like history best of all
They thought the world was not a ball

But, health gets boring, for both terms
'Cause all they talk about is germs.

Senior President Leads Shadow Merry Chase

By Barbara Moore, Carmen Gretter

This week's victim is none other than our famous Senior class president, Lance Overmyer. Upon arriving at school, I found my victim chasing Mike Miller up the stairs. (That's odd, Lance is usually chasing the girls.) Just before chemistry class Lance was imitating a geyser, spitting water at anyone and everyone who crossed his path. The bell rang, and Lance proceeded to study, after a little coaxing from Mr. Kepler. Then, he proceeded to the projection room to see a movie on the refining of oil.

In world history class, during a discussion and study hour, Lance came up with the suggestion that Bobbie Lou marry one of Webster's grandsons to help her with her spelling difficulties. (Leave it up to Lance to think of a solution. It just might work!)

"Well, sonny, what can I do for you?" This sound comes from the Elementary Office where Lance is Mr. Kaiser's helper. He's quite the lady-killer with the younger girls and very much looked up to by the younger boys. (That's only because he behaves when they are around.) After opening the canteen for the sixth grade girls, he and Gary saunter off to the cafeteria. From what I hear from my fellow spy, the rest of his noon hour was censored.

After discussing all his troubles with me he sat down to listen to Mr. Graham and his classmates discuss literary movements. Our victim contributed very little to the discussion except for a few laughs, primarily, because he didn't know what everyone was talking about.

Immediately after fifth period Lance sauntered (a little more rapidly) to the recreation room where upon arriving threw out his arms and announced, "We can start now. I'm here". (A typical presidential remark). His only other remark throughout the period was "Joe Doe has voted." (ha, ha!) If the ballot box was stuffed that period, there could be only one instigator, for Lance filed everyone's vote in the little box. It must have been strenuous work for such a small boy.

Seventh period, Lance was still busily working on the elections. He, Ron, Mike and Willy carried the voting booths back to the janitor's abode, and then ran around the halls to pass the time. (This boy will do anything to get out of a little work.)

Thus ends a typical day for Mr. Senior President, Lance Over-

ALL ABOARD!! All aboard for Akron, Youngstown, Pittsburgh, Washington, D. C., New York, and four days of bliss for CHS's Senior class.

These are the words that the seniors have waited so long and worked so hard to hear, now that the time has come, they can hardly believe it. New York, here we come! ! !

The green look you see in the junior's eyes is not sickness, just envy. When the seniors depart tomorrow they shall become the elite of the high school. Everyone look out!

"I'm so full of ham I feel like the meat counter at Deckard's!"

"You are! 'I'm full of potatoes!"

"Nah, you're full of beans!"

"Seriously, I was pretty stuffed after I'd been through the line and down between the tables a couple of times, begging for a spare dessert and asking for more rolls and all. That was the sharpest ham supper since the one they had last year. Of course, nobody will ever create such delectable delicacies as they had last year."

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

Quite a few years ago the economist Stuart Chase wrote "The problem of communism is production; the problem of capitalism is distribution."

And in the ensuing years it is becoming quite apparent that the cost of distribution can be every bit as stultifying to an economy as high costs of production.

There seems no question that the science of production has for outstripped the C. W. Harder advances made in the science of distribution. Yet if an advance in distribution is made, an artificial burden is placed on it.

The most recent example of this was the trucking contract negotiated in the midwest by Jimmy Hoffa for the teamsters. This provides that every time a truck trailer is loaded on a flat car for hauling, $5 must be paid into union welfare fund.

Obviously, the "piggy-back" idea was developed to cut the costs of moving goods from one place to another. Moving merchandise by rail freight car in the old classic manner had many drawbacks. First of all, it usually meant loading a truck at a plant or warehouse and then at the rail freight yards unloading the truck and loading a box car.

Trucks, because they could load at one city, and directly unload at the door of the consignee in another city, overcame this problem of cost. On the other hand, on long hauls, a diesel truck will burn more fuel, run into more costs per ten mile, than a diesel locomotive hauling a long string of freight cars. Thus, was combined the best features of each system. Truck tractors haul the loaded trailer onto freight cars. On arrival, truck tractors hook onto the trailers and take them directly to the customer's door.

This was an advance in providing lower cost distribution. But now the Hoffa gang has wiped out a fair share of the progress that had been made.

Eventually, there will be a day of reckoning. For example, in heavily unionized markets today, the bread truck driver who delivers to the stores gets around $100 per week if his route averages $400 per week in sales. On sales over that there is a percentage paid the driver. This means, then, that the delivery costs to the store of bread is well over 25% of the price consumer pays for it.

Today, the major wholesale bakeries are working on new methods to cut costs.

However they will be of little avail if labor can continue to block their usage.

Nation's independent businessmen, voting through National Federation of Independent Business, have long asked that labor unions be made subject to the anti-trust laws.

There is a problem herein that legislators cannot ignore for too much longer. For it is the law that it is illegal for anyone to conspire to artificially hold up prices. But is it not just as conspiratorial when labor leaders power into being artificial devices which prevent the public from benefiting from new and more economical methods of distribution?

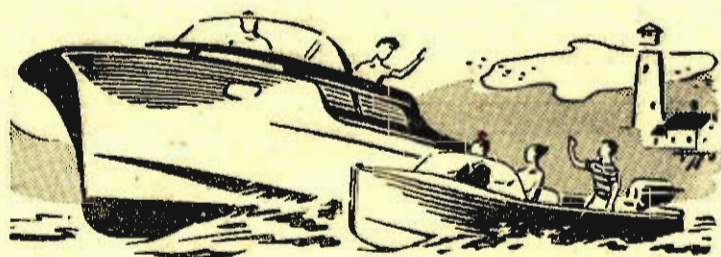

Mrs. Jane Scruggs, Librarian, tells us that the new flags, given by the Culver Chamber of Commerce, are now on display all the time inside the Library.

BEGINNING in 1965, marriage in the country will total approximately 2.5 million per year each marriage representing about $15,000 in "getting settled" purchases.

New Republican State Chairman Is A Whiz!

Gallmeyer Has Plenty On Ball

Promising an aggressive campaign to restore the political initiative to the Republican party in Indiana, Thomas A. Gallmeyer, newly-elected Republican State Chairman, said April 22 in Indianapolis, following his election:

"Republicans now have the balance of power in Indiana State Government and in the counties of the state, but we want to put new life into our party. We will discard the stereotyped methods of campaigning. We intend to recapture the Governor's post and to elect Republican Congressmen next year."

Fort Wayne Attorney

The Fort Wayne attorney, chairman of Allen County and the Fourth District, said he will begin immediately to attack the pressing financial problems of the state committee.

He said he will, "carry the finance campaign out into every county in the state on a permanent basis. We will show the people of Indiana they cannot afford to ignore the needs of Republicans — that it is cheaper to support the Republican party than to pay the additional taxes imposed by Democrats who increase taxes through more and bigger government. Politics is a year-around business and financing is just as necessary in politics as in business. When the people of Indiana are properly 'sold' on Republican purposes, we will have no difficulty in getting the money needed to carry on the battle for their rights."

A "Modernized" Program

Gallmeyer said he expected no immediate changes in the operation of the state committee, but that his modernized program will be assimilated gradually into existing plans. "This does not mean there will be any delay," he said. "We will not, however, make any sweeping changes."

"In business," he continued, "we try to do as much as possible with as few persons as possible. In politics, we want to have as many Republicans as possible, both professional and non-professional politicians."

Credited With "Landslide"

The new state chairman has spent many successful years in politically-astute Northeastern Indiana Republican politics. Only last fall, his Allen County organization turned in a "landslide" victory, soundly placing in office every one of the Republican county candidates, when a sure defeat was predicted for many.

His Fourth Congressional District organization increased the lead of incumbent Republican Congressman E. Ross Adair, by almost 9 per cent of the vote — again to "landslide" proportions. His record in Allen County is declared to be, statistically as well as politically, the most outstanding in the state during the last election, according to most political observers.

An Aggressive Organizer

Gallmeyer is an aggressive politician and organizer, known for his ability to delegate authority to his lieutenants and workers. His hardhitting penetrating, and successful methods are expected to revitalize the Republican party in the state as they did in his home territory. His "staying power" is unquestioned in Allen County where, during several previous Republican defeats at the polls, his intra-party opponents tried unsuccessfully to unseat him constantly.

Salutes Precinct Workers

"We will build our organization from the precinct level up," Gallmeyer said. "Perhaps never before has a precinct worker been as important as he will be in the coming months. We are starting a 'crash program' to strengthen our already fine, hard-working and well-organized State Republican party workers. We will reach out into every segment of our society to bring in those people who believe in, and will work for Republican party principles, but who have never had the opportunity."

Gallmeyer said an announcement will be made soon detailing his new program.

Academy Sports

Culver Military Academy's crew, the last of five spring athletic teams to open the 1961 season, will face its first test here at 2 p.m. Saturday against Weber High School of Chicago.

The Academy crew is under a new coach, L. E. BeBout, director of purchases and a former Culver oarsman. The Eagles will row at Purdue May 6 and at Chicago May 13 in the Central States Schoolboy Regatta. There are home dates with Michigan State on May 19 and Ecorse Boat Club of Detroit on May 27.

Five Teams In Action

This Saturday will mark the first day of the spring season in which all five teams will be in action. St. John's Military Academy will provide opposition for the Academy baseball and tennis squads, the golf team is at South Bend for a match with the Notre Dame frosh, and the track team is running in the Delphi Relays.

Golfers Open Season

Coach Ervin Nelson's Golfers opened their season last Saturday with a 14½-½ sweep of thrice-beaten Delphi. Jeff Steinberg turned in medalist score of 79, made more impressive by the fact that the course was extremely wet.

In tennis, the Academy dropped its second match in three starts to Logansport, 4-3. Culver winners include Lamar Gable, Bill Gainer, and the doubles combination of Gainer and Paul Setzler.

One Reason Why So Many People Are Rich

Insurance Is Important

By ROGER W. BABSON
No. 1 U. S. Economist
BABSON PARK, MASS. —
First a word regarding the purchase of life insurance. This should be a MUST for every young person. It should be FIRST in one's financial program before thinking of real estate, stocks or bonds.
Personally, I prefer the simple "twenty-payment life" without any endowment or other fringes. Get this first.

After you are married you can get life insurance to pay the mortgage on your house or to put your children through college, or to travel all over the U. S. or abroad.

An endowment policy may be a good way to save money for one who has no patience or self-control, but I would rather invest some other way.

I also believe in business insurance and "estate planning," in which my friend, G. F. McMillan of Memphis, Tenn., has specialized.

This is a newer form which applies chiefly to those in active business whose estates would be severely taxed at time of death. It also shows how by use of trusts, gifts to members of one's family, and to charities, such taxes can be greatly reduced.

But this week I want to write about buying the stocks of life insurance companies.

These usually do not yield much income. Their cash dividends are very small and they sell at high prices. The reason is that a growing life insurance company must continually "plow back" more money for the required legal reserve.

You know that life insurance companies are carefully audited by the Government, which is another reason for buying them.

Handsome Stock Dividends
To offset the small cash dividends the companies pay generous stock dividends. Some pay such stock dividends every year; while other companies give a large 50 per cent or more dividend every five years.

These stock dividends are non-taxable until you sell the stock received therefrom.

As a rule, life insurance stocks are bought only by rich people, but in many cases this is one reason these people are rich! My appeal this week is that small investors buy good life insurance stocks now, although most bankers and brokers will always claim that such stocks are "too high!"
275,000 Doctors

One of the planks in President Kennedy's platform was to help the aged by free medical care and in other ways. The American Dental Association, composed of some 175,000 doctors and dentists are fighting this program.

Heretofore, most of the life companies have refused to insure people over 65 years of age.

But if they may insure persons 75 years of age or perhaps older, not only do the "olders" favor this legislation, but also the children of the aged who are thus relieved of providing proper medical and dental care for their parents.

Hence, I forecast that President Kennedy will succeed in getting this legislation passed.

Medical Plans Compared
The Eisenhower Plan was to provide Federal funds to match State funds for medical aid. The AMA and ADA were willing to approve this, apparently on the assumption that most states would be niggardly in their appropriations.

The Kennedy Plan is to have the movement purely a Federal affair, tying it to the Social Security program. It would probably mean a quarter of 1% boost in the Social Security Tax, to be paid as now — jointly by employer and employee.

Either of these two plans should be most beneficial to the life insurance companies, which are interested in one thing, namely increasing the health and length of life of the American people.

Wherever the money may come from, every doctor and dentist, every drug manufacturer and druggist — and all devoted children — are interested in helping older people and their friends.

In fact, there is no group of companies except the life insurance companies which have so many people working for them!

Storm and Fallout Shelters Available At Shirar Brothers

Shirar Brothers of Plymouth, whose advertising has appeared regularly in The Citizen for many years, have enlarged their business to include patio blocks, stepping stones, and storm and fallout shelters.

Shirar Brothers, who are manufacturers of concrete burial vaults, septic tanks and grease traps, and jobbers of steel vaults, now make a concrete storm and fallout shelter.

This shelter can be put in the yard where it would be easy to get to and also be used as a utility for lawn and garden tools. In new construction it can be built in the basement wall or in the basement and used as a combination shelter and well pit.

National Home Demonstration Week To Be Observed

A county-wide "May Coffee" will be held to observe National Home Demonstration Week on Thursday, May 4, at the Plymouth Church of the Brethren. Coffee will be served at 9:30 a.m.

This meeting is sponsored by the Marshall County Home Demonstration Association. Mrs. Dyon Thomas, Bourbon, is chairman of the week's activities. Other members of the committee are: Mrs. Carlyle Grimm, Bourbon, Mrs. Raymond Lowry, Culver, and Mrs. Lloyd Leland, Argos.

Clubs which will assist in presenting the coffee are Bourbon Homemakers, Bremen Friendly Hour, Bremen Happy Hour, Culver Union Township, Friendly Circle, Friendly Neighbors, Friendly "30," Green Township, Happy Homemakers, and Home and Hobby.

The public is cordially invited to attend this meeting.

SUMMER RESIDENTS RETURN TO INDIANAPOLIS HOME

[From the society columns of yesterday's Indianapolis Star]

After spending the past year and one-half in Hawaii, Miss Sue Krafft has returned to her home, 403 Westwood Drive, Williams Creek. She joined her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Krafft in Miami, Fla., the middle of March. The family returned to Indianapolis last week.

SECRETARY OF THE ARMY
WASHINGTON

Dear Chet:

It certainly was thoughtful of you to send your congratulations and good wishes on my appointment as Secretary of the Army. Your kind words give me the courage to tackle the job which lies ahead. I am deeply sensitive of the seriousness of the responsibility which has been placed in me. I will simply do my level best as any American would.

My thanks for the copy of Indiana Business and Industry. Let me put the shoe on the other foot and congratulate you on the work you're doing, for the publication bears all the earmarks of the best kind of business and industrial journalism.

My best wishes to you,

THE PUBLISHER OF THE CULVER CITIZEN, who is also publisher of the Culver-based monthly magazine, Business and Industry, naturally is proud of the above letter from a member of the new Kennedy Cabinet. By 1936, Chester W. Cleveland served as chairman of the Balfour National Award Committee, which had the possibility of choosing the most outstanding undergraduate member of the Sigma Chi college fraternity from the more than 100 chapters in the U. S. and Canada. ELVIS J. STAHR JR. of the University of Kentucky won country mile! We predict that this 44-year-old Phi Beta Kappa, Rhodes Scholar and recent president of West Virginia University, will develop into one of the biggest assets of the Kennedy Administration.

National Farm Safety Week Set For July 23-29

By proclamation of President Kennedy, July 23-29 has been designated 18th annual National Farm Safety Week.

Co-sponsored by the National Safety Council and the U. S. Department of Agriculture, this year's event will have as its theme, "Safety Is a Family Affair."

Farm safety programs of the National Safety Council — during the week and throughout the year — will especially emphasize rural highway and farm machinery safety, two critical areas of farm accident prevention.

"Accidents claimed the lives of 11,700 farm residents in 1959," said Howard Pyle, NSC president, "a tremendous waste of lives."

"Every farm accident is both a personal tragedy and a blow to the economy of our nation."

"It is imperative we take every possible step to reduce the terrible toll of accidental death on the farm. Accident prevention does work," he said. "Farm people can help prove it."

THIS TAKES THE PRIZE!

[From Lowell Nussbaum's popular Indianapolis Star column]

GREENFIELD post office employees found some bugs in a new postal plan designed to speed up mail delivery.

One of the outstanding flaws in the schedule set up by the Post Office Department, according to The Hancock Journal, occurred in Hancock County.

Letters mailed at Wilkinson for delivery in Shirley, less than a mile away, went by truck to Indianapolis, then to Anderson, from there to New Castle, and finally by star route to Shirley.

Quoth The Journal straight-faced: "Steps are being taken to correct faulty schedules."

A HANDY MAIL SLOT in The Citizen's front office door welcomes your news items for next week's paper 24 hours a day.

Man's God-given freedom from sin and temptation will be explained at Christian Science services this Sunday.

Keynoting the Lesson-Sermon on the subject "Everlasting Punishment" is the Golden Text from Ezekiel (18): "Repent, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin."

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be read (p. 315): "The likeness of God we lose sight of through sin, which beclouds the spiritual sense of Truth; and we realize this likeness only when we subdue sin and prove man's heritage, the liberty of the sons of God."

A selection to be read from the Bible states: "For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure. Do all things without murmurings and disputings: That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world" (Philippians 2).

Spring Titles From The Culver Public Library

"Home Garden Book of Herbs And Spices" by Milo Miloradovich. Are you an herb lover? If so, why not grow your own herbs and spices. This book provides complete information on their cultivation, whether you want to plant a large or small garden, or merely to grow a few varieties in flower pots. Descriptions are given of all of the herbs and spices in general use in this country. Their botanical names and characteristics are given as well as their histories with attendant superstitions and legends, their uses in basic foods, and how each is cultivated and harvested. In addition to their uses as seasonings, Miss Miloradovich gives directions for preparing lotions, sweet scents, sachets, and fragrant moth preventatives.

"Carefree Gardening" by Jean Hersey. A lovely garden, with a minimum of time and toil can be yours. Author Jean Hersey has evolved a whole new approach to gardening — an easier way of doing practically everything related to gardening and outdoor living. Her plan, which is based on naturalizing the flowers and deep mulching the vegetables, results in reasonably effortless, carefree gardening that anyone can do.

Inquires of Babbitt.

Babbitt is breathing hard and perspiring profusely. The last mile into Dull was uphill, pooping pedaling.

"I heard 'Killer' Roy is in town," says Babbitt in a raspy, irritable voice — meanwhile pulling up the holster belt which was dropped to his ankles.

"THAT'S RIGHT," the deputy answers. "He's in the Hound Dog Cafe — playing a crooked game of Chinese checkers. We're going after him as soon as the marshal gets back."

"Well, there's a big price on his head and I aim to get him first," Babbitt booms. "Need the money — my faithful Indian companion, Pronto, has gone on a hunger strike. Wants more medicine water and a paid annual vacation. Durrdest thing you ever seen. Just sits there and blows smoke rings at me with his pipe. Got to get money. Can't let him die until I find out what Kemosabe means."

WITH THAT, Babbitt exits. Outside, he steps to pat his bicycle, squares his shoulders and makes for the Hound Dog.

There, we find the dirty villain, "Killer" Roy. A handsome youth with a crew cut, pleasant grin, and pleasing voice, he's plunking on a guitar and singing softly: "Hang down your head, Babbitt. Fisbee . . ." Between verses, he sips sassafras tea.

BABBITT waddles to the bar, orders a fifth of whiskey, gurgles it down in one motion.

Now blind drunk, our hero clumsily levels his elephant gun and blasts daylight through six old ladies who are playing pinochle at a corner table.

"KILLER" sees that Babbitt's line of sight now is directed toward a sweet young blonde who just entered the swinging doors in search of her wayward father.

With one clean shot, "Killer" finishes Babbitt, and — hand in hand with the blonde — departs seconds before the marshal and six U.S. Cavalry battalions rush in, direct from an appearance on the Ed Sullivan Show.

THAT'S ABOUT IT . . . all except for the dramatic tag line Babbitt bubbles with his dying breath.

Marshal: "What happened?"

Babbitt: "Killer Roy was here."

MRS. CHARLES OVERMYER GREATLY IMPROVED

Mrs. Charles (Emma) Overmyer, who broke her hip in a fall several months ago, was taken to a South Bend hospital last week for x-rays. Reports show that Mrs. Overmyer's hip is healing nicely and she is now allowed to do some walking.

Mrs. Overmyer, who makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. William Stokes, at 801 West Jefferson, Mishawaka, was a lifetime resident of Culver, living just north of town on Road 17, until she took up residence in Mishawaka following the death of her husband in 1958. She would greatly appreciate hearing from all of her Culver friends and neighbors.

You can place a Card of Thanks in The Citizen for only $1.25.
