Babson Discusses The Higher Cost Of Living

Cost Of Living Rises 1% Per Year

Babson Park, Mass. — A few years ago I used to hear people grumbling about the high cost of living wherever I went. The other day it occurred to me that I had not heard much complaining along these lines for quite a while. I wondered whether consumers had simply become used to ever-climbing retail costs or whether the long-term climb had stopped without my realizing it.

What The Figures Show
Scouting about in my business library, I soon found some figures that I would like to pass along to you, because I believe you will be surprised at what they tell us about the present economic condition of the average American family. Living costs have, of course, been on the rise, long term, ever since the pit of the terrible depression of the early 1930's. On several occasions, especially after World War II, the advances were spectacular, and were keenly felt by all consumers.

But here is something that I do not see commonly stressed in the papers and magazines: Over the past five years, the consumer price index has moved ahead on average only 1% a year. While this does represent some pressure on the upside, it shows remarkable stability when you consider that since 1939 the cost of living as measured by the Labor Department has skyrocketed 119%. So it is not surprising that the average consumer has not suffered seriously from the 1% annual boost of the past five years. Gains have simply not been big enough to cause grumbling.

Prices Versus Incomes
Beyond that, too, incomes have been swelling at a far more rapid rate than have retail prices of goods and services. Tracing the figures back to 1947, about half way between the end of World War II and the beginning of the Korean War, they show that the cost of living has moved up 30% since that time. But take a look at U.S. incomes for the same span: They have climbed 127%. Even the rather abrupt jump in consumer prices from 1957 to 1959 of 5.4% looks pale beside the uprush of 24% in personal income for the same two-year spell.

There is no question but that American consumers are better off right now than they were even five years ago. They have the actual money to buy more than they ever have been able to before in our nation's history. And I would like to point out, also, that the quality of goods obtainable is, on the whole, better than ever. This applies not only to our own goods, but even to those being imported so heavily from foreign lands. This is a reflection of the improved industrial standards emerging in Western Europe, South America, Japan, etc. And, of course, many products from overseas are available to our consumers at prices considerably below those of our native goods, — a boon for the buyer.

How About Pensioned Workers?

When the cost of living climbs, nobody suffers more than those with a fixed income, such as those living on pensions, social security, or investments with a set interest. After the end of World War II and after the Korean War the swift uprush of living costs hurt such people badly. Over the past five years, while the pinch became very faintly tighter, it did not intrude so bitterly upon disposable income of those with fixed spending power as it had in previous years.

I am often asked whether the upsurge of retail prices and wage rates that has persisted since the early 1930's will continue indefinitely. At present there does not seem to be any reason to expect a reversal of this long-term wage-price inflation. But there are many factors which will be likely to hold it within reasonable check, at least for a considerable length of time.

Competition Has Its Value
Perhaps the most powerful checkrein on the consumer price index over the past five years has been competition, both domestic and foreign. Rivalry will become only the more intense over the period ahead, and it will be virtually impossible for manufacturers or service vendors to hike prices substantially without losing their competitive position in both domestic and overseas markets. More likely, savings will be sought via wider technological improvements and automation. This will tend to hold at a minimum further wage-price increases.

HI HO COME TO THE FAIR

HI HO COME TO THE 1963 INDIANA STATE FAIR! . . . says Nyrene Riggs of Willow Branch and her 4-H pig. Dates of the Fair are August 24 through September 4.

1963-64 Indiana Highway Maps At Citizen Office

The Culver Citizen has just received a small shipment of official 1963-64 Indiana State Highway Maps, issued by the Indiana State Highway Commission. They are for the asking by dropping into The Citizen office. One to a family, please, as this will possibly be the only shipment we will receive.

The new map shows the open portions of all Inter-state highways, those under construction and proposed routings in Indiana. Also contained in the map are mileage charts, detailed routings of highways through principal cities in Indiana, State Park and Forest information, index for locating towns on the map, scenes of Indiana in four-color printing, State Police posts and speed limits in Indiana.

Friday Services Held For Mother Of James McCombs

Mrs. James (Eva T.) McCombs, 78, mother of James E. McCombs, 317 W. Washington St., local manager of Culver's Park 'N Shop Supermarket, died at 2:30 a.m. Wednesday, Aug. 21, at her home at 58327 State Road 23, Granger, Ind., after an illness of several months.

Mrs. McCombs was born Feb. 11, 1886, in Pennsylvania and was married Aug. 9, 1920, at Jefferson, Ohio, to James W. McCombs who survives. She moved from Teegarden in 1955 to Granger.

Surviving with the husband and son, James, are four grandchildren; Mrs. Ellen Poppe, College Ave., Culver, a foster daughter; two brothers, Clarence Titus, Geneva, Ohio, and Blain Titus, Warren, Ohio; a sister, Mrs. Mabel L. Halt of Ashtabula, Ohio; and a niece, Mrs. Gerald Jeppe, Geneva, Ohio.

Services were held at 3:30 p.m. Friday, Aug. 23, at the Orvis Funeral Home in South Bend with the Rev. Claude Stogsdill, pastor of the First Brethren Church at Teegarden, officiating. Interment was made in the Chapel Hill Memorial Gardens at Osceola.

Culver Community Schools Will Open Sept. 3

The Culver Community Schools will open on Tuesday, Sept. 3, for the 1963-1964 school term. Teaching staffs at Aubbeenaubee and Culver Schools will meet with their principals on Tuesday morning. Busses will start the pick-up of pupils at approximately 12:15 p.m. in order to get the pupils to the schools at 1:00 p.m. for completion of registration and organization. Regular classes will start at the usual time on Wednesday morning, Sept. 4.

School officials have completed the teaching staffs except for one fifth grade assignment at Culver. Because of the fact that this grade will have a considerably larger enrollment than any other class at Culver, it is desirable that an additional teacher be secured for this grade. It is hoped that a qualified candidate can be employed before the end of this week so that every position will be filled for the opening of the term.

Though a rather extensive revision has been made in bus routes in North Bend Township, the routes in Aubbeenaubee and Union Township will remain much the same as last year unless adjustments are needed to equalize the loads. Change of residence on some routes may lead to an over-load for some busses, thus making slight revisions necessary after the start of the term.

Post Office To Close Labor Day, Monday, Sept. 2

Culver postmaster, E. Wayne Mattox, has announced the following schedule pertaining to postal service on the forthcoming Labor Day holiday, Monday, Sept. 2: There will be no delivery service and the window service will not be available on Labor Day. However, the Post Office Lobby will be open from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. for those wishing to purchase stamps via the vending machines, etc.

Victoria Jean Lutz And Elmer R. Wagner Speak Wedding Vows

The Culver Emmanuel Evangelical United Brethren Church provided the setting for the 8 o'clock evening ceremony on Saturday, Aug. 24, which united in marriage Miss Victoria Jean Lutz, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis E. Licht, 115 West Marmont Street, Culver, to Elmer R. Wagner, son of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Wagner, Route 2, Culver.

Rev. Walter S. Chisholm, pastor of the church, officiated at the double-ring ceremony performed before the altar graced with candles, white gladioli, and greenery.

Miss Carol Overmyer, soloist, accompanied at the organ by Paul White, sang "Whither Thou Goest," "Always," and "The Lord's Prayer" as the couple knelt at the altar.

Escorted on the arm of her uncle down the white-carpeted aisle between pews marked with white satin bows, the bride was lovely in her floor-length bridal gown of Alencon lace fashioned with a skirt of white lace tiers which formed a chapel train. The bodice featured a square neckline edged with brilliants and seed pearls. The long lace sleeves formed bridal points over her wrists. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell gracefully from a crown headpiece of pearls and her bridal bouquet was a colonial arrangement of blue and white carnations with streamers.

Miss Jane Baker served as maid of honor. Miss Jan and Miss Ann Wagoner, twin cousins of the bride, and Miss Rita Faye Lutz, sister of the bride, were bridesmaids. The attendants were gowned in identical peacock blue dresses fashioned with bell-shaped skirts and rounded necklines. They wore matching accessories. Flower headpieces held their nosetip circular veils and they carried blue and white pompons.

Terry Thompson of Plymouth was best man. Groomsmen and ushers were Glen Wagner, brother of the bridegroom, Richard Schoolman of South Bend, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and William Richard Lutz, brother of the bride.

Mrs. Licht, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Wagner, mother of the bridegroom, chose blue street-length dresses and white accessories. They wore white carnation corsages.

The bride's colors of blue and white carried out the color theme used for the decorations of the church social rooms where the 300 guests were greeted at the reception held immediately following the ceremony. The serving table was attractively appointed and centered with a four-tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom and presided over by Mrs. Robert Weaver and Mrs. Paul Hartle, both of Culver, and Mrs. Richard Schoolman of South Bend. Miss Janice Vander Meade was in charge of the guest book.

For their honeymoon to Niagara Falls, the new Mrs. Wagner selected an aqua blue street-length dress, complemented with white accessories. Upon their return after Sept. 1, the newlyweds will reside in Knox where the bridegroom is employed.

Out of town guests here for the nuptials were from South Bend, Indianapolis, Knox, Washington, and Shoals, Ind.

The bridegroom is a 1960 graduate of Knox High School and the bride graduated from Culver

High School in the class of 1963.

Miss Maryann Rees Becomes Bride Of Walter Winenger Jr.

Miss Maryann Rees became the bride of Walter E. Winenger Jr. at 1 p.m. on Saturday, Aug. 21, in the Grace Baptist Church at South Bend with Rev. Dale Mead officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rees, 119 W. Willow Dr., South Bend, are the parents of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Winenger, 52370 Prescott St., South Bend, are the bridegroom's parents. Mrs. Rees is the former Mary Reed of Culver.

Mrs. James Rogacki, vocalist, and Mrs. Robert Dicks, organist, provided the nuptial music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a gown of silk taffeta styled with a fitted bodice, long sleeves, and a wide round neckline with appliques of lace encrusted with sequins and seed pearls. The skirt, which flowed into a chapel train, featured a panel front draped at the sides. Her Edwardian lace cap held a fingertip veil of illusion and she carried a cascade bouquet of feathered white carnations and white sweetheart roses with ivy.

Miss Barbara Krill was maid of honor and wore a dress of blue satin styled with a sleeveless bodice topped with an Empire jacket with short sleeves and a scoop neckline. A self bow accented the front and unpressed pleats formed the bell-shaped street-length skirt.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Douglas Walker of Hammond and Miss Jackie Tuttle of Walkerton, cousins of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Max Bergl of South Bend. They wore dresses similar to that of the maid of honor in lighter shades of blue. Each wore a petal daisy netting cap which held a blusher veil and they carried colonial bouquets of white pompons, pink carnations and sweetheart roses.

Brenda Brown was flower girl and wore a blue dress of polished cotton with a lace bolero. She carried a bouquet like those of the adult attendants.

Richard Tuttle of Walkerton, uncle of the bridegroom, served as best man. Ushers were James Tuttle of Hammond, James Winenger of Tippecanoe, both cousins of the bridegroom, and David Lloyd, Larry Brown was ring bearer.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Rees chose a dress of delphinium blue silk linen with a short fitted jacket and pink accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a beige linen sheath dress with beige and brown accessories. Both mothers wore shoulder corsages of pink carnations.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the church social rooms. After Sept. 5 the young couple will be at home in Norfolk, Va., where the bridegroom is serving in the Navy aboard the U.S. Alstede. Both are graduates of Washington-Clay High School.

"Water fun carnival" was the theme for the Aug. 26 meeting which was held at the Woodcraft pier. An "air mattress" race was the opening game, the Beaver Patrol was first and the Wolf Patrol was second.

"Lifeline relay" was then played. Each person had to throw the rope to a "drowning" person. Wolf Patrol won the honors with the Beavers second.

In the "bucking broncos" contest, the patrols tried to push other members off air mattresses. The Wolves and Panthers tied for first.

A free-style relay race was held with the Flaming Arrows winning and the Wolves placing second.

For the final game a "watermelon scramble" was conducted. A watermelon was placed in the center of the swimming area and patrols tried to get it to their corners. The Beaver Patrol won. We returned to the church after feasting on watermelon.

Wednesday, Aug. 28 will be the last chance to pass the 150-yard swim test for the Troop canoe trip. Meet at the Woodcraft beach at 7 p.m.

There will be no meeting next week due to the holiday.

A Green-Bar meeting will be held next Tuesday, Sept. 3 at the church at 7 p.m. We will plan the canoe trip. All canoe trip money must be turned in by this meeting to your patrol leader or the Scoutmaster.

A canoe trip down the Tippecanoe River will be held Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 7 and 8.

Winners of the Smorgasbord ticket sales contest were: 1st - John Cook, will receive a tent; 2nd - Jeff Adams, cook kit and canteen; 3rd - Terry Powers, Scout pocket knife.

Jim didn't catch any fish today. Now, on the way home, he can't help casting an envious eye at Tim's haul. It isn't that he begrudges Tim his fish. It's just that, in his heart, he can't help wish that he had been the lucky one.

This is natural, and Jim is young. He's just beginning to learn that you can't always be a winner, but he still finds losing pretty hard to take in stride.

Fortunately, Jim is being given the advantage of Christian training in church during this all-important period in a boy's life when a sense of values is being formed. He is learning lessons which only the Church can give him.

True, Jim is envying a very small item — a string of fish. But envy and greed come to all of us on a larger scale many times throughout life. To meet this challenge squarely, it takes years of self-discipline. That is why religious training can never begin too early.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL • ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4)
For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

"The bonds of matrimony cannot be classed as redeemable securities." — George B. Bowra, Aztec (N.M.) Independent Re-

By PEG CLYNE

This summer has proven that the MYC members are a hardy lot. They have sailed in the coldest, wettest and windiest weather imaginable. Afterwards, they have donned sweaters, slickers and coats in order to enjoy the friendly atmosphere of the social events.

Last Saturday, the weather and the members stayed true to form. Wearing all sorts of wraps, a goodly crowd braved the mist and gathered on the golf course for the last cocktail party of the year. Commodore and Mrs. Norman Bateson were the genial hosts, assisted by the members of the entertainment committee. The main table was centered with an enormous aqua lined ceramic seashell, created by Lydia Bateson, filled with water lilies.

Mrs. Tad Lauderback, Mrs. Richard Gunder, Mrs. Jerome Zechiel and Mrs. Bateson made attractive sailing scenes, including orange-flagged buoys, for centerpieces at the dinner held in The Culver Inn dining room.

Commodore Bateson was Master of Ceremonies and he paid special tribute to Mrs. Walker Winslow who has completed a very interesting history of the Yacht Club. Bob Hollowell presented the trophies and it seemed that Stevie Speer and Jerome Zechiel made quite a few trips to receive the treasured awards. There was a sticky moment when a decision had to be made — how could Bob Hollowell present the Regatta trophy to himself? So Jerome Zechiel, who was the runner-up took care of that situation. Julianne Argentine, Ken Bateson's fiancée, very appropriately accepted the trophies for the Moonlight races.

Everyone was glad to hear the announcement that the Indianapolis Sailing Club will be here for a regatta on Sept. 7 and 8. Also, Cedar Lake has invited our skippers for races on Sept. 21 and 22.

1963 was a good year. There were six Sailfish, 24 "C's" and three "E's" in the fleet; the Saturday regatta was inaugurated; and one of our own skippers Tom Heckel, won our Invitational Regatta for the first time! Anchors aweigh and see you next summer!

PRODUCTIVE HOOSIERLAND

Indiana is first in the nation in the production of popcorn — 61,187,000 pounds. It is in second position in tomato processing with 275,370 tons, and comes in third in production of corn, soybean, meat, hay and pork. Practically 100 per cent of this tremendous farm yield is shipped to market by truck, says the Indiana Motor Truck Association.

WALTER GOLLECK'S HOLE-IN-ONE ENTERED IN SWEEPSTAKES

A hole-in-one scored by Walter Gollnick recently, may earn him a trip to Scotland for two and $1,000. By registering his memorable ace at the Culver Military Academy Golf Course, Mr. Gollnick, was entered in the Old Smuggler Hole-In-One Sweepstakes. The winner will be announced at the end of the year.

Mr. Gollnick is an instructor in the Math Department at The Culver Military Academy.

Watch out for school children especially if they're driving.

BABY SITTER

1/2¢ AN HOUR

"Cut 'em off at the gulch, Tex!" These can be the most welcome words in the world to a weary mother. For one solid hour, her "cowboy" will be a silent witness to a late afternoon TV saga of the old west. The cost? About 1/2¢ per hour for electricity!

Television is just one of more than 100 modern electric appliances available for your comfort, convenience and enjoyment. Today's average family is using four times as much electricity . . . and at a lower price per kilowatt hour . . . than it did 20 years ago.
