W. G. Roberts Leaves $180,654 Estate To CMA

A bequest of $180,654 has been made to Culver Military Academy from the estate of Walter G. Roberts, a Culver graduate and a member of the faculty from 1936 until his death April 9.

Roberts, assistant dean, left virtually all of his estate to Culver in his will. This included cash, securities, and personal property valued at $155,654 and his home adjacent to the campus valued at $25,000.

The $155,654, plus $6,249 received in 21 gifts in memory of Dean Roberts from alumni, parents, and student organizations, will be placed in an endowed Walter G. Roberts Memorial Scholarship Fund, it was announced by Academy Superintendent Major General Delmar T. Spivey.

The house left to the Academy is being utilized for faculty housing.

The first recipients of the Roberts Memorial Scholarship will be selected this summer for entrance at Culver in September, according to General Spivey. It is anticipated income from the fund will permit a total of four Roberts Scholars to be enrolled each school year when the program is fully implemented, General Spivey said.

The Roberts bequest will permit further improvement in a scholarship program that is among the largest in independent secondary school education. In the last academic year 188 of the 888 Culver students in attendance received scholarship aid totaling $238,952. Income from this program is derived from Academy endowed funds and from gifts of alumni, parents, and friends.

"Dean Roberts dedicated his life to Culver and the boys it serves," General Spivey said. "During his lifetime, he worked long hours to instruct and counsel students. He also made many gifts — all anonymously — for scholarships and for the purchase of equipment for which funds were not available. It is typical of this great teacher and counselor that he would provide for Culver and its students after his death."

Dean Roberts was graduated from Culver in 1932 and from Yale University in 1936. He did graduate work at Harvard and Indiana universities and Middlebury College. In addition to his duties as an assistant dean, he taught English, was a crew coach, and was chairman of the library committee. Dean Roberts, 51, died April 9 following a heart attack.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

July 22, 1966
St. Brieuc, France

Editor, THE CITIZEN:

After leaving Kennedy airport in New York June 11, I arrived here in France with the other 32 students June 13. We first assembled at Indiana University with our families Friday, June 10 for the orientation. We were told we would stay with French families the first five weeks, and the last three weeks would be spent living at the French school. There would be five to six hours of classes each day, and we would be permitted to speak nothing but French the entire summer. At the climax of the session, after each one of the students and his family were fully aware of what was expected by the program, Dr. Philip Leamon, the director, asked if everyone was still as intent as at the beginning. We all were, and so continued the briefing. That evening our families left us, and we spent the night in the I.U. dormitories.

Early Saturday morning we left Indianapolis by jet for New York with the 27 students who would spend the summer in Germany. From New York to Luxembourg we were 22 hours in the air, stopping in Newfoundland and Iceland. We left the German group Sunday morning in Luxembourg, and took a bus to Paris. We arrived in Paris late Sunday evening, and departed early Monday morning by train for our study town, St. Brieuc. It took about eight hours by train.

Much to my surprise, I found St. Brieuc a modern city of 50,000 inhabitants. It is located in northwestern France on the English Channel, and during July and August is a summer resort. The weather is rather cool, and seldom it is above 70 degrees here.

We are now commencing our six weeks of study in St. Brieuc. We left our French families Monday, and are now living in the dormitories of the French "lycee." Here we follow the same rules and regulations as if we were on campus at I.U. We have visited Mont Saint-Michel, Saint Mere-Eglise, and the interior of Bretagne. This Sunday and Monday will be our last excursion. We are going to see a folkloric fair at Quimper. We have classes Monday through Friday, 9:00 to 12:00 and 2:00 to 4:00. We also have an hour of verb study each night. Each student is required to keep a daily journal.

One of the rather unusual experiences I've had was the first Sunday dinner I ate with my family in St. Brieuc. We had snails and horse steak, both considered delicacies in France. However, the French "cuisine" is very delicious. I've remarked that often in America we eat to live, but the French live to eat!

The French teenagers here dress much the same as we do in America, as many of our styles originate in France. The mode now for the girls is bell-bottom trousers and short hair, and for the boys, long hair.

We have been swimming several times in the Channel, but we seldom have much free time. Today Dr. Leamon and the director of the program in Germany came to visit us for three days, and to see how we are progressing. This evening the mayor of Saint Brieuc is giving a reception for us.

The French people are very friendly and polite. The most important thing to a Frenchman is his family. Consequently each family is very close. Living with the French families, as we have for the past five weeks, has given each one of us much insight in the French culture. A mere tourist never has this opportunity.

We will leave St. Brieuc August 9, and will arrive in Bloomington August 11. We will spend the night in the I.U. dormitories.

Miss Judy Devonshire of Sumner, Ill., was maid of honor and wore a gown of maise chiffon. The floor-length skirt ended in a full back panel and Dior sleeves and an empire waistline accented the fitted bodice. The attendants carried bouquets of yellow roses, white daisies, and ivy. Miss Cindy Starkey of Indianapolis, cousin of the bridegroom, as flower girl was attired in maise chiffon matching in style the gowns of the other attendants. Ring bearer was Doug Starkey of Indianapolis, cousin of the bridegroom.

Ronald Zeller of Shelbyville, served as best man; Jim Smith, brother of the bridegroom, and David Smith of Lebanon, were groomsmen; and ushers were Tom Smith of Zionsville, cousin of the bridegroom, and Victor Staton of Argos, cousin of the bride. Candle lighters were Brent Smith, brother of the bridegroom, and Jay Anderson.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Overmyer chose a blue lace dress with white accessories, and wore a corsage of gardenias and yellow rosettes. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a brocade suit with white accessories and wore a corsage of gardenias and pink rosettes.

Following the wedding a reception for 250 guests was held at the Eagle Lodge. A six-tier wedding cake centered the table and assisting with the serving were Mrs. Burton Feece, of Plymouth, cousin of the bride; Mrs. Stanley Reinhold of Leiters Ford, Mrs. Bonnie Good, Mrs. Mary Hatten, Mrs. Porris Zechiel, and Mrs. Lucille Bradley, all of Culver. The "donkey game" is a party standby.

No one seems to know how long youngsters have been pinning tails on donkeys at birthdays. If you're new to the game, here's how it goes. A picture of a donkey is mounted on the wall or door at the children's arm level. Paper donkey tails are provided, usually numbered 1 to 24. Each child is blindfolded, is turned around once or twice, then goes unsteadily to the picture to pin the tail. The donkey tail closest to the right position wins — but most turn up pinned to the ears, the body, or the clouds in the sky in the picture's background.

Party-givers will find that variety stores now have an extra large boxed donkey game with many advantages. The picture — a soft-eyed Mediterranean donkey bearing flowery baskets — could become a permanent wall decoration. It's 29" x 22" in size, can be mounted on corrugated cardboard for the game, then framed to brighten the play room between birthdays.

"Another bright spot — especially for those giving parties for the first time — is the booklet of games enclosed in the box," points out game editor Mary Hilt of Whitman Publishing Company of Racine, Wis. "The donkey tails can be used for party stunts and fortunes. Each child takes a numbered tail, and the hostess reads 'assignments' and futures from the book."

Other games are suggested, too, for small-fry festivity. For instance, five party games can be planned around a pound of peanuts in the shell. Children can play peanut carry, peanut toss, peanut blow, red-hot peanuts and peanuts in the bag — and eat the peanuts later. "Red-hot peanuts" is a variation of musical chairs and hot potato. Peanuts are passed around a seated circle until the music — radio, record player or piano — stops. Peanut-holders are out. The last child to stay in the circle without a peanut wins. Rules for other games such as Who Am I, Stop Thief and Make a Break are here, too. So are tips on magic tricks.

The next party could be the easiest with helps like these.

Q - How can the new system duce withholding for some people when the lowest rate is still percent?

A - The new system has been signed to take the minimum standard deduction into account. This was not done under the system. Also, the new system makes a distinction between separate and joint returns so withholding is lower for married taxpayers than it is for single taxpayers.

MEDICARE

Medicare became a reality on July 1, 1966, and some of you have parents over 65 in your home and you certainly have friends, parents, grandparents, or other relatives in this age bracket.

Mr. Charles E. Burke, District Manager, South Bend, Indiana Social Security office announced today that like anything new, there are bound to be questions at first — you may want to help those close to you with their medicare problems.

Action to be taken will fall mainly in two categories—paying the premiums for medical insurance and filing claims for benefits.

For those receiving social security benefits, the premium payment is simple. It's deducted from the monthly social security check. For those not receiving benefits, a form is mailed with a return envelope, requesting a $9 quarterly remittance. Prompt payment of these premiums will insure that coverage won't lapse.

Mr. Burke said that for filing claims, a medicare handbook was sent each person enrolled. Forms and procedures for filing claims are in this book.

If the oldest in your family needs help, you can be of service by acquainting yourself with this book or by calling at the South Bend, Indiana Social Security office at 125 S. Lafayette Blvd. to get the answers to your questions.

Health benefits are included in the social insurance programs of more than 60 countries.

A rich asbestos manufacturer built a fine house just across the street from the minister of the local church. The manufacturer and his family then proceeded to enjoy themselves in what seemed to the minister to be a very worldly fashion and not once did he see them in church on Sunday.

But the minister was never known to speak ill of anyone. He only said to his wife:

"Dear me, they must have great faith in asbestos."

A heavy lunch basket brought by an old couple to the county fair was being carried by the wife. Suddenly, in the midst of a thickening crowd, her grizzled mate took it over.

"It is burdensome, Pa," she said gratefully.

"I know it," replied the old fellow, "but there's always a chance of you gettin' lost."

Dr. Yale graduated from the Illinois School of Podiatry and will take his bride to Oakland, Calif., where he will take a year's internship. When his internship and training are finished, the Yales will return to Ansonia, Connecticut, which is the Doctor's home.

Let's meet some of the wives of some of the people who are beginning a year-round stay.

Joy (Mrs. Richard) Edwards has been to Culver for five summers. Now Richard is joining the Faculty as a Counselor. They have recently come from Wabash, Ind., but originally Joy is from Elmira, N.Y. She majored in music at Hanover College, Hanover, Ind., and minored in a fellow-student named Edwards! Both the Edwards went on to Ohio University for their Masters in Education. Joy taught for a while before young Eric Matthew, aged one, was born. She likes singing (along with Richard), reading, antiques, sewing and decorating, and the whole family likes to camp out. They are living in the duplex next door to the Lamberts, on the Circle. Their phone number is 842-2370.

Ann (Mrs. Jerry) Miller is from Bluffton, as is Jerry, though they have spent the last several years in Fort Wayne, where Jerry was teaching. Ann enjoys singing (choir work), and all kinds of church work, reading, bridge, and is an enthusiastic Hoosier when it comes to basketball and other "spectator sports." Three children occupy her spare time: Jeff (9), who is in Woodcraft this summer; Linda (6); Greg (2). They live in the south brick apartment on the East Shore, downstairs south. Their phone is 842-2020.

Babs (Mrs. Robert) Kamrow claims Minot, N.D., as home, though she was born in New Jersey. They came to Culver from Dearborn, Mich. She graduated from MacAllister College, St. Paul, majoring in Elementary Education. For several years she taught third and fourth grades in Waterford, Romulus, and Lincoln Park, Mich., and also taught in Dallas, while Bob was getting his MA at SMU. She likes tropical fish, cycling, swimming, reading, and bridge. However, Britton, aged 9 mo. is her main hobby and occupation right now. Bab's mother, Mrs. Frank Holbrook, from Minot, came to help them move and get settled in Culver. Because of the airlines strike she found that she could stay a little longer and get some enjoyment from the lake as added bonus. The Kamrows are in the KK Cottage, in Al Bunner's apartment. Their phone is 842-2304.

Bertha (Mrs. Jack) Jones has joined the library staff of CMA after being the school librarian in Penn Hills, Pa., for the last 13 years. Her husband knows Culver well since he is the son of Marion Jones, well-known insurance man here. Bertha and Jack have two children—son Jack is in college and daughter Marion is in high school. Bertha's mother, Mrs. Rowe, has come with them to make her home in Culver, too. Jack will move his insurance business base of operation to the Culver area. More about the Joneses in a later issue of the Messenger.

Dean Benson and Ruth were proud parents June 5 when daughter Jane graduated from Washington University in St. Louis. This summer and next year Jane will be at Yale on a University Fellowship working on her master of arts in teaching (English). Son Bob received his master of business administration degree with high distinction from Harvard Graduate School June 16.

Kermit (Bud) Zieg, Jr., received his master's degree in business from Ohio State in June. He and his charming bride, Suzanne, are living in Chicago now, where Kermit is putting to good use in a bank all that he learned at school.

Russell D. Oliver II, and his wife, Carol, received their B.A. degrees from East Carolina College, Greenville, N.C., Sunday, May 22. Rusty majored in geography and for the past year has been a trainee with the Greenville Redevelopment Commission. As of June 1 he began work with the Urban Renewal and Redevelopment Commission in Durham, N.C. Carol majored in French and English and will teach in the Durham High School system. Their small daughter, Kimberly Ann, watched her parents receive their diplomas from the arms of her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Howard Browning of Durham.

Walter O. (Bubb) Gollnick, Jr., graduated June 5 from Purdue with his bachelor of industrial management. Later in the summer he will begin his business career with Mutual of New York, with his base in Lafayette.

Tina Hughes Paniagua, with her husband, Angel (pronounced Ahn-Hail), is back in the States after a Peace Corps stint in Bolivia. Dr. Paniagua's home country. Angel is working on his English.

already admirably fluent, in preparation for passing medical examinations in order to practice in this country. Temporarily, they are making their home in Chicago with Greta (Hughes) and Ribbi Kalla.

There's no sign outside which says "Hotel", but for 5 weeks Mabel Bishop's house was almost that! The whole family -- children and "spices" and grandchildren--were together at one point, for the first time in 12 years. Mary Kourmadas and her three boys were here from Alexandria, Va. (John had to stay home and work at his new job with the Urban Land Development); Brently Charneiski and husband, Lou, and two children (young Mary is the only granddaughter) came from Olympia, Wash.; Win Fairhall and her husband, Lawrence, and four boys, and dog, TipTop, from New Rochelle, N.Y.; Nate and Gail Stroup and their two boys, from Petoskey, Mich.

Young Miss Barbie Griffin (aged 6) has made a real Beach Buddy out of her grandmother, Helen, during her stay here. Barbie is spending the month of July with Helen and Don, having come out here with Helen when she returned from Princeton, also Barbie's home (Blawenburg, just outside Princeton, N.J.).

'Twas good to see Jim Miracle back on campus, if only for a short few days. He brought Jimmy to CMA for Naval School this summer, and will be back at the end of the session to take him home to Hampton, Va.

Over the Fourth of July weekend B.J. Crise was pleasantly surprised by a visit from her mother and sister, from Cleveland, Mrs. M. Schilder and B.C. They had no sooner left than Col. and Mrs. Charles Pregaldin (USA, ret.), and their children, from St. Louis, arrived.

The house-guest of David White during July was Allen Feely, son of Bob and Mary Ann Feely. Bob is former Head of Horsemanship at CMA, but is now in the insurance business and is living in New Castle, Ind.

Jerry and Virginia Thomas were delighted to have as their weekend guests in July Dr. and Mrs. Tom Drucker, from Ann Arbor. Dr. Drucker is a neuro-surgeon whom the country has recently "engaged," so they will soon report for duty at Walter Reed Hospital, in Bethesda, Md. Tom is a SS graduate and returned several immers following his graduation be on the Naval Staff.

John Mellon, looking hale and hearty and not at all like a Harvard graduate student was at CMA'er Commencement, visiting and taking transformational grammar.

Jim Kurz superintended arrangements for a big surprise party July 7. Nothing unusual about that? Well, the General and Ginny Spivey would beg to differ with you, since it was a party in honor of their 36th wedding anniversary! The General was in on the secret, but Ginny was through-surprised. The best present of their anniversary month will be when son Pete comes home from Viet Nam--the end of July, if plans go well.

Congratulations go to Maj. and Mrs. W. D. Meredith, Sr. Jo gave birth to another boy July 2 at home in Ohio, while Papa was at Woodcraft Camp busy with his work as Athletic Director.

Word is beginning to filter through from our travelers this summer. A letter recently from Bob and Phyllis Hartman said that they had seen Don Marshall in Somerset, England, and were to be given a tour of the area by him. They stopped in Dorset to find the Vagners just barely settled into their 1600, thatched-roof cottage (a National Trust property.) The Hartmans will return on the "Madsdam" which arrives in New York Sept. 1, but in the meantime they're seeing as much of Europe as they can.

Horton Reed, former English Department member, now at Lancaster, Pa., Country Day School, will go to Jacksonville, Fla., this fall as headmaster of a new private (coed) school.

Col. John Henderson is in Parkview Hospital, Plymouth, and is making good progress. . . Col. Glenn Johnston is at Memorial in South Bend, (at this writing), as is Dean Frank Bryant. . . Col. R.H. Shanks is home from the hospital and is recuperating nicely.

Al Pare is at Purdue, attending Language Institute, but tries to get home and into the lake whenever possible; Walt and Linda Lambert are at the University of Michigan, where he's working towards his master's degree; Milford Myhre is visiting Assistant Professor of Organ at the University of Nebraska; Dr. Armando Perez is with his family and attending Purdue; Col. John Tanner is hearing the latest on the New Math at Baldwin-Wallace College; Don Troyer and Mary Ann are researching at Indiana University; Tom Walker is reading himself blind at Oberlin College in Ohio; Russ Blair is in Russia checking on the "thaw" we hear so much about--and studying; "Brownie" Brown and Elmer White have headquarters in the Library and are working on a Special English Project for the State on a Forensics program; Bob Hartman and Phyllis are traveling in Europe and will return at the end of the summer to do a year's work at I.U.; Chet Marshall will be studying athletic facilities at various schools 'round about; Norman Wagner and Dee are in England where Norm will research the background of Hardy's novels; King Moore traveled early in summer doing research on his project of working up a new American Democratic Heritage program for next year.

Between-schools break found the Library staff scattered wide. Kay and John Maier were up in Wisconsin with their families; Ruth MacQuillan and Mac, along with recently graduated Malcolm, went to Massachusetts to be with Ruth's father who has been quite ill; Dorry Mitzell and family had a happy and busy time in York, Pennsylvania; Sara Riewoldt and Bob went to their favorite fishing site, Mason Lake, in Wisconsin, for some highly successful angling. The Tanners were busy at home and putting in daily appearances at the beach where they ran into Betty Bryant and her eleven-year-old houseguest of two weeks, Suzy Stacy, daughter of Bill and Eleanor Stacy. . . Trips to Indianapolis and Washington, along with preparations for her August twenty-seventh wedding, kept Linda Heiser busy during her vacation time. . . Wallace Starr "stayed put" rather than to drive to Maryland in the hot weather.

We are sorry to see that Norm Mann is not feeling well. He worked part-time during the vacation but is under the doctor's care.

Bertha Jones (Mrs. Jack Jones) joined the Library staff July 11, and will be a regular member of the Winter School as well as the Summer School faculty. There's more about her and her family under Faculty Notes.

The Military Science Department welcomed Sgt. Ralph Ulich just returned from Viet Nam. He, his wife Shirley, children Harvey, Mary Jane, Roy and Rita have settled in their new quarters on School Street. Col. Scruggs spent ten days in Atlanta, Quitman and Clearwater, on business. His report on the South, "Clear and Hot."

Steve and Jeanie Friend complete with two daughters departed for Hastings, Neb., in early June to establish a new home for the family while Steve is in Viet Nam. Steve will return from camp to remain with the detachment until early September, when he goes to Fort Bragg for special instruction prior to port of embarkation call.

Allen Chesser, Jr., son of Sgt. Major and Mrs. Chesser, made the sick list in the Plymouth Hospital with an emergency appendectomy.

Major Etel, Captain Friend, Sgt. Major Johnson, and Sgts. Torr and Wright are summering at Fort Riley with the ROTC University cadets. Rufus Johnson and Dick Wright will return with broad smiles. Recommendations for promotions paid off, when Fifth Army Special Orders 131 announced one grade promotion for each, Sergeant Major and Sergeant First Class respectively. Specialist Five Brian Clark will leave the Army July 30.

Howard Shock is back working after a week's vacation fishing in Wisconsin. . . Don Shock is now working in South Bend. He has been replaced by Kent Schweder from Walkerton, Ind. Kent is staying at Mr. and Mrs. Long's residence in Culver. . . Robert Waite is working at the woodcraft Barber Shop this summer.

The whole Inn Staff was sorry to see Brian Linhart depart for the Marines. Brian had worked with us since March 1. Brian is the son-in-law of Eleanor and King Moore.

At the Inn Desk this summer, we are pleased to have Martha McAllister return to us from the University of Texas and Phyllis Shaffer return from Ball State. Phyllis will be practice teaching at Culver High School this fall. As bellhops, we have two Winter School grads from the Class of 1966. Bruce McDonald was a band officer and active in theater. Jack Allen, active on publications, will be head class representative for the Class of 1966.

Under the direction of Miss Mary Lou Culp, the dining room is in the midst of its summer flurry. We are all sorry to see Mrs. Marjorie Carter move to Niles, Mich. Her husband has a new job and the family has a new home there. We will also lose her daughter, Valerie, who has been working as a waitress. The waitress staff is pleased to have collegiates, Beth Smiley of Indiana University, and Linda Kreighbaum of Ball State. They will be returning to school in September. New busboys on the staff are Kerry Haenes, James Baker and Bill Liette.

New in the Shack are Linda Baker, Linda Stone, Pasty Behnke and Doug Thomas.

Our congratulations to Linda Nellans for graduating from Rochester High School and a belated welcome to Deedee Reinhold. On the male side, are Jon Hall and Vyron Staton. Jon graduated from Monterey High school and will attend Valparaiso University this fall. He was also elected to Boys' State as a representative of the high school. Byron Saton pitches for Argos High school and will be a senior in the fall.

On the housekeeping staff, Clara Taylor is pleased to have Grace Sult, Phyllis Manns, Linda Prater, Nancy Farris, Kathy Salyer, Cheryl Gochenour, Pam Crozier, Dorsa Smith, Thelma Smith and Anna Salyer. A special feather in the cap of Irene Crum for enduring the plaster dust and inconvenience during the rehabilitation of the kitchen and sandwiched between taking care of her husband, Jack, who suffered a heart attack.

Ronnie Lee is baking up a storm after he returned to our pastry kitchen. After we are able to complete the rehabilitation in the Shack and kitchen, Ronnie will be producing baked goods not only for Inn consumption, but to sell to the faculty and staff.

The Inn is well represented in the Summer Schools. Jimmy Baker (Mary Baker's son), is a fourth year Woodcraft. Bryce Hinkle (Irene's son), is completing his third year in the Cubs. Ed Behnke, (Rol and Sarah's boy) who is one of our hard working busboys, is in his second year in Naval School, Company 2. Enjoyin gtheir first summer, are Lyle Whybrew in the Naval Band, and Randy Whybrew, in the Cubs. (LaVerne Smith's sons).

TRAVEL TIPS by Thompson

Whether you're going on a long vacation this summer or just planning a week-end jaunt close to home, these travel tips compiled by Madison Labs, may help you avoid some common pitfalls and increase your traveling enjoyment:

1. To protect your valuables against loss or theft, it's a good idea to make a list of the serial numbers of watches, cameras and other numbered items.

2. You'll be more likely to hang onto your travel funds when you carry travelers checks which can be promptly redeemed if lost, stolen or destroyed.

3. To avoid vacation fatigue, try to vary the pace of your trip, alternating days of sightseeing and leisure. When driving, take frequent rest breaks.

4. For stomach upsets caused by changes in water, food and schedule, it's a good idea to carry a remedy recommended by your doctor.

5. First-aid supplies for travel should include medications for minor burns and cuts. Antivyl, a new spray-on treatment for itching due to poison ivy, poison sumac, poison oak and insect bites, can bring welcome relief to travelers.

6. When traveling with children, you may prevent "squalls" by keeping driving periods short. Give older children some responsibility in connection with the trip such as jotting down travel expenses. Reassure little ones with a favorite toy.

sterious call from New York recommending that he accompany Bob Matson to the convention of the American Alumni Council.

Russ and Myra Oliver plan an August visit with Rusty, Carol and Kim in Durham, N.C. after which Russ will try to stretch himself between his desk and the golf course. Clela Middleton and her husband spent two weeks in the mists of Niagara Falls and relaxing at home in the Hoosier mist called humidity.

Kathy Kline left the Alumni office June 24 to start mixing pabulum for an arrival in early November. Dolores Jones has worked up to full time to help fill the gap. Eleanor Zechiel made a quick return trip to help celebrate Wilma Snyder's birthday at a luncheon in the Banks-Zechiel house on College Ave.

"Love is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in all Christian Science churches this Sunday. The Golden Text is from the first Epistle of John: "God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him."
 Related passages to be read from the denominational textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following lines:
 "Whatever holds human thought in line with unselfed love, receives directly the divine power... Hold perpetually this thought,—that it is the spiritual idea, the Holy Ghost and Christ, which enables you to demonstrate, with scientific certainty, the rule of healing, based upon its divine Principal, Love, underlying, overlying, and encompassing all true being."

OLD FASHIONED

Now it's just an antique, a relic of a bygone era. Formerly it served a practical purpose, a special need. Today, Grandfather's horseless carriage is completely outmoded. Some philosophies are also out of date. New ideas grip our minds and challenge the intellect. We would not want a "horse and buggy" philosophy in this modern world of growth and change. Some things do not change, for they are eternal. For example, man's soul and his need of God. No modern invention can ever make God and the Church obsolete. Society is different today than it was in Grandfather's day, but man's spiritual needs are the same. Discover the value of the timeless in the midst of time. Worship God in your church this week and find the eternal truth which spans the ages.

EISENHOWERS CELEBRATE GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY

The Eisenhowers' July first golden wedding anniversary marks the first time in 119 years that a former President and his lady have reached this milestone. John Quincy Adams and his wife celebrated their 50th anniversary on July 26, 1847. Respecting the wishes of General and Mrs. Eisenhower, a committee headed by Bob Hope, comedian, and Robert B. Anderson, former Treasury Secretary, is urging that in lieu of gifts to the couple, contributions should be sent to Eisenhower College, a new co-educational liberal arts college named after the General. Contributions are tax deductible and may be sent to Eisenhower College, Seneca Falls, New York (or c/o Postmaster) where they will be permanently recorded.

Card of Thanks

In this manner I want to thank all of my neighbors, friends, and relatives for their personal concern, expressed through their many visits, cards, flowers and other gifts. These many kindnesses have been greatly enjoyed and appreciated and have been a real source of encouragement to me. Thank you.
WILFRED C. CRAFT 30*

I would like to express my deep appreciation and also that of my parents to the following organizations that supported my recent band tour of Europe. It was a great educational and exciting trip. Kappa Kappa Kappa — Maxinkuckee Junior Women's Club — State Exchange Bank — Culver Jaycees — Culver City Club — Union Church of the Brethren — Union C.B.Y.F. Class.

My thanks also to individual friends who helped in many ways to make this trip possible.
ANDREA L. SIPLE 30*

The gratitude in our hearts can never be fully expressed, but we want our friends, relatives, and neighbors to know how much their kind words and expressions of sympathy have meant to us during our time of sorrow, the sad loss of our mother, Mrs. Fletcher T. Strang.

Indians Lose Baseball Games To Triton, Tyner

By ROBERT VONDRA

The erstwhile Culver Indians lost to Triton last Wednesday, July 20, by a 7-5 score. Confucius say, "Team who have younger players get wrinkles ironed out this year, have one heckuva good season next year." This is maybe the reason for Culver's lower than usual end of the season record (four wins to 14 losses).

Brian Lindvall pitched, and gave up eight hits and seven walks.

The Indians got off to a good start and scored two runs in the first inning on errors by the Trojans. However, Triton came back with two runs in the first also. Stu Lowry scored on a single by Jack Lucas in the third, and in the fifth inning Phil White and Terry Clifton crossed home on singles, giving Culver a three-run lead.

However, in the bottom of the fifth, Triton erased the lead by scoring four times on two singles, as pitcher Brian Lindvall lost his control and advanced men with wild pitching. Triton scored once more in the seventh for added insurance that proved unnecessary.

The tribe finished off their season against Tyner, losing 7-3 on Thursday, July 21.

Terry Gentry was the pitcher, giving up nine hits and three walks.

Culver scored one in the first, one in the fourth, and one in the seventh inning, and seemed destined to score more on all three occasions, but the runners died on base.

ELAINE KAISER ATTENDS SECOND I.U. WORKSHOP

Elaine Kaiser, Lake Shore Drive, Culver, is among some 275 high school juniors and seniors chosen from Indiana and neighboring states to participate in the Yearbook Workshop of Indiana University's High School Journalism Institute July 24-Aug. 6 on the Bloomington campus.

The two-week Workshop is designed to instruct high school journalists in page makeup, copywriting and editing, picture cropping, proofreading, photography and managing the business phase of the high school annual.

Students attending the session, the third and final part of I.U.'s 20-year-old summer Journalism Institute, are housed in undergraduate residence halls with resident counselors.

The two previous sessions June 26-July 22 concerned the school newspaper. Institute director is Miss Gretchen A. Kemp, professor of Journalism at I.U.

CMA Canoe Team Places In Nat'l. Championship

Culver Military Academy's canoe team brought home a first, second, and third place in competition last weekend at the National Canoe championships in New Rochelle, N.Y.

Working under American Canoe Coach Kalman Blaho, who may take the U.S. team to East Berlin for the world championships next month, the Culver canoeists flashed home with a victory in a gruelling race in the nine-man war canoe event. Since the war canoe classification is a new event, Culver's time of 2:28.1 established a record for 500 meters.

The Academy paddlers edged out the Yonkers, N.Y. squad in the war canoe race after the New York team took an early lead. Blaho described the race as "combat — all the way," and it was not until the final section of the event that Culver pulled ahead. The Eagles edged Yonkers by one and one-tenth of a second.

Culver's war canoe squad was composed of nine Winter School youngsters who have been working out on Lake Maxinkuckee for several weeks. They are: Robert Fogle, Attica, Ind.; Casper Martin, Elkhart, Ind.; Steve Kling, Wayne, Ill.; Keith Oldham, Durham, N.C.; Chris Greenleaf, Culver, Ind.; James Etchen, Pittsburg, Pa.; John Benner, Culver, Ind.; Fred Mann, South Bend, Ind.; and Ted Frison, Cherry Hill, Clo.

Along with the first place, four Academy paddlers placed in the 5,000 meter C-2, two-man racing canoe competition. Fogle and Martin combined to grab a second place and the team of Kling and Oldham won third in the same event.

This year's championship at New Rochelle is the first attempt by Culver in national competition in the sport. Blaho, former Hungarian canoe champion and twice coach of the Italian Olympic canoe teams, joined the Culver staff last winter. He was named American canoe coach this spring by the American Canoe Association, and he has served the Olympic Development Committee as a consultant in canoeing.

It remains indefinite at this time whether or not Blaho will take the American team to East Berlin for the world championships next month. He will be in charge here when the North American canoe championships are held at Culver, on Sept. 17-18. The North American event will involve American, Canadian, and possibly Mexican paddlers.

Maxinkuckee Yacht Club News

By BEVERLY SUVERKRUP

Steve Speer won the Skylark race of the Junior Fleet series again this week. He has a perfect record so far this season. His brother, Scott Speer, served as his crew. Although Steve is 13 years old, he is quite an experienced sailor. He sails his parents' C Scow in the Senior Fleet Saturday races. He was in first place around the last buoy this week. The race had to be cancelled due to lack of wind.

The C Scow races are supposed to be approximately six miles long. There is a definite time limit for each race. If the first boat is unable to complete the course in the allotted time, the race is cancelled. The Sunday C Scow race also had to be cancelled.

Tom Kniesley sailed the second place boat in the Skylark race. Tim Kniesley served as crew on this boat.

Joe Schaub sailed the first place boat in the Sailfish race. He sailed without a crew.

Susie Speer sailed her Sailfish alone and placed second in the race.

The members of the Yacht Club were entertained royally at a party Saturday evening given by Mr. Robert E. Hollowell, Sr., our Commodore Emeritus. Mr. and Mrs. Don Speer, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Hollowell, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Steely assisted their father with this marvelous party.

There will be a moonlight race Saturday night.
