The Culver Citizen Is Sold To Walkerton Based Printing Firm

The Culver Citizen, a weekly newspaper that was established July 13, 1894, and devoted to serving the Culver area, has undergone a change of management. Effective with this issue, "The Citizen" is now published by the Independent-News Co., Inc., of Walkerton, Indiana.

Robert E. Urbin, president of the Independent-News Co., is now the editor handling the mechanical end of the publication from the Walkerton plant. At the present, very little change will be made in the newspaper policy, as the paper will continue to be printed on Wednesday for Thursday delivery.

For the next few weeks, the Culver Citizen will continue to be handled from the present office, at Washington and Lake Streets, but in the very near future, the office will be located in the former Shoe Shop at 105 South Main Street, between Gordon's Texaco Service and the Culver City Drug Store. Until formal announcement, all business should be continued at the present location.

Mrs. Roland Mackey and Mrs. Glen Osborn will operate the Culver office, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Urbin and Robert Powers, another member of the present Independent-News Co. staff.

The change of ownership of the newspaper is the result of an expansion move by the former publishers, The Culver Press, Inc. They have expanded under a merger of two companies and the new corporation, The Indiana Press, Inc., will soon be located in a new building in Plymouth, where the Indiana Business and Industry publication will continue as well as a large commercial printing plant. The monthly magazine has become a well-known and growing adequate time on weekly publication of the Citizen.

Mr. Urbin has been associated with the Independent-News Company since 1949, becoming editor and principal owner of the company on February 1, 1957. He is married to the former Miss Susan Burch, of Walkerton, who also assists in the publication of the newspaper. Mr. Urbin was born in Kewanna, Ind., moving to Walkerton while still in elementary school in 1941, but is no stranger to the area. Included with the publication of the two newspapers the plant also does commercial work, both letterpress and offset, giving them a very complete operation. All services will be available through the Culver office.

Republicans Sweep All Spots In City Election

Culver's 1967 election, to choose a Town Council and Clerk-Treasurer for the next four years, went all Republican Tuesday. A good turnout resulted on a pleasant fall day with a total of 639 ballots being cast in this election which had only the four local offices involved.

Indications of the returns did disclose quite a bit of ticket splitting. The Democratic Ticket had one vacancy, in the second ward, that resulted in Republican Donald P. Osborn leading the candidates with a total of 467 votes. Mrs. Ruth B. Lennon, the incumbent clerk-treasurer, was the leading vote getter of the contested offices. One other incumbent, Edgar Shaw, a Democrat in the first ward, was defeated by George E. Becker, losing his seat on the board in this contest.

The total vote count for the election is as follows:

First Ward - George E. Becker, R, 349; Edgar Shaw, D, 266.

Second Ward - Donald P. Osborn, R, 467; unopposed.

Third Ward - Estner S. Powers, R, 404; Bernard Busart, D, 209.

Clerk-Treasurer - Ruth B. Lennon, R, 435; Henry Hinkle, D, 182.

The new board will take office on January 1, serving for a four year term.

Culver Police Compliments City's Youth

Culver's young people deserve great credit for their behavior during the Halloween season, Charles Groce said here today.

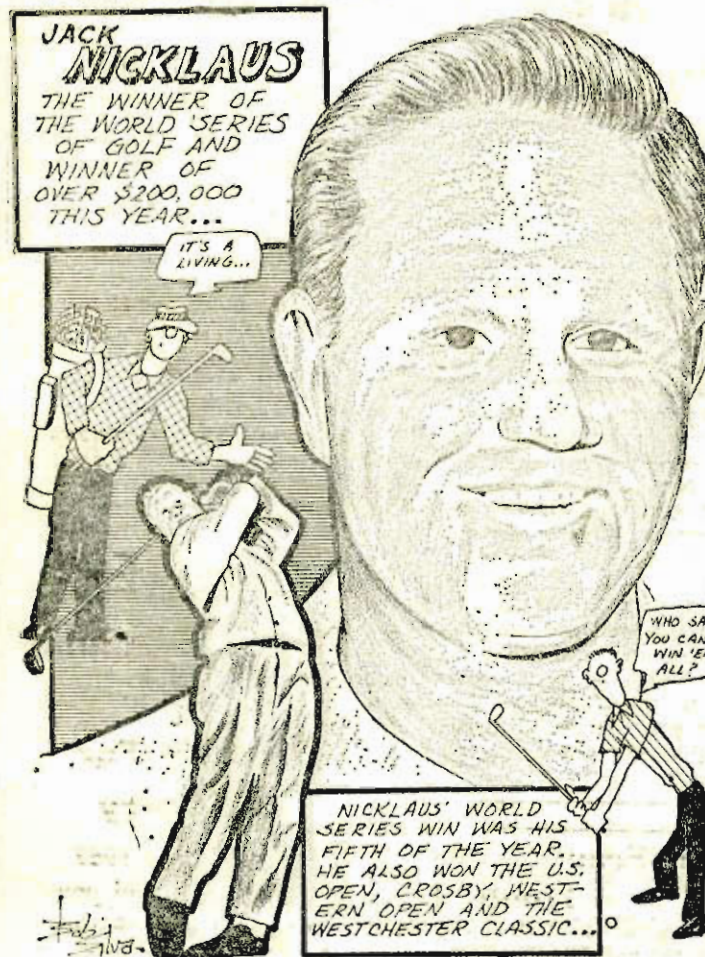

Commenting about the Halloween season, Groce said Law Enforcement Officers described this Halloween as one of the best that has been seen in the past several years.

Groce said they had very few reports of vandalism but two serious cases were reported that would have resulted in prosecution had the vandals been apprehended. These were the construction of firebombs (Molotov cocktails) and turning on of fire hydrants during the early hours of the morning. These two acts were not committed by juveniles but by adults who intended to carry Halloween a little too far.

TELEVISION HAS A LARGE influence on our lives. Did you ever try to get a football fan to go visiting on Sunday afternoon when the pros are tearing at each other on the tube? This must be a frustrating task for a wife or mother. Pro football has been hatched by the "boob-tube." This was just another thing almost until the heavy influence of TV came along and made it the number one attraction in televised sports.

NOW SOMETHING ELSE IS going to prosper by the home screens if our guess is right. This is the sport of hockey.

SEVERAL YEARS AGO, THE sport was introduced to television by CBS on Saturday afternoons. Despite the thrill to the strong hockey fan it didn't seem to catch on with the TV audience. The all-important ratings disclosed a very small following and that, of course, was the end of that.

HOWEVER, LAST YEAR, A several week series again tried the hockey bit with the concluding games of the regular season and then the Stanley Cup Playoffs. By this time hockey had grown enough in the minds of many that it was accepted. It was either this or just the fact that pro football had put such habits in the lives of sports fans that they continued their Sunday afternoon viewing out of habit alone.

THERE IS QUITE A PARALLEL in these two sports. First of all, somewhere along the line, American sports fans got blood-thirsty. Pro football is the initial step. This game has grown to the place that violence is the most common adjective that is used to explain the game. Then, next in line comes the thrill of a wide open game. Passing is the name of the game. Running plays simply are used to make the passing attack that much more successful.

NOW TAKE HOCKEY. IF action is any faster and more consistent anywhere, it must be at a bowling banquet when someone yells free beer. And for roughness, 'nuff said. How would you like to be sailing along on a pair of blades at top speed and get raked into the boards the way these play-for-pay boys do? Or would you be brave enough to throw your much-loved and only body in front of a screaming 1 x 3 inch hard rubber bullet off the stick of a Bobby Hall, Gordie Howe or Frank Maholovich? Stunts like that put people on the not high, but ultra-high insurance plans.

AND YET HOCKEY IS NOW the fastest growing professional sport in the world. Why? Because it is also the fastest and most continuous action sport in the world and is probably the only sport where fans can set and watch a scoreless tie and still feel they got every bit of their moneys worth in good hard action.

HOCKEY IS GROWING SO an expansion program was needed in this sport. Many thought the league was crazy when they chose to double their current size all at once. Whoever heard of such a thing! People marvel at the fact that the Mets and Houston both escaped the cellar in the same year, this being six years after expansion and then this year, there they are again, one two, reading from the bottom. Atlanta last year in the NFL, finished above the New York Giants and this was one of the greater accomplishments in sports since George Washington won the broad jump in the Colony track meet in the 1760's.

THE NATIONAL HOCKEY League has one thing going for them, that being Clarence Campbell, their president. He wasn't a Rhodes scholar for nothing and has used force when force was needed, and a persuasive method that could switch Mrs. Olson back to Hills' Brothers coffee when an approach such as this was needed. Add to this, a country full of misplaced Frenchmen and native Canadians that "want" to participate in sports and you are blessed with brains (Campbell's) and talent (Canada's) to make a winning combination for the good old country of America.

THIS HAS BEEN PROVEN in a short time in the NHL. A separate division of the new clubs with a liberal scheduling of contests with the established clubs has made for a very interesting and fine set-up. Their future is more than bright and now the pride of the Americans seems to be on the line to the point of a much wider hockey program now growing in our own country. It is no wonder you can go to the Forum, the Maple Leaf Garden, the Olympia, Boston Garden, the Chicago Stadium or the famous Madison Square Garden on hockey night and predict the attendance to the head 95 per cent of the time the skates are flashing on the ice. CBS will again help to make this sport grow as they have pro football and soon even the women of America will be yelling that he didn't beat the puck across the red line as they watch and learn the great sport of hockey.

Culver Military To End Season In Two Sports

Culver Military Academy's football and soccer teams will close their seasons in the next 10 days with one contest apiece.

Saturday, the football Eagles meet the Mishawaka Marion Knights, ranked eighth in the state. The game will be at home at 2 p.m. This is the first year that Marian has had a full senior team. Of the 16 returning lettermen, quarterback John Ferrettie, 5'10" and 180 pounds, and halfback Tom Germano, 5'10" and 140 pounds, have been the standouts.

The soccer squad meets the Bloomington Soccer Club next Saturday on the Bloomington field. The Academy team has a record of 9-2. The Eagle beat Notre Dame for the second time last Thursday, 4-2. All four Culver goals were scored by John Mehrtens.

The football team beat West Lafayette, 19-13, Friday night in

A man was sent to the market by his wife to buy a cabbage about the size of his head. On the way he met a friend who was a gardener and told him to go into the garden and pick a cabbage to his likes. He got the cabbage, but later a friend of the gardener passed by and said, "Who was that idiot walking in your garden trying his hat on all of your cabbages?"

Today, gallant young Americans are meeting the highest obligation of citizenship, serving their country during a period of armed hostilities. Their service is adding another inspiring chapter to those already written by the men and women of World War I, World War II, and the Korean War in their quest dedicated to the preservation of freedom and individual dignity.

On this Veterans Day, November 11, 1967, we salute this new generation of American veterans and all who have served our country with honor and distinction in the past.

Students will arrive in over 40 busses from Argos, Aubbeenaubee, Bourbon, Culver, John Glenn of Walkerton, LaVille, Monterey, Plymouth and Tyner. The schools will send from 124 to 250 students to each of the shows.

The Weston Jazz Sextet, first in the series, recently returned from a State Department goodwill tour of Africa and Europe. The performing and composing sextet has a repertoire which varies from classical jazz to exciting African rhythms.

The PEPA series is part of a three-part Culver theater program. The matinees are selected from the Academy's larger concert-theater series arranged for Academy students, faculty and area residents. Three student and two faculty productions round out the program. The first student production, Archibald MacLeish's 1959 Pulitzer Prize-winning "J. B.," will be presented Saturday, Nov. 11, at 8:15 p.m. in Eppley Auditorium.

Culver, Ind.

HELLO THERE!

Hello There! Let me introduce myself and tell you a little bit about our plans and policies for the Culver Citizen. As the new owner, let me first say I am very happy and proud to be associated with Culver and with my staff, will make every effort to give to you, the people of Culver and the Culver area, the best newspaper we can. It is our aim to make "The Citizen" a much wanted and very helpful paper to you by giving you the best possible coverage of news and advertising possible.

You are Culver. Like any town, it is your time, money and efforts that makes your hometown what it is. If you want to keep Culver happy and prosperous, it is up to you to do your part. This is very easy, a smile, a friendly greeting, participation in local affairs and your patronage of local business is the basic formula. Culver can be no more than you help to make it.

Taking this opportunity to let you know a little about our operation and myself as editor, I don't want to sound egotistical, but do want to know you and have you know me. Personal contact with everyone is impossible at this time, but I hope in the years ahead to get to know as many of you as possible.

I was born in Kewanna, Ind., in 1932 and moved to Walkerton in 1941. However, Culver was always quite a place to a little boy from Kewanna as we used to travel the zig-zag course of State Road 17 quite frequently, especially in the summer months to take advantage of Indiana's Most Beautiful Lake. I can remember the anticipation which our car load of kids would have when we approached the south edge of the lake on our way to the beach. Traveling this route was always exciting and when we finally reached the beach area, finding a parking place was often difficult, and often we couldn't wait until the wheels of the old '37 Chevy stopped turning to open the doors and head for the water.

The long pier, the three sets of boards, the big swings and slides and especially the big wheel in the water were more than attractive to any kid who likes water.

Also the Fourth of July was always a day to remember. The fireworks at the Academy was always the crowning touch to a holiday. Often we visited the Academy to see the Black Horse Troop, or other programs of interest.

This was Culver to a young boy. After moving to Walkerton, we still made trips to Culver for fun and recreation. After the Second World War, some of the extras vanished from the beach, but still, Culver offered something a person would never forget, that good outdoor fun at a lake. Whether it be a big picnic basket with friends and relatives, the cruise boat trip around the lake, a speedboat ride or just a swim at the beach, Culver was something extra.

The newspaper business came about almost by mistake for me. Participating in several sports for four years in high school spurred an athletic career in my mind. Plans for college and participation in athletics was number one on the lists, but shortly after graduation from high school, a little bout with a malignant tumor cost a leg and with it any hopes of an athletic career seemed to disappear. I continued with the Independent-News Co., where I had started while a junior in High school, and after a few years, was offered half of the corporation. On February 1, 1957, another young man and myself started to assume the stock of the company and in August of 1959, I started purchasing the entire stock. For over 10 years, the weekly newspaper has been my business, often with pleasure and some times seeming real trying. However, last year dreams for expansion and enlarging of our plant came true and our building was doubled in size and a considerable amount of new equipment added, mostly to our job printing department, but some also strictly for the newspaper. This has made possible the move we are now undertaking.

Our plans to give Culver the finest paper possible, will depend a lot on you. Your continued support is necessary and your submitting of news is very important. Also, your consideration of your Culver merchants is a must in any small town. These are the people that are making your paper possible and you are the people who must support them to keep the happy circle unbroken.

We have our own equipment for making plastic engravings and consequently encourage the use of pictures. We also have a camera for taking pictures, a dark room for our own developing and want to add that dimension of pictures to the newspaper.

Our ladies will be contacting you for news from time to time and we want you to continue to submit your articles of personal interest, club news, church news, etc., to us. We will continue the School Bell, one of the outstanding assets of "The Citizen". We also welcome Voice of the People articles, but request a signature on the submitted articles. We will withhold the name in publication if a legitimate excuse is offered, but for our own records must have a signature on the article. Liableous articles will not be published as the responsibility of a newspaper in such a situation is too great to jeopardize a law suit. However, your views are wanted and a little foresight in submitting the same can be one of the best read features of any newspaper.

We try to offer an editorial each week. This is strictly the views of the editor, whether you agree or not. Finding a subject each week is a hard problem and we basically do not take people and issues to task in this column. However, as the need be, these expressions of our views will be made.

I expect to have a very long and friendly association with Culver and want to give to you, everything possible. For the first few weeks, until our new help is accustomed to the newspaper business and our problems of assuming this paper are ironed out, things may be a little rough, but please be patient and we will strive to make "The Citizen" grow and keep you informed of Culver. Your help and consideration will be greatly appreciated.

Marshall County Mental Health Holiday Gift Drive

One happy time of the year is when the mental patients receive their gifts at Christmas parties from interested people like you. Again this year we are asking Marshall County to participate in this drive.

There are 500 more men than women at Beatty Memorial Hospital. Gift suggestions for men include: clothing, belts, suspenders, tobacco, cigars, pipes, tobacco pouches, hair cream, shaving cream and lotion and bathrobes. Gift suggestion for the ladies include: clothing, cosmetics, perfumes and colognes, compacts, shampoo, and rain boots. Both men and women would enjoy receiving: billfolds, gloves or mittens, slippers, cartons of cigarettes, stationery, instant coffee, socks, pens playing cards, comb and brush sets, and art supplies. All gifts must be new, and if clothing is given, medium or large sizes are preferred.

Among other things, the hospital is asking for new Christmas cards, envelopes, and stamps so that the patients may send their own cards as well as receive them. They also need large grocery bags and boxes covered with Christmas paper which are used to put gifts in for delivery to patients. (Large boxes instead of small ones are preferred.)

The depots for collecting these gifts will be at Van Gilder's Furniture store in Plymouth, and at the home of Mrs. R.C. Lamborn, 2021 N. Michigan Road across from Prie's Nursery. In Culver, gifts including money may be left at Trone's store or at the home of Mrs. John Mars, North Shore Lane.

Aubree News

Have you ever seen a "Panther burn"? A Jackson Twp. panther that is. The Aubree Students burnt one Nov. 1 behind the school. Girls from the high school made the dummy and hung it in the hall until Wednesday night. At 7:00 Wednesday night, a pep rally was held in the Aubree gym. The boys on both the B team and A team were introduced to the public, then the cheerleaders lead the pep block in yells. After the yells, the Aubree Fire Department took the basketball boys on the back of the fire truck and led the rest of the students in a snake dance around Leiters Ford.

Following the snake dance, everyone went behind the school to watch the Panther burn.

Peggy Roe was the Secret Student Thursday at school. Everyone whispered "Braves will Win" to anyone they saw hoping it was the Secret Student. Mrs. Neva Mikesell was the 25th person to tell Peggy the slogan, and she was awarded the $1.00 prize at the game Saturday night.

The school was a blaze of colors Friday on "Color Day". Most all of the student wore the school colors of burnt orange and black.

Thursday night the Monterey and Aubree GAA met at the Aubree Gym. The activities included basketball and the fundamentals of trampoline exercises.

Impala Custom Coupe

From Impala, world's most popular car

The silent ride of quality for '68

Now there are more good reasons than ever why people should prefer Impala. Like all regular Chevrolets, it's even further ahead for '68!

A more hushed ride

Among other things, we refined and improved everything about the ride to make it surprisingly smooth and silent. Just try it and see. You'll find that our engineers used electronic computers to pinpoint places where noises might develop, and installed a special network of rubber cushions to keep squeaks and rattles from disturbing your comfort.

We doubt that you've ever driven a car that moves so noiselessly.

The look you like best

People have always preferred Impala's looks. So for 1968 we made it even more beautiful. We gave the grille a more massive and masculine look. We gave the hood sweeping new lines and tucked the wipers neatly out of sight. We designed the taillights right into the rear bumper for a look you're sure to like.

We owe you the best

We figure we owe people more than other car makers do. Because it was people who put us in first place in the first place, and who keep us there year after year. We appreciate it.

Be smart! Be sure! Buy now at your Chevrolet dealer's!

All Chevrolets are priced for greater value! The lowest priced 1968 Chevrolets are (models not shown): Corvair 500 Sport Coupe $2,220.00; Chevy II Nova Coupe $2,199.00; Camaro Sport Coupe $2,565.00; Chevelle 300 Coupe $2,318.00; Chevrolet Biscayne 2-Door Sedan $2,558.00; Corvette Convertible $4,320.00. LIGHTS SPEED UP AIRPORTS TRAFFIC

A NEW SYSTEM of lighting airport taxiways with green centerline lights has been adopted as a U.S. standard by the Federal Aviation Administration in a move to speed aircraft ground traffic. Present taxiway lighting is a series of elevated blue lights outlining taxiway edges. The FAA says that in low visibility the blue edge lights tend to fade out ahead of the pilot. The green centerline lights, set semi-flush with the pavement, will give better visual guidance to taxiing pilots, particularly in bad weather and will avoid the "sea of blue" appearance which at times requires pilots to taxi slowly, thereby reducing the flow of airport surface traffic.

SOVIET RESEARCH findings may be lost to U.S. scientists because too few American scientists can read Russian technical journals, says a Northwestern University scientist. He said that in chemistry, mathematics and some other areas of scientific research every fifth research paper appears in Russian, yet less than five per cent of U.S. scientists have a reading knowledge of it.

A MINNESOTA botanist who helped develop the "pollen count" idea and procedure now lives and works in Philadelphia, but his job puts him off limits to hay-fever sufferers who might want to visit him in late summer. Dr. A. Orville Dahl is the new director of the University of Pennsylvania's Morris Arboretum, a 175-acre tract that includes several thousand kinds of trees, shrubs and grasses from all over the world.

SOAKING HAMS in barrels of brine may have been a picturesque curing process in Grandma's time, but it's far too slow for today's production lines. Now meat packers use a machine developed by Allbright-Nell, Chicago, that injects pickle brine into hams passing through on a conveyor. It can cure up to 15,000 pounds of ham an hour.

DAILY INTAKE of pesticide chemicals in a well-balanced American diet is "substantially below" acceptable "safe" limits, reports, the Food and Drug Administration. The FDA conclusion came after a two-year survey conducted in 25 cities.

THE BLUE WHALE female is a virtual dairy. It produces some 130 gallons of milk daily for seven months while nursing its calf. The calf is no "small fry": At birth it is about 23 feet long and weighs up to three tons!

HICCUP CURE ALMOST SURE

BELIEVE IT OR NOT there's a hiccup remedy that almost always works -- but it should be used only by physicians. It involves inserting a flexible tube into a nostril and stimulating nerves in the pharynx, the area at the back of the mouth where nasal passages join the throat. The process, called pharyngeal stimulation, worked in 84 of 85 cases, reports the American Medical Association.

NORMA BREDE of Bristol, Wis. is one of a growing number of women who make their living with a gun, a steady hand and a sharp eye. She is a woman welder. More and more women are being attracted to careers in welding, says the Alloy Rods Company, because new arc welding processes and lightweight equipment can easily be handled by them. "Now, for many applications, all a welder has to do is point the welding gun and squeeze the trigger," a company spokesman said.

TRANSFUSION of warmed blood rather than cold blood has a better effect on a patient who requires a transfusion while undergoing surgery. Warmed blood transfusions, says a Harvard Medical School researcher, lower vascular resistance to blood flow and increase the output of blood from the heart to the tissues.

CONTRARY to the beliefs of diviners, ground water does not commonly flow in veins, domes or underground rivers. Ground water is the water that fills pores or cracks in sub-surface rocks, says the U.S. Geological Survey. It is replenished by nature according to the climate and local geology and is variable in both amount and quality.

LASERS, which can bounce their high-powered beams off the moon, can also be zeroed in on part of a single human cell. At the University of Cincinnati an attached ruby laser sends a beam so small through a microscope it can hit portions of a single cell. The beam is about five microns in diameter. (One micron is roughly one-two millionth of an inch.) To avoid damage to the eye that could result from reflection of the laser beam, a viewer does not look into the microscope eyepieces. Instead he watches the laser impact by means of an attached closed-circuit television monitoring system.

EARLY SPANIARDS considered the orchid to be sacred. They thought it looked like the holy dove that flew down at the baptism of Christ.

TOPICAL AREAS LAST FRONTIER

STUDIES of life in the tropics, where enormous populations will live, are much more important than the exploration of space, says a University of Michigan scientist. He views the tropics as the earth's last great frontier for human occupancy. He cites a recent estimate that by the year 2000 some 6 million of an expected world population of 7½ billion will be living in the now underdeveloped nations, nearly all of which are in the tropics.

THEIR NAMES are not on the FBI's Ten-Most-Wanted list, but are dangerous -- some are even killers -- and the government wants to know more about them. Who are these public enemies? They are venomous marine animals, and the University of Southern California has begun a government-sponsored study of them and the effects of certain toxins they produce. Man may one day have to turn to the sea as a bigger source of his food. But before this can occur much more information is needed about poisonous and venomous marine organisms.

CONSTRUCTION of new pipelines is increasing at a rate of approximately nine per cent each year, reports Tube Turns, Louisville. The company says that the gas distribution industry alone will add about 20,000 miles of new pipeline annually for the next 15 years.

CHICAGO's Field Museum has its own version of a "time tunnel" for youngsters intrigued by life in another time and place. "Your Day in Ancient Rome," a museum tour, transports youngsters back in time to the days when Rome ruled the known world. To participate, young visitors pick up a written tour sheet which guides them through exhibits that present a picture of what life would have been for a young person in Rome. The sheet asks relevant questions so that the young travelers look, participate and learn.

MULTIPLE SCLEROIS, an incurable disease of the brain and spinal cord, may be caused by dietary deficiencies, two Northwestern University medical researchers report. Their study indicates that a diet rich in seed oils and fresh fish -- particularly for children and pregnant women

-- reduces the likelihood of multiple sclerosis. They say that future studies may identify other causes and that consequently other types of treatment may be recommended. The disease now afflicts approximately 100,000 people in the U.S.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Jones were in Chicago over the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Olle and son Ronnie. Sunday was Ronnie's first birthday with cake and ice cream being served. Mr. and Mrs. Olle and Ronnie returned home with Mr. and Mrs. Jones for a short visit.

Mrs. Marie Shipplock, Marion and Mary Edle of South Bend were in Burr Oak on Monday.

A boy was going with his mother for an appointment and said, 'Aw mom, the other guys don't have to wear lipstick.' The mother replied rather disgustedly, 'Shut up, you stupid idiot, can't you see we're almost at the draft board now.'

It was time to enroll the children for the first grade and the lady, taking her five-year-old son, had to also take her younger twins along. She made a startling discovery that the school principal was her former teacher. As he recognized her, he said, 'Well, I'm glad to see you again, I believe you have finally learned how to multiply.'

Consistency in all things is a man's most precious asset.

SCHOOLBELL ASSIGNMENT

Time again for the fairy tales of CHS. Are you ready? Here goes. Once upon a time...

We hear Jan Prices' party was a real success! While Paul Revere was riding through Jan's basement, Dave H. was knocked off his pumpkin! Guess that will teach you to believe in sayonces, right Dave?

Congratulations to Lyn Mackey, SENIOR representative, and Debbie Triplet, JUNIOR representative, Connie Morrison SOPHOMORE representative, and Jan Shock, FRESHMAN representative. The best of luck to all of you.

The SOPHOMORES have really been working hard in between eating cookies and resting. So far they've surpassed last year's class. Keep up the good work guys!!

It seems Pam Scott was having a little difficulty keeping her knee socks from falling to her ankles Thursday. She almost got caught trying to pull them up—right Pam?

At this time we would like to extend another congratulations. This one goes out to Carol Kline who just got her license. How does it feel to be driving legally?

While we're on the subject of JUNIORS, for those who haven't heard yet, JUNIORS are great!!

Say, Mr. Williams—why not give your French II class a break? Quizzes every day aren't exactly their idea of fun!!

Speaking of fun, it seems the little (?) kids of Culver High really planned tricks for Halloween—right Nancy, Norma, Linda, Pam, Kathy, and Debbie??

We hear that the Senior Math class has taken up a new project. Would you believe sewing??

Speaking of SENIORS, it seems a certain Senior boy was displaying his skill in crushing a Fresca can behind his head with one hand when something went wrong and a nice clean window in the pizza place was showered with would you believe Fresca suds!! Would you have done a thing like that Jim Taber??

Well as you all know, all good fairy tales must come to an end.
THE END

Have you heard about the cross-eyed schoolteacher who couldn't control her pupils?

A Tribute To The Cross Country Team

A famous long-distance runner once said that running is the loneliest sport in the world; however, Coaches Gene Grosley and Kalvin Waxman, as well as the members of Culver High School's cross-country team, have proved this statement is not always true. The teamwork and co-operation between the coaches and the boys have established an especially successful two-year record for the Indians. In these past two years the boys have achieved a record of twenty wins and two losses.

This year the team's record was 10-2. The scores of the 1967 cross country contests are as follows:

CULVER	OPPONENTS
32	Rochester, 23
20	Argos, 40
23	Triton, 67
	Oregon Davis 42
23	Winamac 23
19	Knox 42
22	Argos 38
20	Rochester 41
15	Mentone, 50
29	Caston 28
24	Knox 33
1	North Judson 50

The Indians came in: 9 in Shortridge Invitational; 4 in New Carlisle Invitational; 1 in Argos County.

Invitational; 1 in Marshall

Two members of the Culver Cross-Country team, Andy Tarquino and Carl Strang qualified for the 500 club by running 500 miles each during the summer.

On behalf of the student body, the members of the Schoolbell staff wish to congratulate the coaches and especially the boys of the team for such a terrific season.

Scholastic Aptitude Test

By Phil Edginton

The S.A.T. was given in the morning, last Saturday. There are only nine states in the United States in which the S.A.T. is given in November. The reason it is given in November is because these nine states have scholarship programs which require the test scores and the scores must be turned in early in the scholarship applicant's Senior year.

The S.A.T. is a three-hour objective test, designed to measure how well students have developed the verbal and mathematical skills considered necessary for success in college work.

The test is prepared by the professional staff of Educational Testing Service under the supervision of a committee of educators appointed by the college board.

Teachers Comment On The Senior Class Play

Mrs. Ulrich — Mr. Aspen, the cast, and the crew deserve our praise for a difficult job well done.

Mr. Hughey — Well-acted. They behaved like pros under the impossible conditions prevailing at the beginning of the Tuesday afternoon matinee!

Mrs. Hughes—My sincere compliments for the cast of "Glass Menagerie." I felt the play was well executed, well directed and that the audience was both receptive and appreciative of the Senior Class to attempt such a difficult and ambitious production. I hope we have many more plays of the same caliber.

Mr. Kriegbaum — reference is made to a discussion before the play was put on in which a number of people thought there were not enough people taking part. After seeing the play I thought it was well-organized and the participants took their parts well. The play kept the interest of the audience and comments afterward were very favorable. The director and the participants deserve a lot of credit for a job well done.

Mrs. England — I hope that the recent senior class production of "The Glass Menagerie" is the beginning of a new era in CHS drama for I believe that our students do want to participate in and attend worthwhile plays. Further, I believe that the parents want their sons and daughters to benefit from opportunities offered by larger schools for many years. To the director, actors, and stage crew I say, "well done."

Mr. Wolfe — I'm sure that some people were quite shocked because of some language and mannerisms that were used. But it is high time that some parents wake up to the fact that their little "babies" are exposed to smoking, drinking, swearing and other vices every day of their lives. Some of the best books, movies, plays and articles that have ever been written have been considered treat works simply because they have dealt with life as it really is. Educating pupils in school goes beyond just book-learning. It also involves exposing students to some of the hard facts of life which should also be taught in the home. I feel the play was presented very well and that the four characters portrayed their roles in a manner which some college directors would hope of their students achieving. My highest regards to the cast and the director!

Home Ec. II Studies About Children

The complete first semester of the Home Economics II class is being devoted to the study of child growth and development. In order to give the students the opportunity to observe the habits and characteristics of preschool children on a first hand basis, a "Play Skool" was conducted. During the "Play Skool", the girls were able to put to use some of the techniques of child care which they had been studying and discussing.

Guests who attended Play Skool this year were as follows: Mindy Smith, age 3½; Terry and Jackie McCoige, ages 4 and 5; Kieth Wynn, age 4½; Brent Troyer, age 2; Trent and Cindy Bennett, ages 3 and 5; Gary Triplet, age 4; Casandra Stokes, age 4; Terri Drang, age 4; Tracy Nelson, age 3; Tommy Cummings, age 2; John Surber, age 3½; Terry Cowger, age 2; Darci Lynn Lacury, age 2½; and Jorga Jones, age 4.

Committees sent invitations to the children and served a snack during Play Skool. As each child went home, he was given a favor.

On October 31, the class observed the activities of a six month old boy. Gregory Prasser and his mother, Mrs. Russell Prasser visited class. The class was divided into small groups so that Gregory could be handled and played with and his mother could answer questions concerning him. Gregory was a very happy boy and the class enjoyed his presence.

On Nov. 1, Lori Scheirer, a 14 month old young lady visited in class. Lori is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Scheirer and was brought to class by Jacquie Welsh. Again the class observed in small groups and wrote about the activities which are typical of a child of this age.

Teachers' Institute

By Linda Miller

October 26 and 27 were our red letter days -- Teachers' institute! To students it means very little homework sleeping late in the mornings, and parties. But to the teachers it means . . . well what does it mean?

To most teachers it means getting up even earlier than usual to go to either South Bend or Indianapolis. Once there, they renew old acquaintances and meet new teachers. After all, why not mix a little pleasure with business?

Most teachers agreed that there were a few things they would like to cut out, such as the beginning organ prelude. But they also said in the various committee meetings they had the opportunity to exchange ideas and pick up new techniques for classroom teaching. Many lectures were given on different subjects, such as the usefulness of a teacher's aid, and the pros and cons of giving students grades.

Because of the different views and new ideas, the teachers think teachers' institute should be continued. Of course, no student is going to argue with that.

Monterey School News

Monterey Lions Club Sponsors Halloween Party

By Pam Lehman

When all of the witches, hobgoblins and what-ever get together you'd better be on your guard.

The evening festivities, sponsored by the Monterey Lions Club, started at 7:15 at the Monterey Public Library. Six girls from Monterey School were asked to play drums and cymbals to keep the little monsters (among which were, goblins, ghosts, cartoon characters, and hoboos) together. The girls started playing and all the children did very well at keeping up with the music.

After the youngsters had marched about five blocks and arrived at the schoolhouse, the fun began. They tripped over each other and their own costumes trying to get organized; however, they did manage to stay in groups and get up when called for.

Prizes were given to the Halloweeners with the best costumes. One dollar was given as first prize, 50c as second prize and 25c as third. All those who dressed up and joined the parade were given a free ticket to play a game which was offered afterwards. Cider was given. Then all the little ones went home that night, and they were ready to be themselves once again.

Chemistry Class Observes Safety Rules

On the days that the students have lab in chemistry one might think that they are dressed for Halloween for the future scientists have been informed and are using safety precautions for their own protection.

The fitted safety glasses look peculiar on most of the students. They don't match their wearers' complexions, or they make the faces look out of shape.

The pupils who are already wearing glasses have goggles available which are extra protection for their eyes.

Then, for the students' use, there are the snow-white aprons intended to protect the careless scientists. Because the aprons reach a point half-way between the knees and the ankles they do not help their wearers to look exactly up-to-date.

As a result of wearing all this paraphernalia, the budding chemists look as if they are crosses between deep-sea skin-divers and doctors.

There are, however, reasons for these costumes. They protect the students eyes and clothing, make students more safety-minded, and prevent accidents.

History Class Re-Enacts Trial

The United States History class of Monterey presented the Odgen vs. Gibbons trial. The trial was held November 3 in Mr. David Barkett's history room. This was a reenactment of the trial that was held before the Supreme Court of the United States when John Marshall was Chief Justice.

The Odgen-Gibbons trial concerned a private company which was trying to keep the monopoly over the New York Bay and in doing so went to the Supreme Court.

The characters were acted by the following students: Supreme Court Justice John Marshall, John Wamsley; Substitute Justice, Dean Haschel; Prosecuting Attorney, Mrs. Allen; Defense Attorney, Carrie Wilcox; Defendant Robert Fulton, Ray Foerg; Witnesses: James West, Sue Allen; Billie North, Cathy Long; Robert Livingston, Dan Warken-tein; Clerk, Gary Shank.

Be careful driving on the highways—safety is no accident.

Interview With The School Nurse

As the reporter interviewed Mrs. Ted Ervin, school nurse, from Culver, she learned much about Ervins' duties as she travels from Culver to Aub- beenaabee High School and Monterey High School.

Mrs. Ervin's duties include testing vision and testing hearing. At the present time she is conducting a measles survey through the State Board of Health. She administers the TB test every year and maintains the health records for the students in all three schools, approximately 1,500 pupils. Mrs. Ervin is open for counseling at any time. She is at Monterey two-and-a-half days a week.

Mrs. Ervin resides in Culver with her family of four. Mr. Ervin is a personell director at Rockwell Stan'ard Oil in Knox. Her family includes a daughter, who graduated from Purdue University, a son from Ball State University, and two young sons in Culver grade school. Mrs. Ervin completed her training at Michael Reese Hospital.

When asked her opinion of Monterey, she replied, "I like this school and the teachers."

Use Your Seat Belts Always!

Elementary Students To Be Vaccinated

Have you ever had the red measles (old fashioned)? If you have, do you want your children to go through the same experience?

Monterey High School, in co-operation with Pulaski County, is offering free vaccinations to any child in grades 1-6. This vaccination offers immunization only for the red measles, not the German or 3-day measles which are the same type. Even if your child has had German measles, he can still be helped by this vaccination.

A simple injection will be given in the upper arm and will protect your child for years to come.

There will be preaching services next Sunday following Sunday School. Sunday School attendance last Sunday was 41.

Plans are underway for the Thanksgiving Preaching Mission which will be held at the local circuit Nov. 19 through Nov. 22. The guest speaker will be Rev. Jim Babbit, teaching fellow of the Garrett Theological Seminary, Evanston, Ill. On Sunday evening, Nov. 19, a Thanksgiving service sponsored by the Tippecanoe Valley Group Ministry, will be held at the local church with the District Superintendent of the South Bend District as the guest speaker.

George Cowen was a dinner guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Davis on Tuesday of last week. He accompanied his son, Clifford Cowen, and Mrs. Cowen to Florida this week to spend the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Feese of South Bend were also visitors in the Davis home last week and Mr. and Mrs. George Speyer of Culver were evening guests.

Eighteen ladies of the Knox WSCS were guests of the Mt. Hope society Wednesday evening as a part of the visitation program of the sub-district. The lesson program, "Music and Modern Man," was given by Mrs. Guy Davis. She reviewed the development of protestant hymns from Old Testament times to today emphasizing the thought that music is the most expressive of all the arts because it deals with the inner life of a person and that it is a reflection of the values of a society influenced by changing times. She used group participation in chanting, concluding with modern music with the use of records. She was assisted by Mrs. Paul E. Winn; Mrs. Robert Kline, in costume representing Africa; Mrs. Ernest Brockey, representing India and Asian Countries; and Mrs. Wilbur McIntyre, representing a Westerner. Following the business meeting, conducted by the president, Mrs. McIntyre, lovely refreshments were served at candlelight tables decorated in the musical motif, under the direction of Mrs. Wayne Kline, chairman of local church activities, and her committee.

Mrs. Grace Burton has returned home from Pulaski County Hospital at Winamac where she underwent major surgery.

Pick A Clover-leaf Cookie

Clover-leaf dainties fed in emerald are great cookies which can bring good luck to all and compliments to the cook. They're made in short order of Danish flavor margarine and are rich with the aroma of mince meat. Just blend ingredients, chill, roll, then shape into clover leaves. Or be creative as the Borden Kitchen suggests, and form to fit any special happening. It doesn't call for all the fabled luck of a cloverleaf to be successful.

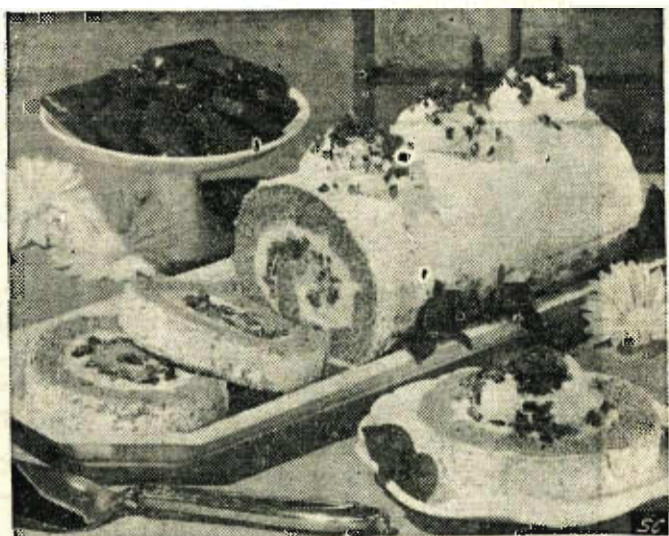

Clover-leaf Cookies

(Makes 3 dozen two-inch diameter cookies)

2-1/2 cups sifted all-purpose flour	1-1/2 cups sifted confectioners' sugar
1 teaspoon baking soda	1 (9-oz.) pkg. None Such condensed mince meat
1 teaspoon cream of tartar	1 egg
1 cup (2 sticks) Danish-flavor margarine	1 teaspoon vanilla extract

Sift together flour, baking soda and cream of tartar. In a large size bowl, cream margarine and sugar together until light. Break mince meat into small pieces. Place mince meat and egg in electric blender; blend until mince meat is pulpy. Stir into creamed mixture. Add vanilla and sifted dry ingredients; blend well. Refrigerate dough about 30 minutes, then roll into 3/4-inch diameter balls. Arrange 3 balls with sides touching clover-leaf fashion on a well-greased baking sheet. Bake in a moderate (375°F.) oven, about 10 minutes, or until lightly browned. Cool slightly before removing cookies from baking sheet. For GREEN ICING blend 1 cup sifted confectioners' sugar, 1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract and 1 tablespoon water until of spreading consistency. Tint with a few drops green food coloring. If desired, decorate with slices of red cherries.

Toffee Ice Cream Roll

Every woman wants a few "spectacular" dessert recipes in her file box for family special occasions or guest entertaining. Here's a show-off Toffee Ice Cream Roll delight that will have your friends exclaiming, "You mean you made it yourself?"

Get out your jelly roll pan and try this new cake roll creation with a taste surprise . . . it's candy! Mixed into the filling of softened ice cream are crunchy bits of chocolate-covered English toffee candy, chopped pieces of the famous candy bars found everywhere. More bits of the candy sprinkled over a dollop of whipped cream make a glamorous topping for each cake roll slice.

Prepare the Toffee Ice Cream Roll the night before, or morning of, your party so that the ice cream becomes firm again. Chill the candy bars and you'll find them easy to chop into bits with a large sharp knife.

Toffee Ice Cream Roll

3/4 cup sifted flour	1 quart vanilla ice cream, softened
2 tablespoons instant coffee	1 cup chopped Heath chocolate-covered English toffee bars
1 teaspoon baking powder	1/2 pint (1 cup) whipping cream, whipped
1/4 teaspoon salt
4 eggs, separated
1 teaspoon vanilla
3/4 cup granulated sugar
confectioners' sugar

Sift together flour, coffee, baking powder and salt. Beat egg yolks and vanilla until lemon colored. Add 1/4 cup sugar gradually and beat until very thick. Beat egg whites until they hold soft peaks. Add remaining 1/2 cup sugar gradually and continue beating until stiff and glossy. Fold yolk mixture into egg whites. Fold in dry ingredients. Spread batter evenly over greased and waxed paper-lined jelly roll pan (15x10x1-inch.) Bake in 375°F. oven until done, about 12 minutes. Turn cake out onto clean linen dish towel sprinkled with confectioners' sugar. Gently peel off waxed paper at once and trim off the lengthwise crusts. Roll cake jelly-roll fashion in towel; cool on rack. Unroll cake; spread with ice cream and sprinkle with 2/3 cup chopped toffee bars. Roll up tightly, wrap in foil and store in freezer until serving time. To serve, slice and top with a dollop of whipped cream and a sprinkling of remaining chopped toffee bars for each slice. Yield: 8 to 10 servings.

Lamb Kabob Sandwiches

OUTDOOR COOKERY — TASTY AND QUICK

Enjoy beautiful summer days to the fullest and serve dinner a la patio style. This beguiling dish is at home at a simple family supper or a sunny lawn party.

Mother needs only to marinate the juicy chunks of lamb in a flavor-special sauce beforehand, then slip the meat, cherry tomatoes and fresh mushroom caps onto a skewer. They roast while family and guests relax. When done, place the Kabobs on a toasted hot dog bun and withdraw the skewer. Finish this outdoor special with a chilled leafy green salad and iced beverages. You'll find these Kabob Sandwiches are an ideal dish to offer as a do-it-yourself entree — much to the delight of family and guests.

Sandwiches suit a million purposes — and any pocketbook. They're a wise choice for a well-balanced diet, too, for enriched bread products contain generous amounts of three B-vitamins, thiamine, niacin and riboflavin, and the mineral, iron, all at very little cost.

LAMB KABOB SANDWICHES 6 sandwiches

1 cup tarragon vinegar	1 pound boneless lamb stew meat, cut into 36 1-inch squares
1 medium onion, sliced	18 cherry tomatoes
1 clove garlic, crushed	12 canned whole mushrooms
1 tablespoon olive oil	¼ cup butter, softened
1 teaspoon salt	½ teaspoon rosemary, crumbled
½ teaspoon pepper	6 enriched hot dog buns, split and toasted
½ teaspoon basil
1 bay leaf

Combine vinegar, onion, garlic, olive oil, salt, pepper, basil and bay leaf in saucepan; bring to boil. Remove from heat; cool to lukewarm. Stir in lamb cubes. Cover and refrigerate 3 to 4 hours, stirring occasionally. Remove lamb from marinade, drain thoroughly on absorbent paper. For each kabob, arrange lamb, tomatoes and mushrooms alternately on skewer. Broil in preheated broiler or grill 4 to 5 minutes, or until lamb is done. Meanwhile, blend together butter and rosemary. Butter buns. Place kabob between bun halves; remove skewer and close. Serve hot.
