OBITUARY.

The funeral services over the remains of E. W. Geiselman were observed at the M. E. Church Sunday at two o'clock; Rev. Streeter officiating. The old veterans of Harry Sawyer Post were present, who conducted the services. The coffin was decorated with the national colors. The church was crowded with a large concourse of people, who listened to appropriate remarks by Rev. Streeter with marked attention. The following obituary which was furnished The Herald by the pastor, speaks in glowing terms of the life of the deceased:

Elijah Walter Geiselman, son of Michael and Eliza Geiselman, was born in Starke county, Ohio, July 4th, 1829. He resided in his father's home until he reached his majority leaving from his father the stock, such tools and became pedicant as a farmer, obtaining, also, during his youth the rudiments of an education in the schools of Ohio and Indiana as which later state Mr. Geiselman, with his parents, moved when Walter was but a boy. This migration of the Geiselmans occurred in 1834. Their Indian home was in Rossport, Marshall county.

Oct. 23, 1850, Mr. Walter Geiselman was united in marriage to Miss Catherine Kemp, residing at Bremen at the time of her marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Walter Geiselman were the parents of fourteen children, five of whom died in infancy. Seven of the nine children who came to maturity are living at this date.

In the year 1868, March the 26th, Mr. Geiselman settled upon a tract of land in Starke county, about five miles northwest from Culver. Six of the children were born in this home where the family resided until the spring of 1892 when their home was established in the town of Culver.

Mr. Geiselman has always been a strong progressive business man and a patriotic spirit and patriotic citizen. He was a democrat in politics.

On the 27th day of February 1895 E. W. Geiselman enlisted in company B, 15th regiment infantry volunteers as a private. John H. Evans as company commander. As the expiration of the war he received an honorable discharge.

Mr. Geiselman was usually commissioner of Starke county for nine years. The fire overtook him in the month of the city of Ross, was built during his administration as commissioner.

Mr. Geiselman was identified in a very large degree to the material advancement and improvement of the town of Culver. He established four banks in the town council. The people of the town are greatly indebted to him as a prime mover in the betterment condition of the streets, the fire bell on the church and the clock. As a result of these things we are glad to acknowledge the interest Mr. Geiselman took and the active part in promoting them.

Elijah Walter Geiselman departed this life April 8, 1903, aged 73 years and 9 months.

Miss Fawn Quinn is taking musical lessons at one of the great musical observatories in Chicago. She has gained the well earned reputation of being one of the best and most gifted scholars in the school, and some day will be recognized as a musical star. We wish her continued success.

FIRE AT BURR OAK.

Thursday morning, about three o'clock, the fire kind visited Burr Oak, and when it was through with its depredations, J. J. Cronley was minus his handsome residence and barn, and A. H. Ruple his blacksmith shop and residence. Cronley's residence faced Main street on the east with his barn and Ruple's shop in the rear. At the hour mentioned above, someone discovered the fire and gave the alarm. The fire originated in the barn and when first noticed the roof was in flames. A large amount of grain and hay, baggage, harness, etc., were in the barn, the worst feature being the fact that two cows and a handsome black mare lost their death in the fiery furnace.

The mare was purchased of Chas. Adams Wednesday, being driven to force a delivery wagon here for several years. In spite of every effort Mr. Cronley's residence caught fire and burned to the ground. Newly shingling was saved in the upper portion of the house, but the contents of the second story were entirely consumed. The party had a hard fight to save the barn property situated in the next lot north, but unfortunately was doomed. We understand that Mr. Cronley carried a light insurance, consequently his loss will be very severe.

Mr. Ruple had $700 insurance on his shop and contents, which will not begin to cover the loss. These gentlemen naturally desire the sympathy of our citizens. The cause of the fire will probably remain a mystery.

A DISASTROUS FIRE.

Tuesday morning a most disastrous fire occurred at Maxinkuckee on the west side of the lake. About one o'clock Tuesday morning, Madge, daughter of James Wilson, who lives in Maxinkuckee, awoke from her peaceful slumbers and discovered a bright light shining in her window, and arising from her bed and looking out of the window she discovered that the large two story building belonging to the Odd Fellows was in flames. She immediately summoned her father who ran out and gave the alarm. In a short time a number of men were present, who, upon seeing that they could not save the building decided their time in saving the Frank Parker residence, situated a few rods east of the burning structure. This place was only saved by hard work, as it caught fire several times. The lower part of the building was occupied by C. J. London with a full line of general merchandise, and the second story was occupied by the Odd Fellows, who had a splendid hall well furnished with all the paraphernalia pertaining to the order. The building was insured for $500 and the contents of the Odd Fellows department for $100 which with the building were totally destroyed. C. J. London's stock was insured for $1,000, and his loss will probably reach over $500. The building undoubtedly caught fire from a neglected fire. The loss to Mr. London is very severe, as he had just succeeded in furnishing his store with a five-up-to-date stock of general merchandise, and he had a full line of furniture, and a full line of general merchandise. The building was erected by the late Ch. Parker several years ago, and for a long time he maintained a general store within its walls. We have not learned whether the order will rebuild or not.

A Possessive View.
"These men-struck young men give me a lethal pain," observed the old back-slash "When one of them were allowed away from the front of his fat shoverer at an hour that is usually more early than late, and mounds borrowed breath the twinkling stars, his medical fancy pictures her resting upon her downy pillow, with muffled tears, and almost curiously about her smiling face, while above some error her cough and whirring heavenly drama. But it's not to me at that very moment the fair party in the parlor dissecting a pig man-facured by her poor old mother, on also sitting down on the floor, and her put on with her lady's hair rear."

A Cure for Rheumatism.
Alabaster, Ill., March 23.—Physicist are much pained over the case of Mr. F. J. Oswald of this place. Mr. Oswald suffered much with Rheumatism and was treated by doctor after doctor with the result that he got no better whatever. They seemed unable to do anything for him and he continued to suffer till he heard of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Mr. Oswald began a treatment of this remedy which very soon did for him what the doctors had failed to do and they cannot understand it.

This is the same remedy that cured Hon. Fred A. Duane, our State Treasurer, of a very severe case of Rheumatism some years ago and which has since had an unbroken record of success in curing all forms of Rheumatism and Kidney Trouble.

There seems to be no case of these painful diseases that Dodd's Kidney Pills will not cure promptly and permanently.

Families Show Considerable Falling Off in Many Years.

President Roosevelt will find food for thought in the census statistics concerning the size of families in the United States. It is a fall in so considerable that 300,000 families, at the following table, will show:

Year	Total pop.	Average number persons per family
1800	3,929,214	5.9
1810	5,308,483	6.0
1820	9,192,623	5.9
1830	12,866,014	5.8
1840	17,069,954	5.7
1850	23,698,317	5.6
1860	31,503,338	5.5
1870	39,212,625	5.4
1880	48,339,927	5.3
1890	58,192,625	5.2
1900	67,782,267	5.1

There is a variation in different sections of the United States. The largest families are found in the Southern States, where the average is five persons to a family, and the smallest are in the Pacific slope and in the mountains, where the average is 4.4, while of course, it is due to the large number of young unmarried men in the mines and on the ranches. In New England, New York and the Central States the average is 4.6.

The falling off in the size of the family in the various sections of the United States is shown by the following table:

Average size of family in 1850. 1890.

New England	4.9	4.7
South Atlantic States	5.4	5.2
Ohio	5.0	4.7
Illinois	5.1	4.7
Michigan	5.0	4.7
Minnesota	5.0	4.7
Iowa	5.0	4.7
Wisconsin	5.0	4.7
North Dakota	4.9	4.7
South Dakota	4.9	4.7
Nebraska	4.9	4.7
Kansas	4.9	4.7

In 1880 the average family in the southern central States, from Kentucky to the Gulf, including Arkansas and Texas, was larger than any other state, the average being 5.3. In 1900 it was reduced to 5. In the mountain States the average has been reduced from 4.7 to 4.4. In Utah, where the Mormon regime was 25 years ago and more it is 4.8.

The average size of families has gradually decreased in the principal cities of the country, the smallest percentage being found in Los Angeles and San Francisco, where the percentage is 2.5, and in Birmingham and Chicago, 3.5, and Spokane, where it is 3.9. The largest families are found in Hartford, Conn.; South Omaha, Neb.; Columbus, Mo., and Washington, D. C., where the average is five to the family. The cities of Illinois vary from 4.2 the lowest, at Rockford, to 4.8, the highest, at Joliet. In Chicago the average is 4.6, which is the average for the entire State. Pope County has the highest average of any of the counties in Illinois, being 5.1 persons to the family.

Railroads of America Have Big Plans

The railroads of the United States will this year appropriate for improvements more money than a five years ago was expended on the combined capital stock of existing roads. Nearly $270,000,000 will be appropriated for improvements.

The amounts of the individual roads will be as follows: New York Central and Canadian, $50,000,000; U. S. Steel, $40,000,000; Union Pacific, $30,000,000; Southern Railway, $10,000,000; Northern Pacific, $12,000,000; Atchafalaya, $10,000,000; St. Louis and San Francisco, $10,000,000; Rock Island, $10,000,000; Great Northern, $10,000,000; Missouri Pacific, $5,000,000; North-western, $5,000,000; St. Paul, $5,000,000; Denver and Rio Grande, $1,000,000; Southern Lines, $5,000,000; North-eastern States, $10,000,000; central States class, $20,000,000. It is intended to expand all this money during the present year, in many cases the improvements planned are so vast that there will appear before this year.

It has been announced that the plan of the New York Central system of lines in New York City will call for about $25,000,000 of the amount stated above. The balance will be expended on improvements of various kinds on the main lines, including the abolition of grade crossings.

The Western will use its funds to fight its way to the Atlantic seaboard. It has a conflict in the line in its attempt to get into Pittsburg, and makes this its last main line of new construction to carry out. The attention of the railroad world is now well centered on Utah just now, on account of the tremendous appropriations.

The Frisco is planning expenditures along lines similar to those of the Western; that is, the Frisco will be largely new construction. It has anticipated the intention of securing a footing in New Orleans, probably through a new line from its present terminus at Memphis, and has planned his terminals in the Green Bay, N. Y. It will also New Orleans another through line to Chicago and St. Louis.

The Texas is estimated that some $100,000,000 is to be spent for betterments to roads and for new construction by the Grand Trunk, which has planned a new line to the Pacific coast.

WOMAN'S GENTLE NATURE CALLS FOR GENTLE TREATMENT

Delicately formed and gently reared, women will find, in all the seasons of their lives, as maiden, wives, or mothers, that the one simple, wholesome remedy which acts gently and pleasantly and naturally, and which may be used with truly beneficial effects, under any conditions, when the system needs a laxative, is—Syrup of Figs. It is well known to be a simple combination of the laxative and carminative principles of plants with pleasant, aromatic liquors, which are agreeable and refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system when its gentle cleansing is desired.

Many of the ills from which women suffer are of a transient nature and do not come from any organic trouble and it is pleasant to know that they yield so promptly to the beneficial effects of Syrup of Figs; but when anything more than a laxative is needed it is best to consult the family physician and to avoid the old-time cathartics and badly advertised nostrums of the present day. When one needs only to remove the strain, the tension, the congestion, or similar ills, which attend upon a contaminated condition of the system, use the true and gentle remedy—Syrup of Figs—and enjoy freedom from the depression, the aches and pains, colds and headaches, which are due to ineffectivity of the bowels.

Only those who buy the genuine Syrup of Figs can hope to get the beneficial effects and as a guarantee of the excellence of the remedy the full name of the company—California Fig Syrup Co.—is printed on the front of every package and without it any preparation offered as Syrup of Figs is fraudulent and should be declined. To those who know the quality of this excellent laxative, the offer of any substitute, when Syrup of Figs is called for, is always resented by a transfer of patronage to some first-class drug establishment, where they do not recommend, nor sell false brands, nor imitation remedies. The genuine article may be bought of all reliable druggists everywhere at 50 cents per bottle.

MRS. RATH'S BABY Tired Mother's Touching Story of Anxiety and Suffering.

Cuticura Brings Blessed Cure to Skin Tortured Baby and Peace and Rest to Its Worn Out Mother.

It is no wonder that Mrs. Helena Rath was taken sick. Single-handed, she did all the housework and washed, cooked and mended for her husband, Hans, and their six children.

I had a girl to assist the children and to do whatever else she could. I wouldn't stay in bed long. Sick as I was, it was easier for me to crawl around than to sit and worry about my little ones.

But the rash on Charlie's poor little face spread to his neck, chest, and back. I had never seen anything like it before. The skin rose in little lumps, and mucus came out. My baby's skin was hot, and how he did suffer!

I believed he had contracted some disease from the girl, but some of the neighbors said he had eczema, and that is not anything they tell me. Yes, I was right. The doctor put salve and things on him. I don't think they were all useless.

The agonizing, itching, and burning of the skin as in eczema; the frightful scaling, as in psoriasis; the loss of hair and crusting of the scalp, as in scalded head; the facial disfigurements, as in pimples and ringworm; the awful suffering of infants, and anxiety of worn-out parents, as in milk crust, tettes, and salt rheum, all demand a remedy of almost superhuman virtues to successfully cope with them.

CUTICURA REMEDIES are used throughout the civilized world. THEODORE CUTICURA REMEDY CO., 100 N. BOSTON ST. (at the corner of Exchange Street), Boston, Mass., U.S.A.
