TEN CENTS

"HOOSIER AT LARGE"

By Al Spiers

Lost, Found, Thrown Away!
THIS IS a whacky tale of a wandering girdle — and all the trouble it caused!
Except for a wee bit of literary license, it's a true tale, told in the hope of steadying nine marriages now slightly shaky.

It began one Saturday night when 10 typical couples gathered at one of those parties where men talk shop and women swap lies about their children and the horrendous habits of husbands.

Presently Betty, a slim, willowy blond, sidled alongside her spouse, Al, and this whispered dialogue ensued:

"I'm in misery."
"Why? It's a good party."
"My new girdle's killing me."
"Then take it off. I've always said you don't need one."
"Bless you, sweetie, I think I will."

Betty sneaked alone to the powder room, wriggled, sighed happily and emerged carrying that intimate female item of elastic torture.

Darting to a bedroom, she stuffed said girdle into her husband's overcoat pocket.

So she thought.
AFTER THE PARTY, as they shucked coats at home, Betty said: "Give me my girdle. It's in your coat pocket."

No girdle.
"Oh lordy!" gasped Betty. "I put it in the wrong coat."

Al grinned, his sardonic sense of humor titillated.

"That," he said, "should start a small war in somebody's house!"

"No it won't!" vowed Betty. "Tomorrow I'll find it. I'll call all the girls and tell 'em exactly what happened."

NEXT DAY SHE DID. Strangely enough, the missing girdle hadn't appeared. At least no startled husband had reported finding one.

All the wives said they'd ask their spouses to check.

That night in nine homes this was reported:

"Dear, did you, by any chance, find a girdle in your overcoat pocket?"

"Are you kidding? What would I be doing with a girdle in my overcoat?"

"Please look again. Betty stuffed hers in the wrong coat."

"I don't have to look again. There's no girdle in my overcoat. That's for sure!"

IT GOES without saying that one husband was lying through his pearlys. His thought processes went like this:

"So THAT'S how I got it! But jeepers—I don't dare admit that I slipped it out the car window on the way home. She'll wonder"

Area High School Students To Be CMA Guests

To Hear Symphony Orchestra Monday

Twenty-five hundred public and private high school students will attend two performances by the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra at Culver Military Academy on Monday, Dec. 4.

The Indianapolis orchestra, conducted by Izler Solomon, will present a 1 p.m. performance to 1,600 public school students from nine areas throughout Marshall County. Another program will be presented to cadets of Culver Military Academy, members of the faculty, a group of public school students from Bourbon High School, and the general public at 8:15 p.m.

The matinee is the second in a special series of events in the performing arts being presented at Culver for public school students of Marshall County. The theater experiment is being conducted under the sponsorship of the E. M. Morris and the Robert L. and Mary Morris Oare Foundations of South Bend, and the Culver Education Foundation.

Under a three-year grant of $7,500 from the South Bend foundations, Culver is presenting four theater performances each year to Marshall County public school students. The students attend these performances at no cost to students or school systems except for transportation.

Students will be transported in 42 buses from Bremen, Plymouth, Argos, the Town of Culver, Tippecanoe, West Township, LaPaz, and Tyner. Because the Eugene C. Eppler Auditorium will be filled to capacity for the matinee, arrangements have been made for the students from Bourbon to attend the evening performance.

William J. Martin, director of theater at Culver, announced that seats are still available to the general public for the evening performance. Orders may be placed by telephone or mail.

No Elementary School Christmas Program This Year

Many circumstances which are beyond the control of the school make it necessary to announce that there will be no fabulous grade school Christmas program as there has been in the past.

The school officials are extremely sorry to have to make such an announcement for the chief circumstance is the prolonged and indefinite back ailment which has been plaguing Bertha May Rust, the long-time grade music teacher. Mrs. Rust's many friends should be glad to hear that she has had surgery and is apparently on the way to a speedy recovery.

THIEVES LOOT LAKEVIEW TAVERN

An investigation is underway in the break-in at the Lakeview Tavern, Lake Shore Drive, Culver, sometime between 1 a.m. and 8 a.m. Thursday.

Town Marshal Don Mikesell said entry to the building was gained by forcing the side door open. He said 13 cases of alcoholic beverages and seven cartons of cigarettes were reported missing.

State and sheriff's officers are assisting Mikesell with the investigation.

Allen Bray Wins Choir School Scholarship

ALLEN G. BRAY

Allen Gardinor Bray, age 12, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Allen F. Bray of Culver Military Academy, Culver, is now in the sixth grade of the Choir School of St. Thomas Church, Fifth Ave., New York City. He has again merited a scholarship grant in excess of $2,000.

Now in the 43rd academic year, St. Thomas is a boarding school of wide reputation for the boys of the choir of St. Thomas Episcopal Church, Fifth Avenue. The School provides fine music training and a curriculum of academic excellence. The student body is composed of 44 boys from 12 states who are gifted intellectually and talented musically.

Life at the Choir School is influenced by the cultural advantages of New York City. Visits to museums, the theatre, opera concerts and recitals are frequent. A few doors away is famous Carnegie Hall, where students yearly are both performers and appreciative listeners.

Allen spends many happy hours in nearby Central Park. Here he participates in such competitive sports as softball and soccer — or just enjoys himself in the outdoors. When weather is poor, basketball and other games are played in the spacious school gymnasium.

A housemother, who is trained as a dietician and nurse and a domestic staff of eleven insure each boy's well being and creature-comfort.

Allen will receive a sound education from a faculty of ten qualified adults, one of whom is his personal advisor. Classes are small, the atmosphere informal and personal. His program will be carefully evaluated through standardized achievement and aptitude tests so that when he graduates from the eighth grade he will be well prepared for entrance into a leading preparatory school.

School Unit Hearing Set For Thursday

Meeting Will Be At CHS Study Hall

Public hearings on three of the five proposed reorganized school districts in Marshall County are being conducted this week by the County School Reorganization Committee.

The hearing on the Marston United School Corp., will be held at 7 p.m. (CST) Thursday, Nov. 30, at the Culver High School Study Hall instead of in the Community Building as previously announced.

The county committee is required to hold public hearings in each of the proposed reorganized districts before the reorganization plan can be submitted to the State School Reorganization Commission.

The Marston United Schools Corp. would consist of Argos Community Schools, Union Township of Marshall County and Aubeenabbee Township of Fulton County.

The corporation would be governed by a five-member board, with one each appointed by the Aubeenabbee Township Advisory Board, the Union Township Advisory Board, the Green Township Advisory Board and the Walnut Township Advisory Board, with the fifth member to be appointed by a committee consisting of the members of the four township advisory boards.

All members would be appointed for four-year terms, with the exception of the initial appointments, would receive a salary of $100 a year, and could serve no more than two successive four-year terms.

Political Requirements Set

The first members appointed by Aubeenabbee and Green Townships must be members of the party which cast the highest number of votes for secretary of state, while the first members appointed by Union and Walnut Townships must be members of the party which cast the second highest amount of votes for secretary of state.

Each new appointee named by the advisory boards would have to be a member of the opposite political party of the person he succeeds. The fifth member of the board would be of such political party to keep the board in a three and two balance as to political parties.

The first person appointed by Aubeenabbee Township would serve four years; the first person appointed by Union Township, for a two-year term; the first person named by Green Township, for a four-year term, and the first person named by Walnut Township, for a two-year term. The initial fifth member, appointed by all the advisory board members, would serve a three-year term.

Indebtedness Outlined

All school aid bonds issued by civil townships in the Marston Corp. would remain the responsibility of the individual townships, but all other indebtedness of the individual school corporations would become the liability of the new school corporation.

The adjusted valuation of the proposed school corporation, based on 1960 figures, is $18,725,083, while the valuation per pupil, based on average daily attendance, is $11,079.

The total assets of the proposed corporation, as of June 30 of this year, were $2,463,943, and the total liabilities, $789,000.

This consists of $110 in school bonds and $625,000 in lease-rent bonds of Argos Community Schools, $22,000 in school bonds and a $12,000 emergency loan of Union Township and $20,000 in school bonds in Aubeenabbee Township.

On Monday, Nov. 27, there were 19 Scouts and two leaders present. Demonstrations on first aid were given by the Scoutmaster, Assistant Scoutmaster, Senior Patrol Leader, Assistant S.P.L., and Sgt. Harold Bocock. Cortland Overmyer was elected Troop Librarian. Marshall Brown Jr. is now our Troop Bugler.

The Hawk Patrol nosed out the Flaming Arrow Patrol by only four points on the Proof of Preparedness hike last Saturday. However, the Arrows win the prize on account of the better showing on the mobilization call.

This Saturday, Dec. 2, we are to meet at the church at 1 p.m. to build our bird feeders. Each patrol is to bring its own materials. Contact your Patrol Leader for more instructions. The Troop will put the feeders up at the Fish and Game Club hatcheries and we will keep them filled all winter. This is an important conservation project. Osborn Seed Co. is supplying the grain and seed.

Next week, the SPL and the ASPL will bring a "whifflepoof" and demonstrate it. The Assistant Scoutmaster will give a demonstration on "animal tracks." The Flaming Arrow Patrol will have "trail signs" and the Hawk Patrol will have "stalking hints" demonstrations. The Scoutmaster will give a conservation demonstration.

Scouts will begin cutting Christmas trees soon that will be for sale at Mel's Standard Station. Dates will be given next week.

Troop meetings begin at 7:00 and end at 8:45 every Monday. Any boy 11 years old, or older, is extended a welcome to attend our meetings.

why... and finally conclude it was an act that could only be prompted by a guilty conscience."

He was soooooo right. But he overlooked one thing. Instead of getting him off the hook, his selfish silence presently put all nine husbands on.

ONE BY ONE the curious wives contrived ways to ask Betty if she'd ever found her girdle.

Told no, each reasoned thusly, with typical wifely suspicion:

"One of our husbands found that girdle. It must have been my John. Why didn't he say something about it? Hmmm!! Come to think of it he HAS been acting peculiar lately. Do you suppose... ? ? ?"

Thus did one innocently shucked girdle chill the air and rock the marital boat in nine hapless homes.

Perhaps if they read this nine husbands will know why their wives have been so inexplicably cool lately, and nine wives will trade their unwarranted suspicions for a good chuckle.

If they do, St. Peter will surely enter a Good Mark in a bad columnist's Big Book UP There!

(Footnote: As of last week, all nine couples involved above were still happily married.)

Milford Myhre To Give Sunday Recital In East

Milford H. Myhre, organist and carillonneur at Culver Military Academy, will give an organ recital at National Cathedral, Washington, D.C., at 5 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 3.

Myhre will play a 45-minute program that includes music by Bach, Langlais, Gringy, and Buxtehude.

As an organist and carillonneur, Myhre has a rich background. He received a Bachelor of Music degree from the University of Nebraska in 1953, and since that time has studied at the University of Paris (Sorbonne), the University of Michigan, the Studio of Andre Marchal in Paris, and the Royal Carillon School at Mechlin, Belgium. He received a Master of Music degree from Michigan last September.

Throughout the Midwest, Myhre is known for his carillon work as well as the recitals he gives on the organ. He is a member of the Guild of Carillonneurs in North America and first became interested in the carillon while a student at Nebraska. He has since transcribed a great deal of original music and gives regular recitals during winter and summer on the 51-bell carillon in Culver's Memorial Chapel. The Culver bells are the 14th largest in North America.

Myhre has given recitals in Belgium, England, and Holland, as well as at the Universities of Kansas, Michigan, and Chicago.

DUDE RANCH HORSE WINS STATE AWARD

A Bass Lake horse, Indiana Stardeck, was selected by the Indiana Quarter Horse Association as the third best Quarter Horse yearling in Indiana according to word received by Ced White of the Lightning Dude Ranch, owner of the horse.

Indiana Stardeck was exhibited by Bobby White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ced White at over 20 of the State's biggest horse shows. Bobby is a sophomore student at Culver High School and plays on the "B" basketball team.

Each year at the end of the Horse Show season the Indiana Quarter Horse Association summarizes the results of the various shows and makes the top awards to the outstanding horses at a exhibitor-owner dinner in Indianapolis.

Indiana Stardeck is double registered both as a Quarter Horse and as a Palomino. Stardeck is a stablemate of Rex the Wonder Horse and it is hoped that some of the showmanship luster displayed by Rex in over 15 years of performing will rub off on his young understudy.

IT'S UP TO YOU

By

Howard E. Kershner, L.H.D.

SHORTLY after World War II a group of American economists led by Professor Walter H. Heller and Professor Alvin Hansen made a four hundred page report to the West German government at Bonn expressing the opinion that Germany was bogged down on a "sort of plateau" and that a little inflation, unbalanced budget spending, low interest rates and ample credit were advisable to promote prosperity. The Hellers and the Hansens said that the West German government had an "excessive concern for price stability" and was "overly timid" in allowing credit expansion.

Dr. Kershner

The German government rejected this advice and did exactly the opposite. As a result, in a very few short years Germany became the most prosperous country in Europe, if not in the world.

Today Professor Heller is the chief economic adviser of President Kennedy. Unfortunately our administration is taking his advice. At the same time we are running to Germany for help. We have millions of unemployed; Germany has none. Gold has been leaving our shores in alarming amounts while German reserves have been piling up to record height.

The German experience proves how wrong Dr. Heller was and is.

Economy, sound money, balanced budgets, repeal of Government controls, no inflation and interest rates high enough to stimulate saving have produced great prosperity in West Germany. The same policies would produce it in our country. With this example before us, the administration is inexcusable for continuing to take Professor Heller's medicine.

This Student Really Moves

By Judy Kimmel

The Shadow strikes again, but this Shadow by some means got hold of Miss X's diary for the day of Nov. 14, 1961. This girl really keeps a diary.

My victim entered English class two minutes before the bell rang. She is what you might call an American Roadrunner, seeing that she is usually late for class.

Miss X finally settled down for her first period class, although she would at certain times (when she knew Mr. Graham was not looking her way) converse between Carmen and me over the latest and newest Culver gossip. During the period, Miss X sat there and looked intelligent - she's good at doing that - and finally answered a few questions, which she answered exactly right. Finally the bell rang, and Miss X made a flying leap for the door.

Second period Miss X joined the group in the Study Hall and my spy told me later, that she studied like a mad-man for her French test.

Third period Miss X met me in the hall, and we joined the girls, and retreated to the Honor Study Hall. All period my victim worked like all get out. I recall that she didn't say five words during the whole period, which is and was shocking beyond all means. At the end of the period, she bade me farewell, and tore out of the study hall, just like a roadrunner (she should be on our track team), to get to her next class, which was algebra.

She didn't waste any time, seeing that she wanted to look over last minute details before taking her algebra test and also to greet a certain Junior boy at the door. I wondered if she would possibly make it, but at the rate she was going, she easily made it! My spy told me she didn't do anything, except that there just had to be a tinkle of her laughter. By the way, Miss X, what was so funny?

At noon Miss X and I ate up-town. She ate heartily (she just loves food) and complained about her algebra test, and most of all, she seemed to be on "Cloud 9" over the same Junior boy that I mentioned previously.

Fifth period Miss X, Carmen, and I entered the History Room and settled down for a discussion over the day's assignment. Miss X didn't say much, but she seemed to be quite involved in the subject we were discussing - graveyards, mind you! She seemed to be quite an authority on it. I wonder why? The bell rang and she went to her sixth period class.

I met her in the hall between periods and left her standing outside the French Room, with a worried look on her face and her fingers crossed. I wished her good luck and I went on my way.

During the seventh period, Miss X just studied and didn't do anything too interesting.

Finally the eighth period came, and my rat race was over at last. We met in the hall with the girls, and we were off for the band building. She sang her lungs out and goofed off every once in a while. The bell rang and I bade my victim good-bye.

This ends the day of a tired and haggard gal. And if you haven't guessed the name of this speedy gal, she is none other than Betty J. Lawrence. I may be exhausted from the merry chase she gave me, but mark my word, the Shadow might strike you!

Winter Course In Agriculture

Many Indiana banks are again offering scholarships to Purdue University's eight-week winter course in agriculture. It will be held Jan. 2-Feb. 23, 1962, at Purdue.

The 1962 scholarships average about $150. More than $6,500 in scholarships went to farm youths from their local banks last winter. Young persons interested should get in touch with their local bankers to obtain application forms.

The Indiana Banker's Association sponsors and encourages its member banks to award scholarships to assist worthy and well-recommended young people in attending the winter course. The scholarships are for young men and women, 18 years of age or older, who plan to continue farming or farm management in their home community.

The 1962 winter course has been revised to strengthen instruction and allow students more flexibility in their choice of subjects. Three short course programs - animal science, dairy production and general agriculture - will be offered.

Winter course bulletins may be obtained by writing V. C. Freeman, associate dean, school of agriculture, Purdue University, Lafayette, Ind.

HOOSIER HAPPENINGS

By Harold Hanson

HOOSIER SALES — There were 23,986 new truck registrations in Indiana in 1960, ranking the state eleventh in the nation in this respect. California with 104,244 led the country.

LOTS O' LUCK — A Clay County woman, Mrs. Leonard Shonk, reported to The Clay City News that a lily in her garden had 53 blossoms and buds on one stem. And that's not all. She said her grandson, Gary Shonk, found 70 four-leaf clovers in a patch 30 inches square in her yard.

CUTE CAPTION — Seeger Memorial High School, a new high school established at Williamsport, will field its first football team this fall and the team has been given the nickname, "Indians." The Williamsport Pioneer took a picture of the new squad showing the coaching staff passing out footballs to the team candidates. The picture was captioned, "Feeding Pigskins to the Indians."

FAIR SWAP — The Hagerstown Exponent reports that at a Trader's Fair held in the Wayne County city Dr. A. F. Hollenberg sighted an old crank telephone generator displayed by Tom Jackson and got it in trade for Jackson's upcoming polio shots. The doctor said he wanted the generator to demonstrate the generation of electricity to his young sons.

TALL VOLUNTEER — It takes a long ladder to reach the bloom of a sunflower that came up as a volunteer at the back of Miss Anna Suttiniller's home in Batesville. The blossom is atop a 12-foot stem.

OFF BASE — A sunflower grew this season from the trunk of a large maple tree at the Angola home of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Foutz. The sunflower grew out of the tree trunk about 12 feet above the ground. Foutz says he believes a bird deposited the sunflower seed in an opening in the tree trunk. The Steuben Republican photographed the blooming sunflower.

Why not clip this and send to a serviceman or other displaced Hoosier?

HONEST FOLKS — A Delphi woman, Mrs. Robert Wood, is convinced that honesty pays. She told The Delphi Journal that while visiting Disneyland in California recently she noticed a woman leave her purse behind in a rest room. She ran after the woman and returned the purse. Then Mrs. Wood came back to Delphi. She had attended a public gathering and returned home when there came a knock on her door. The caller handed her a purse and said, "Is this yours?" Mrs. Wood was not aware she had lost the purse which contained cash and valuable papers. Mrs. Wood gave some of the cash to a little girl who was with the woman who returned the purse. In her confusion Mrs. Wood failed to get the woman's name. She said the incident, coupled with her experience at Disneyland, convinced her that honesty is the best policy.

POSSUM 'N TATERS — In preparing supper for her husband a Pike County woman, Mrs. Ira Alley of Winslow, reached into a 10-pound sack of potatoes stored at the top of her basement stairway and let out a yell when she felt something furry. The yell brought her husband who took the sack outside and when he set it down out jumped an opossum. The animal apparently had gained entrance to the cellar through a coal chute door. Mrs. Alley's experience was reported in The Pike County Dispatch.

NEW LOOK — Residents of New Point, a Decatur County town, will find that their volunteer fire department has taken on a new look. It has a new fire chief, Robert Morton, appointed to succeed George Seals who resigned, and residents are asked to note a new telephone number, New Point 6202, for all fire calls between 6 a.m. and 6 p.m.

HAPPY ENDING — Robert Cloyd Jr., editor of The Lafayette Leader recently concluded his weekly column with this observation: "It's nice to have the ends meet but so much nicer to have them overlap a little."

Witnesses To Distribute New Version Of Bible

"The Holy Bible is the world's most popular book. For years it has been the world's best seller. Yet never before in human history has there been so many readers of the Bible, and so few who understand it. This new translation of the Bible in modern English will assist thousands to increase their Bible knowledge."

These were the words of Stanley Spangler, presiding minister of the congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses Sunday night, Nov. 26, at a meeting held at Kingdom Hall, Plymouth, to launch another feature of the group's expanded service to the community. Friday, Dec. 1, will see the Witnesses embark on a country-wide distribution of the "New World Translation of the Holy Scriptures."

According to Mr. Spangler, the new version of the Bible was released in one compact volume to an audience in New York City last summer of over 51,000 ministers and their families. Ten years in the making, it has been translated from the original languages of Hebrew, Greek, and Aramaic into modern speech.

Commenting on the translation Spangler stated, "The translators of this version have taken advantage of the oldest Bible manuscripts available, as well as the improved understanding of the koine or common Greek, and have produced a copy of the Bible that is extremely accurate." "Ministers of all faiths in Marshall county, as well as the man in the street, will find it enlightening and very easy to understand," he added.

Outstanding among the features of the modern Bible is its rendering of the four-lettered ancient Hebrew word for God's name, usually translated "Jehovah." Research has shown the name to appear in the original Bible more than 7,000 times. The New World Translation renders the name 7,198 times. Other features include 1460 pages, maps, diagrams, concordances and other quick reference aids to the Bible student. It is compact and easy to handle.

Said Spangler, "Many people have been misinformed about this translation and are under the impression that the Witnesses have their own Bible and that all other translations are false. This is not so. We do not say other translations cannot be used. In our ministry we grant the use of any translation that others may prefer." "The truth can be found in any Bible," he added, "But we feel as many others do that modern translations can assist us find the Truth faster."

Mr. Spangler pointed out that the Witnesses would not be engaging in any sales promotion program. They will continue in their regular house-to-house teaching activity as usual, but that the translation would be made available to any who might desire a copy.

The Chicago Motor Club advises motorists to remember that on wet or slippery pavements it takes a greater distance to stop your car. Always allow plenty of space between your car and the car ahead. In this way, you'll be able to stop gradually during slippery driving conditions.

WALTER O. GOLLNICK WINS FOOTBALL LETTER

Walter O. Gollnick, Culver, has won a varsity letter in football at Culver Military Academy.

Gollnick is the son of Commander and Mrs. Walter O. Gollnick, Culver Military Academy.

The Eagles, directed by veteran coach Russell D. Oliver, former Michigan University great, finished the season with a 4-3-2 record. Culver won its opening two games against Bremen (Ind.) High School and Chicago Tuley, and then, hampered by injuries, dropped successive contests to Fort Wayne Bishop Luer and Penn (Ind.) High School. Culver defeated St. John's Military Academy, and Bloomington University School, tied Hobart River Forest, and lost to Schlarman (Ill.).

It is wise for all motorists to respect other drivers and pedestrians and to keep the safety of others uppermost in their minds, says the Chicago Motor Club. People who drive with these thoughts in mind will enjoy their driving more than ever — and, more important, are less likely to be involved in an accident.

Mail Christmas Packages and Cards Early

Postmaster E. Wayne Mattox said today, "It's later than you think! Don't wait until mid-December to mail your Christmas cards and packages. By taking action on your Christmas mailings right now, you'll avoid disappointing friends and loved ones at Christmas time."

The postmaster offers these helpful hints on mailing your Christmas cards and gifts: — Be sure your return address and the recipients address is plainly typed or written on all labels and Christmas card envelopes. Use zone numbers, and it's a good idea to include an extra label inside your packages.

Mark fragile gift packages "Handle with care." Paste your Christmas seals and "Do not open until Christmas" stickers on the backs of your Christmas card envelopes and gift parcels so that the address on the front is easy to read.

Four cent postage on your Christmas cards is best because when sent by first-class mail, they will be delivered promptly and forwarded or returned, if necessary. Also, you can only include written messages on Christmas cards sent with four cent stamps.

If you'll mail early and often, you can make it a much merrier Christmas for everyone. Mail packages and cards for most distant points during the next few days and all packages for local destinations should be sent by Dec. 15.

LOOK ALIKES — Patrons of a drive-in restaurant on U.S. 31 near Greenwood, may be excused if they think the root beer they drank was a little potent. The establishment, operated by Carl Byrd, has three Wilde triplets — Jean, Jane and Joan — on its staff of curb girls. The three, almost identical in appearance, are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wilde. Many of Byrd's customers after seeing the three waitresses have driven away wondering if they have been "seeing things."

RHEUMATIC FEVER

RHEUMATIC fever kills or cripples more children and young people than any other disease. It is the first cause of death in the 10 to 15 age group.

Rheumatic fever is responsible for 95 per cent of all deaths from heart disease in persons under 30 years of age.

Rheumatic fever occurs most frequently among children and young adults who live in cool, damp areas.

Unsanitary and crowded quarters, cold, draft, extreme humidity, poor clothing, undernourishment and fatigue seem to encourage rheumatic fever infection. Also, there is a family incidence, for about half of the patients with rheumatic fever infection or rheumatic heart disease have a relative with a history of similar ailment.

The cause of this phenomenon is probably not only inherited susceptibility to the condition, but also contact with the members of the family who have an acute or chronic streptococcal throat. Any sore throat in school-age children should be given serious attention.

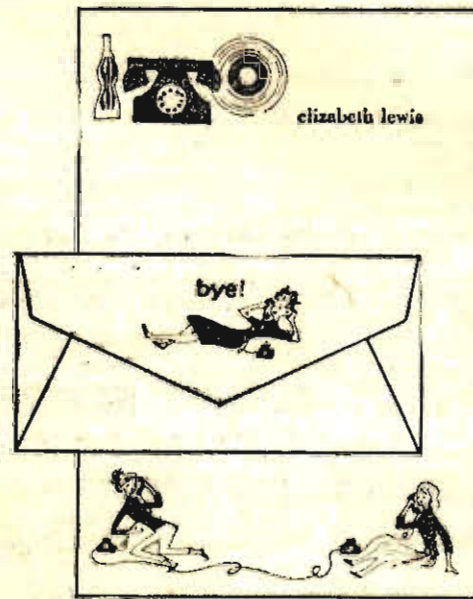

A first infection by rheumatic fever may be mild, not necessarily resulting in serious damage to the heart, but there is always the danger of recurrent attacks. A recurrent attack may be brought on by a new infection with streptococci or other bacteria, or by some circumstance such as chilling, fatigue or injury.

When damage to the heart is not crippling and the patient has good medical guidance, he may enjoy a long and active life.

Good nursing care is of prime importance and complete bed rest is basic treatment for rheumatic fever.

The most effective method of preventing rheumatic fever is prompt treatment for sore throats and respiratory illness.

Autumn And Apple Pie...Happy Match

Autumn is welcome for several reasons, not the least of which is the abundance of tart red and green apples. Crisp and juicy if eaten out of hand, they are without peer as dessert when made into Apple Pie. The recipe here uses quick-cooking tapioca as a thickener so the filling is perfect, not too set but not too runny. Cheese, rolled into apple shapes with a clove for a stem, is a delicious garnish.

Apple Pie

1-1/2 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca
3/4 cup sugar
1/3 teaspoon salt
3/4 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg

5 cups thinly sliced peeled fresh apples (Greening, Cortland, Rome Beauty, Wealthy, McIntosh)
Pastry for two-crust 9-inch pie
2 tablespoons butter

Combine quick-cooking tapioca, sugar, salt, cinnamon, nutmeg, and apples. Let stand about 15 minutes. Roll half the pastry 1/8 inch thick. Line a 9-inch pie pan and trim pastry at edge of rim. Roll remaining pastry 1/8 inch thick and cut several 2-inch slits or a fancy design near center. Fill pie shell with apple mixture. Dot with butter. Moisten edge of bottom crust. To adjust top crust, fold pastry in half or roll loosely on rolling pin; center on filling. Open slits with a knife. (Well-opened slits are important to permit escape of steam during baking.) Trim top crust, allowing it to extend 1/2 inch over rim. To seal, press top and bottom crusts together on rim. Then fold edge of top crust under bottom crust and flute. Bake in hot oven (425°F.) 55 minutes, or until syrup boils with heavy bubbles that do not burst.

Great news for the Walt Straits. Son Larry was recently elected to Phi Beta Kappa at Indiana University. Larry, a June graduate at IU, is in his first year of medical school at the IU Medical Center in Indianapolis. Bride, Lucy, a June RN graduate, is working at Long Memorial hospital. Rick Strait and wife Jan are in Honolulu while Rick does a year of children's dentistry at the Strong-Carter Dental Clinic there. Judy Gollnick will appear along with other IU undergraduate nurses in a dance review to be given at the Veteran's Hospital in Indianapolis.

CAREER MAN — Before taking off on a vacation trip to the Pacific Coast, Edmund C. (Ned) Gorrell wrote that he would be away from his home in Winamac at the time of what, for him, would be a notable anniversary. It would be the occasion of rounding out a full 70 years connection with the Pulaski County Journal. He went to work for The Journal, a weekly newspaper his father had just purchased, in 1891. He began as a printer's apprentice. He is now editor of The Journal and has managed it since his father's health failed in 1918. He writes a weekly column, "The Old Man at the Desk," which is filled with wholesome philosophy and good natured comments on current events. In his column looking back on his 70 years with The Journal, he wrote: "The experience has brought neither riches nor fame, for which I should be truly thankful. Rich folks seem called upon to do most of the world's worrying, and the famous ones must bear most of its annoyances."

WHAT'S NEW—Some Hoosier hunters are reported to be equipping themselves with tiny rear view mirrors. The mirror can be clipped to a hunter's cap giving him all around visibility while standing motionless in a duck blind.

The theme of the December school safety poster distributed by the Chicago Motor Club to some 33,000 grade school classrooms in Illinois and Indiana is "Wear White After Dark."

During the winter months, when daylight hours are shorter, three out of every five pedestrian fatalities occur during darkness. It is easier for motorists to see pedestrians wearing white clothing which reflects light coming from automobile headlights and street lights. Always wear or carry something white when walking at night. Avoid accidents by being seen.

CMA Senior Named Top Military School Cadet

Bernard G. O'Reilly, a Culver Military Academy senior from LaGrange Park, Ill., has been named the top military school cadet in 13 midwestern states.

The Army-Navy Legion of Valor Bronze Cross award was presented to O'Reilly by Jerome J. O'Dowd, attorney for the city of Fort Wayne, during ceremonies at Culver on Tuesday, Nov. 21.

The Legion of Valor is a nation-wide organization of those who have won the Congressional Medal of Honor, the Distinguished Service Cross, and the Navy Cross. O'Dowd, who won the Navy cross as a lieutenant in the Iwo Jima landing, represented the legion in the presentation to Cadet O'Reilly.

To be considered for the award, O'Reilly had to be in the third year of Army ROTC training, stand in the upper one-fourth of his class, and be recommended by the dean of the Academy and the professor of military science. Also considered were military leadership, participation and leadership in extra curricular activities, discipline, courtesy, and character.

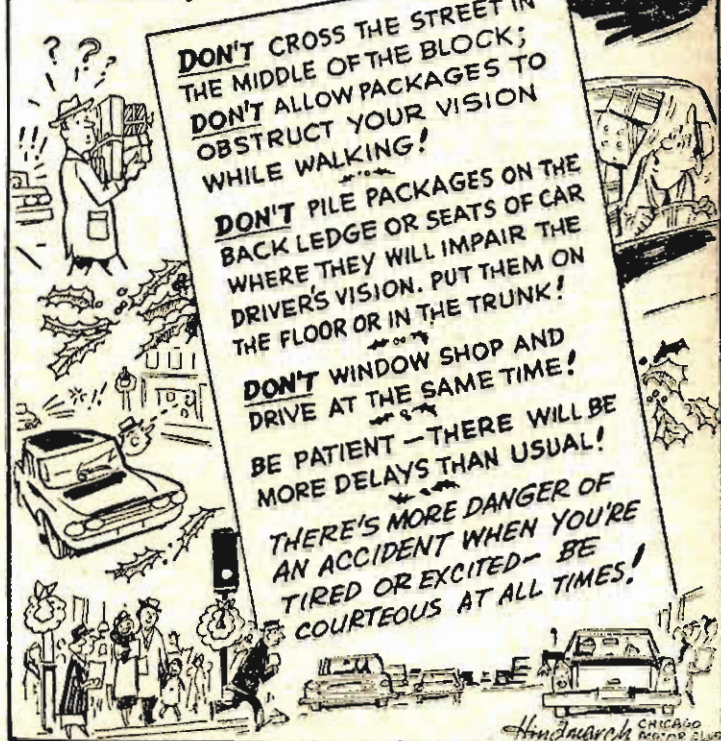

Each year the legion gives a Bronze Cross to one ROTC student in the military schools division of each of the seven Army areas in the country. The Fifth Army area, of which Culver is a part, includes 13 midwestern states, 12 military schools, and is the largest Army area in the United States.

O'Reilly is an outstanding member of a senior class of 199. He has maintained an A-plus average for three years of ROTC. Academically, at the time of his nomination last year, he was tied for second place in his class and was a member of the Blue Key Society, an honorary academic organization. He has been in the upper five per cent of his class throughout his four years of enrollment.

The Illinois cadet is now enrolled in the honors sections in history, language, and English. He has spent two summers doing additional study in biology and chemistry, and last year was one of three Culver history students who won a trip to Greece.

Militarily, O'Reilly was the ranking first sergeant last year and now is captain of Battery B.

The Chicago Motor Club's Holiday Shopping Season SAFETY LIST:

An Appeal

Editor, CITIZEN:

To the driver of car (year, make known — colors to be definitely established) I have made an appeal to you in the Plymouth-Pilot News to replace the Unit of blood, which you caused me to lose in an auto accident on a clear night of Nov. 8, 1961, at 9:45 (EST.) on Indiana State Road 17 — 2 1/2 miles west of Plymouth.

You, the driver, along with a male companion or companions quickly sped away from the scene of the accident at a time when we needed you. I avoided your forced head-on collision which you will agree meant inevitable death for all of us. You panicked, then sped away.

Now "face the music," be noble — point up the danger of such "teen-age fun" to others. The motto of the blood bank, in effect is "Someone Went Out of His Way to Give You Blood" — "It's time for you to replace this blood."

Now you go out of your way and contact me. Together we will go to the blood bank and I will be in attendance as your nurse during your blood donation. The blood bank does not want my $25 or anybody's money — "You cannot transmute with money." Another blood bank slogan.

Stop running — your pals will soon want to talk.

Beware! Culver Area People!!
Editor, CITIZEN:

Are you aware that a potential murderer is now in your midst?

This is not written in jest, but complete seriousness. In the Nov. 15th issue of The Citizen, Mrs. Lottie Reed condemned the unidentified occupants of the car that caused a two-car accident and sped away without stopping.

In the Bible, St. Mark 12:31, "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself" — Christ listed this as one of the two most important commandments.

It is obvious that the "characters" in the reckless car do not care much for themselves, and have only contempt for others. Possibly they panicked momentarily and kept driving, however, there was still time to return and give aid, but they chose the easy outward way out.

Investigation has revealed that the reckless driver is still loose around Culver.

Beware! these "guiltless wonders" are around us today — if they had any backbone, they would have stood up and been counted. This time there weren't any fatal injuries, never-the-less, next time, it may be YOU or your CHILD!

Before continuing, I am not lilly-white in my driving habits and I should be punished for any violations of the law also. However the time has come to take a stand and this "kind of a nut" should be taken off the road. It makes me uneasy to feel that he may force me into an accident — do YOU feel safe?

The Weaver family is still recuperating, with the baby slowly improving from complications.

Mrs. Newberg hasn't returned to her duties as a registered nurse in the South Bend Osteopathic Hospital. Prior to the accident, she was spending 80% of the time in caring for her sister, Mrs. Frank Amond (paralyzed from a recent stroke) — she too, as a result is now suffering from the assinine driver.

Returning to South Bend at 9:45 p.m., Mrs. Newberg was forced off the road into the path of the Weaver automobile.

According to the Marshall County Sheriff's Dept., there has been a recent rash of near misses in the Culver-Plymouth area.

One morning, a Culver school-bus barely escaped being hit while picking up children; if the windows had not been clouded over, a complete description would have been released to the police — even though the red flashers were operating, the car sped by, ignoring any possibility of killing a child!

In conclusion, Culver area citizens, there is a potential murderer in your midst! I'm deeply concerned, are you? ?
EDDIE AMOND

BAD DREAMS — A Boone County man, Maurice Kessler of Zionville, literally had nightmares as he was driving home one night from Noblesville. Along Ind. 22 near Eagletown seven horses came galloping down the road toward his car. One of them ran headon into the car before he could stop. The others swerved off the road. The horses belonging to Edwin Berry, Route 1, Westfield, had somehow gotten out of a pasture on to the highway.

WASHINGTON AND

"SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

A striking example of the dangers inherent in concentration of a major industry is contained in the new contract between Big Autos and Big Labor.

There is no question that the auto industry, tied as closely as it is to the steel industry, and others, is one of the major factors in the national economy. And because the industry has become concentrated, it is particularly vulnerable to Big Labor.

The new contract calls for an average 7 cents per hour wage increase each year over the next three years. It also calls for greater layoff benefits, as well as greater medical, life insurance and pension benefits, paid for by the employer.

But in addition, the contract calls for a further pay increase of 1 cent per hour for each 1/2 point rise in the official cost-of-living index.

Thus, there enters into this the fine point of which comes first, the chicken or the egg.

Obviously, costs of production are going to rise. This settlement means that at the end of three years, the average increase in direct wages will amount to about $36.50 per month, and the additional fringe benefits will equal this, if not more.

This, means, then, that the costs of new autos will keep on going upward, and that cost is an important factor in setting the cost-of-living index.

© National Federation of Independent Business

Hence, the workers will get further increases in pay because they have forced the cost of living to go up.

No mention is made to tying wage increases to increases in production, thus any automatic wage increases tied to cost of living without calling for more production per man hour is built in inflation that is highly fallacious.

And entirely left out of all these considerations is the welfare of the independent dealer who must sell the production of Detroit. This is somewhat like having any army composed entirely of the quartermaster corps and no combat troops.

In the final analysis, the entire automotive industry depends on independent dealers selling the product of the plants. To do this requires men of ability, integrity, and who have the courage to risk their own capital. Because automobiles have to be sold, and sold effectively. And every time a contract such as this new one causes price increases, the selling job of the dealer becomes just that much more difficult.

Thus, when two giants such as Big Autos and Big Labor meet in battle, not only are the interests of the public disregarded, but also unrecognized is the important group who makes it possible for them to have an industry to negotiate about.

By contrast it is interesting to note negotiations between Ford in England and British Unions. The company is willing to cut hours from 41 1/2 to 40 per week, and give a raise of 50 cents per week, which would still be less than one-third U.S. wages, but the union was holding out for ten minute afternoon tea time.

C. W. Harder

Mrs. C. C. Mikesell had a Tupperware party at her home Tuesday evening. Mrs. Jack Cohell of Warsaw was the demonstrator.

HISTORICAL MUSEUM — A Scott County man, Albert Comer, at the age of three score and ten, took up the hobby of collecting items of the pioneer days in Hoosierland. In a few short years his collection has expanded until it overflows three separate buildings in a grove across the road from his farm five miles southwest of Scottsburg. Comer said he was fascinated by tales of his elders, some of them only one generation removed from the time when southern Indiana was a wilderness, so he began collecting relics of that era. Part of the collection is housed in a log cabin built around 1830. Comer bought the cabin, moved it from its previous site, and reconstructed it in his grove.
