Double Funeral Held For The Sam Schrimshers

Double funeral services for Samuel H. Schrimsher, 72, who died Tuesday, May 11, and Mary A. Schrimsher, his wife, 58, who died Wednesday, May 12, were held at 2 p.m. Saturday, May 15, at the Easterday-Bonine Funeral Home. Rev. Edgar Ray, pastor of the Knox Church of the Nazarene, officiated and burial was made in the Culver Masonic Cemetery.

The death of Mr. and Mrs. Schrimsher was a result of asphyxiation in their house trailer at Cook Lake near Plymouth where a faulty vent on a propane gas refrigerator caused the burner to use up the oxygen in the trailer.

The couple was found in their home on Tuesday evening after neighbors became alarmed as to their whereabouts. Dr. James Coursey, Marshall County Coroner, who investigated with Sheriff Harold King, determined that Mr. Schrimsher died earlier in the day. Mrs. Schrimsher, in critical condition, was rushed to Parkview Hospital at Plymouth where she died at 2 p.m. on Wednesday.

A veteran of World War I and II, Mr. Schrimsher was born June 18, 1892, at Huntsville, Ala., and came to this area 40 years ago where he served with the ROTC at Culver Military Academy for 28 years, retiring in 1951. He was a charter member of the William A. Fleet Post of the American Legion.

Mrs. Schrimsher was born on Feb. 18, 1907, in Starke County, residing in this community her entire lifetime. The Schrimshers were married in Culver on June 2, 1925 and both were members of the Knox Church of the Nazarene. Mrs. Schrimsher was also a member of the Culver War Mothers and the Fleet American Legion Auxiliary.

Surviving are two sons, Samuel I. Schrimsher and Glen E. Schrimsher, both of Culver; two daughters, Mrs. Barbara Arndt, Plymouth, and Mrs. Bertha Fluckey, Argos; Mrs. Schrimsher's mother, Mrs. Minnie M. Seese, Culver; Mrs. Schrimsher's sisters, Mrs. Josephine Agnew, Plymouth, and Mrs. Lillie Buswell, Culver; her brothers, Raymond, Colorado Springs, Colo., Ira J. Seese, Leisters Ford, and Clarence, Culver; Mr. Schrimsher's sister, Mrs. Effie McFarland, Rochester; his brother, William Schrimsher, California; and 12 grandchildren.

71st Annual CMA Commencement Set For June 5-8

209 Seniors To Get Diplomas

Culver Military Academy's 71st commencement will attract to its campus several thousand visitors June 5-8 during what is annually the largest and most important weekend of the academic year.

Surrounding graduating ceremonies for 209 seniors will be a series of academic, military, athletic, dramatic, and social events that will end at 9 a.m. Tuesday when Major General Delmar T. Spivey, USAF (ret.), superintendent, awards diplomas to the class of 1965.

In addition to the parents and friends of the graduating class, 500 alumni of the Academy will attend quinquennial reunions during the four-day June Week period. The large group of visitors annually jams hotels and motels in the Marshall County and South Bend areas during most of the four days.

June Week begins Saturday, June 5, with several key events. Infantry drill for Austin Trophy competition will take place at 9 a.m., the commencement horse show is at 1 p.m., Superintendent and Mrs. Spivey will be host to alumni at a barbecue for alumni at 6:30 p.m., and the annual commencement play — the musical "Brigadoon" — is scheduled for 8:30 p.m.

Two religious services at 9:30 and 11 a.m. are scheduled to handle the overflow crowd Sunday. Military medals will be presented at a 4 p.m. garrison parade and at 8:30 p.m. Culver musicians in the band and choir will give a concert.

Monday's program begins with a 9:30 a.m. meeting of all parents. The commencement convocation, during which academic honors are presented, is at 11 a.m. There are military exhibitions at 2:30 p.m. and the final garrison parade at 4 p.m. As the final event before Tuesday's awarding of diplomas, the graduation ball begins at 9 p.m., Monday with music provided by the Ted Weems' Orchestra.

Report On Street Resurfacing, Other Business Engages Town Board

A report on the progress of street resurfacing highlighted the regular meeting of the Culver Town Board at the Town Hall on Monday night.

Street Commissioner Don Mikesell reported that the cost of work completed to date by the McMahan Construction Co., Rochester, totaled approximately $6,500. The areas where work has been completed include:

West end of Lewis Street.
East and West ends of College Avenue.

A section of South Ohio Street.
Lakeshore Drive between Lake and Lakeview.

State Street between the Warner property and Houghton Avenue.

A section of Forest Place.

The board was notified that the Rochester firm will return for additional work when they have completed current out-of-town projects. The street work will continue until available funds for this purpose are used. Four or five other areas are tentatively scheduled for resurfacing.

In other board business, George Listenberger, the owner of property on Baker Street, appeared relative to the problem of water standing in the alley near his property following heavy rains. The board instructed Street Commissioner Mikesell to arrange a survey to determine the feasibility and cost of underground drainage tile.

The board announced that it has ordered "No Alcoholic Beverages Permitted in Park" signs which will be posted prominently in Town Park locations. The board also requested a price estimate for 20 "Culver Zoning Boundary" signs and posts, which will be erected where the zoning boundary intersects well traveled county and state roads.

The board told of receiving a letter from the Indiana Rating Bureau requesting what measures had been taken on its recent recommendations for improved fire protection. The board referred the letter to Town Attorney Howard Hilles for the drafting of a reply.

Board member Edgar Shaw reported that he is in negotiations with an area farmer for the removal of sludge from the sewage treatment plant, but told the board the town may be required to buy a hauling tank for this purpose.

The board passed at first reading, Ordinance No. 188, "An Ordinance to Create A Cumulative Capital Improvement Fund," which will enable the town to accept and use the proceeds of the increased state cigarette tax which is to be paid by the state to cities and towns starting later this year. Legal publication of the ordinance was not required.

Larry Linhart was rehired as lifeguard at the Town Park for the summer months.

Jaycees Elect Nicodemus As New President

Roy Nicodemus was elected president of Culver Jaycees at that group's election night meeting last Thursday. He succeeds outgoing president Ron McKee, who has served the past year.

Other new officers are Robert Kline, first vice-president; Bill Snyder, second vice-president; Latham Lawson, secretary; Ron Tusing, treasurer; and Lance Overmyer, director.

In other business, Bill Heck reported the gift of an air brush set valued at $75 to the art department at Indiana State Prison at Michigan City. Heck, Bill Stubbs and Charles Edgington traveled to Michigan City for the presentation.

The club placed Ron McKee in charge of initiating a program for continuing projects of aid to the prison.

The group voted to present an award annually to the club's outstanding member, with the recipient to be chosen by officers and directors, and the first award winner announced at the annual charter night banquet.

The Jaycees voted to support the trip of the Culver exchange student to Argentina with a donation of $30.

Wicker Ford Is Low Bidder For School Bus

McLane Gets New School Board Pact

On Monday evening the Board of School Trustees of Culver Community Schools received bids for a chassis and body for a sixty-passenger school bus. After checking all bids for conformity with specifications, the School Board accepted the bid of Ray Wicker Ford Sales for a 1965 Ford B-600 chassis. With the substitution of a 330 V-8 engine in place of the six-cylinder engine included on the base bid, the successful bid was $2,937.60.

After comparing the bids submitted by five dealers for the 60-passenger bus body, the bid of Kerlin School Bus Sales of Silver Lake, Indiana, on a Thomas body was approved. The total bid was $3,299.40. Though a bid of $3,280 was submitted for a Blue Bird bus body, it was found that alternates totaling an additional cost of $218 would have to be added to the base bid of the Blue Bird body to match the equipment included in the Thomas bus body.

Other bidders on the chassis were Gates-Calhoun Chevrolet and Nelson Equipment Company. In addition to the Kerlin School Bus Sales and that of Imperial Equipment Company for the Blue Bird bus body, other bidders were Leonard Supply Company of Silver Lake on a Superior body; Schoolcraft, Incorporated for a Wayne body; and Carpenter Sales and Service of North Salem for a Carpenter bus.

In other business the School Board received a report of the architect, Mr. M. Ray Kirchoff, regarding the first preliminary plan for a new high school. Sketches of the first plan proposed were studied, and possible changes were considered. Later this week the architect will discuss the original drawings with school officials and teachers to determine desirable changes in various areas before a revised floor plan is developed in cooperation with the School Board. Copies of the first plan are on display at Wilwood Cafe in Leitch Ford, Ced White's Restaurant at Bass Lake, and at the office of the School Board in Culver. The School Board expects to have the revised plans reviewed publicly by the architect at an early date. Though the initial plan includes the possibility of a swimming pool, the School Board has not made a definite decision to retain such a facility in the final plan. This matter will be given further study before the revisions are completed.

Before concluding the Monday evening meeting, the School Board also arranged to re-employ Mr. Frank McLane as superintendent for the 1965-1966 term.

The School Board also appointed Mr. Robert Lawrence as a member of the Culver-Union Township Library Board to complete the remainder of the term of Mr. Donald Parson who has submitted his resignation.

Culver Tri Kappas Sponsor Summer Reading Club

The regular monthly meeting of the Epsilon Nu Chapter of Tri Kappa was held Monday evening, May 17, at the home of Mrs. John A. Cleveland, 845 East Shore Drive.

A report was given by the committee on the tornado disaster relief fund. Mrs. James Piersol served as chairman and Mrs. John W. Oldham, vice chairman. The sum of three hundred dollars has been given by the Culver Chapter of Tri Kappa for the relief of these disaster victims.

During the business meeting, the Chapter voted to again sponsor the Culver Public Library Summer Reading Club — the theme being, "Under the Big Top for 1965." For each book read, there will be one point given for the grade the child will be entering in the Fall of 1965. When school opens next Fall, Tri Kappa will present a first, second, and third prize to the rooms having the highest number of points. Any one book may count as one point, providing said book is on the child's reading level and the signature of the parent is given.

The following officers for 1965-66 were elected to take office in the Autumn: Mrs. Samuel Medbourn, president; Mrs. John Edgell, vice president; Mrs. James Piersol, second vice president; Mrs. B. L. Curry, recording secretary; Mrs. Fred Adams, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Donald Davis, treasurer; and Mrs. Robert Curtis, assistant treasurer.

Mrs. Kenneth K. Kraning announced that the date of Friday, Aug. 13, has been set for the Tri Kappa benefit afternoon bridge parties to take place in various Tri Kappa members' homes. Further plans will be announced at a later date.

Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the business meeting. The beautifully appointed tea table was centered with an arrangement of potted pink geraniums. Pink candles in antique powder candle holders added to this most attractive summer table setting.

Mrs. C. Glenn Coolman presided at the silver tea and coffee service.

Assisting hostesses were Mrs. Edgell and Mrs. Frank Setzler.

The Culver Tri Kappas will be losing one of their most valued members when Mrs. Robert A. Bauman (Sue) and Mr. Bauman leave for their new home in Tucson, Ariz., in June. Sue will be greatly missed by our Chapter but she and Bob have our best wishes for a successful future and much happiness in their new home.

Jehovah's Witnesses To Hold Convention

Stanley Spangler, presiding minister of the Plymouth congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, revealed that completion of plans have been made by the congregation to attend a three-day convention in Decatur, Ind., June 11-13. The theme of the convention, "Willingly Fulfill Your Ministry", will be made doubly impressive by the use of the recent modern English translation, "The New World Translation of the Holy Scriptures".

Mr. Spangler stated that the three-day program will include a variety of talks on Bible subjects applying to the present period of time. Sessions will be conducted morning, afternoon and evenings. Saturday afternoon, June 12, the important subject of baptism and ordination will be featured, followed by a public baptism of those newly dedicated.

The highlight and climax of the entire assembly will be at 3 p.m. Sunday, June 13, when W. R. Wissman, Bible lecturer and district supervisor of the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society, delivers the principal address "The Moral Breakdown — What Can Be Done About It?"

Mr. Spangler extends a warm welcome to all the residents of the Plymouth area to attend the assembly. All sessions are free.

Did anyone notice a red lobster roamin' the halls lately? It's only Steve Guise with a bad sunburn! That's what you get for skipping school and taking off for Ohio. (Marsha, too).

Say Joan Dillon, what's this we hear about Lee coming home for the prom Friday night? Gee, that's great! You say you have a date with another boy the same night Lee comes home! Keen—neither one of the guys know about each other. Good luck, kiddo.

Pam F. — How come you were running down an old country road the other night?

It seems the added attraction in the Home Economics Style Show kept stepping off the edge of the runway causing a slight commotion. Next time maybe stuffed dogs would work better than the real thing.

By the way, Betty McFarland, did you ever find out who the mysterious phone call was from? Funniest thing, it was placed from Cincinnati, Ohio; Maybe Steve or Marsh can tell ya about it.

What has blue legs, yellow elbows, brown and green hair, and screams whenever you get near her? It's just Loretta Berger. She's chairman of stage decorations for the prom and she's really doing a great job. She only screams when one of the kids on her committee (who is supposed to be working) steps on the 3 by 20 foot picture she is painting.

Looks like the "sophies" are going to be up to their necks in soap suds. Best of luck guys and gals, hope you wash thousands of cars to make thousands of dollars.

Boy, Diane D., it must be nice to have a date for the Bremen prom on Friday and one for our prom on Saturday. Have fun and don't be late for gym decorating Saturday morning at 8 o'clock.

Say Lonnie D., isn't it just a wee bit early to go swimming? Just because you got a new bathing suit in New York, that's no reason to catch pneumonia.

Gosh Pam, you're legs sure were a beautiful shade of blue Friday night. How'd ya get it off to go to the prom in Argos with Jim?

Hey, Loretta B., how'd you get home Friday night? Pam, Barb, Chip and Cindee rode in Holly's pick-up truck — where'd you go?

Say Mike H., have ya told any funny (?) jokes lately? The last couple were real bombs.

To Mr. Wolfe — The next time you demonstrate how to pour sulfuric acid you'd better put down the test tube in your hand (especially if it has sodium hydroxide in it). Since you accidentally poured it all over your suit and ruined it, maybe your chem classes will take up a collection for you and buy a new one.

Well kids, that about wraps it up for this week . . . so until next week . . . study hard for those exams coming up.

Mrs. McLane's first grade: Open house was a big success with 20 out of 25 pupils being represented to see our exhibits in our room. Our theme was: "The Circus is Coming to Town."

Miss Page's second grade: We had 23 children represented at the open house. We were happy for them to see what we were doing. This week we finished our reading book and are now enjoying the fun of reading other books.

Mrs. Allen's second grade: Many people came to open house and we were glad to show our work. We have finished our "Around the Corner" readers and are reading extra books now. Alan Carlson was eight years old May 15, and Bonnie Moore was eight May 10.

Mrs. Carter's third grade: The parents were pleased with all the exhibits at open house. There were 26 out of 30 pupils represented. We are drilling on our multiplication tables. We have also completed our social studies text. We have received a new boy, Richard Cole, from Germfase, Mich., so our enrollment now is 31. Many of us are now playing baseball and marbles since the weather has become so nice.

Mrs. Keller's fourth grade: We had 91 parents and friends in our room for open house. We displayed stories written using phonetic spelling, maps, and charts. We also had science projects ranging from plants, tadpoles, baby rabbits to a wind vane. We added our total number of books read this year and found the number to be 1,449. We are still reading library books. We wrote reports using the encyclopedias showing that we knew how to use reference books.

Mrs. Hartman's fourth grade:

Our classroom's open house had over 40 parents. On display we had our Norway projects (paper mache physical relief map of Norway and a relief map showing Norwegian food.) We also showed our Norwegian booklets containing maps, pictures, and reports. Also on display was the cross section view of a coal mine which had been constructed in connection with our study of the production of steel. Our Pittsburgh Steel booklets containing maps, pictures, and reports were placed beside the coal mine for the visitors to use. On a nearby bulletin board were pictures of steel products, diagrams of blast furnaces, and drawings of the various mechanical devices used in coal mining and steel production. In the science corner, beside our aquarium, we displayed our experiments involving plants, electricity, air temperature, and shell collections. On each child's desk were study booklets about Algeria in Africa, Lapland, India, New Orleans, health, science, and our solar system. Nancy Heiser and Jane McFarland had birthdays last week. They are now 10 years of age.

Mr. Frettinger's fifth grade: We had many displays including plants, terrariums, charcoal gardens, chemical gardens, collections, hygrometers, models, and many other interesting objects at the open house.

Rainbow's End

By Karen DeWitt

The Home Economics Department presented their annual style show May 11, at 8 p.m. in the gymnasium. The Home Ec III class planned the show under the supervision of Mrs. Barbara Winters, Home Ec. teacher, and Mrs. Alice Wamsley, a student teacher from Manchester college.

As the show began, the first commentator, Linda Thurin, introduced Mrs. Winters and Mrs. Wamsley. Vera Smith and Rosie Wieringa, the other two commentators, then presented the two ladies with corsages from the Home Ec. III girls.

On a colorful stage setting of the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow, 90 girls modeled garments they had made. The different colors of the clothing were alternated according to the colors of the rainbow.

The clothing was divided into several different divisions, according to the amount of experience necessary to make them. The simplest projects, including night wear, blouses, jumpers, and sleeveless shifts, were made by girls with limited sewing experience or as extra projects. Such things as sport outfits and jumpers with matching blouses were a little more difficult and require some experience. The detailed dresses came next. These included such details as paneled fitting, sleeves, collars, and decorative touches. The ensembles, coats, and formals were presented last because these were all done by girls with several years of sewing experience. The ensembles included two- and three-piece suits and dresses with coats.

Throughout the entire show, Loretta Berger played the organ. Following the show, the Home Ec. II class served refreshments to approximately 175 guests that attended.

Quarter miler Dan Haenes will be back trying to break the record again next year (he broke it this year but it was on the final leg of the relay and didn't count.) Phil Scruggs broke the 880 record this year with a time of 2:09.5 in the sectional. All in all this leads to the basis of a good track team next year.

An Interview With A Senior Boy

By Patti McCombs

In 1947, on a cold April night, Celina, Ohio, was blessed with the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Luke Liette. This bouncing baby boy was soon to bring many unthought-of pleasures to Mr. and Mrs. Liette.

It wasn't long until Paul had company around the house, and he began to make the most of it. He played with his brother and sister just as any average, quiet boy would. There were just a few times when things got a little rough and Paul couldn't take it. One time he poked his brother Willy in the ear with a pitchfork, and another time he hit his poor little brother in the head with a stone. (and on and on and on)

Paul made his entrance to good old Culver in the fifth grade. With his lovable charm, he soon made many friends.

It was soon discovered that Paul had unlimited talents when he began sketching pictures of his sister, Kitty. He decided to give up his artwork and now spends most of his time with his favorite hobby, sports.

And so we see the typical life of a typical senior boy. Paul is now president of his class and can be seen most of the time accompanied by a very "mischievous sophomore" girl. He plans to attend St. Joe College next year, where he will study business administration.

Librarians Chosen For Workshop

By Marsha Guise

The student librarians to represent Culver at the 12th annual workshop at Indiana University this year are Leona Schmidt, a junior, and Vicki Smith, a sophomore.

In order to be chosen for this honor the girls had to have good grades along with interest in librarian work. The girls also had to have a good standing in school, plus a good character and personality.

Besides the fact that the students learn a lot about the library, they also gain the experience of campus life. This is one of the main reasons for sending students to this workshop.

I learned from Mrs. Scruggs that the Culver Public Library is the only library in the state that offers scholarships such as these to deserving students — a fact of which we should be proud.

Some of the courses provided this year are as follows: artists and authors, capitulation captions reading in depth, and you're the critic. These are just some of the few.

All the expenses will be paid for by the library except for the transportation. The workshop starts July 18 and ends July 24.

The National Honor Society held its annual Parent-Faculty Supper on April 30, 1965. After a very enjoyable supper, Mr. Miller introduced the speaker for the evening Judge Obermiller. He spoke on juvenile-delinquency with part of the fault resting with parents. The meeting was adjourned and the parents and students had a chance to ask questions.

The Sunshine Society met during eighth period on May 11. The creed and song were given and then plans for the senior breakfast to be held on Tuesday, May 18, were discussed. It was then decided how much the extra peanut-butter cups would cost. The price will be three cups for a nickel. Peggy then told all officers to meet in Miss Shank's room at 12:20 Wednesday. Then the sophomores were honored by a party because they sold the most candy of the three upper classes. The meeting was then closed by the ringing of the bell.

Kewanna Band Entertains CHS

By Cindee Lemar

Friday, May 7, the Kewanna Band, under the direction of Charles Byfield Jr., presented the C.H.S. students with an entertaining 40-minute concert.

The band, consisting of 48 members, started its program by playing the lively "Jubilee March". After catching the attention of the crowd, they continued with a selection containing four parts, called the "Court Festival". This was followed by "The Lady of Spain". To change the pace slightly the band played a piece called "Goldengate" and one called "Streets of Athens", both of the overture form.

Mr. Fouts, Culver's director, then took over the podium and conducted the band with the rousing "Storm King March".

Mr. Byfield then proceeded by directing his group with "Cha Chafor Band". For a marvelous finale he chose the ever popular "Alley Cat".

Our thanks go to Mr. Charles Byfield and his band for their excellent performance.

Editor CULVER CITIZEN:

Having read in a recent issue of the Culver Citizen that after this date passenger service would be discontinued on the Nickel Plate railroad between Buffalo and Chicago, I would like to reminisce a little.

Having been born and raised one mile west of Burr Oak in the house now occupied by Frank McGovern, I have many happy memories about this railroad. The first time I ever rode a passenger train on the Nickel Plate, was in August 1897. One day my mother told my brother Ray and I if we would do a job she wanted done, we could make a trip to Chicago.

Needless to say we got busy. The job was to dig the weeds from grape arbors and there were a lot of them. Our guide on this trip was to be the late Frank C. Baker, whom our parents had great confidence in. The trip was to be made on a Sunday, and the fare was one dollar for the round trip.

It was a great day in our young lives. We went to the top of the tallest building in Chicago, the Masonic Temple, 20 stories high. I shall never forget how people on the sidewalks below, and the horses and carriages in the streets looked, it was a big effort to look down. Then the ride on elevated trains drawn by steam engines

World's Fastest Talker

If there were traffic cops on the lookout for verbal speeders, L. A. "Speed" Riggs' license to talk would have been revoked years ago. This likeable North Carolinian is the fastest talker in the world, having clocked a remarkable 460 words per minute on the way to earning recognition as America's foremost tobacco auctioneer.

Riggs worked hard as a boy to develop the coordination of lips, jaw, tongue and larynx which helped him become the youngest auctioneer as a 17 year old. Two years later he established himself as the best, selling 784 baskets of tobacco in just 42 minutes—a mark which hasn't been matched in the ensuing 30 years.

Radio and TV audiences have known Riggs since 1937 when he began delivering his chant on radio for the American Tobacco Company. Absent from the airwaves since 1954, he returns to network TV this year on behalf of the new Lucky Strike Filters. His chant will be the same pleasant babble which has amused and baffled audiences through the years. However, the familiar LS/MFT will now stand for "Lucky Strike Means Flavor Tip."

was something never to be forgotten and a trip under the Chicago River on the Cottage Grove street car line was a thriller. Then out to Riverview Park, where we shot the Chutes.

Mr. Baker, returned us home in the wee hours of the morning, safe and sound after a thrilling day in the "Windy City." Other trips were made from time to time. In those days there were four passenger trains each way. In 1909 I went to Niagara Falls, round trip fare, $7.50.

One of the trains, Chicago bound, passed our home at 4:40 in the morning and in the summer it was our alarm clock, it was the getting up time during the summer months.

Progress does things sometimes that leaves a void hard to fill. So adieu to you passenger service on the old Nickel Plate, after 80 years of faithful service.

WILLIAM J. SMITH

Mrs. Daniel Kennedy and son, Steve, of Eugene, Ore., have returned to the West Coast after spending the past two weeks visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Amond, 110 South Main Street, and her brother, Ed Amond, Mrs. Amond, and family, 802 Lake Shore Drive. Mr. Kennedy is now completing his Doctorate in Psychology at Oregon University and they will be living in Honolulu for the next five years while he teaches at the University of Hawaii. Mr. Kennedy was on the staff of the Culver Summer Schools in 1957-58 and had several years experience in the South Bend Community

School system.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Taylor returned home Monday night after a four day-trip to Lincoln, Nebr., where they visited the former's mother, Mrs. Maude Taylor, and his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Taylor.

The Chicago Motor Club says that both the driver and the passengers in his car always should leave the automobile from the sidewalk side. Opening your car door in the face of traffic could cause a passing car to hit you or your car, or to have an accident when it swerves to avoid your open door.

Mrs. Cleo Ringle, guest organist, played selections to open the Wednesday evening meeting of the Poplar Grove Woman's Society of Christian Service when 35 guests were entertained from the Plymouth Society.

Mrs. Leslie Mahler, Poplar Grove president, presided. Following hymn singing and introductions, Mrs. Frank Cowen gave devotions featuring a poem "My Friend", written by Laverne Price Brown, who was a Plymouth resident. Mrs. Cowen read scripture from Romans 12 and gave a tribute to mothers who have passed on. Mrs. Ringle played "How Great Thou Art", and the Misses Eva and Mary Norris sang "My Task", accompanied by Bonnie Thompson.

The Misses Lark Olsen and Nancy Brown, Riley High School seniors in South Bend, reported a three-day visit to the United Nations and New York. The girls are among a group of Junior and Senior students chosen from the MYF membership of the South Bend District. Miss Olsen stated the people in that area have complete confidence in the ability of the members of the UN to mediate world problems.

The more than 60 present enjoyed a social hour in the church basement. Mrs. Herbert Blocker was program chairman and Mrs. John Strycker and Mrs. Ellis Clifton headed the hostess committee.

A backwards party was featured at the May meeting of the Home and Hobby Club held Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Cleo Ringle. Mrs. Herbert Blocker won the prize for having the most completely backwards outfit.

The president, Mrs. Richard Calhoun, opened the meeting with the club prayer. Ten members answered roll call with "What you admired most about your mother". Five children were also present.

Lesson suggestions for next year were voted upon, the bake sale was cancelled and it was voted to take a collection to send a club representative to the National Convention at Purdue in August. Mrs. Ben McFarland reported on the May 10 council meeting.

Games and refreshments were enjoyed during the social hour. Mrs. Blocker will entertain the club on June 8.

Soldier Exhibit This Weekend At Eppley Auditorium

A colorful exhibit telling the dynamic story of THE SOLDIER — KEY TO LANDPOWER is scheduled to appear at the Eppley Auditorium at Culver Military Academy on May 22 and 23.

A multiunit display, the SOLDIER exhibit is a vivid graphic presentation of the skills, qualities and missions of the men who serve in Army uniform as Regulars and citizen-soldiers of the Reserve Components.

Dramatic, high-interest transparencies depict the Army professional, the Reservist and the National Guardsmen performing their diverse duties as America's key to landpower — sharpening their combat skills for rapid, effective response to national emergency.

The modular exhibit is highlighted by a seven-minute color motion picture documentary showing many of the means and methods of modern Army mobility. Entitled "Army On the Move," the motion picture is an action presentation of the latest ground and air vehicles undergoing tests or already in the field.

THE SOLDIER — KEY TO LANDPOWER was produced by the U.S. Army Exhibit Unit, Office Chief of Information, Department of the Army — the same Unit that produced the Army's three exhibits in the Transportation and Travel Pavilion at the New York World's Fair.

Visitors to Culver judge it largely by the people they meet here. What do you do to make Culver more attractive to visitors and newcomers?

Success hasn't gone to its price

After all, you don't get the No. 1 place (or stay there year after year after year) unless you give people a lot for their money. That, Chevrolet does. Look what's new for 1965. Everything

Like the handsomest new styling you've ever turned around for another glance at. Like Chevrolet's Jet-smooth ride, even better now with Wide-Stance to steady things as you go. Like however much economy or excitement you'd want, our miserly 140-hp Six to our ferocious Turbo-Jet V8, 325 hp on order.

Besides price, one other thing hasn't changed: Chevrolet's traditional resale value . . . still so good you won't believe it until you get it. So get it (along with all that's new) at your Chevrolet dealer's.

At the Scout-O-Rama held last Saturday, May 15, Troop 290 received a blue ribbon for their excellent exhibit. Scouts participating at the event were Greg Easterday, Carl Strang, Jim Baker, Steve Neff, Kent Lucas, Mike Powers, Bruce Snyder, Jim Davis and Dave Kelly.

Troop 290 met at the Culver Methodist Church Monday, May 17. Pre-opening game was "Rugby". Demonstrations were given on "selecting a campsite" and "how to prepare a menu." During Patrol Corners there were plans made for the upcoming Camporee. There was a "Best Campsite Selection Contest" held and the Flaming Arrows won. The nature calendars were judged and the Panther Patrol won.

The Spring Camporee will be held on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, June 4, 5 and 6, at Myers Lake Scout Reservation. A highlight during the weekend's activities will be a fishing derby. Your fee MUST be turned in at next Monday's meeting.

The Order of the Arrow Conclave will be held Friday and Saturday, May 21 and 22. All O. A. members are expected to attend and help with the annual summer camp project. Also at the meeting, our new O. A. candidate, Carl Strang, will take his Ordeal ceremony.

Next Monday a Board of Review will be conducted. So get your unfinished requirements completed and advance up the ladder toward Eagle. Each patrol is to bring a pack filled with camping equipment and the Flaming Arrow Patrol will give a demonstration on proper packing of a pack at next Monday's meeting.

A Tenderfoot Investiture ceremony will be held for the Webelos Scouts next Tuesday, May 25. Troop leaders are to meet at the Methodist Church at 7:15 p.m. for this program.

FEWER, BIGGER INDIANA FARMS

Indiana's farms are decreasing in number, but increasing in size. State-federal agricultural statisticians at Purdue University estimate that 119,000 farms will be in operation in Indiana this year. This represents a decline of two per cent from the number in operation in 1964.

However, the average size of Indiana farms this year is 159 acres, compared to 156 acres last year. A decade ago the average Hoosier farm totaled 131 acres.

Except in 1946 and 1947, Indiana farm numbers have trended downward. In 1955 there were 150,000 farms in Indiana. As the number of farms decreased, their size increased consistently from two to four acres annually.

Total land in farms this year is estimated at 18.9 million acres. This is 100,000 acres fewer than in farmland in 1964. The rate of decline in the farmland acres has been 100,000 for each of the last four years.

UNUSUAL VEGETABLES

Try your gardening skill this spring with a few out of the ordinary vegetables such as Chinese cabbage, Jerusalem artichokes or vegetable spaghetti.

Don Scheer, Purdue University extension horticulturist, offers a few suggestions for selecting unusual vegetables.

Chinese cabbage, which is good in either a salad or slaw, has a more delicate flavor than regular cabbage and has crisp, tender heads. This vegetable can be grown about the same as you would late cabbage.

The horticulturist also suggests trying peanuts in your home garden this year. Raw peanuts, not boiled ones, can be planted as soon as possible in May. Take them out of the shell and plant seeds eight to 10 inches apart in rows three feet apart. Cultivate shallowly throughout the summer to loosen the soil so that the "pegs" or tips of the peanut branches can get into the soil. Dig peanuts in mid-October.

Jerusalem artichokes can be planted as you would potatoes, dug in the fall and used similarly to potatoes.

Ground sherry is another unusual plant, a yellowish colored fruit which can be used raw or in preserves. Grow this one as you would tomatoes.

Vegetable spaghetti is a squash with an edible portion which looks like spaghetti.

Legal speed limits are established to help motorists escape the laws of nature. The Institute for Safer Living of the American Mutual Liability Insurance Company lists these natural forces which must be controlled through proper car speeds: friction, which helps to hold vehicles to the pavement by tire gripping; centrifugal force, which pulls against a car when swerving or rounding a curve; gravity, which pulls a car downhill; impact, which increases in destructive force as the speed of an impacting object is increased. All are affected by the speeds at which a car travels.

Alcohol produces only one form of drunkenness behind the wheel. The Institute for Safer Living says that other forms of "drunken driving" stem from an emotional addiction to speed, horsepower, and a desire to excel or show-off.

Final "500" Time Trials Scheduled This Week-End

Another exciting week-end of track action is assured at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway Saturday and Sunday, with more than half of the $19,500 in special qualification prizes still "up for grabs."

The six fastest qualifiers on each of the final time trial days will receive cash awards of $1,200, $800, $600, $400, $300 and $200 according to their relative speeds.

These awards total $7,000 for the week-end and $5,500 in additional cash prizes will be paid at the completion of time trials to the 10 fastest drivers regardless of the day on which they qualified.

Only the fastest 33 will be eligible for starting positions on May 31 behind the Plymouth Sports Fury Pace Car and a considerable amount of last-minute tension is anticipated during the final hour of trials Sunday. After the first 33 cars have qualified, other entrants will attempt to replace them in the starting lineup by recording faster speeds.

Official time trials will start Saturday at 11 o'clock and Sunday at noon, continuing each day until 6 p.m. Admission is $2 with free parking space in the infield.

Next week's program of special events will include the annual racing awards banquet on Wednesday night, honoring the mechanic of the 1965 pole position car; the Governor's Ball on Friday night and the "500" Festival Parade in downtown Indianapolis on Saturday night.

With the completion of time trials Sunday, no additional track action will be permitted until Race Day except for a final brief

"tune-up" period on a date not yet selected. The Speedway grounds will be closed to the public all week, but the Speedway museum will be open daily from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m., without charge.

Rains can cause windshields to become splattered with mud and water, impairing visibility and driving efficiency, cautions the Chicago Motor Club. An auto inspection of your car's wiper blades to make sure they are in top condition.

This vaccine feeding is recommended for every one over six weeks old and it should be understood by all that the oral vaccine should be taken regardless of what polio shots have been used. This vaccine sets up an intestinal immunity that may not be received through a shot series.

Please fill out the attached registration form and bring it with you to the feeding station. Every person who is to receive the vaccine is to be registered and you will save time at the feeding station if you will have a complete registration form made out when you arrive.
