Hearing To Be Held Tuesday, July 23 On Relocation Of State Road 10 Near Culver

A public hearing will be held on Tuesday, July 23 at 7:30 p.m. in the Assembly Room of the State Exchange Bank at Culver, Indiana, regarding the planned improvement and partial relocation of a 3.9-mile section of SR 10 near Culver in Marshall County, as proposed by the Indiana State Highway Commission.

The discussions will involve a new 24-foot wide pavement, with 11-foot stabilized shoulders positioned adjacent to each outside edge. Also involved is a new and wider right-of-way corridor, featuring a control of access where feasible.

The route section to be considered commences at a point on existing SR 10, about 0.2 mile west of its west junction with SR 17, and proceeds eastward for the first 0.5 mile along existing alignment. The proposal then veers to a north-easterly direction, prior to reaching the north-south Tamarack Road, and follows this course to a point about 0.5 mile north of existing SR 10 and 0.25 mile east of the east junction with SR 17. From the latter location the proposed highway bends to an easterly direction and runs more or less parallel to the present route, partially following the alignment of east-west County Road No. 16c.

About 0.3 mile east of the Pennsylvania Railroad the proposed project curves to the southeast and rejoins the existing roadway, before terminating at a point 0.27 mile west of Marshall County's north-south Pear Road, approximately 2.0 miles east of Culver.

At least five previous plans for improving SR 10 through the study area have been developed and discarded for various reasons since 1949. Two more were developed as a result of studies which were completed by highway engineers in November, 1967.

Short portions of some of the older plans were used in the more recent studies. In the final analysis, one alignment appeared to be more feasible than the alternate route considered, and it will be recommended at the public hearing, with reasons given as to why it was selected.

Highway study engineers indicate that further improvements on SR 10, particularly in other areas of Marshall County, should also be considered as soon as possible. They forecast that traffic on the highway will more than likely increase to nearly 5000 vehicles per day within the next twenty years, and, since the existing pavement is not capable of carrying this volume of movements, present planning should take this into consideration.

A public hearing is necessary when matching aid from Federal Trust Funds has been requested for a planned road undertaking. Estimated total cost for the proposed project is $1,498,000. Field surveys and design plans will get underway soon, if the hearing results are sufficiently favorable. The 3.9-mile project section is carried in the State's 1967-1969 Statutory Biennial Program for completion of preliminary engineering, with construction possibly to follow in a succeeding biennium.

The hearing will be conducted by Mr. Oral S. Craig, the Commission's Chief Hearing Officer, assigned to the Division of Planning.

It is urged that all interested citizens appear at this hearing and comment as to be economic effect it is felt the recommended alignment will have upon the area it will serve.

A graphic picture depicting the proposal is on display in the lobby of the State Exchange Bank at Culver, Indiana.

HELPFUL HINTS

Always store paints and solvents in tightly closed containers away from heat.

Check swing sets to be sure the heavy rains haven't loosened their anchoring.

When shopping for a swim suit, make sure it is colorfast and completely washable.

Law And Order Day

"Law and Order Day" in Indiana has been proclaimed by Governor Roger D. Branigin for Saturday, July 13, 1968. Branigin noted that under the Constitution of the United States and its Bill of Rights, all citizens are guaranteed the priceless benefits of freedom of religion, speech, press, assembly and equal protection of the laws — rights which must be jealously guarded by every citizen.

Visible evidence that Indiana citizens do support law and order will be found in Indianapolis on July 13, when the Indiana American Legion invites all citizens of the State to participate in its giant law and order parade and rally in conjunction with its 50th anniversary celebration. This special day has been designated by the Legion to encourage all citizens to salute Indiana's law enforcement agencies.

Buy The Right Varnish

Varnish is an easy to apply, durable finish for furniture. If you have a refinishing project underway, you'll find several types of varnish at your favorite paint or hardware store.

A shiny varnish finish is hardest and most water-resistant — usually the best choice for a dining table top. For traditional furniture which originally had a high shine, this varnish will help retain the authenticity.

A flat varnish gives contemporary furniture the popular "no finish" appearance. It looks like bare, unfinished wood but is not as resistant to spotting and staining as the other two types.

The most popular refinishing choice is a satin finish varnish which gives a waxed appearance without waxing.

Actually, a clear varnish doesn't change the color of the wood. Rather, it emphasizes the beauty of the wood's natural grain and depth of color.

Hot Weather Tips

Here are some general rules that will get most healthy individuals comfortable through the summer. Those who have heart disease in any form or suspect it, should follow a doctor's advice, says Dr. Warren E. Coggeshall, Indianapolis is internist and president of the Indiana Heart Association.

1. Don't go beyond your normal capacity in anything you do.

2. Don't overeat.

3. Wear loose garments, white or light in colors; wear a head covering in any prolonged period in the hot sun to avoid heat stroke.

4. Don't rush into vacations. Working into a program of moderate exercise gradually will protect your heart.

5. Don't gulp icy drinks. Cool drinks will put you at ease.

6. Avoid sudden and extreme temperature changes. For example, plunging an overheated body into cold water can trigger a heart attack in a susceptible individual.

7. Remember, your heart is not on vacation. Treat it with care and it will respond with a happy beat — through the summer and the whole year round, cautions Dr. Coggeshall.

The marriage of Miss Mavis Elizabeth Webster and Gregory Patrick Yapp was solemnized at 2 p.m. Saturday, July 6, at St. James Cathedral in South Bend. Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Webster, 834 E. Indiana Ave. South Bend are the parents of the bride and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Albert Linhart, R.R. 1, Culver. Father Custis performed the double ring ceremony before the altar which was decorated with bouquets of daisies and mixed flowers. Mrs. Ethel Gumer, organist, played the nuptial music and accompanied Miles Hooton who sang "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an A-line gown of Alecon lace fashioned with Kobuki sleeves with lace applique at the neckline and featured a detachable train. Her shoulder length veil of illusion was attached to a satin bow and she carried an arrangement of daisies and baby's breath. Mrs.

George Osmanski was matron of honor and bride's maids were Mrs. Gregory Crane and Mrs. Arnold Hooton. All the attendants wore identical floor length gowns of yellow crepe with empire bodice with daisy accented waistline and chiffon overcoats with pleated elbow-length sleeves. They also carried white daisies and baby's breath. Miss Susan Linhart, sister of the bridegroom, as flower girl, wore a ballerina length dress of pale yellow made with gathered waist and daisies in her hair. Jeffrey Fenimore, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man and ushers were Bryan C. Webster, brother of the bride, and Arnold Hooton. Richard D. Linhart, brother of the bridegroom, was ring bearer. A reception was held following the ceremony in the social rooms of the church. Allen Webster, brother of the bride, was in charge of the guest book. The couple left for a honeymoon camping trip to Wyoming after which they will be at home at 634 N. Lafayette Blvd. South Bend. For going away the bride chose an apple green A-line dress with black accessories. The new Mrs. Yapp graduated from Riley High School and Vagne Beauty College in South Bend and from Coiffure Creation Academy, Pittsburg, Pa. and is employed at Robertson's Beauty Salon in South Bend. Mr. Yapp graduated from Culver High School and attended Purdue University. He is presently employed at Bendix Missile Plant.

Another Bite

The surcharge is going into effect. Many employers started using the new tables for figuring the withholding tax the first of July. This takes one more bite out of the weekly pay check but the way it is set up, can take a much larger bite out come next year when the 1968 taxes are due.

The surcharge was just recently signed into law and employers were asked to start taking the additional tax out 15 days after the president's signature was affixed to the bill. However, the bite that can hurt, is the fact that the surcharge is to be applied from an individual's earnings since the first of April. Three months that the extra 10 per cent is due already has expired and that hasn't been taken out. This will have to show up when the final taxes are figured for each person.

The ten per cent figure has caused a lot of comment that is unnecessary. What it basically boils down to (not 100 per cent accurate through) is that the amount of money now withheld will have about 10 per cent of that amount taken out again. The tables figure out roughly to this. For example, a single person with no dependents, making $100 per week, prior to the surcharge would have $16.80 withheld weekly. With the surcharge, this will jump to $18.40, or approximately the 10 per cent.

This surcharge, put into law along with a spending cut in Washington to supposedly head off chances of more inflation, is originally scheduled to last only until June 30, 1969. However, a lot can happen in this time and the future of the surcharge will be known when further action takes place.

Regardless of the future after a year of this, right now the pay checks of all will show slightly less in take home pay as another tax bite must be accepted by all of us.

Working Together

Culver is planning a very big week end of activities in the near future, this featuring boat races and a Venetian Flotilla. Centered around this, the merchants are planning a special event, Sidewalk Days, and several of the other organizations are also planning activities and projects of different nature. Events are tentatively scheduled to begin before the Saturday evening Flotilla and the Sunday Boat Races which will fall on July 27 and 28.

It is going to take a lot of hard work by many people to give to the area residents of Culver and the many visitors, this week end of fun and entertainment. It is also going to be a fine show of cooperation between many forces as they combine to work together for one fine cause.

Culver is a unique town. It is an average mid-American small town as far as the town itself goes. It is controlled by an elected Town Board, which operates the business of the community. It is controlled by an elected Town Board, which operates the business of the community. It also has several very fine service clubs and organizations. It is made up of people who are average people and work hard to have and maintain what they have. In this sense Culver is an average town.

However, Culver also is not an average town in another sense. Culver has two of the finest attractions any town or even city could want. First here is a very beautiful and well known lake, Lake Maxinkuckee. Not only is this lake bordering the town for the finest of summer facilities for entertainment and such, it is a large lake that easily promotes a lot of business and attracts many people from miles around.

Second, Culver has the world famous Culver Military Academy. This fine school is also a great drawing attraction and a very fine asset to the community. People from all over the United States know of this institution and visitors from every state in the union have at one time or another visited this Academy.

Now, through the hard work of several people, all these fine facilities are being put together towards a common goal... that being an all-out effort to work together to make things progress in one direction, that being forward. In such a case as this, petty jealousies and personal feelings must be denied. A cooperative of everyone to do just that.

Every average person can help the image of Culver by being Culver. Such small things as a smile... a friendly greeting to a stranger... and most of all, good words and thoughts about your own community. You have something to be proud of and progress is continuing along this line. With a new school that will offer much to the area, industry in the area in the past few years to offer residents of Culver employment at home, a good small town business district and merchants who want to help Culver progress, it truly is something to be proud of and the rest of it is up to you. Your attitude and pride is a number one asset if it is progress the same as the rest of the community. Positive thought and desire by everyone can help a lot in showing Culver to the world.

With only two carry away the people who came in on four trains, there were a considerable number who were compelled to stay over Sunday.

The country board of review on assessment states that in Culver the number of lots is 400; valuation, $39,920; average $99.80; improvements, $95,000; total lots and improvements, $134,920; average, $37.20. Personal property is valued at $98,895; the grand total, $233,815. This is a gain over 1907 of 2,000.

Letters Ford Dedicates Plaque To Men And Women From Township Who Have Served Their Country

Letters Ford Dedicates Plaque 18 Ford, possibly one of the most The community of Letters civic-minded and progressive communities of its size, dedicated a rock mounted memorial plaque Sunday, July 7. The plaque is in honor of the men and women of Aubbeenaubee Township who have served their country.

The Letters Ford Business Men donated an eighth of an acre of ground in town and all work and most of the supplies were donated.

For the festivities, 30 of the oldest living residents were invited to the ceremony. A book on the History of Letters Ford by Guy Shadle, oldest resident of the community, was made available to the public for the first time and Mrs. Shadle spoke briefly.

Richard Crull, president of the Business Men's Association accepted the state and national flags which were presented by the color guard of American Legion Post 36 of Rochester.

The state tree, a tulip tree, was planted by the Masons of the area as well as representatives from South Bend, Bremen, and Kewanna.

The Main speaker of the day was Judge Wendall Tombaugh of Rochester who praised the community for its efforts.

The women of the community served free cake to everyone who attended.

Of course the average man has faith. You can tell by the way he drives.

"Call up your husband and tell him you will be late, and then go out with me," the patron told the pretty manicurist in the barber shop.

"You tell him," she said sweetly, "he's shaving you."

It is said that too many church members are working at the tailoring trade: tailoring their religion to fit their prejudices.

CULVER COMMENTS

By Alienor Osborn

The Maxinkuckee Yacht Club members have their weekly sailboat races and the pontoons and speedboats will snow off during the Regatta. Is there nothing for us inner tube and rubber duck set?

I overheard one of our summer visitors bemoaning the fact she couldn't find any decent caviar in "this little burg." Until this happened, I didn't realize how underprivileged we are here. No caviar! Heavens to Betsy - how have we managed? Now I wonder if we are supplied with pickled octopus or rattlesnake meat. So far, I have been getting along with homemade chocolate covered ants and pickled pigs feet.

For those people who do live in the big city all winter and miss the excitement, I have a suggestion. Do you miss the theatre? Come down to the Citizen office Thursday morning when we first see the paper. The hysterics and dramatics down here makes anything written by Tennessee Williams look dull. Or perhaps you miss the races? After a few tips from us yokels you can make a book on who will make it to the restaurant first for any given coffee break. Miss the slum areas? Come in on Monday and look at our desk. City council meeting? Again I refer you to the coffee breaks.

Isn't it amazing how some people grow with responsibility and others just bloat?

Helpful Hints — Hurrah for summer! Summer means sun, swimming, and salads. Salads mean you can have a clean refrigerator all the time. No more problem of what to do with leftovers — make a salad with them. You can combine just about anything if you add plenty of onion and slosh on the salad dressing. If anyone looks askance of the mess, give it a fancy name and they'll jump right in. The basic ingredient is lettuce, then open the refrigerator door and let it fly. Bake beans, cottage cheese, the last of the old meat loaf, a shrivled apple, a dab of macaroni and cheese — now add a few onions and a strong flavored salad dressing. Garnish with Tomatoes and serve immediately. If you prefer, you can cool it for several hours to let the flavors mingle. This could be risky but nothing ventured, nothing gained. Serve with iced tea and a dessert. If any dessert is left you can use it in tomorrow's salad.

Who else but the Lions Club would think of putting Jesse Overmyer elbow deep in cotton candy. I guess they figured they couldn't find anyone sweeter. Every Sunday you can watch him producing pink clouds of candy in the park that is eagerly consumed by hungry swimmers.
