Cavaliers Thwart Mentone; Bow To Plymouth

On Friday night, the Cavaliers pushed their record to 14-5 by defeating Mentone on its own floor, 71-59. Culver established a fairly even 18-16 first quarter lead, but increased the margin to 12 by the half-time buzzer.

From then on the Cavaliers took charge of the game retaining their 12 point margin at the end.

Rick Pugh and John Szponar collected 55 of Culver's points for the night, scoring 29 and 24 points, respectively. Dennis Meyer lead the Bulldogs with 29 points. Visiting Culver Falls to Plymouth

After a close first half, a third period Plymouth surge took the Pilgrims past the Cavaliers by a final 71-60 count on Saturday night.

Culver started out in fine form, leading most of the first stanza. At the close of this period, Culver still held a slim 16-14 lead.

The Pilgrims really got down to business in the second quarter and outscored the Culver five 22-19. Taking their first lead of 19-18 at 5:29 of the second period, Plymouth drove on to put the Pilgrims quintet out in front 36-35 at halftime intermission.

The third quarter proved to be a fatal one for Culver. In this period Plymouth poured in 11 straight points with little resistance by the Cavaliers. After a great exchange of points by both teams, a capacity crowd at the Plymouth gymnasium saw the Pilgrims stretch their margin to 57-49 at the three-quarter mark.

In the last eight minutes of regulation play, Culver managed to cut their opponents lead considerably, but each time were stopped short by the determined Plymouth ball team. The final buzzer marked the end of a thrilling game with the Pilgrims outdoing the Cavaliers 71-60.

Sophomore Steve Phillips tallied 21 and Dick Bergman 11 to lead the Plymouth scorers, while Culver's John Szponar led all scorers with 23 points to pace the Culver attack. Rick Pugh and John Wamsley had 16 and 10 points, respectively for the Cavaliers.

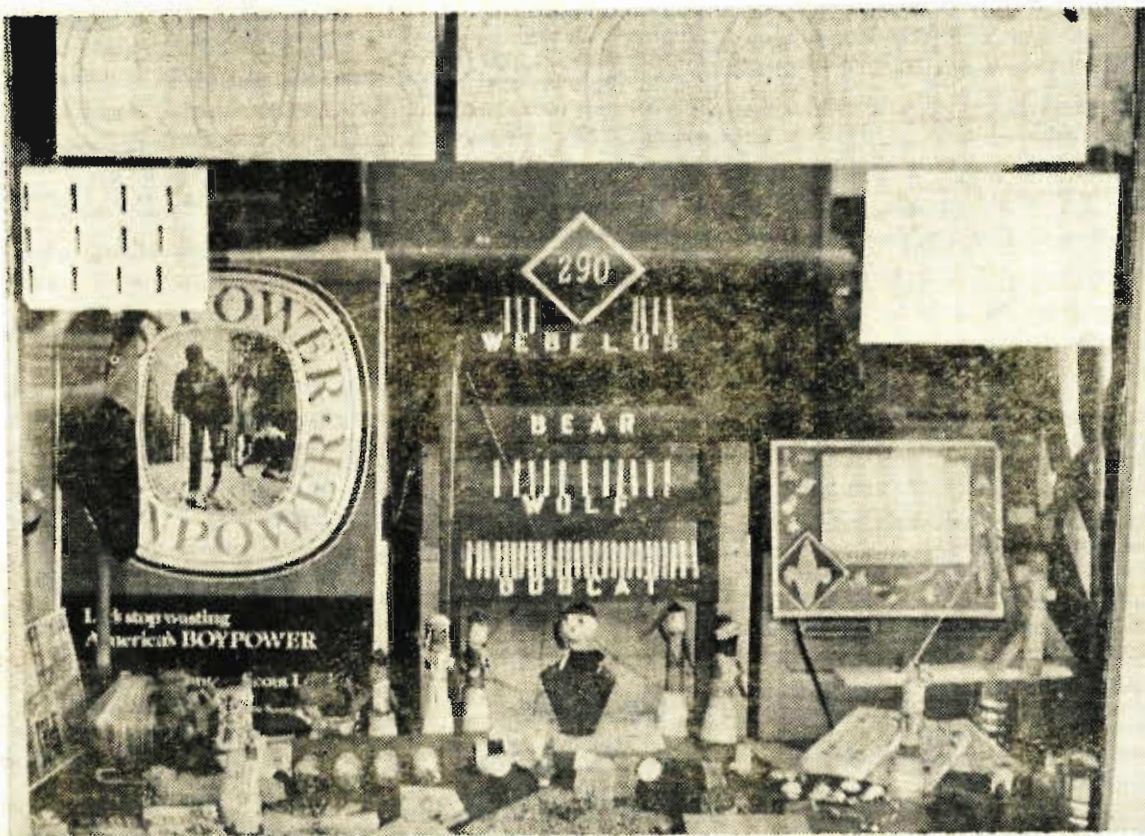

Culver, with its 14-6 record, will face South Bend LaSalle in the home gym this Friday, Feb. 21. Starting time for the B-Team game will be 6:30 EST.

Cub Scouts Display Handicrafts In Kline's Window

Above is a picture of the display of handicrafts made by local cub scouts and featured in the window of Kline's Appliance store. Many hours of work by the boys and much imagination by their leaders are represented here.

This One Didn't Get Away

Henry Goodman, star car fixer at Gates & Calkoun, has witnesses to back up the following:

While fishing through the ice on Lake Maxinkuckee, Hank got a bite but before he could gain control, the fish took off with bait, hook, line and pole. Not one to give up easily, our fisherman baited up another line and within five minutes he caught a perch. You guessed it... the perch was the same one that made off with his original equipment. He not only got the fish but his original pole as well!

His witnesses to this episode were Jim Rinesmith and Bob Hodges.

Eastern Star Elects Mrs. Grover

Cavaliers Take Best Record Into Knox Sectional

The Culver Cavaliers, as thrifigs stand today, will take the best record into the Knox Sectional this year as the Cavaliers will be playing in a six team meet for the first time. Culver has as its first round opponent, the LaCrosse team, who at present is 11-7. The Cavaliers are 14-6 at present.

LaCrosse has been a very high scoring team this year with a senior dominated lineup. The two teams will play the tourney opener at 7:00 p.m. Thursday. The second game will pit Winamac team and North Judson. Winamac presently is 10-8, but all Cavalier fans will remember a 10 point victory scored by the Indians over Culver just a couple of weeks ago. North Judson has a 4-15 record this season.

On Saturday, Knox, 9-11, and Oregon-Davis, 7-13, will meet in a game that will put the winner right in the final game. The two Thursday winners will then decide the other finalist with a Saturday afternoon meeting. Saturday play is scheduled for 12:30 and 1:45. All games will be played on Central Standard time.

The winner of this sectional will go on to the South Bend Regional the following Saturday at the Notre Dame Athletic and Convocation Center. The Knox winner will battle the winner of the South Bend Sectional with the Michigan City and Chesterton winners in the other afternoon battle.

Chlorination Of Water To Start Friday, Feb. 21

Announcement was made this week that initial steps for operation of the new water treatment plant on S. Ohio St. will be started on Friday, Feb. 21, 1969.

One of the first steps is to activate the chlorination system through scientific measuring equipment installed in the new plant. Owners of aquariums are advised to let the new chlorinated water stand in an open vessel at least 48 hours before changing the water in their aquariums.

In connection with the operation of the plant there will be periodic flushing of water lines. This flushing operation will take place only on Wednesdays, Thursdays and Friday until the plant is in full operation.

The entire process of activating the new plant will take several months and, of necessity, will cause some inconveniences to users of water in Culver. However, it is hoped that these can be kept to a minimum.

Van Horn New Deputy Marshall

The town board announced at their Monday meeting that Ron Van Horn will be sworn in as special deputy marshall replacing Loren Kiel who resigned the position. Mr. Van Horn will work in conjunction with deputy marshall Al Sytsma and special school deputy marshall, Emil Krull. These three men will work under the direction of Marshall Sam Madonna.

Negotiations for a new light truck for the water department are under way with Wicker-Ford-Mercury Sales. The Board hopes to work out the details for the contract soon. The present truck will be traded in.

An announcement concerning activating the chlorination treatment of the new water system as of Friday, February 21 was made.

In answer to a question by Jack Spencer concerning the new water tower, Donald Osborn, board president, stated that the new water tower is not yet operational and will be by-passed for the present. Mr. Osborn also was pleased to announce that the Easterday Construction Co. will operate the water plant for the period of one year. At the end of this time more will be known concerning manpower needed for the system.

Verl McFeely reported that the new stop sign for the post office corner has arrived and work to install it will commence in the near future.

Osborn suggested that all organizations and private citizens make known their feelings regarding country zonings. He stated that the Town Board was supporting this plan. There is a possibility that if the county plan is adopted, the town planning commission will be asked to relinquish their control of a two mile limit outside corporate bounds.

Mrs. Jane Scruggs, Culver Librarian, appeared and asked help in ascertaining the origin of the Culver Library. It must be known whether it is a town library or a town-township library. Most people have felt that it is a town and township taxes are equal and this has not been in effect. As it now stands, the township merely contributes a sum in support yearly. Mrs. Ruth Lennen will search past minutes of town board meetings in an effort to straighten out this problem.

The surest way to do away with war is to be prepared for it.

The Impressionable Age

The Impressionable age. This is the most important time in the lives of people and the results of recent almost unbelievable news stories reflects this statement 100 percent. The impressionable age is the 17-22 bracket, basically the age when growing children are about to become adults. Completing their high school years and entering into colleges or the ways of adult life in various occupations or as married adults, many decisions face the youth at this time.

There was once a statement made by the Communistic powers of the world that they would take over the world without firing a shot. Stop and think now how true this could possibly be.

Now don't think for one minute that shots aren't being fired... they are not only on battlefields but right here in our back yards. However, these shots are being fired by others than those who said they would take over the world without firing a shot.

One of the main news items of almost any day is the trouble on college and university campuses. This is nationwide and getting to the point of a seriousness that no one can look at it with tongue in cheek and say just a fad. This is now a serious thing that could threaten the many institutions of higher education.

Trouble among this age group isn't even limited to the United States. It doesn't take too much memory to remember when Richard Nixon was vice-president under Dwight Eisenhower and was touring South American countries only to see demonstrations by the student mobs. It has happened in Europe... it happens everywhere in the world at this age simply because this is the age when trouble makers can leave their indelible mark on the minds of people. They can stir up trouble and never enter the picture at all.

It has been said many times that the Communistic influence in America's college and university faculties would shock anyone if they knew the true extent of this. Add to this the fact that "fad happy" students are ready or anything different and you have all the ingredients for trouble. At the time of this writing it was only yesterday that major stories of trouble sprung of several campuses, added to by a story of "Purdue's Happy Hippie," a shameful, disgusting piece of reporting calling attention to an almost local boy who evidently has talent beyond that of most, but ambitions under that of all.

The Wisconsin University Campus looked like a battleground on the news Thursday night. Stories broke of the trouble at Duke University. Notre Dame had another flare-up, this time involving negro basketball players, but one that could have gotten out of hand very quickly had it been handled wrong. It is not just these three. The California colleges have received more headlines over the recent years than our exploits in space. Schools in the East, South, Midwest and Far West have all had their share. It isn't going to stop overnight. It will continue to be headlines as long as the impressionable age can be subjected to the wrong type of people.

The story about the "Happy Hippie" tells more than the lines of type will state. It sounds as if it would be terrible for the war in Vietnam would end simply because this group would have nothing to protest. Maybe if this "Happy Hippie" were in Vietnam in the thick of the fighting he would take a little more realistic view of the situation and PRAY for peace as many others do who are giving sons and husbands, friends and loved ones in this effort to stop the spread of Communism. Add to this the fact it was emphasized that money was running low for this group, that is nothing more than an advertisement for funds to come in.

This is a state supported school involved... which means it affects you and me as taxpayers. Higher education? Yes! Protests and trouble? No.

It looks like the college and university administration is going to have to step in and step in fast and hard. Such actions all over the country are ruining the chance for a decent education for the larger percentage of students who attend college for this reason. If it takes the governors, let them swing into action.

It is about time some one is impressing the impressionable age with some good instead of the steady diet of trouble that is presently fed them.

This writing, coming several days after the main body, has to take time to salute Rev. Theodore Hesburgh's decision Monday at the University of Notre Dame. The "get tough" policy is the first step taken by the administration of a college or university against such actions as we have mentioned. The stand taken, should it ever be put into action, is definite and to the point and will eliminate some of the trouble makers, who are in a minority, but now are abstracting the complete operation of our nation's colleges and universities.

Not too much can be said in favor of Father Hesburgh for his stand.

CULVER COMMENTS

We may still be in for some cold weather but I have seen the first signs that Spring is rapidly approaching... they removed the Christmas tree from the lot next to the NIPSCO building. If it had remained much longer the birds would have been nesting in it.

The lawmakers in Indianapolis have really been having a busy time with the multitude of bills introduced at this session. One that passed and really gave me a lump in the throat was the one proclaiming the mushrooms as the Indiana State Fungus. Now we have had the peony as the state flower for some time but not until this year did these dedicated men and women get around to giving us a State Fungus.

Not everyone was pleased with the choice. Even I felt that there are other fungi that should have been considered. Not one of them considered athletic foot fungus or the friends of all us housewives, good old mildew. Majority vote counts in this land of ours, however, so I will forever more honor the mushroom.

Maybe they will vote for a state virus or parasite in the years to come. I'm so-so concerning the virus but I sure have some suggestions for the parasite division.

ATTENTION Culver Youth: I have been told that you don't show enough respect. Some of the adults at the Culver-Winamac game gave you a good example of how to conduct yourselves by throwing coins when they were displeased. From what I have been told, you didn't take part in this demonstration of "respect". Shame on you.

Designers of office furniture employed by one firm have come up with the frightening information that secretaries and other sedentary office workers are becoming more and more bottom-heavy. The derriere of the lady worker has expanded two inches in the past 30 years.

If this is true, I think the ladies should receive pay increases in line with the rising hip measurement. It's a terrible thing to go into a job, serve it faithfully, and come out pear-shaped.

Compensations are made for any and all injuries received on the job and what can be more injurious to the female figure than two inches on the posterior?

Another sign that I was born way too early is the news that in the future a home computer will be as common to the home as a TV set is today. This device will be able to plan balanced meals, handle budgeting, do the bank, analyze symptoms of a sick child and even give Mom a few tips about playing bridge.

None of those seem to earth shaking but I could use one programmed to make up excuses as to why dinner isn't ready on time, or how I could possibly manage to forget the laundry all week. Whenever my family starts yelling "Why didn't you...", it would be heavenly to say "Go ask my computer."

I suppose the main reason I keep writing this column despite the battering I get, is to prove I'm not chicken. In the last two weeks, however, I have noticed a few pin feathers appearing.

On Saturday night a heavy rainfall, accompanied with thunder and lightning, turned to sleet and on Sunday morning a shroud of ice three-fourths of an inch thick covered the landscape. Devastation was seen on every hand. Hundreds of fruit trees were ruined, telephone lines in every direction were down. A section of 15 poles went flat on the road between Behmer's at the top of Bunker Hill and the Academy. The telegraph line suffered in like manner and the Culver office was able to get communication no farther south than Kewanna or north than Lakeville. On Monday night a snow storm set in and by morning there were six inches on the ground. The last great sleet storm was exactly 26 years ago on the 14th of February, 1883, but was more severe than the present storm.

Voice Of The People

Dear Sir,

In re-reading the Citizen editorial of February 13th, I feel that 95% of the criticism toward the newspaper could have been avoided by two things. (1), if you had began the missing hubcap letter with something other than "though you'd appreciate another item about the capable Culver boys in blue", especially since Mrs. Wise had written her letter that was commenting about the Cadets running on the playing floor. This was interpreted by the majority of Citizen readers as referring to the Cadets; followed by "little boy blues" in the missing hubcap complaint. My second point; if you would of made an editor's note at the end of Hub's letter, explaining that the complaint, was with the lack of police protection of the automobiles at the gymnasium and it wasn't a criticism of the Cadets!! The use of a rope at the edge of the gym floor next season would aid in keeping any fans out the area; furthermore the announcer could point this out before the game is over.

It is difficult for one who has grown up in the town of Culver, to be overly critical of the local police situation; on this we agree with some of Mr. Urbin's editorials calling for more and better police protection and co-operation. We feel though, that Chief Madonna is doing a good job with the finances allowed for his operation and his police auxiliary... more money would be needed to provide for fulltime police surveillance.

Many of us can remember a decade ago, when one policeman was able to take care of local problems and he knew every individual that was in town. Times changed with more automobile ownership and other faces were seen on Culver streets, especially at night. Less than 4 years ago, it was evident that one man could not efficiently be on call 24 hours a day, to take care of loitering, speeding and security problems. At one point Mr. Urbin, it was a problem to walk at night without fear of being bumped off the sidewalk by a group of unruly loiterers or risk being run down by a speeding auto. The time finally came, when the Culver townspeople realized that the day of one policeman was past and the need for a police force had arrived.

As everyone was aware, Mr. Mikesell did a good job throughout the years, but he couldn't do it all without extra fulltime help.

If, Mr. Urbin, you are going to mention the need for adequate police protection in your editorials, please do not contradict yourself by prefacing a discontented woman's message and her hubcap, with such a statement showing hypocrisy... then there would be no feelings hurt, intentional or unintentional. The Civic and Service clubs of Culver have worked too hard over the years to create good will between the Town, Academy, and Lake community, to let it all be swept away by one disgruntled individual. I wonder if the woman who lost her hubcap would be willing to pay more tax money for further police protection??

I wonder if this woman has ever taken the time to offer any constructive advice to the PTA or the townboard regarding local problems? I seriously doubt it!! There is much tendency in all of us to expect something for nothing and recite Lazypersons' prayer, "Oh Lord, give me the strength to complain without suffering!" Nothing great or even good, can be achieved without personal effort, let's help our community by helping each other constructively... not destructively please!

Mrs. Osborn writes an interesting column, but she must not be aware of the fact that her continual digs at Chief Madonna and his police auxiliary are doing a disservice to your editorial plea for respect of law and order. Mr. Ulrich is correct, that Mrs. Osborn appears to be crucifying authority; is Mrs. Osborn showing respect and setting an example for our youth in attacking the police department? Is it possible that she has a personality clash with Chief Madonna and is it also possible that she is angry with him in not reporting to her the weekly police record?? This certainly appears to be a personal vendetta for some reason unexplained.

Culver Alumnus

Editor:

Concerning the February 13th issue of the Citizen, I wish to say that I am in full agreement with the letter contributed by Mr. David Ulrich.

I would be the first to admit that very little of any harm is done by poking fun at those who hold positions of authority if it is not overdone. I do feel, however, that the "Culver Comments" article has become increasingly harmful to the reputations of the members of the Town Board, the law enforcement officers, and the town of Culver in general.

It seems that the author of this article is the possessor of an unending stream of detrimental comments concerning the manner in which the town is run. All through the summer months, these comments concerned the condition of the city streets. It was as though the author was not aware that a street cannot be dug up, filled in, and resurfaced, all at precisely the same time.

To make matters worse, the author then directed her comments toward the members of the police force. In my opinion, the officers should be commended, rather than criticized, for the job they have done in making this community a safe place in which to live.

In conclusion, I would like to state that the reason this column is so widely read is that, in my opinion, the citizens wish to know just how far the author will go in exercising her right of freedom of the press.

Sincerely,
James H. Taber

To Editor of Culver Citizen:

After carefully reading all of the rather emotional letters to the editor in regard to the recent CMA - CCHS basketball game, I am convinced that only we adults are re-acting more like children, than children.

The student bodies and both teams conducted themselves with much more than normal restraint usually seen at the height of Hoosier Hysteria.

Let us hope that the generation gap will protect these teen-agers from us. It would be a shame if a vociferous minority spoiled this fine rivalry for them.

E. W. Mattox

Dear Sir:

After reading the Voice of The People last week I realized how much misinterpretation and malice can result from a few lines of comment. The "hubcap" incident has grown completely out of proportion. This should not have reflected in any way on the Academy as the incident had happened at a basketball game previous to the one the cadet corps attended and was in reality directed as a "joking" jab at the Culver police. Not that I expect them to stand guard over my car in the high school parking lot, but surely some distress over the incident is warranted.

The comment was meant to amuse not cause apparently pent-up feelings to explode. As long as I have lived in this community, I have never heard the term "little boy blues" used in connection with the cadets, only as a term used in Culver Comments directed toward law enforcements officers jokingly. The cadets, in my opinion, as a whole, are well disciplined, well mannered boys who are an asset to Culver.

My few lines of comment were unfairly, a week late, and misplaced following Mrs. Wise's letter. It was never meant to infer that the cadets were responsible. You will understand "Culver Alumnus" that I never accused anyone group of boys, cadet or otherwise, as I am sure that hubcaps will continue to be stolen no young people are around. Also, I hope this will help Arthur G. Hughes to rationalize his remarks and renew his interest in the Citizen and community.

Eric Hughes, your letter was beautifully written. I agree that it would be a difficult job for a cadet to conceal a hubcap. Mr. Ulrich, it seems to me that a gym floor and one hubcap was just the ammunition you needed to attack the very best column of the Culver Citizen. The comments of Mrs. Osborn have never damaged anyone's reputation nor stated anything that wasn't already common knowledge. It is a cleverly written column. Where is your sense of humor? It is such an inexpensive necessity of life.

Oh come on now, Mrs. M. F. England, why shouldn't letters the Citizen receive be published? Freedom of speech remember?

In closing, I sincerely hope too many culverites do not have red faces because they jumped at what was really a meager opportunity to "unload". The whole sum-substance is, a three line comment in the wrong column, on the wrong day.

Support Dr. Bowen!

Dr. Bowen "told us like it is" this past week. He proposed increasing the sales tax and gross income tax by 1 per cent each. If his proposal is not accepted, property taxes will rise again and there will be no property tax relief.

Dr. Bowen has received support from the Indiana Manufacturers Association, the Indiana Farm Bureau, the Indiana Parent-Teacher Association Legislative Commission, and numerous other organizations.

Now it is our turn to support supporting his proposal so that property tax relief can become a reality. Write other legislators and Governor Whitcomb indicating that we approve of Dr. Bowen's courageous proposal.

Mrs. Hazel Henderson recently wrote in the National Observer about the impact women can have in bringing about needed changes.

She said, in part:
"What is needed in this country today is a revolution of the decent, the constructive, and the positive. This is where we must begin. We must begin to affirm, at every gathering of our friends and neighbors, our belief in social justice — not just law and order; in corporate responsibility — not just business as usual; in responsive government — not callous bureaucracy and hack politics."

Mrs. Henderson further noted:
"One of our most serious problems today is that many of these behavioral sanctions have broken down, and we are relying more and more on the police to do the job for us. No civilized society can operate this way. Unless each member of the community internalizes certain agreed-upon standards of behavior, the police will become overburdened and degenerate into repression."

Harris - Westfall Wedding Saturday

Baskets of white chrysanthemums and white roses decorated St. Anne's church in Monterey for the wedding on Saturday, February 15 of Brenda Ann Harris and Terry Lee Westfall. The 5:30 p.m. evening ceremony was performed by Rev. Edward Matuszak. Organ music was provided by Sister Frances and the choir of St. Anne's church.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Catherine Boyle Porter of Monterey. Mrs. Jean Westfall is the mother of the bridegroom.

The bride chose an A-line gown of ivory satin fashioned with an Empire waist. The neckline featured a high jeweled wedding ring collar. The sleeves formed points at the wrist and were set with seed pearls and crystal beading. The short chapel train was held in place with a matching headpiece of crystal beading and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses and rose buds with lace and ribbon.

Serving as maid of honor was Miss Patricia Bickle of Chicago.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Shiela Keller of Monterey and Miss Sara Porter, sister of the bride of Chicago. The brides attendants all wore gowns of red sheer organza with ruffled necklines and long sleeves ruffled at the wrist. Ankle length slim skirts were accented with cummerbund waists. They wore matching headpieces.

The best man was Samuel Joe Allen of Monterey. Groomsmen were Robert Keller of Monterey and Wayne Master of Kokomo.

A reception was held following the ceremony in the American Legion Hall in Monterey. A buffet supper was served and a four-tier wedding cake was enjoyed by the guests.

The bride wore a red, white and blue nautical coat and dress to match and blue accessories for her going away trip to Michigan. They are now at home at Leiters Ford.

The groom is employed by Plymouth Homes, Plymouth, Indiana.

Leiters Boy Scouts Observe Scout Week

The Boy Scout troop of Leiters Ford observed Boy Scout week with a complete camping display in one of the store windows at Leiters Ford. A tent and teepee fire under a tripod and many tools and utensils that would be found at a real campsite are displayed in an evergreen background that is very realistic. The display is lit at night and the scouts invite everyone to see this display. The Cub Scouts and Girl Scouts also have displays in other windows.

Scout Sunday was observed with all the members of Troop

457 boarding a bus and attending and conducting the complete church service at Monterey Methodist Church. They then boarded the bus and went to the Leiters Ford Methodist Church where they again conducted the complete church service. Both service were conducted under the direction of Rev. Norris King.

On Monday night the Boy and Cub Scouts and Girl and Brownie Scouts held a carry-in dinner for their families and friends. After the supper, a court of honor was conducted by scoutmaster Paul Davidson. It was opened with each scout presenting their mother with a corsage. Troop 457 initiated five new members into their troop and the Girl Scouts installed three new members. Advancements and merit badges were presented to the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and Cub Scouts. After the court of honor, everyone was invited to see the scout displays and demonstrations. The Beaver Patrol of Troop 457 demonstrated rope making, panther Patrol lashed poles and the Bear Patrol demonstrated mouth to mouth resuscitation.

For other activities observing Scout Week, the Leiters Ford troop enjoyed swimming at the Culver Military Academy pool on Wednesday. Friday they finished the school week by wearing their uniforms to school.

Scout Gary Hiatt of the Leiters Ford troop reported this story to the "Citizen" and stated how much they enjoyed scouting in that community. He urged everyone to participate in a scouting program of some sort.

Charles Gollnick In College Stage Production

About to take the count in a fifth-act scene from "Macbeth" is Charles P. Gollnick, far right, of Culver. He is appearing in a current production of the Shakespearean play at Northwood Institute in West Baden, where he is majoring in performing arts. His role as a servant was a minor one; his great contribution to the production was the stage, a multi-level setting which he designed and built. Charles is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Gollnick of Culver Military Academy.

Kaye E. Mahler, 10, Culver, Indiana, has been granted a junior membership in the American Angus Association at St. Joseph, Missouri, announces Lloyd D. Miller, secretary.

This new junior membership entitles the member to register purebred Angus at regular membership rates and to the privileges of the Association until the age of 21. At that time junior members are eligible to convert to lifetime memberships in the Association.

There were 221 young people in the United States to receive junior memberships last month.

Jr. Women's Club Attends Meeting

Mrs. Ronald Tusing and Mrs. Latham Lawson were in Highland Indiana Monday as guests of the Lake County Federation of Women's clubs.

The program was called "Talent Unlimited". Each individual club within the county federation presented a skit. Mrs. Lawson and Mrs. Tusing were two of three judges of the skits.

Both women are officers of the Indiana State Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. Tusing is the state junior secretary and Mrs. Lawson is the state junior director.

Indiana School Women's Club Holds Meeting

Mr. Robert H. Wyatt, the Executive Secretary of the Indiana State Teachers Association, was the featured speaker at the luncheon meeting of the Indiana School Women's Club last Saturday, at the ISTA Center of Indianapolis. Mr. Wyatt brought the latest information from legislative sessions of the Indiana General Assembly and discussed legislative measures of interest to educators.

Legislative issues were presented by a panel during the morning business session. Miss Ruth Shanks of Culver is the treasurer of this group of leading women in education.

A movie will also be shown that evening.

Tri Kappa Hears Talk On Art

Tri Kappa members were charmed by Mrs. Allen, Art Instructor at Culver Community School, whose informative and amusing talk on art, with demonstrations, was the highlight of the regular monthly meeting.

Mrs. Allen showed some abstract and stylized designs drawn from the same patterns, and some interesting tissue paper collage, all done by her students.

Members arrived for the meeting at the home of Mrs. Robert Rust with clothing, canned goods, and miscellaneous items, to be distributed to several needy families in the area. Mrs. Robert Bolton is in charge of this project and is still accepting donations.

The preliminary report on the successful Valentine Scholarship Card Party and Kappa Kitchen Bake sale was given by Mrs. Carl Steely.

A contribution was voted to the fund for furnishings for the new burn ward at Riley Hospital in Indianapolis and Tri Kappas also voted a sum of money to continue their support of the Art Cart used at the hospital.

Kappa, Kappa, Kappa Sorority has contributed well over $16,000 to help establish this critically needed burn center at Riley Hospital.

Assisting Mrs. Rust were Mrs. Jack Spencer, Mrs. John Edgell, and Mrs. David Ulrich.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. John Cleveland on March 17.

The open season is fast approaching when the book-of-the-month is a road map.

SCIENCE TOPICS
SPACE PROBES MUST BE 'REALLY CLEAN'

MICROBES stowing away on space probes sent to Mars could completely mess up tests checking for Martian life. They might even mess up Mars. So scientists working at the University of Minnesota's environmental health department are setting up standards and methods for sterilizing a spacecraft. It must be so clean that there is less than one chance in a thousand that even one live bacterium could get loose on Mars even if the spacecraft crashes to bits. (Standards for the moon are far less stringent.)

A NEW AND REVEALING WAY to study brain evolution is being used by a University of Chicago scientist. He is making latex casts of the insides of braincases of both fossil and contemporary mammals. These casts can be made quickly, inexpensively, and without damaging the skulls from which they are taken. He said that casts of the inside of the braincase reveal the exact form and surface details of the actual brain of most mammals. There is also ample evidence of which areas of the brain are responsible for various functions.

IF YOU'RE AN AVERAGE AMERICAN you drank about 20 gallons of soft drinks last year. To put the "fizz" in all the soda pop consumed in this country, Cardox, Chicago, estimates more than 200,000 tons of carbon dioxide were required.

THE FIRST EARTHQUAKE for which there is detailed descriptive information occurred on Nov. 1, 1755, in vicinity of Lisbon, Portugal. An estimated 30,000 people were killed, most of them crushed to death under the ruins of buildings in Lisbon.

"The Lord God hath given me the tongue of the learned, that I should know how to speak a word in season to him that is weary: he weakeneth morning by morning, he wakeneth mine ear to hear as the learned." This verse is part of the Bible Lesson-Sermon titled "Mind," and will be read in all Christian Science churches this Sunday.

One of the selections to be included from the denominational textbook is the following: "Mind is not necessarily dependent upon education processes. It possesses of itself all beauty and poetry, and the power of expressing them. Spirit, God, is heard when the senses are silent"

We discussed money projects for this year and our beautiful flowers at the park by the lake. We will always meet on the second and fourth Wednesday if possible.

Next Jana gave our 4-H Motto: "To Make the Best Better".

TREE SEEDLINGS OFFERED BY INDIANA DIVISION OF FORESTRY

The division of Forestry of the Indiana Department of Natural Resources is now taking orders for pine and hardwood seedlings and transplants as long as the supply lasts.

The stock is available to all Hoosier landowners needing trees for reforestation, erosion control or windbreak construction.

Anyone ordering stock from the Division of Forestry must sign an agreement to this effect and also agree not to resell or give away rooted stock or use any of the trees for ornamental or shade purposes.

All planting sites are subject to inspection both prior to and after planting by the State Forester's representative.

Tree order blanks and price lists may be obtained from the Indiana Division of Forestry, 613 State Office Building, Indianapolis, Indiana, or the Jasper-Pulaski State Nursery, at Medaryville, the Vallonia State Nursery at Vallonia, Service Forester Offices, Conservation Officers, Extension Foresters, County Agricultural Offices, Soil Conservation Service Offices, Purdue Department of Forestry and Conservation, and County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Offices.

The minimum order for trees is 200. Trees in any one species must be ordered in multiples of 100. A wildlife packet or an order of stratified black walnut seed would also constitute a minimum order.

After the tree order blank has been completed, it must be mailed with the remittance directly to the State Nursery that ships to the county where the planting will take place. Instructions are on the last sheet of the Tree Order Blank for specific information.

No mail orders will be accepted at either nursery after March 15. After this date, trees may be purchased for cash at the nurseries until the end of shipping season, which is about May 1.

The Jasper-Pulaski Nursery (north) and the Vallonia Nursery (south) will be open from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. E.S.T. time Monday through Friday, and 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon on Saturday during shipping season.
