Culver School Budget Approved Without Revision

The Board of School Trustees of the Culver Community Schools Corporation approved without change the proposed 1970 Budget for the school district.

Approval of the budget estimate of expenditures by functional accounts, together with the estimates of miscellaneous income, came upon the third reading here at a Special Meeting held August 28, 1969.

Appropriations in the 1970 budget total $1,174,242 in the general fund and $219,650 for Debt Service. The approved resolution of tax levies for the General Fund is $4.68 an increase over last year of 28 cents based upon last year's valuation.

The Debt Service levy is 78 cents, down nine cents from the 87-cent 1969 rate. Should valuations be increased, the proposed levies would be adjusted downward.

In adopting the budget the tax levy, it was emphasized that the new formula for state support greatly limits and reduces proportionately the amounts of state income to be received in 1970 for the support of the local school district educational program. Early reports by school corporations on a state-wide basis indicate that more than 100 districts' tax are adversely affected by the new formula. The new formula, which among other factor weighs heavily the existing valuation per pupil, makes a wide variation in income for neighboring school districts.

The Board approved and signed budget forms were submitted today to the Auditors of the four countries, Starke, Marshall, Fulton, and Tippecanoe. The notice of additional appropriations will be filed in September.

The budget and tax levy will be received next month by the county tax adjustment board and later by the state tax commission.

In other business the School Board heard reports of personnel conferences and the opening day of school activities. Friday, Aug. 29, was the first full day of school for the 1969-70 term. Kindergarten classes at Aubeen-Aubee, Monterey, and Culver will begin September 2nd, and the Special Education Class, September 4th.

New floors in both the boys' and girls' shower rooms of the Community Building at Culver have been installed. Heiman and Miller Construction Company, of Claypool, Indiana, executed the work.

Denial of appeals by the State Commission on Education on August 19th, for Kathryn Jo Ikeda and Donna Hayden, North Bend Township to Knox High School, and that of Jerry Lee Eskridge, Washington Township to Culver, Grade Seven, was reported.

Approval of a student teaching contract, Ball State University, upon advise of attorney, was granted.

A report on development as they refer to finalizations of construction, new high school building, was presented as a result of a joint meeting of the Building Corporation directors and school trustees this week by Ray Winter School Board president, Ralph Osborn. Building Corporation president, and Attorney George Stevens with M-N Inc., architect, representatives on Monday. Installation of roof expansion joints, flue lining, roof flashing, and a few other punch list items to be resolved.

Cathy Welsh Off For Studies Abroad

Cathy Eileen Welsh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry R. Welsh, of R.R. 2, Culver, is shown on the deck of the Student Ship, M.S. Aurelia, chartered by the Council on International Educational Exchange, just before sailing from New York Harbor Bound for one year of studies at the University of Madrid, Spain, under a program sponsored by the Indiana, Purdue University. Cathy attends the Indiana University.

CMA Establishes Scholarship In Bolton's Memory

An endowed summer school scholarship at CMA has been established in memory of Captain and Mrs. Robert Bolton who both died last month. Captain Bolton was retired director of the Culver Summer Naval School and was also a counselor in Culver's winter school.

Contributions may be addressed to the Culver Educational Foundation, Culver, and marked "Bolton Scholarship," according to the Boltons' daughter, Mrs. Ted Davies, and their son, Robbie Bolton, a student at Culver.

WSCS To Fill Ditty Bags

Thursday

The WSCS of the Wesley United Methodist church will meet Thursday, Sept. 11 at Fellowship Hall. The members will fill Ditty Bags and there will also be a program. Mrs. Frank Setzler will be the chairman of the committee and assisting her will be Mrs. A. R. Rowe, Mrs. Carl Adams, Mrs. Lila Garber, Mrs. George Babcock, Mrs. Richard Shoddy, Mrs. Harold Tusing and Mrs. Carl Stubbs.

A Greater Power

Death tolls in states that were swept by the winds of the hurricane "Camille" continue to mount as more bodies are recovered. Many roads are still closed by obstructions left in the wake of the big wind, and communications are just getting back to normal in some areas. The homeless are even now still temporarily housed. And it will be many months, and possibly years, before some areas gain a resemblance of the pre-storm condition.

We live in a wondrous age. An age of conveniences unknown as recently as a decade ago. Man has touched the moon. He has photographed Mars. The atom has been split. Polio is no longer the dread disease it once was. High speed travel has been extended from the skies to the rails and highways. Longevity has reached peaks unheard of. Hearts and other vital organs have been taken from one person or animal and placed in the body of another.

But there is still a greater power. Some view the ravages of nature, such as Camille, or the floods we have witnessed in many of our river ports, as a warning to man — a reminder of that greater power. They could be right. They are effective reminders of the strength of God's powers.

There is another side of these tragedies that should not be overlooked: At no time other than times of disaster do men and women of all age groups, religions and races gather together in a spirit of mutual cooperation. The pettiness of bigotry and dissent are set aside by all with few exceptions. We lean on one another in unity of purpose which, were it not for the tragedies that bring us together in the first place, would be a thing of true beauty.

Perhaps we should all take a long hard look at the aftermath of these tragedies. The clean up and the search for loved ones should be reviewed after the fact and kept alive in our memories and our hearts. Tragedy is the great equalizer. It knows no limits. It touches all of us. How deep and how permanent the impact is up to us.

Back To School Advice

It's school time again. Millions of children and young adults are on the move back to the classrooms and the books. Our thoughts are with them. They are the future of the nation.

For what it's worth, we'd like to give some advice for young and old on some of the pitfalls of the return to school and some safeguards that we hope we will save some of the students and their families from grief:

Parents: Teach the little ones their names and addresses. Perhaps a temporary name tag would help. Instill thoughts of obedience. I will help both teachers and crossing guards or school bus operators. Warn against fraternization with strangers, especially those in cars. Train them in the habits of study and completion of their work projects.

Drivers: Watch those little children. They're at your mercy. They may often seem the most hardy creatures on God's earth, but they are truly fragile when met head-on by automobiles. Taking five extra minutes for safety can prevent a lifetime of sorrow for both you and someone's parents. Heed the warnings of school crossing signs, the flashing lights of the school buses and the "Sam Brown" belts of the school guards. Slow down. Give them a break, not a fracture.

Students: What can we tell you that hasn't been said? Listen to your parents. Respect the policeman or the crossing guard. Do your work the best you can. Don't talk to strangers, whether they are dressed like the men at the bank or the worker in the ditch. There are bad men and women in the world and they wear many kinds of clothing. Watch for the cars. Play hard and study harder. If you see a grown-up make a mistake, remember that someday you will be the grown-up and set it in your mind that you will avoid the same mistakes. Cherish your school days. Ask any adult about school days and watch the expression on his face. It will be one of longing or the days of youth. They are your days now. They are the golden moments you should cherish always. Bless you and good luck!

Voice Of The People

Foxner Resident Writes
Editor Culver Citizen:

The time has arrived when you say renew or be without the Citizen.

Why do I keep receiving my subscription year after year not having my residence in Culver since August 1911? Well there are many reasons but I will mention only two.

"Away Back When" are items that are always interesting and then what I find in current issues keeps me more or less informed of present goings on around Culver.

My last visit to Culver was in Sept. 1966. I'm all well and I keep my health. I hope to stop by in 1970.

After more than 52 years in San Diego, I am convinced it is the best place to live in this frustrating time.

I have lived in the same house for fifty years and I hope I never need to change address while I live.

Sincerely,
William J. Smith

Glenn E. Miller; Native Of Culver; Promoted Sept. 1

The Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company of Milwaukee has named Glenn E. Miller, C.L.U., as its Superintendent of Education and Field Training in the Agency Department effective September 1.

Miller, currently director of marketing for NML's Thomas Redford General Agency in Cedar Rapids, Iowa will assume responsibility for the company's extension program of agent training.

Miller, 46, will succeed Dean H. Darkow, who will move to Superintendent of Management Training. Darkow will devote his time to the training of general and district agents and their supervisors.

A native of Culver, Indiana, Miller has been with the Redford agency 14 months. Before joining NML, he was associated with National Life of Vermont for over 20 years. Since 1956 he had been a general agent for that company in Bloomington, Illinois. Prior to that he worked in their home office where he participated in many activities in training and field management. Before returning to the home office, he had seven years of supervisory and agent experience in Manchester, New Hampshire and Chicago, Illinois.

While a resident of Bloomington, Miller was active in business and civic activities. He is a past president of the Central Illinois chapter of Chartered Life Underwriters (C.L.U.), past president of the Bloomington chapter of the National Association of Life Underwriters, and was associate legislative chairman of the Illinois Life Underwriters Association.

He was also president of the board of trustees for the Bloomington Presbyterian Church, a member of the board of directors of the United Fund, general gifts chairman for the Y.M.C.A., a past president of the Central Illinois Junior Achievement and an officer in the Mid-Illinois Lawn Tennis Association.

During his more than 20 years in the field, he has gathered many speaking credits in life insurance meetings and has been active in advanced underwriting and the pension and profit sharing sales areas.

Miller and his wife, Patricia, will live at 2500 East Wood, Shorewood. The couple has a married daughter living in South Bend, Indiana and a son attending Southern Methodist University in Dallas, Texas.

Mrs. Schmalkuche Dies Friday At South Bend

Mrs. Thelma E. Schmalkuche, 55, of 85564001 State Road 331, South Bend, Ind. died Friday, Aug. 29 at 4:05 a.m. at the St. Joseph Hospital at South Bend.

Mrs. Schmalkuche was born in Starke County Dec. 4, 1913. In 1932 she married William P. Schmalkuche at Winamac.

Surviving with the husband are the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Gentry of South Bend, two sons, Roland of South Bend and Perry of Cassopolis, Mich.; one daughter, Mrs. Judy Gaselman of Plymouth; six grandchildren; and one sister, Mrs. Howard Reed of South Bend.

Funeral services were held Monday, at 1:30 p.m. at the Hollis Funeral Home with Rev. Kulg of St. Pauls Lutheran Church officiating.

Burial was at the Southlawn Cemetery at South Bend.

VFW Auxiliary Enjoys Outing On Wednesday

Ten members of the Ladies Auxiliary, V. F. W. 6919, Culver, enjoyed a smorgasboard dinner and an outstanding performance of "Pajama Game" at the Wagon Wheel Playhouse in Warsaw on Wednesday evening.

Due to the cancellation of the regularly stated meeting for September 1 coinciding with the Labor Day holiday, President Mrs. George Lamar advised that the Red Cross Ditty Bags should be filled and returned to her or the Post Home by September 8 in order that they may be delivered to Red Cross headquarters prior to the September 15th deadline.

Mrs. Roger Wise, Indiana State Soldiers Home Chairman, reminded members of the clothing drive for the State Home. All clean, usable clothing for men and women should be brought to the September 15th meeting. Anyone having clothing to donate may call Mrs. Wise at 842-3672 and arrangements will be made for pick-up. Due to the great need for clothing, any donations will be greatly appreciated.

The next stated meeting will be held September 15th at the Post Home with Mrs. Ward McGaffey, Mrs. Kenneth Kempie, and Mrs. Sam Strang as hostesses.

Couple Will Reside In Muncie

The St. Augustine Church at Rensselaer, Ind. was the setting for the marriage of Miss Katherine Rae Dill and James Lee Lewis on Saturday, Aug. 9 at 1 p.m. Rev. Pax and Rev. Krueger officiated at the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with white and orange gladioli.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Dill of Rensselaer and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Lewis of Culver are the parents of the groom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown of white nylon dotted Swiss featuring an Empire waist with a plain high round neckline and puffed sleeves trimmed with white daisies. Her veil was a close fitting cap trimmed with white daisies and tied under the chin with a white satin ribbon. The long attached train and the bottom of the gown had a similar white embroidered trim. The bride carried a bouquet of white daisies, baby breath and white roses.

A sister of the bride, Miss Patsy Dill, was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were the Misses Sandy and Mary Ann Lewis, sisters of the groom; Mrs. Jean Tillema, sister of the bride; and Miss Candy Emig. The flower girl was Miss Ann Tanner, cousin of the bride.

The bride's attendants were all attired in floor length gowns of white chiffon over orange taffeta, trimmed with orange daisies and short puffed sleeves. The Empire waists were accented with orange ribbons ending with a bow at the back and long streamers extending the length of the gowns. Their hats were made of white nylon with wide brims and tied under the chin with orange ribbon. The crown was encircled with daisy trim matching the dresses. Each wore matching orange shoes and short white gloves. They carried baskets of white daisies and the flower girl dropped orange rose petals.

The bridegroom's best man was Doug Lindvall of Culver. Groomsmen were Jim Yeirick of Culver; Dave Baughn, a fraternity brother; and Michael and Steve Dill, brothers of the bride.

Approximately 150 guests attended the reception at the Hall-eck Center, St. Joe College. The bride's table was decorated with a four-tiered wedding cake, crystal candelabra and daisy chains. Godmother of the bride, Mrs. A. L. Schrug Jr. of Val-paraiso, served the cake.

The bride wore a two piece blue linen dress with white accessories and a corsage of white roses for the wedding trip to Gatlinburg, Tenn. The couple are at home at White River Apt., Muncie, Ind.

The bride is a graduate of Rensselaer Central in 1966 and is in her senior year at Ball State University. The groom graduated from Culver High school and Ball State University and is a member of Theta Chi Fraternity. He will teach at De-Sota Elementary School.

Miss Walsh Married To Joseph Kapsa

Baskets of white and yellow gladioli decorated the St. Mary's of the Lake Catholic church for the marriage of Miss Sharyl Lynn Welsh and Joseph Damion Kapsa. The two o'clock afternoon ceremony was performed August 9 with Father John V. Scott officiating. The couple was served by the groom's uncle and godfather, Edwin Kapsa. Commentator was Brother Just Paczesny, the groom's cousin Soloist was the bride's sister, Miss Pamela Welsh.

The bride designed and fashioned her gown of white leno material, interestingly detailed in open striped hemstitching with long sleeves and a high neckline. The Empire waist was accented with a white velvet tie belt. A floor length tulle veil served as a train and the bride carried a nosegay of baby white carnations and yellow rosettes.

Miss Lois Newcomb served as maid of honor. Her gown was of light blue voile with white velvet apple blossoms in the material. The full length gown featured an Empire waist with a scoop neckline and long puffed sleeves.

Bridesmaids were Miss Jacqueline Welsh, sister of the bride; Miss Mary Kapsa, sister of the groom; and Mrs. Dennis Przybyla, also a sister of the groom. Their gowns were of the same material and were made similar to the honor attendant's only yellow in color. All the attendants wore natural garden hats trimmed with avocado ribbon bows with the ends streaming down the back. They carried baskets of fresh garden flowers of many colors which had been arranged by Mrs. Wallace Helber.

A cousin of the groom, James Kapsa, served as best man. Ushers and groomsmen were Mark Haffey; Lynn R. Flora, cousin of the bride; and Dennis Przybyla, brother-in-law of the groom.

A reception was held in the former Hibbard E.U.B. church for approximately 200 guests. The four-tiered cake, which was baked and decorated by the bride's mother, was covered with a yellow and white streamer canopy. Baskets of garden and wild flowers decorated the room.

The bride wore a yellow dotted voile dress with a scoop neckline and puffed sleeves for the wedding trip to Wyoming.

The newlyweds will reside at 723 Anna Lee Lane, Bloomington, Indiana, where Mr. Kapsa will teach social studies and language arts to intermediate grades at University School, Bloomington.

The bride graduated from Culver High School and received a degree in Public Recreation and Parks at Indiana University. The groom graduated from St. Joseph's in South Bend and received a degree in Elementary Education at Indiana University.

"Thus saith the Lord, the Holy One of Israel, and his Maker, Ask me of things to come concerning my sons, and concerning the work of my hand command ye me."
This verse from Isaiah is from this Sunday's Christian Science Lesson-Sermon on "Man."

Also included is the passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "When man is spoken of as made in God's image, it is not sinful and sickly mortal man who is referred to, but the ideal man, reflecting God's likeness."

Ancilla College Adds Three Trustees To Board

Three trustees have recently been added to the Board of Trustees of Ancilla College, Donaldson. Sister M. Joel, PHJC, college president, has announced the elections of Orville W. Nichols, Jr., of Knox; William S. Young of Plymouth; and Ralph Zitzman of St. Louis to the college Board.

Orville Nichols, city attorney for Knox, has practiced law in the firm of Nichols and Nichols since 1948.

He is a member of the American Bar Association, the Indiana State Bar Association and the Starke County Bar Association. He has been a member of the Delegates of the Indiana State Bar Association since its formation and has been chairman of the State Legal Economics Committee for two years. He is now serving on the Nominating Committee of the State Bar Association for the Second District and is also on both the Legal Economics Committee and the State Disciplinary Committee.

Mr. Nichols received his B.S. degree in 1942 from Indiana University and his Doctor of Jurisprudence Degree from Indiana University School of Law in 1948. He was a member of Phi Gamma Delta, social fraternity, and Phi Delta Phi, legal fraternity. He is now on the Board of Directors of the House Corporation of Zeta Chapter, Phi Gamma Delta, at Bloomington, Indiana.

Parish treasurer of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, LaPorte, Indiana, for many years, Mr. Nichols is on the vestry of the Church and is one of the trustees of the Diocese of Northern Indiana Foundation, Inc.

Mr. Nichols married the former Katherine Reppetto, of Fremont, Ohio, and they have three children: Gail, who is now teaching at Wisconsin State University, at Superior, Wisconsin; Karen, a senior at Indiana University; and Wade, a sophomore at DePauw University.

Also elected to the Ancilla College Board of Trustees was William S. Young, president of the Young Door Company. Mr. Young is director of the Marshall County Bank and Trust Company and is a member of the Standing Committee for Commercial Standards in the United States Department of Commerce. He is president of Swim 'n Sun, Inc., an organization which raised funds, planned, and built the Plymouth Municipal Pool.

The new trustee is a director in the Plymouth Community United Fund Drive and has served as chairman and president of the Drive. He is also a past director of the Marshall-Starke Development Center and is an elder in the Presbyterian Church.

Mr. Young and his wife Mary have three children. Richard, 22, is serving in Viet Nam; Barbara, 19, is a junior at the University of Colorado; Kathy, 13, is in the eighth grade.

Mr. Ralph Zitzman, another recently elected Ancilla College trustee, is the vice-president of Demsey - Tegeler Investment Company of St. Louis, Missouri.

Red Is Not The Best Color For Hunters

Hunters have traditionally worn red clothing for protection.

But now tests prove that red does not show up as well as either yellow or fluorescent orange. Red appears as black at dawn or dusk, and can't be distinguished by color-blind hunters. Yellow can be seen a little better, but still doesn't show up as the sun is going down. Best of all is fluorescent orange, which stays visible longer after sunset than all other colors, and is easier to see by persons with abnormal vision. If you have a choice, the National Safety Council suggests, choose fluorescent orange clothing.

Hunters should remember that wearing sunglasses can cause loss of visibility and increase the difficulty of distinguishing between contrasting colors. Wise hunters consider only the impact-resistant lenses in their glasses, and safety frames, since both provide protection from twigs, stray pellets and ejecting shells.

Red Cross First Aid Classes primarily teach safety in everyday living. However, safety is not always first, and first aid is necessary. Standard First Aid Classes begin at 7 p.m. CDST on Monday, September 8th at the Knox VFW, and at 6:30 p.m. CDST on Tuesday, September 9th, at the Keontz Lake Fire Station. The Classes meet for five consecutive weeks, and anyone interested in learning first aid is invited to attend. Please bring with you to each class one 1 inch and one 2 inch roller bandage, each 4 to 5 feet long (preferably torn from a worn bed sheet), and a 40 inch triangular bandage.

Indiana Dept. Of Revenue Saves Money

James O. Mathis, Commissioner of the Indiana Department of Revenue, announced today that the department, in support of Governor Whitcomb's economy program, has saved $322,480 in personal services costs from January 13, 1969, to July 31, 1969.

This savings is the result of having reduced the number of permanent revenue employees from 888 on July 31, 1968, to 699 on July 31, 1969. The 21% employee reduction has been accomplished through the implementation of a combination of the recommendations submitted by the Governor's Economy Program, Inc. and additional method and procedural innovations by departmental staff personnel.

Additional savings have been provided to the state by the department's release of more than 8,000 square feet of floor space to other state agencies.

These savings reflect the department's continuing commitment toward providing maximum efficiency and economy in its operation.

Conference On Drugs Set At Goshen College

"Drugs, A School and Community Problem" will be the subject of the annual Northern Indiana School Health Conference at Goshen College on September 25.

Special after-dinner speaker will be Superior Court Judge Stanley A. Raymer, of Elkhart, Ind., who will speak on "The Court and the Drug Offender."

A native of Elkhart and a graduate of Elkhart High School, Judge Raymer presides over Superior Court 2 in Elkhart, to which juvenile cases are assigned.

His long interest in young persons and their problems has led to his organizing a Youth Services Bureau in Elkhart, which is aimed at prevention, not punishment.

Other high lights of the conference will be a film on drug abuse and a panel discussion. Taking part on the panel will be Dr. Glenn Knotts, executive director of the American School Health Association; Dr. Hester

Beth Bland, health consultant of the Indiana State Board of Health; consultant of the Indiana State Board of Health; and Mr. William Kurosky, chief psychiatric social worker of the Five County Mental Health Clinic, of Warsaw.

The conference is designed to be of value to doctors, nurses, health agency personnel, minister, and principals and teachers in public and private schools. It is being sponsored by the Indiana State Board of Health, Indiana State Department of Public Instruction, Indiana State Medical Association, area public schools, and Goshen College to serve the counties of Elkhart, Kosciusko, Lagange, and St. Joseph.

More information and registration materials are available from Dr. Roman Gingerich, chairman of the department of physical education, Goshen College, Goshen, Indiana 46526.

Culver Public Library News

1. AFRICA ASTIR (35-c) A presentation of the way of life of the more primitive tribes of West Africa, showing customs, market places, and dwellings. Great variation among the various tribes is used as an indication of some of the problems involved in unifying the peoples of Africa. (Gertrude P. Gorham)
2. ART IN THE WESTERN WORLD (30-c) Treasures from the National Gallery of Art in Washington are used to present the development of Western art, starting with the 13th century. Includes the development of art in the United States. (EBEC)
3. BACKGROUND OF THE CIVIL WAR (20-c) Analyzes the differences between the North and the South which contributed to the Civil War. Discusses the election of Lincoln, the secession of the Southern States, and the attack on Fort Sumpter. (Film Associates)
4. BEGINNINGS (30-b/w) Ralph Ulveling, Director of the Director of the Detroit Public Library and World Book contributor, was interviewed by Don Pedderson, formerly of Northwestern University, on the subject of libraries and librarianship. Valuable for recruiting or career programs. (Loaned by Extension Division)
5. CAMPING — A KEY TO CONSERVATION (23-c) Contains a demonstration of camping techniques of cleanliness and conservation as explained by a teenage boy. (Indiana University)
6. FROM TEN TO TWELVE (26-b/w) The latest in the "Ages and Stages" series. Once again we see and hear active children in real life situations, hear their noisy shouts, witness their bursts of anger and watch their spirit of cooperation. (McGraw-Hill)
7. GREAT RIVER OF THE WEST: COLUMBIA (22-c) Photographed along its entire 1210 miles, the Columbia is presented as a focal area for historical events. Numerous resources for the use of mankind, and an area of magnificent scenery and dramatic geological change are shown. (Martin Moyer)
8. GROWTH OF FLOWERS (11-c) The magic of time-lapse photography shows us in a few minutes a process which takes weeks to accomplish in nature. It shows us the miracle of growth of the jonquil, jack-in-the-pulpit, phlox, lily, rose, zinnia, gladiolus, and water lily. (Coronet)

9. THE HONEYBEE (6-c) Honeybees are seen as typical social insects. They cooperate with each other, divide their labor, and live in a common community. The film studies the honeybees' lifecycle of complete metamorphosis and their values to man. (Coronet)

10. HUNDRED DAYS (19-b/w) This film presents an overview of the U.S. immediately after Roosevelt was elected, when poverty and unemployment plagued the nation, and the New Deal was launched to counteract the situation. (EBEC)

11. JAPANESE MOUNTAIN FAMILY (15-c) shows the farm family spirit and the details of rural life in contemporary Japan through the eyes of Yuji, the son of a woodcutter. (Film Associates)

12. JASPER HOLIDAY (14-c) Tours the scenic peaks, valleys, slopes and lakes of Jasper National Park in the Canadian Rockies. (Loaned by CTFL)

13. LIFE IN THE WOODLOT (17-c) A view of the hidden world of the underbrush, where silent relentless rivalry is concealed by overhanging foliage or carpets of woodland flowers. A way of life, both animal and plant, which is a constant struggle for supremacy and survival. (McGraw-Hill)

14. OF TIME, WORK, AND LEISURE (29-b/w) Presents the results of the 20th Century Fund Study on the use of leisure time in America's society and challenges modern man to use free time for true leisure. (Indiana University)

15. SHOEMAKER AND THE ELVES (13-c) The story of the elves who slip into a shop and make shoe for the shoemaker is retold with animated puppets. This charming film, based on a Grimm fairy tale, tells what happens when the shoemaker and his wife leave new clothes, food, and sweet for the elves one night. (Coronet)

16. THIS IS EDWARD STEICHEN (27-b/w) A master photographer, humanist, scientist, and octogenarian shares his impression with the viewer. Steichen discusses his beliefs about man's relationship to man, nature and work. (Carousel)

17. TO LABRADOR FOR BROOK TROUT - Shows that fishing is excellent in the trout streams of Labrador whether you are a veteran fisherman or not. "Po" fisherman Lee Wulff gives some valuable pointers on Labrador fishing in waters which have hardly been fished before. (Loaned by CTFL)

18. TO YOUR HEALTH (10-c) "Best film made this far in the field of alcohol education . . . beautiful, clever, entertaining, it provides enough solid information to serve to initiate discussion in a non-controversial spirit." (CMC-Columbia University)

19. TRUMPET FOR THE COMBO (13-b/w) Dilemma of a jazz combo choosing a new trumpet player. Their choice is between a Negro boy who needs a break and a white boy who is already recognized and who admittedly is a better musician. A teacher's pressure on the group to choose the Negro boy, compounds the problem. (Sterling)

20. THE VOLGA (28-c) Explores the area through which the Volga River flows and examines the varying models of living along the river's course. The film looks at the effect of centralized industrial control and collective farming, showing how economic rigidity has had to be relaxed. (McGraw-Hill)

21. WHITE THROAT (10-c) Filmed in the depths of the Algonquin forest giving glimpses of various types of wild-life including the white-throated sparrow - Canada Bird.

Burr Oak

By Mrs. Floyd Carrothers

Monday afternoon callers of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Carrothers were Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Bolenbaugh of Plymouth.

Mrs. Nora Mevis attended a birthday dinner in honor of her grandson David, at the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. Ben Mevis on Tuesday evening.

Tuesday morning callers of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Carrothers were Lawrence Maxson of Knox, Barney Johanson of Milwaukee, Wis. and C. K. Bossinger of Burr Oak.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Bishop attended the wedding of Mr. Bishop's nephew, Randy, Swango, on Saturday evening at Rochester.

Friday afternoon callers of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Carrothers were Arnold Huling of Eau Claire, Mich. and Alva Huling of Spokane, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cromley and John Mark returned to their home in Parker, Ariz. after a two week visit with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Cramer Sr. Mrs. Gladys Cromley and other relatives.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Rogers, Gary and Mark, were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schrom and family of Fish Lake.

Alumni Camp At Woodcraft Facilities

The last of 69 Culver Alumni and their families are heading for home after a two-week session of the second Culver alumni family camp.

This year's campers—316 in all—came from 16 states to enjoy the many campus facilities. Each family planned its own schedule at a leisurely pace.

Sometimes it was riding Culver's black horses and sometimes water skiing—or swimming, sailing, tennis or golf. Special events included a champagne party for adults aboard the O.W. Fowler and a cruise on the Yarnell for the youngsters.

Captain Melville K. Short presented an evening discussion of astronomy and those who were interested took a short course in computer programming from Bernard Stulkenborg. John Babcock directed the staff again this year.

Families stayed in private cabins in Culver's Woodcraft Camp and meals were served in the Woodcraft Dining Hall, so the camp was a vacation for mother, too.

Special Deer Hunts Slated In Indiana

Special deer hunts will again be conducted at Jefferson Proving Ground near Madison and the U.S. Naval Ammunition Depot near Crane, according to a joint announcement by Perley H. Provost, Jr., Director of the Indiana Department of Natural Resources, and commanding officers Col. John O. Mayhall at Jefferson Proving Ground and Capt. J. C. Donahue at the U.S. Naval Depot.

As in the past, it will be necessary to apply for a special permit to participate in the hunt. Anyone 18 years of age or older, male or female, may hunt.

The application for the special permit is a part of the deer license. This form must be completed and returned to 607 State Office Building, no later than September 15. Successful applicants will be notified by mail prior to the hunts.

Applicants may apply individually or one other hunter, in which case each must submit an application card with his badge license number recorded in space provided. For example, hunter "A" would record on application card his badge (hunter "B") license number, and hunter "B" would record on application card the license number of hunter "A".

Applicants who do not properly complete their application will be subject to disqualification.

Both military installations will permit the use of muzzle-loading rifles which comply with State regulations. The 1969 hunts will be the first for muzzle-loaders. Jefferson Proving Ground, S. hunters will not be assigned special areas but will hunt along with those using a shotgun.

Successful applicants will again be permitted on any day of the hunt; that is, either sex and any age. Only one deer will be permitted at the Naval Depot. If successful applicants at Proving Ground desire to try a second deer, they may do so by purchasing a special permit the day of the hunt. Without special permit only one deer may be taken.

The special hunts at Attabury will again be on a first-come-first-serve basis but it is anticipated that some change will be made in checking hunt into the area. The application card attached to the deer license should not be used for the Attabury hunt.
