Halloween Parade Well Attended

Rain failed to dampen the spirits of costumed children as they marched around the Community Building gymnasium for the annual Halloween Parade which was held Friday. Although the usual downtown parade had to be cancelled because of the weather, everyone agreed that this year's celebration was one of the most successful ever held.

The youngest one entered in the parade was Natalie Savage, one year old, and the oldest was tied by three thirteen year olds, Jeff Carter, Cindy Carter and Robert Hopkins.

Games were conducted by Lion members and their wives. Cash prizes were awarded for both costumes and games. Apples and candy bars were passed out to everyone as they left the gym.

Prizes awarded for costumes for those under 7 went to Lisa and Keith Wynn, Holly and Abbe Muehlhausen, Rhonda and Jackie Washburn; Scott Travelstead, Ricky McKee, Micky Garver and Lisa Ransdell; 7 to 11 age group, Cindy and Michelle Tusing, Robin Andy, John John, and Ann Wiggins, Billy and Ruthie Birk, Mike Snyder, Kevin and Kristine Berger, Kim and Stanley Crosley, and Susan McKee; 11 year and up, Mari Babcock and Susan Thomas, Kay Mahler, Wendell Bean, John Spencer, Bonnie Zehner, Susan Snyder and Susan Boswell and Tim McFarland.

CULVER CHAMBER NOTICE

The Culver Chamber of Commerce will have a meeting at the Culver Inn on November 17, at 6:30 p.m., open to the public. Detective Sgt. Zack, of South Bend, will show films and speak about marijuana and drugs.

Nursery School Dresses For Halloween

All kinds of goblins and ghosts were present at the Halloween party held for the nursery school of the Wesley United Methodist church last Friday.

Children attending and their costumes were as follows: Ruthie Birk, astronaut; Darsi Lowry clown; Kristi Mallory, clown; Lori Garbison, road runner; Tim Becker, Casper the Ghost; Laura Bigley, spider; Mary Ellen Waite, pirate; John Flagg, Bozo; Lorraine Currens, witch; Scott Keyser, Flipper; Tom Cummings, old man; Christ Steely, Capt. Blackbeard; Kristine Berger, cow girl; Carolyn Banks, Wendy.

Teachers of the class are Mrs. Ray Houghton and Mrs. William Martin.

Your United Fund supports local clubs such as Boy Scouts, Cub Pack, Girl Scouts and 4-H clubs.

OUT OF REACH

Too many people waste time worrying about things they can't change or influence.

Donald Davis Civic Leader, Dies Saturday

Donald A. Davis, 49, Rt. 1, S. Queen Road, Culver, died at 7:35 p.m. Saturday, at Marshall County Parkview hospital, Plymouth, where he was admitted as a patient one week ago.

A lifetime area resident, dairy farmer and community leader, he was born January 16, 1920 at Culver to Guy B. and Fredona Reinhart Davis.

Mr. Davis was married January 23, 1943 at Culver to Betty Jean Kline, who survives. He was graduated from Indiana University in 1943.

Surviving are two sons, Ned A. Davis, of Culver and Kent L. Davis, at home; one daughter, Mrs. Diane Taylor, Fort Knox, Ky.; one granddaughter, Lynn Ann; his mother, Mrs. Guy (Fredona) Davis, Culver; and Harold Davis of Columbus, Ohio.

Mr. Davis was a member of Wesley United Methodist church Culver, and he had been serving as president of that church's board of trustees. He also was serving as secretary of the Culver Lions Club, which he formerly served as president. He was past president of the Culver - Union Township Chamber of Commerce and was a past president and past treasurer of the Marshall County Dairy Association.

Mr. Davis also formerly served as president of the Indiana University Alumni Association and he was a member of the Alpha Tau Omega, a university fraternity. He was a former president of the Marshall County Farm Bureau and the County 4-H Council and the Culver Parent Teachers Association. He was a member of the IOOF Lodge.

Services were conducted at 2:00 p.m. Tuesday at the Wesley United Methodist Church of Culver, with Rev. Earl Sharp, pastor officiating. Burial was in the Culver Masonic Cemetery. The Easterday-Bonino Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

Donations to Marshall County Hospital and the Wesley United Methodist Church will be accepted by the family.

PAPER DRIVE

It was announced today by Bob McFarland, Scoutmaster of Boy Scout Troop 290, that collection of paper will begin in Culver at 9 A.M. Saturday, November 8.

Please leave bundles of newspaper and magazines at the curb for collection by the Boy Scouts.

$238.61 Collected For UNICEF

Eighty-two children participated in the Trick Or Treat for UNICEF Program on Tuesday, October 28. A total of $238.61 was collected.

The members of the Maxinkuckee Federated Woman's Club wish to thank the residents of Culver for their cooperation and all the children who took part in the activity. Punch and cookies were served to the children in the hall above Veri's Barber Shop.

Recognition is given to Lorna Voreis who collected $10.16 to Jeff Carter with $9.66 and Patty Brown who brought in $9.57. A group of four children, Sharon Tusley, Terry Wicker and Abby and Kelly Lawson, collected $20.16 while Bryce and Brad Lindvall together collected $14.67 and Chuck Wakefield and Bob Babcock brought in $11.29.

Chairman this year, Mrs. John Mann, wishes to extend thanks and appreciation to Veri Shaffer for the use of the upstairs hall, to Mrs. Kelly, of Kelly Shop, who donated a favor box, all the children and to all persons who assisted in carrying out the UNICEF Program.

Help Wanted!

Saturday, November 8 is the day the Park Board has designated to rake leaves in the town park. Volunteers are needed and the Board invites anyone interested to bring a rake to the park at nine o'clock Saturday morning. Cider will be furnished to drink and those who wish to help in this venture are invited to bring weiners and marshmallows to roast.

STORY HOUR

Maxinkuckee Federated Junior Woman's Club will have the Story Hour at the Public Library for children ages 3 years to kindergarten.

The starting date will be November 6, 1969, Thursday, at 10:00 a.m.

If you should need to make arrangements for a private telephone 842-3456 or 842-3347.

Town Considers New Ordinance At Meeting

A new town ordinance is under consideration by the Town Board. Based upon a recommendation, the Board decided at Monday's meeting, to request the town's lawyer to draw up an ordinance which would control demonstrations, loitering and other civil disturbances.

In other action, the Board announced they would receive sealed proposals or bids for the furnishing of a new police car. The bids will be received until 7:30 p.m. November 17, and may be delivered in person to the Board or to the Clerk Treasurer's office. For further information, a legal ad appears elsewhere in the citizen.

Clerk Ruth Lennen was instructed to contact the construction company that erected the new water tower and inform them that due to a defective part the revolving ladder on the tank is loose and swinging against the overflow pipes. The warranty is in effect and the company is expected to correct the fault.

The clerk was also advised to order immediate delivery of salt for the streets since the supply is completely exhausted.

An area planning meeting involving all governing boards of St. Joseph and Marshall counties is scheduled and members of the local board and planning commission plan to attend.

Sam Madonna, town marshal, stated that his department had no serious problems on Halloween. President Donald Osborn commended the Police Department on their efficient control of disturbances.

Two members of the Culver Community high school government class were present for the meeting which was concluded with a question and answer period.

NOTICE

The Culver Public Library and the Post Office will be closed for Veteran's Day, November 11.

Heiken Marionettes To Entertain Here

On Sunday, November 23, the Heiken Marionettes will travel from Indianapolis to Culver, where Mr. and Mrs. Jack E. Heiken will present "The Nutcracker" from Tchaikovsky's well known and beloved "Nutcracker Suite."

The holiday spectacular will be performed by a fifty-three member puppet cast on a giant sugar-plum fairyland stage. This version of the "The Nutcracker" was designed and built for a performance with the Indianapolis symphony orchestra. The program was an immediate success.

Epsilon Nu Chapter of Kappa, Kappa, Kappa Sorority is sponsoring this production as a holiday gift to the young people of the area and extends an invitation to all the community to be guests of Tri Kappa for this special presentation from two to three in the afternoon at Eppley Auditorium, Culver Military Academy.

THE BIG TEN FOOTBALL race looks like it's going to go right down to the wire. In all probability, the final week's games which pit Indiana and Purdue and Ohio State against Michigan, the Rose Bowl participant will be decided. At the present time, Indiana appears to have the inside track... they don't have to play Ohio State. Each team has three conference games left and Indiana, Purdue and Michigan all have 3-1 records at present. This gives them the inside on the trip to Pasadena on New Year's day as Northwestern and Wisconsin follow behind with 2-2 records and aren't rated as strong teams in the conference.

IF ANY TEAM COULD upset the Buckeyes of Ohio State, they would be in good shape. Purdue has probably the finest quarterback in the Big Ten in Mike Phipps and he and his teammates could give the Buckeye defense a run for their money. However, the question of Purdue's defense holding Ohio State also has to be considered. Michigan is not quite as explosive and high scoring as the Boilermakers, but have a good football team. Indiana has to keep clean against teams other than Ohio State as this was one of the years the Buckeyes were not on the schedule. Playing seven conference games in a 10 team league means each team misses two opponents. A new rule to go into effect in the near future will set this schedule up for the teams and a regular rotation of teams played and teams missed will follow.

MUCH TALK HAS BEEN heard about getting the Buckeyes in a bowl game. The Big Ten rule prohibits a team from following itself to the Rose Bowl and that is why the fight for the bowl doesn't include the Buckeyes. It is a shame that a team that is ranked number one cannot appear somewhere on New Year's day, but even the 100th anniversary of football isn't about to change the ruling on this one. If Ohio State does come through unbeaten, which it appears they will, it could force a team with two conference losses to make the trip to Pasadena. Say Ohio tops both Michigan and Purdue, and Purdue can beat Indiana, two losses would be shared by all these teams and on comparative competition, Michigan probably would get the nod. They defeated Purdue handily and didn't play Indiana, so it appears being the team who has gone the longest without a Rose Bowl trip, they would be the chutes.

IT IS HARD TO TELL a person in this area that the Midwest and Big Ten doesn't feature the best in college football. Add to the Big Ten, Notre Dame as the outstanding independent, and see what area of the country could stand up against them. It is true that the Big Ten didn't tear up their non-conference opponents this year, but when the cups are down, it still plays as good or better than any other conference. There is little doubt in any part of the country that Ohio State is number one, and Texas has been a strong contender for the number two spot all year. Tennessee is currently ranked high as is Penn State, LSU and others from around the country, but none of these appear to have the power of the Buckeyes.

NOTRE DAME'S continuing success against the humpty-dumpty teams will continue to keep them high in the polls. It seems hard to believe, that a couple of weeks after they were beaten by Purdue, they could be ranked behind the Boilermakers, but evidently someone was impressed with their big scores against Army, Tulane and Navy. Looking ahead to Pittsburgh, Georgia Tech and Air Force isn't like looking ahead to a lot of competition either, but on the weekly TV shows and through the columns of "The South Bend Tribune" these teams will get much stronger than they are.

NOTRE DAME IS GOING to put some more competition on their schedule or make amends to fans who are tired of seeing one-sided games week in and week out. The combined record of Notre Dame's opponents is not impressive, and take out the two teams who have administered the loss and tie, and you have almost nothing to show for the season. It is unfortunate this situation is as it is, as schedules are drawn up six to eight to ten years in advance and a team can be going through some rough years when their time comes up, but the 1969 schedule has to be one of the worst for a major power.

CULVER CITY CLUB NOTICE
For the November 6 meeting of the Culver City Club, Mr. R. Dale Berkeypile of Rochester, Ind., will show slides on Japan. The program starts at 8:00 p.m. and the Maxinkuckee Junior Woman's Club will serve as hostesses.

Be a leader—don't follow in the footsteps of competitors.

'Rally Round The Flag, Boys' At CMA Saturday

Young Bill Adams wears a Little League uniform sometimes and a town crier costume other times in "Rally Round the Flag, Boys." Here he is seen with one of the leading characters, John Roberts as Guido DiMaggio.

"Rally Round the Flag, Boys" a wacky comedy, opens the student - faculty theatre season at Culver Military Academy Saturday night. The 7:30 performance in the Eugene C. Eppley Auditorium is open to the public and there is no admission charge.

The play's action centers around the establishment of a US Army missile base at Putnam's Landing, a quiet suburban town in Connecticut. The townspeople object and the public relations officer has his hands full trying to keep open warfare from breaking between the citizens and the Army.

The stage settings, props and costumes are colorful—ranging from present day missiles and Little League uniforms to colonial powdered wigs and muskets. Besides Academy students and faculty members, several area residents are in the play which is directed by Harvey E. Firari.

They include Glenda Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Robinson, Plymouth, as Maggie Larkin; Stephanie Phillips, daughter of Harvey Phillips, Plymouth, as Mary Ann; Gwen Dunnell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dunnell, 444 Liberty Dr., Culver, as Agnes Culp; and Deborah Cumming, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Cumming, 565 West Shore Dr., Culver, as Gloria.

Others are Bill Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Adams, North Shore Lane, Culver, as Danny; Andy White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer White, CMA, as Tony Blanco; and Boo Marshall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Marshall, CMA, as Gina.

CMA Students To Tour Chicago

Thirty-two fine arts students from Culver Military Academy will spend Friday evening and Saturday in Chicago. The group will attend the final performance of "The Flying Dutchman" at the Lyric Opera House and a matinee of "The Great White Hope." Saturday morning they will visit museums.

The trip was organized to give the students an opportunity to see the opera, according to Daniel B. Keller, Academy organist and-choirmaster, Keller and John M. Hartley will accompany the group.

THANK GOD FOR THEM!

Tuesday, November 11, is Veteran's Day. For many this day will just come and pass . . . for others a great honor is displayed . . . and yet others will criticize the fact that some get the day off as a holiday, the post offices and other governmental units are closed and time will be taken to pay a little tribute to the veterans.

We must join in the second group, the ones who are rightfully honored on this day regardless of how simple the tribute is. The two greatest veterans groups in our nation are the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars. They will all remember this day and we must say, "Thank God For Them."

Where would this nation of ours be today if it wasn't for the veterans? Where would we be today if it wasn't for them? Any truthful answer would have to make a person stop briefly and give thanks to these men.

Veteran's Day used to be Armistice Day. Almost everyone who was in school prior to the changing of the holiday can remember programs where at 11:00 a.m. everyone stood and faced the east in silence for a minute. This day as set aside to remember the heroes of World War I.

Since that time, World War II has come and gone . . . the Korean War is past and now the Vietnam War is in progress for a lengthy duration. All veterans are honored on this day as was the purpose in the change of name and those so honored.

Getting back to the veteran and in answer to our few questions, where would you and your family be today if these many men had not answered the call of their country . . . whether in a war they were directly involved in as a protector of our land or a war such as we are in now . . . as a protector of what our country feels necessary. These men did not all answer the call as volunteers . . . but when the call did come, did not burn their draft cards, stage protests and demonstrations against the call of their nation. They were willing to risk their lives in combat or what other way their country felt was necessary to defend their country, their homes and their families.

The veterans organizations have been criticized from time to time for about everything they could be criticized about. Maybe it was their opposition to those who supported the recent Vietnam Moratorium as they spoke out for their country and our fighting men. Maybe it was their views on National or local situations, or maybe it was their conduct that some opposed as they met in convention and let their hair down and had a good old fashioned fun time. Others oppose the groups due to the fact that their main source of revenue is through the operation of a bar . . . but do they take time to weigh the many good acts that is performed by these organizations because they take the time and opportunity to help those in need?

Our hat has to be tipped to the veterans all over our land . . . whether as individuals or as groups. Our veterans have made it possible for us to enjoy a prosperous life and are among the first to offer aid when help is needed to veterans and others as well. Isn't it nice to know there are such as these around who were and are willing to support their country and help insure our happiness? Once again we say, "Thank God For Them!"

November 9, 1949

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Behmer will observe their 50th wedding anniversary on Friday, Nov. 11.

While the added supply of one carload of stoker coal received early this week was most welcome, the coal situation continues to be critical here.

The office of the A. R. McKesson Garage is being remodeled.

Northern Indiana Public Service Company has begun work on the replacement of all overhead street lights in Culver. The old 100 candlepower lights are being replaced with new 250 candlepower lights which are equipped with reflectors. The lamps on the ornamental posts are being changed from 250 candle power to 400 candlepower lamps and 25 additional lamps are being placed on new posts at the outer edges of town.

November 8, 1939

Steffen Rector, Ernest Carter, and Clarence Calhoun were elected town trustees and Earl Forman was named clerk-treasurer at the town election held yesterday with a surprisingly large number of voters registering their preference at the polls.

Jim Rich was elected post commander of the William Alexander Fleet Post No. 103 of the American Legion at the annual election of officers on Thursday night.

A full length portrait of General and Mrs. L. R. Gignilliat, in formal attire, standing as if talking to Dick Paul, a cadet, is being exhibited at the International Art Exhibit in Pittsburgh. The portrait was painted by Wayman Adams.

David Zehner, 79, died suddenly of apoplexy at his home on Wolf Creek six miles southwest of Plymouth on Thursday morning.

Oscar Porter is preparing to move to North Dakota.

Christian Easterday of Portland, Ind. is here visiting his brother, Daniel. Although 80 years of age, Mr. Easterday retains his first of "milk" teeth, a second set having never grown. Such cases are rare.

CULVER COLUMN

By Mrs. C. C.

This is Thank Heavens Halloween is Over Week in Culver. Just how did all the vandalism and harassment hit you? At one time Trick or Treat was for the young ones but this year the older "children" loused it up for everyone. These mental infants, long past the age when Halloween should appeal to them, used the two weeks prior to Oct. 31 as an excuse to vent their frustrations on Culver. They're easily identified because they gather in bunches telling each other how great they are - no one else will admit they are at fault so those poor misfits never did have a chance.

Air pollution in Culver? You better believe it! That hasent been snow that is blowing in the business section of town. Corn shelling time at the co-op elevator is causing these bits of particles to blow high and wide. Before the rains came it had even gathered in drifts on the street. Investigation has shown that elevators in other towns have found ways to prevent this. If all else fails, how about a large lid?

— C C —

The Town Board is in the market for a new car for the Police Dept. I would like to put in my two cents worth on how to keep it in good condition. First and foremost, limit the squad car activities by keeping it within our city limits. The mileage saved would be tremendous. Keeping the streets in some semblance of repair will also help prolong the life of the expected new arrival. Of course, I feel certain that our Town Board has already given some thought to the above suggestions.

— C C —

This is going to be a mighty unpopular statement in some quarters but - . Do some of the Junior High teachers really think they're being fair when they reduce a student's grade average because of his behavior in class? The students should be graded on their work and their work alone. Methods of discipline should be instigated to handle misconduct. To my way of thinking, reducing grades is an admission by the teacher that he cannot handle the student.

— C C —

Oh, say can you see, by the dawn's early light,

The Flag is still not flying over Culver Junior High.

In the sun's bright glare - it still ain't up there.

The pole stands bare and the flag's folded flat.

Where, oh where is the flag raiser at?

Have you noticed that a horoscope is now being featured weekly in the Citizen? Mr. T. our happy-go-lucky druggist has agreed to sponsor this as an added service to the people. Now you can tell a week in advance what disasters await you!

United Fund Volunteers will soon be visiting your house so no fair hiding!

Shrinking responsibilities can make democracy lose balance.

Memories From .

November 11, 1959

Snow flurries last Friday morning reminded Culverites that winter isn't far behind.

Fred Katlun, Mrs. Josephine Adams, George Alexander Joplin and Harrison Dimmore were honored for a total of 104 years of outstanding service to the Culver Military Academy.

The Culver Indians opened the 1959-60 basketball season Friday night with a very solid 53 to 41 victory over Aubbeenaubee Township's Braves.

The Maxinkuckee Fish and Game Club placed approximately 200,000 Blue Gill and Bass in Maxinkuckee Lake.

"Blood On Their Hands"

The Vietnam Moratorium demonstration on October 15 by the "so called" pacifists, assured us of one thing. Many more Americans will die as a result.

It was a black page in the history of our nation and the marchers have given "comfort and aid" to the enemy as surely as if they had joined hands.

The national shame was compounded by opportunistic politicians who seized this tragic moment to backslide in order to pick up a few more votes. We don't need "Americans" like these. They've got blood on their hands.

How long will you tolerate such actions by a negative-minded majority?

The spirit of nationalism needs to be rekindled.

What will you do to help?

President Nixon's Official

Proclamation of November 11th as Veteran's Day, 1969, urges that all citizens of every age participate in this observance in honor of these veterans who have preserved our Union and our freedom. Also, for those whose memory we honor with a star of gold, let us pause in silent tribute on this day, that they did not die in vain.

As an organization of living veterans and their Fathers' and Ladies Auxiliaries, it is our duty to see that patriotism and love of country are instilled in the hearts of our countrymen.

We urge that on this Veteran's Day, the over 40 million American Veterans — those men and women who have responded to their nation's call from Valley Forge to Vietnam — be shown the respect and admiration of the citizens of this country. We can show this appreciation for their loneliness, hardship, danger, and sometimes death, by displaying our country's flag and our individual moment of silence and prayers for peace, for our men presently defending the inalienable right of liberty throughout the world.

Let us, on this day, put aside our personal feelings regarding our country's participation in Vietnam, and pray that these sacrifices will help bring peace and freedom to a suffering world. We hope they may soon return from foreign shores to help build a stronger and more united country, that our children and theirs may realize a lasting heritage.

Let us all unite on November 11th in showing the enemies of freedom that free men and women will defend the principles of a free society with unsurpassed valor and devotion.

Culver FFA Harvests Corn Crop

Mr. Brown (center) FFA Sponsor, gives directions to Greg Mahler as he prepares to go round the field again.

By Dave Brown

The Future Farmers of America held a corn harvest October 31, in a 17 acre field owned by Mr. Robert Lindvall. The corn that was picked was sold to the Culver Farm Bureau and the profit was divided equally between the FFA and Mr. Lindvall.

The boys picked approximately 70 bushels per acre which would sell for 10 per cent on the premium of $1.04 on the market. The FFA sold it for $1.14 per bushel. The club plans to put the money they earned in their bank account for future field trips and to pay rent to Mr. Lindvall for the use of his field.

colleges or institutes The representatives are employed by the college. During the rest of the year more representatives from colleges in and around South Bend and others will also visit Culver. Only Juniors and Seniors see the representatives from the colleges.

Cindy Carter Wins Good Citizen Award

Miss Cynthia Carter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Carter, 411 North Main Street, has been named D.A.R. Good Citizen of Culver Community High School for 1969-70.

The Senior Class chose three girls who possessed the following qualities to an outstanding degree: dependability, truthfulness, loyalty, punctuality, service, cooperation, courtesy, consideration of others, leadership, personality, self-control, ability to assume responsibility, patriotism, unselfish interest in family, school, community and nation.

Cynthia was then chosen out of the three to represent our school in the county contest which is limited to senior girls in accredited and private high schools.

The competitive examination to determine a county winner was given Monday, November 3, at the home of Mrs. Harold Rose, Plymouth. The test covered United States history, government, economics, and current events.

A State Good Citizen will be chosen from the county winners and a second and third place winner named also. In addition, ten honorable mention girls will be chosen.

A state winner will receive a $100 government bond and a state winners pin.

Donna Crabb, left, receives a charm as FHA Girl of the Month from Club president, Marcia Clem.

Culver United 5-Y Meets

The Culver United 5-Y held its meeting at the Wesley United Methodist Church on Sunday, Nov. 3, with their counselor, Rev. Arthur Bishop.

Election of officers was held, with Karen Dehne elected as Chairman, and Carol Blocker, as Secretary-Treasurer.

Plans were made for Sunday, November 30, when the group will conduct a Contemporary Worship Service, at 8:00 p.m. at the Santa Anna United Methodist Church.

There will be a Bake Sale in Culver on Saturday, November 23, at 8:00 a.m. The location will be announced later. Serving on the committee will be Mel Thomas, Mary Ann Eastday, Karen Dehne, Jim Davis, and Kevin Irwin.

Supper was served by Mel Thomas and Cindy McKee.

The next meeting will be held at Wesley Church on November 16, with Cathy Ringer and Judy Nelson in charge of the supper.

THIS IS YOUR LIFE

Horoscope For The Next Week

By Trent Varro

ARIES - March 21 to April 20 - It's fairly certain that you'll receive news from a distant point, that at first, may not seem to be good. After careful consideration you'll see that this is "good news!"

TAURUS - April 21 to May 21 - With the sun still in your birth sign, and other planets in good aspect, you have much to gain. There's a slight chance that from the last week in October to the middle of January things may not be so "lucky". It might be a good idea to prepare for this now.

GEMINI - May 22 to June 21 - "Mixed emotions" might play quite a part in your life at this time. You're getting a lot of help from the stars, and by acting sensibly you can sail through this brief period with ease.

CANCER - June 22 to July 22 - Be careful especially in travel or traffic. This is not a poor aspect, for you, but it could lead to trouble with those around you. Legal aspects are not too well favoured, and it's a good time to stay out of "entanglements."

LEO - July 23 to August 23 - Luck, popularity, and social activity is indicated for Leo. A holiday of some sort may be coming up, but be cautious in water activities. "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."

VIRGO - August 24 to Sept. 22 - The only two planets affecting your solar chart are those ruling communications and your love life. These will pass quickly. Otherwise everything looks extremely good!

LIBRA - Sept. 23 to Oct. 23 - Slow down and THINK before you act on some impulsive action. You MAY be right, but for goodness sake, make sure that you are, before jumping to drastic conclusions.

SCORPIO - Oct. 24 to Nov. 23 - Money matters are most important right now for those born in Scorpio. This may mean money coming in, or money being paid out. Your chart indicates success either way.

SAGITTARIUS - Nov. 23-Dec. 21 - The chart for Sagittarius closely resembles Virgo and Libra. You should read these, and apply them to yourself. There's a slight chance that you'll lose your temper. DON'T!

CAPRICORN - Dec. 22 to Jan. 20 - There's a slight possibility this week, that Capricorn persons MIGHT find themselves involved in a legal dispute. Seek the advice of a good lawyer, and listen carefully to this advice.

AQUARIUS - Jan. 21 to Feb. 18 - Everything should be "calm and peaceful" right now for Aquarius individuals. If it's not, it's due to something else in your own personal chart. Things generally look GOOD!

PISCES - Feb. 19. to Mar. 20 - The horoscope for Pisces is right now very much as it is in Aquarius, which you should read. If you're past middle age, you should be reaping great benefits; if you're younger, this period has yet to come.

FOR THE YOUNG AND OLD
PISCES . . . MR. T HAS EVERYTHING!

O.E.S. AUXILIARY MEET

The O.E.S. Auxiliary met Oct. 28 in the home of Mrs. Evert Hoesel with 20 members and one guest, Mrs. Anne Waite, present. Assisting Mrs. Hoesel were Mrs. Jud Stinchcomb and Mrs. O. T. Smith.

Mrs. Hoesel, president, opened the meeting with two fall poems.

After business was conducted, refreshments were served.

The remainder of the evening was spent playing cards. Mrs. Waite won the prize at bridge; Mrs. Herbyn Maynard, flinch; and Mrs. Owen Banks received the mystery prize. Anne Waite became a new member at this meeting.

"Adam and Fallen Man" is the title of the Christian Science Lesson-Sermon to be read in the denomination's churches next Sunday.

The following verse is included in the Responsive Reading: "Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall."

A passage from Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy states: "The divine nature was best expressed in Christ Jesus, who threw upon mortals the true reflection of God and lifted their lives higher than their poor thought-models would allow - thoughts which presented man as fallen, sick, sinning, and dying."

KID'S VIEW OF DENTISTS

INFLUENCED BY PARENTS

PARENTS who, albeit in jest, talk about the trauma of dental treatment in front of their children, can unwittingly affect the child's lifetime approach to dental care. A study conducted by a dental student at Harvard University has shown that positive attitudes, minimized apprehension and knowledge of dental care were developed after an early (pre-school) first visit to a dentist. These may favorably influence the child's approach to dental care for the rest of his life.

OLD FLAME CUTTING machines never burn out, they just become outmoded. But they can have a distinguished career, like the one-time innovative machine winding up a long career at a Chicago manufacturing plant. The machine, second of its type built, has been in continuous operation since it was installed in 1940. It was considered a pace-setter in its day and brought National Cylinder Gas, its developer, several patents. Its driving unit features two interchangeable tracing heads that guide the torches along their varied cutting paths through steel plate up to 16 inches thick. One head latches onto a steel pattern and follows it. The other is a toothed wheel tracer and also can be used to trace drawings.

WHEN does a mild-mannered monkey suddenly become aggressive and challenge the leader of his group? After his brain has been stimulated electrically, according to scientists at Emory University. In a series of experiments with small groups of rhesus monkeys they used a technique called telestimulation. Electrodes were implanted surgically in pre-selected brain sites involved in agonistic behavior. The monkey was encouraged to interact socially with other animals in his group. While he was thus unrestrained an electrical current was introduced into his brain from a radio transmitter. During stimulation the usually timid animal attacked the dominant monkey and permanently changed the social relationship of the two. These changes appear to be long-lasting and no further stimulations are required.

A SIMPLE and inexpensive way to make silicon diodes that may have far-reaching effects in the communications field and in computer technology has been devised by a Cornell University engineer. Diodes are devices that conduct electricity more easily in one direction than another. When an electric current is passed through them, the diodes emit microwaves. The new method of making the silicon diodes should make them readily available at low cost, so that they can replace the use of thousands of transistors used in computers. The use of microwave-generating diodes will cut manufacturing costs of computers in about half and speed up the comput-

THE SPORTS WRITERS may have to invent a new picturesque descriptive, replacing "glass jaw", for the prize fighter who goes down for the count from a blow to his mandible. A University of Florida engineer is studying glass that one day may be used to create implants into the humane skeleton to which natural bone will attach itself. These would replace, for an accident victim or a wounded soldier, bones in damaged limbs that might otherwise require amputation; or would be used for straightening and strengthening the legs and arms of a crippled child. He said that metal clamps, bars and supports used in surgery today have the problem that flesh or humane tissue will not attach to the metal surface. There is evidence that, with ceramic glass, bone does find a material on which it can grow.

DOOR-TO - DOOR Pollsters may soon be just about extinct. A Columbia University sociologist reports that the telephone is cheaper, faster and a more flexible data-gathering tool than the more traditional personal interview. And it is just as accurate. "The high cost of personal interviewing is forcing sociologists to look to other means of data gathering," he added.

A CHEMICAL antipollutant for treating oil-bearing wastes such as those found in the metal-working industry has been developed by Chemtron Corporation, Chicago. The chemical acts as an emulsion-breaking stratifier, separating oils from water in wastes originating from coolants used in machining and grinding and from certain metal-cleaning operations. The water effluent that results is rated clean enough to be emitted into a sewer system, and the oil portion can be burned or sold to waste oil re-refiners.

WANTED BY THE FBI

CAMERON DAVID BISHOP

Cameron David Bishop, a violence-minded college revolutionary who is charged with the sabotage of war utilities in the dynamiting of Colorado power transmission towers, is on the FBI's list of "Ten Most Wanted Fugitives."

Between January 20 and 28, 1969, he allegedly was responsible for dynamiting four transmission line towers in Colorado supplying power to defense plants. Wreckage from one blast damaged property nearly a mile away and dozens of square miles near Golden, Colorado, were partially blacked out. A Federal warrant issued at Denver, Colorado, on February 14, 1969, charges Bishop with the destruction of war utilities.

Bishop, who is reputedly an active member of the Students for a Democratic Society, a loudly militant "New Left" group opposed to U.S. involvement in Vietnam and existing government policies, has reportedly voiced a desire to live in Cuba.

He is known to associates as a revolutionist or anarchist who believes in violence to secure social reforms and was given a discharge from the Army for unsuitability after being treated, while a deserter, as a mental patient in a hospital. He reportedly has a violent temper, has reportedly bragged of using drugs, including LSD, and was convicted of assault and battery in Colorado in 1967. He has allegedly stated his willingness to kill a police officer and has reportedly possessed hand guns, including a .357 magnum, in addition to rifles and dynamite.

A white American, born at Pueblo, Colorado, on November 7, 1942, he is 5'8" to 5'9" tall, weighs 155 to 165 pounds, has brown eyes, dark brown hair, a stocky build and a medium complexion. He has worn a beard, long hair and long sideburns in the past. A tattoo of a skull holding a mirror appears on his right forearm. He has worked as an assistant credit manager, auto parts manager, coffee house operator, laborer, mine worker and truck driver. Consider Bishop armed and extremely dangerous.

Should you receive any information concerning the whereabouts of Cameron David Bishop, you are requested to immediately notify the nearest office of the FBI, the telephone number of which may be found on the first page of local telephone directories.

"LIEN - FREE CONTRACTS"

Many people have had tragic experiences in the enforcement of liens against their property. In a highly volatile economy it has not been unusual for a person to contract with a general or principal contractor to build a home feeling that the promise and written understaking of the principal contractor fully protected him only to have everything go awry. It has happened that some people have found themselves on the disastrous road to financial ruin because the principal contractor with whom they contracted to build a home became insolvent.

After having paid the full sum to build a home there have been cases where the insolvency of the principal contractor caused subcontractors or materialmen, or persons working on the property, to place liens against the property. In this situation the owner of the home finds himself in the anomalous position of having fully paid the principal contractor yet still owing the subcontractors who were not paid by the principal contractor.

To insulate people against this double payment of their bills the legislature has provided a very fine remedy. It provides that a person building a building or structure on real estate can, by following the terms of the statute, enter a no-lien contract. The provisions of the no-lien contract law must be followed exactly, however, if the owner is to have the benefit of this protection. The contract must be in writing, must stipulate that no liens may be had upon the property, must be notarized or acknowledged like a deed, and must be recorded in the office of the county recorder within five days of the execution of the contract. Once this is done persons working on the structure or providing the materials for it are by law on notice that they cannot have a lien for their services or materials. The subcontractors, mechanics and materialmen must then look to the principal contractor and cannot by lien foreclosure bring their action against the homeowner.

Any person undertaking to contract and build a home would be well advised to discuss with their attorney the preparation of a no-lien contract. In the event of financial difficulty with their principal contractor the owner of the home can then be protected from paying for the same bills twice. And remember, a reliable contractor will have no objection to this type of contract.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

I have previously discussed the effect of mechanic's liens on real property. Mechanic's liens can also be had on personal property. Any person who furnishes labor or materials at the request of the owner of personal property is entitled to a lien for the value of the services and materials against the property.

A classic case of liens on personal property in today's society involves the automobile. This piece of personal property is often delivered to a garage to have repairs made on it. The mechanic then goes to work and either repairs or adds material to the automobile to put it in working order. This creates both a common law lien and a statutory lien in favor of the mechanic.

The obvious difference between the automobile and real estate is, of course, that it is mobile. Because of this fact the Legislature has provided the mechanic with a very summary remedy in the case of an automobile. Once a person has a lien for labor, materials or storage on an automobile and the same is not claimed for thirty days, the mechanic is entitled, upon proper publication and notice, to sell the automobile and require the Bureau of Motor Vehicles to issue a new certificate of title. It is obvious that in order for the mechanic to have this remedy he must have the automobile in his possession. It was a principle of the common law that to enforce a mechanic's lien on personal property, the mechanic had to have the property in his possession. Our legislature has given the mechanic an additional remedy, however, and if within 60 days after performing services on the automobile he files notice with the recorded of intension to hold the lien, then the mechanic can proceed to foreclose the lien in a lawsuit without having the automobile in his possession.

It should be remembered that a mechanic can not have a lien unless the owner authorized the repair or service in question. If the owner has his automobile mortgaged to a lender and this chattel mortgage is properly recorded on the title to the automobile, then the mechanic's lien is inferior to this mortgage lien.

When having an automobile repaired, the owner should of course make certain that he is dealing with a reputable person, that the exact repairs to be provided are understood between the garage man and the owner, and a firm understanding should be had as to how the owner is expected to pay the bill. With these few precautions it is very improbable that you will ever have to face a mechanic's lien on either your automobile or other personal property.

Women In Pants

High Fashion For The Seventies

Private Deborah Sampson won her place in history as one of the first American women to wear pants. That was in the American Revolution. But it was Amelia Bloomer who started the real fashion revolution with the introduction in 1850 of full Turkish trousers worn under a short skirt. What she did has since been revised, adapted, ridiculed and copied as women have taken up bicycling, ballooning, horseback riding, skiing and world travel in a jet age.

Soon after the boom in bloomers, Sarah Bernhardt set the fashion world agog by being sculpted wearing a pantsuit in 1869. It was the act of a social maverick, or worse. A prominent fashion review of the day stated, concerning pants: "There is a limit which, we believe, cannot be exceeded without immediate detriment to public morals and positive offense to decency."

Aviatrices gave trousers their next big thrust as lady balloonists were seen soaring skyward in men's pants. Amelia Earhart added a helmet, goggles, leather jacket, breeches and high boots.

Bloomers for bathing and bicycling began to be accepted at the turn of the century when individualists like Elsa Maxwell flaunted convention by wearing breeches. The dude ranch rage of the 1920s and dusty pullman rides pushed the trend beyond practicality toward high fashion and more travel.

By the 1930s, culottes, which looked like skirts and wore like pants, had become fashionable for beachwear. World War II brought Marlene Dictrich to the front lines in slacks and a shirt. Back home, women wore pants to do men's jobs in war plants and women's auxiliary forces. The evolution continued in 1962 when Courreges introduced the trouser suit.

Now pants, the symbol of travel through the centuries, have become part of the space age. True to these times, Eastern Airlines is dressing its 3,600 flight attendants in spacesuits — which, like Private Sampson's uniform nearly 200 years ago — mirror the age and exploits of man.

Planned for fall and winter wear from the design room of David Crystal, Inc., the space-suit collection features a one-piece navy blue jumpsuit with matching jacket, flashing a scarlet lining. For a choice and a change, Eastern stewardesses can switch to three-piece, navy culottes including a cardigan jacket and turtleneck shell. Space footwear, hose, scarves, cap and a moon beige furry coat that looks like baby lamb complete the new space-age ensemble.
