The Buckeye company being on the alert for good men, got ahead of their opponents and secured Edward for the ensuing year. SONG OF THE THANKFUL TIME.

We think of Thanksgiving at seeding time:
In the swelling, unfolding, budding time,
When the heart of nature and hearts of men
Rejoice in the earth grown young again.
We dream of the harvest, of field and vine,
And granaries full, at Thanksgiving time.

We think of Thanksgiving in growing time:
In the time of flowers, and the vintage prime;
When the palms of the year's strong hands are filled
With fruitage, with grain, and with sweets distilled.
When the dream of hope is a truth sublime,
Then our hearts make room for the thankful time.

We think of Thanksgiving in harvest time:
In the yielding, gathering, golden time;
When the sky is fringed with a hazy mist,
And the blushing maples by frost lips kissed;
When the barns are full with the harvest
cheer,
And the crowning, thankful day draws near.

We think of Thanksgiving at resting time:
The circle completed is but a chime.
In the song of life, in the lives of men!
We harvest the toll of our years, and then
We wait at the gate of the King's highway
For the dawn of our soul's Thanksgiving day.

JUST IN TIME FOR DINNER.

ASIDE from some noted criminal prosecutions which I conducted several years ago, the incident which I am about to relate was one of the most interesting chapters in my professional life. It had been a stormy November day. During the morning the rain had come down in torrents. Toward noon the water began to crystallize as it descended, and all afternoon the snow had been blowing and drifting in a very uncomfortable way. It grew dark early. Perhaps it was because of this that I decided to go home an hour earlier than usual. I say perhaps, because I have always thought that providence had something to do with my going out on to the street at that moment. Passing up Broadway I turned into Fourteenth street to cross to the elevated railroad station. Near the corner I encountered a crowd of men and boys, in the center of which stood a bluecoat with a prisoner. Standing on tip-toe, I saw that the prisoner was a young lad with a remarkably handsome face and gentlemanly manner. A call had been sent in for a patrol wagon, and the policeman was waiting the response. The boy looked thoroughly frightened. As I reached the spot he was protesting his innocence and begging to be released.

"I tell you honestly, sir, it is a mistake. I know nothing of the jewelry. I am innocent, sir; I am, truly."

"That's all right, you young rascal," the policeman replied. "Nobody that's arrested ever steals anything. But when we get our clutches on 'em they don't generally turn out such innocents as they claim."

Just then the patrol wagon dashed up, two officers alighted, and the boy was quickly hustled up the steps of the wagon and driven off.

"What station?" I asked as they drove off toward the south. There was no reply, but by walking rapidly in the direction taken by the officers I soon brought up at the Mercer street station, where, as an attorney, I soon obtained an interview with the lad whose face had so greatly interested me. When I was shown to his cell he was weeping bitterly, and appeared to be in absolute despair.

"I saw you at the patrol box," I said by way of introduction, "and thought I would like to find out a little more about your case. I am a lawyer; and if you are innocent, as I think you must be, I will see what can be done to get you out of this. My name is Lawson, what is yours?"

"Frank Orr," he said promptly, as a wave of gratitude and hope swept over his face. Then he added: "This is very kind of you, sir. The whole miserable business is a mistake. I never took a bit of the jewelry; not a bit."

Then I sat down on the cot beside Frank and asked him to tell me all about his trouble.

His home was in Western Vermont, he said, and he had been in New York about a year. He had come here to get a start in the world. While his success had not been all that his fancy used to paint it, yet, considering the hard times, he had done very well. Once a month he had been able to send a little money to his mother, who needed his help sorely. For six months past he had been employed in the shop of a manufacturing jeweler. That day twenty valuable rings and some other articles had disappeared from a showcase. They were missed just after the noon hour. During that hour the workmen were always out at lunch, and Frank and another young man named Lerch were usually in charge. But to-day Lerch was sick at home, and Frank was in the shop alone.

"Did you see no one about the premises during that hour?" I asked.

"No one but Hogan, the janitor."

"Was he in the room?"

"No, I am sure he was not."

"Did you see him at all between twelve and one?"

"Yes," said Frank, "he came to the rear door and called me to go back and look at a team of fine horses in the alley."

"How long were you out of the room?" I asked.

"Not more than two minutes."

"Could a person come from the front hall during that time without your knowing it?"

"No, indeed," said young Orr, earnestly; "I locked the door before I ran out to ance by the police. I went to the saloon named, but learned that the men had only been there a few minutes earlier in the evening.

"They had no money and were sober," the bartender explained, "so guess they ain't been into no crooked work of late."

The fact that they were not spending money made me believe that if these men were really the thieves they had not yet sold their plunder. So I decided upon a bold movement. Securing the aid of a trusty detective who had once served me in somewhat similar case, I went to Hogan's house. A red-faced woman admitted us. "Mr. Tingle left some rings and other jewelry with you for safe-keeping," I said in confident tone, purposely refraining from giving any hint that suspicion also rested upon her husband.

"The property is not Mr. Tingle's, and if you wish to save yourself from trouble you will deliver it up to this officer at once," I added.

The woman turned pale and hesitated. A threat to place her under arrest brought her to a decision, and a parcel containing the plunder was placed in my hand.

At the police court next day Hogan and Tingle were confronted with the evidence of their crime, and Frank Orr's eyes danced with joy when the judge expressed regret that so serious a mistake had been look at the horses."

"Then if the jewelry was taken while you were in charge it could have been taken by no one but yourself," I said somewhat severely to see what effect the conclusion would have on the prisoner.

"It looks bad for me, sir, especially as one of the rings was found in my overcoat pocket."

"That last fact counts for nothing," I remarked, and added: "Tell me candidly, Orr, have you no theory upon which the thing can be explained?"

"No, sir, I have not; it seems very strange; I can't understand it," he said, his voice trembling perceptibly, and his eyes again filling with tears.

"It is a trifle mysterious, my young friend," I said, rising. "But I somehow believe you are not the guilty party. I will ask the sergeant to give you a more comfortable place than this for the night. In the morning I will see you again."

When the case came up at the Jefferson Market police court next day I secured an adjournment. Then I went to work vigorously to hunt down the thief. I started out on the theory of Frank's innocence. Then, it was clear that the janitor could not himself have stolen the goods. He might have had an accomplice, however, who may have been concealed somewhere in the room, and carried off the jewelry while Frank was taking his two-minute view of the horses in the alley. This thief might have dropped the ring into Frank's pocket so as to point suspicion toward its owner.

My theory proved correct. A guarded talk with some people living near the home of Hogan, the janitor, made me acquainted with his character and habits. What I learned was not to his credit. I also came into possession of the fact that he had been seen the previous night at a Bowery saloon in company with a fellow named Tingle, who had done time at Sing Sing, and who was now under surveilmade, and told him he was at liberty.

It was now noon of the day before Thanksgiving day—the day toward which Frank Orr had been looking forward joyfully for many weeks. But since his unjust arrest he had abandoned all hope of going, and a message had been wired to his mother, announcing that unexpected circumstances would prevent his being there.

"Now, off for Vermont," I said as we came out of the court room together. "You will not have much time to lose, but you can make your train and reach home in time for dinner yet. Come back as soon as you can," I said, when we parted, "and come straight to my office. No more work in a jewelry shop for you, Orr."

In this little sketch I have told you of the remarkable circumstances under which I became acquainted with my present law partner. The neat sign over our office door now reads:

LAWSON & ORR,
ATTORNEYS.

Frank Orr has spent many pleasant Thanksgiving days since he came to New York, but he still declares that none have been half so delightful as the day he rumbled over the snow-clad hills of Vermont, ran up the old lane under the apple trees, greeted old Nero with a shout that woke the echoes, and burst into the dear old home just in time for dinner.—Lawrence Lawson.

The shades of night were falling fast
As turkeys fat went flying past
To find the trees where they could stay
Until the night had grown to day.
They ranged along the lower limbs,
According to their various whims,
Except one old one. "Ah," said he,
"I guess I'll also climb a tree.
For since Thanksgiving's come unloosed,
You bet your life I'm going to roost
Excelsior!"

FIRST THANKSGIVING DINNER.

Indian Chiefs Were Hospitably Entertained by Pilgrim Fathers.

The first Thanksgiving was appointed by Gov. Bradford, at Plymouth, Mass., in 1621, the year following the landing of the Pilgrims, in order that the Colonists in a more special way could rejoice together at having all things in good and plenty, writes Clifford Howard in the Ladies' Home Journal. In preparation for the feast "gunners were sent into the woods for wild turkeys, which abounded there in great numbers; kitchens were made ready for preparing the feast—especially the large one in Dame Brewster's house, which was under the immediate direction and charge of Priscilla Molines, she who afterward became the wife of John Alden—while a messenger was dispatched to invite Massasoit, the chief of the friendly tribe, to attend the celebration.

"Early on the morning of the appointed Thursday—about the first of November—Massasoit and ninety of his warriors arrived on the outskirts of the village, and with wild yells announced their readiness to enjoy the hospitality of their white brethren. The little settlement, which now consisted of seven dwellings and four

STRIKE IS ON AGAIN.

COAL MINES OF NORTHERN ILLINOIS TIED UP.

Diggers Gather Under Ratchford's Banner and Demand the Springfield Schedule—Operators Are Angry and Say a Crisis Is at Hand.

Miners Vote to Quit.

The miners' mass meeting at Coal City, Ill., voted unanimously to resume the strike throughout the Wilmington-Braidwood district. The decision affects the mines at Carbon Hill, Diamond and Coal City, and postpones pending settlement in other towns except where the full scale is paid. The miners will contend for the gross-weight scale as adopted at Springfield. They will ignore the propositions offered by the operators based on a screen scale. It is the purpose to abolish the whole system as speedily as possible, even at a sacrifice in the price per ton if necessary.

The miners at Braceville, who were the first to return to work at the 77½-cent rate, were all busy in the mine when President Ratchford and a small army of strike leaders reached the town. After some delay 150 English-speaking miners met in Malcolm's Hall, where Mr. Ratchford addressed them. He told them they had lost 2½ cents a ton by returning to work before the Streator convention. He said the operators at Streator had offered practically to settle at a figure equivalent to 80 cents in the Wilmington field. He told the miners they, too, could secure the advance if they would but insist on it and suspend work until the union officials and operators could get together and settle on a uniform scale. Before Mr. Ratchford had finished the men were wildly enthusiastic, and when the vote was taken every man voted to resume the strike.

From Braceville Mr. Ratchford and his brother officials drove across country to Coal City, where 400 miners were gathered. Speechmaking took up the entire afternoon. There was no dissenting voice on the vote to resume the strike for ten days or until the operators would agree to arbitrate.

President Ratchford and several miners' officials held a conference at Streator with several operators Saturday morning. A. L. Sweet of Chicago talked for the operators. He declared he for one would never arbitrate. He said he did not know a man in the State whom he would trust to arbitrate a difference between workmen and employers. He believed the men always got the best of it.

The indications are that the entire northern Illinois mining district will be tied up again. A letter from the district chairman at Springfield contained the information that a committee of miners had had a conference with Gov. Tanner on the Chinese proposition, and that the Governor had not only said that he would not permit the importation of Chinamen, but that there should be no Gatling guns to coerce the men back into the mines. The Governor said that if he found that the operators were building stockades about the mines he would see that they were torn down. The Governor referred to the Chicago ex-policemen, who, it was said, were to be sent there to protect non-union men, and said that he would promptly send them back to their homes.

To all outward appearance the importation of Chinamen has ceased to be a bugaboo with the miners, and there is scarcely one who can be found now who believes that the companies will ever make such an attempt. They rest their cause on public opinion and say the operators will not dare to do that which they know would precipitate riot and bloodshed.

The contractors, who are dredging the Osborn ditch, had the misfortune to have a break-down Friday evening which will cause a "lay-off" for a few days. About 2 1/2 miles of the ditch have been dug with the dredge, and with what other parties have dug, making about 3 1/2 miles in all, having nearly five miles yet to dig. We understand that all litigation against the ditch has been withdrawn.

Notwithstanding that the John Osborn Shoe Store has not been in existence but a short time, it is receiving a large patronage and is destined to be an important factor in the shoe business in the county. The fact that customers of every grade and shade can find just what they want at this store at very low prices, is the great incentive that draws the people there.

The chicken thief is now on the alert. Monday evening Walter Geizelman's coop was relieved of some very fine fowls. Also last week, a contemptible sneak-thief stole a large quantity of pork from the premises of Dr. Wiseman. This county should own a pair of first-class blood hounds, the result of which would land a few miscreants in the pen, where they belong.

The Arlington hotel is closed for the season, while this season has not been as brisk as it might have been, under the management of those peer of hotel-keepers, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Knapp, the Arlington has been comfortably filled with bon-ton guests, who are the elite of the great cities.

CONTENTION.

Contributed.

Contention Oh! ev' contention,
Your name I hate to mention
As by you there has been so much strife,
Among all creatures through this life,
Where is there, can any one find,
A person without a contentious mind?
In church matters or in politics,
People do some curious tricks,
But seem to work with all their might
To make others think they're doing right.
Adam and Eve were what they should be
Until they saw apples upon a tree,
So both of them, of the apple ate,
By eating it caused their sad fate,
Do people, I wonder eat apples now,
In order to pick up a row.
If they do, they should swallow the core,
And choke them so they'd eat no more.
Then they would learn, to kindly speak,
And no quarrels would they seek.

The Hicks 1898 Almanac and Paper.

We are informed that the 1898 Almanac of Prof. Irl R. Hicks is now ready, and judging from its past history, it will not be many weeks in finding its way into homes and offices all over America. It is much larger and finer than any previous issue. It contains 116 pages, is splendidly printed and illustrated on fine book paper, having the finest portrait ever given of Prof. Hicks. It can no longer be denied that the publications of Prof. Hicks have become a necessity to the family and commercial life of this country. His journal, "WORD AND WORKS," aside from its storm, weather and astronomical features, has taken rank with the literary, scientific and family magazines of the age. Do not believe hearsay and reports. See the Hicks Almanac and paper for yourself. You will then know why they are so popular. They are educators of the millions, and unrivaled safeguards to property and human life. It is matter of simple record that Prof Hicks has foretold for many years all great storms, floods, droughts and tornadoes, even the recent terrible drought over all the country. The Almanac alone is 25 cents a copy. The paper is $1.00 a year. We will send THE CULVER CITY HERALD and WORD AND WORKS, both papers for one year and Hick's Almanac as a premium for $1.75

Those who believe chronic diarrhoea to be incurable should read what Mr. P. E. Grisham, of Gaars Mills, La., has to say on the subject, viz: "I have been a sufferer from chronic diarrhoea ever since the war and have tried all kinds of medicines for it. At last I found a remedy that effected a cure and that was Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy." This medicine can always be depended upon for colic, cholera morbus, dysentery and diarrhoea. It is pleasant to take and never fails to effect a cure. 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale at Culver City Drug Store.

J. M. Thirswend, of Grosbeck, Tex., says that when he has a spell of indigestion, and feels bad and sluggish, he takes two of DeWitt's Little Early Risers at night, and he is all right the next morning. Many thousands of others do the same thing. Do you? Culver City Drug Store.

Merit Means Money Made.
You cannot advertise money out of people's pockets all the time; you may do it now and then, but if you don't give them something of absolute merit in return, advertising will never prove successful. The kind of advertising that pays is advertising a good thing. As it has merit the people will use it again and again. Never has this been better illustrated than in the great success of Cascarets, candy cathartic, that we have been lately advertising in this paper. All druggists call Cascarets repeaters, that is, people buy them, like them, and buy them again and recommend them to their friends. Cascarets are guaranteed to cure constipation or money refunded, and are a delightful laxative and liver stimulant; the best medicine ever made. We recommend all our readers to try them.

AN OPEN LETTER To MOTHERS.

WE ARE ASSERTING IN THE COURTS OUR RIGHT TO THE EXCLUSIVE USE OF THE WORD "CASTORIA," AND "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," AS OUR TRADE MARK.

I, DR. SAMUEL PITCHER, of Hyannis, Massachusetts, was the originator of "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," the same that has borne and does now bear the fac-simile signature of Chas. H. Fletcher on every bear the fac-simile signature of Chas. H. Fletcher wrapper. This is the original "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," which has been used in the homes of the mothers of America for over thirty years. LOOK CAREFULLY at the wrapper and see that it is the kind you have always bought on the and has the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher wrapper. No one has authority from me to use my name except The Centaur Company of which Chas. H. Fletcher is President.

To Grocers.

We have direct proof that peddlers of washing-powders say that the stuff they're selling is "made in the same factory" as Pearlina—and that buying from them will save going to, or ordering from, the grocery store. Do you want people "saved" that. You have these same washing-powders in stock. Possibly you are giving them out, whenever you can, in place of Pearlina. You are trying to push them into notice; they are trying to crowd you out. You think you are "making more money on them." But will it pay you, in the end?

Send Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you "this is as good as" or "the same as Pearlina." IT'S FALSE—Pearlina is never peddled, and if your grocer sends you something in place of Pearlina, be honest—send it back.

A Valuable Franchise Secured.

The franchise of easy digestion—one of the most valuable in the gift of medical science—can be secured by any person wise enough to use Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, either to suppress growing dyspepsia, or to uproot it at maturity. Bilious, rheumatic and fever and ague sufferers, persons troubled with nervousness and the constipated, should also secure the health franchise by the same means.

London's Water Supply.

The water supply system of London covers 845 square miles, and delivers daily, through 5,147 miles of pipe, 187,580,233 gallons, of which 107,000,000 gallons comes from the Thames, 51,000,000 gallons from the River Lea, and the remainder from springs and artesian wells. The per capita consumption of the 5,675,270 inhabitants is 33 gallons.

The reservoirs, 54 in number, cover 580 acres, and have a capacity of 1,935,000,000 gallons, and there are 120 great filtering beds, some of which, it is said, can absorb 1,000,000 gallons of water per minute. There are also 33,965 fire hydrants. The water system is at present owned by private companies, but the immense pressure brought to bear by the people will probably make it municipal at no distant day.—Philadelphia Record.

Earth's Speed Not Even.

It is an interesting fact that the earth does not travel at the same rate in all parts of its journey through space. Its orbit being elliptical, it must at some time approach nearer to the sun than at others, and will take less time in moving through one part of its path than through another. In winter the earth is nearer the sun than in summer, and moves through space more rapidly.

English Steel Rails.

In tearing up a siding on the Straitsville division of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad the other day, the section men discovered that several of the rails had been made in 1863. Subsequent investigation revealed the fact that these rails were part of a lot that were bought in England during the war, at a cost of $125 per ton in gold. The rails were still in very fair condition and for light motive power would last ten years longer.

Snuff Worth a Million a Pound.

Snuff-takers will be interested to know that some of the richest Chinamen use a snuff that is worth as much as a million dollars a pound. They buy the snuff originally from Portugal, where some of the manufacturers have old-time recipes, and charge from $200 to $800 a pound for it on this account. The Chinese value this snuff very highly, preserving it for years and years in beautiful bottles or jars of porcelain, jade and agate, some of which are worth as much as $1,000. As the legal rate of interest in China is 32 per cent., it is not impossible to believe that some of the old snuff in the flowery kingdom is worth (theoretically at least) as much as $1,000,000.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

A Sensation.

That the world is coming to an end suddenly at a given time is not what is here referred to. There are different kinds of sensations, as very many people know who feel sharp twinges of pain in the big nerve of the thigh. Sciatica is a very painful sensation, and the torment of it makes one think something is come to an end. But just at the first sensation or twinge is the best time to use St. Jacobs Oil. The less pain the more easily it is cured, and the Oil prevents its development by soothing the nerve. At any stage it will cure.

Degrees of Foolishness.

"That man, Barker, is the biggest fool I ever saw. He never talks about anything but himself!"

"I don't know that you ought to call him the biggest fool, for that."

"Do you sanction that sort of thing?"

"No, but Barker doesn't know much about anything else. The biggest fool is the one who tries to talk about things that he doesn't understand."—Cleveland Leader.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and until the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars; free.

Then Sleep Soundly.

You can't afford to lie awake o' nights. Nothing compensates for loss of sleep. Eight hours of good sleep every night is what you need if you hope to keep healthy nerves in your body and a clear head on your shoulders. Yet you cannot get rest enough while you persist in drinking coffee. No habitual coffee drinker can depend on his sleep. Why not break off the coffee habit and drink Grain-O in place of it? Grain-O is made from pure grains, has the rich seal brown color of Mocha or Java, is nourishing and palatable—a food drink—without any of the noxious properties of coffee. Having used it a short time you will prefer it to the best coffee that was ever set on your table. Two points gained—health promoted, money saved. All grocers. In packages at 15c. and 25c.

A TALK WITH MRS. PINKHAM

About the Cause of Anemia.

Everybody comes into this world with a predisposition to disease of some particular tissue; in other words, everybody has a weak spot.

In ninety-nine cases out of a hundred the weak spot in women is somewhere in the uterine system. The uterine organs have less resistance to disease than the vital organs; that's why they give out the soonest.

Not more than one woman in a hundred—say, in five hundred—has perfectly healthy organs of generation. This points to the stern necessity of helping one's self just as soon as the life powers seem to be on the wane.

Excessive menstruation is a sign of physical weakness and want of tone in the uterine organs. It saps the strength away and produces anemia (blood turns to water).

If you become anemic, there is no knowing what will happen. If your gums and the inside of your lips and inside your eyelids look pale in color, you are in a dangerous way and must stop that drain on your powers. Why not build up on a generous, uplifting tonic, like Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

Mrs. EDWIN EHRIE, 413 Church St., Bethlehem, Pa., says: "I feel it my duty to write and tell you that I am better than I have been for four years. I used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, one package of Sanative Wash, one box of Liver Pills, and can say that I am perfectly cured."

"Doctors did not help me any. I should have been in my grave by this time if it had not been for your medicine. It was a godsend to me. I was troubled with excessive menstruation, which caused womb trouble, and I was obliged to remain in bed for six weeks. Mrs. Pinkham's medicine was recommended to me, and, after using it a short time, was troubled no more with flooding. I also had severe pain in my kidneys. This, also, I have no more. I shall always recommend the Compound, for it has cured me, and it will cure others. I would like to have you publish this letter." (In such cases the dry form of Compound should be used.)

War with Spain.

A vivid picture of the stirring scenes which would follow a declaration of war with European Powers is given under the head "A Brief History of Our Late War with Spain" in the November Cosmopolitan. The writer has undertaken to apply the knowledge gained from the late war to the conditions prevailing to-day, with modern ideas of bigness and modern methods of organization. He assigns posts in the war to prominent men now before the public, and touches as well upon the political, mechanical and financial problems involved. November Cosmopolitan, price 10 cents.

SAPOLIO

There is no long waiting for help if Ripans Tabules are taken for dyspepsia and headache. Relief comes quickly. One Tabule (about the size of a small button) will relieve distress in the stomach within fifteen minutes and the headache will shortly disappear. There was an industrious, hard-working woman of Cooperstown, N. Y., some sixty years of age, who for a long time had suffered greatly from dyspepsia and dreadful headaches. Her stomach tormented her so that she could hardly work at all, and, although she had tried all sorts of things, she got no relief. A friend sent her some Ripans Tabules and she felt better as soon as she took the first one. She felt more like working. "I have continued with the Tabules ever since," she says, "and they always help me."

A new style packet containing TEN RIPANS TABULES in a paper carton (without glass) is now for sale at some drug stores—for five cents. This low priced sort is intended for the poor and the economical. One dozen of the five-cent cartons (120 tabules) can be had by mail by sending forty-eight cents to the RIPANS CHEMICAL COMPANY, No. 10 Spruce Street, New York—or a single carton (TEN TABULES) will be sent for five cents.

Thursday, November 11th, in the Starke County Circuit Court, the Sutherland's who brutally raped a girl by the name of Freet, was placed on trial, and the new Court house was crowded to its utmost capacity. The men arrested are residents of this county and it is said are relatives of the Sutherland who was convicted of murdering Ed. Fetters. The Starke County Republican justly resents the imputation of the Plymouth Independent when it designates Starke county as headquarters for more crimes to the square inch than any other county in the state. We have been in close communion with Starke county for many years, and will state that so far as crime is concerned, it has a very clean record, and that our young friend of the Plymouth Independent should carefully read the histories of both Marshall and Starke counties before he draws the line relative to crimes.

We called at Attorney V. P. Kirk's office over the Exchange Bank Monday evening, and found said gentleman comfortably situated in as cozy apartments as can be found in the county. The rooms are all carpeted and handsomely furnished, and the Judge himself was comfortably seated in a handsome revolving chair, while he was busily engaged in drawing up a protentious looking document. The Judge will soon place in his office a large up to date book case which will contain a valuable library treating on law, science, theology and general history. His practice is steadily upon the increase, and as he is positively one of the thorough lawyers of the state, and whose integrity is unquestioned, we bespeak for him the confidence and support of all in this vicinity who need legal advice.

C. M. A. on Top Yet.

Last Saturday afternoon, the Lafayette high school foot ball team arrived in Culver City and immediately repaired to the academy where they met upon the grid-iron the "young Invincibles" of the C. M. A. But the "old, old story" is told over again, the visiting team did not score a point, the game ending 6 to 0. It is utterly useless for any other school to compete with the chain lightning ball kickers of the Culver Military High School team. The Rochester foot ball team Monday afternoon, the result being in the neighborhood of 56 to nothing in favor of Culver.

GERMANY VS. HAYTI.

TROUBLE IS BREWING BETWEEN THE NATIONS.

It Is Said that the United States Has Offered to Mediate—Haytian Government Obdurate—Barnum & Bailey Circus Is Off for Europe.

Caused by an Arrest.

A dispatch to the London Morning Post from Berlin says: "The United States is credited here with offering its intervention in the difficulty between Germany and Hayti. But the German Government is waiting for the arrival of Herr Lueders and the report of Count Schwerin due by the next mail packet." The German war ship Gefion is under orders to sail for Port au Prince, Hayti, this month in order to insist upon redress for the arrest there of Herr Lueders, a German subject, and his alleged unlawful imprisonment, for which Count Schwerin, the German minister at Port au Prince, has demanded an indemnity. Lueders is now believed to be in Germany, having been released from prison in order to avoid further complications, the natives of Port au Prince having threatened to mob the German legation and lynch Lueders. The fitting out of the war ship is being hastened as much as possible. The officials of the German foreign office do not believe the matter will be adjusted for some time to come, because the Haytian Government has assumed a stubborn attitude. The German newspapers are blaming the Government for the delay in bringing Hayti to terms.

LOADED FOR EUROPE.

Barnum & Bailey's Great Elephants Act as Stevedores.

Hundreds of men watched a nine-ton elephant shove a mighty show truck, heavily laden, along the pier in New York. Fifty men had tugged at the big wagon in vain, but when the elephant put his shoulder to the wheel he moved it along without seeming to "hump himself" at all. The Massachusetts was about to sail for London with all of Barnum & Bailey's animals. The second cabin passenger list on the big liner includes twenty-two elephants, fifteen camels, six zebras, thirty-six cages of monkeys and small wild animals, a few giraffes, royal Bengal tigers, African lions, leopards and other distinguished quadrupeds from far lands. The showmen are taking wagons, tents and all sorts of material, for after a season at London they will go under canvas and do the provinces.

THREE NATIONS VS. ONE.

Chile, Peru and Argentine to Force Bolivia to War.

Plans of a dreibund which, if adopted, means wiping Bolivia off the South American map, are in contemplation by Chile, Peru and Argentine. Both Peru and Chile are now squabbling with Bolivia, the bone of contention being two provinces of Tacna and Arica, promised Bolivia in return for her recognition of the Chilean revolutionists as belligerents in 1891. Chile, however, has not given them up yet. Argentine is to be invited into the alliance to give it strength; a war with Bolivia would follow, and the victors would divide its territory.

Strange Epidemic in Omaha.

The physicians of Omaha are puzzled over an ailment that is rapidly becoming epidemic. The disease envelops the entire body, making it one mass of small sores. The eruptions are not painful. In three weeks it has spread with such rapidity that it has become general. At least 10,000 people are afflicted.

New Orleans Open Again.

SKY IS CLEARING.

Bradstreet's Takes a Favorable View of the Business Situation.

Bradstreet's commercial report says: "Killing frosts South, the raising of quarantine embargoes at nearly all States invaded by yellow fever, the resumption of traffic and a prospective revival in demand for staple merchandise constitute the trade features of the week. Rains in central western and western States, followed by colder weather, have favored farmers and stimulated demand from interior storekeepers. This has had a favorable effect at Louisville, St. Louis and Kansas City. Jobbers in northwestern States are awaiting seasonable weather to stimulate the movement of heavy dry goods and winter clothing. Leading manufacturing industries continue fairly well employed. In addition to lower prices for Southern and Bessemer pig and for steel billets, quotations for naval stores, wools, copper, coffee, pork, flour, oats and wheat are lower, while those for cotton, print cloths, sugar and beef are unchanged, and for Indian corn and lead, are a shade higher. Wheat exports—flour included as wheat—from both coasts of the United States and from Montreal this week aggregate 5,575,216 bushels, compared with 5,911,391 bushels last week. Exports of Indian corn this week amount to 2,199,550 bushels, compared with 1,589,000 bushels last week."

IMMIGRATION BILL.

New and Stringent One to Be Enacted by Next Congress.

A Washington dispatch says: One of the first measures of public importance that will come up for consideration in Congress next session will be a bill to restrict immigration. The administration is committed to such a bill and the Republican leaders in the House and Senate will devote their attention to its passage early in the session. It is certain that the bill which the next Congress will pass will be even more stringent in some features than the old one. The new bill will provide for the exclusion of anarchists. It will aim to keep out the ignorant classes of immigrants who form the dangerous elements in the cities.

OUR WHEAT GOES OUT.

Twenty-Seven Steamships to Haul Grain to Europe.

There are twenty-seven steamships now in port or under charter at Philadelphia to load grain for European ports. Most of the grain will be shipped in the next few weeks. These steamers will carry an aggregate of 3,100,000 bushels of corn and wheat. So far this year the shipments of corn have aggregated nearly 22,000,000 bushels, as against less than 7,000,000 in 1896, and of wheat 3,993,889 bushels, compared with 3,840,616 last year.

Put Government in Bad Light.

The State Department at Washington is making a very uncomfortable for Senor Don Enrique de Puy de Lome, the Spanish Minister. The charge is laid at his door that he has, in his communications to Madrid, persistently and willfully misrepresented the facts in connection with the Cuban filibustering expeditions and has made his home Government believe that the Federal authorities winked at this violation of international law, whereas he should have known that directly the contrary was the case. The Spanish Minister, assisted by his counsel, Calderon Carlisle, drew up an indictment against this Government some time ago in which was catalogued all the filibustering expeditions that had left American shores with arms, ammunition and supplies for the Cuban insurgents, the facts being so presented as to produce the impression that they could all have been stopped if the United States had been desirous of so doing, and that failure to prevent the filibustering made this Government responsible for it all. At the State Department the claim is made that the Spanish Minister was fully advised of the efforts which had been made and which are being made continually by our Government to prevent filibustering, and that he knew that more than $2,000,000 had been spent in the work. This side of the case appears to have been entirely ignored in De Lome's official communications and reports.

Killed Their Teacher.

James Allen, teacher in a school at Wheatland, Hickory County, Mo., was beaten to death by his pupils. As a punishment for misconduct, Mr. Allen kept several boys after school was dismissed. When released the youths went away angry, and later, as the schoolmaster was on his way home, they layd him in, pelting him with stones and clubs. Mr. Allen was knocked down and his skull crushed.

Robbers Destroy the Train.

An Atlantic and Pacific passenger train was held up by four men near Grant's station, N. M. After blowing open the express company's safe, the robbers wrecked the train, which caught fire, the express, baggage and smoking cars being totally destroyed. It is not known how much money the robbers secured, but it is thought a large amount was carried by the train.

Durrant's Last Hope Gone.

AGAINST THE TRUST.

FIGHT WILL BE BEGUN AT FIRST OF THE YEAR.

The Bulk of the Hawaiian Sugar Crop Will Be Handled by Independent Refineries—Gold Is More Plentiful—Scots Boycott Yankee Goods.

To Fight Sugar Trust.

A special telegram from San Francisco says: Plans have been perfected and the assurance is given that everything will be in readiness for fighting the sugar trust Jan. 1, when the five-year contract of the Hawaiian planters at the Western sugar refinery will expire. It will continue to handle that portion of the crop, say from 40,000 to 50,000 tons, which Claus Spreckels can control. Of the remainder of 225,000 tons, 150,000 tons will be placed on the market by the California Beet Sugar and Refining Company, in which Welch & Co., George W. McNear and their friends are the principal elements. Of the 150,000 tons of raw island sugar, 90,000 tons will be sent to New York, where it has already been sold to refineries, independent of the trust. The remaining 60,000 tons will be refined at the California Beet Sugar and Refinery Company's works at Crockett, on the straits of Carquinez.

MONEY IS EASIER.

Gold Is Being Plentifully Poured Into Trade Channels.

The first annual report of Ellis H. Roberts, treasurer of the United States, has just been completed. It shows, among other things, that money is much easier than it was a year ago. At the end of the fiscal year of 1896 the aggregate currency and specie in circulation was $1,507,467,531, while at the close of the fiscal twelve months of 1897 this amount increased to $1,641,190,097, while during the same period the total stock of money in circulation and in the treasury mints increased from $2,348,338,571 to $2,500,371,978. A gratifying improvement in the condition of the stock of money has occurred in the increased proportion of gold which has entered into circulation. The estimated gain of gold to the country in the fifteen months ending Oct. 1 is placed at $112,511,570, of which about $43,000,000 came from abroad. The redemption of national bank notes during the period covered by the treasurer's report entailed an expenditure of $125,061,73, which the national banks had to pay at the rate of $1.07 per $1,000 of notes redeemed. A special deposit of $70,000 of United States 4 per cent. bonds is held in the name of the controller of the currency for the benefit of the unfortunate Fidelity National Bank of Cincinnati.

BOYCOTTS YANKEE GOODS.

Glasgow Union Is Against United States Manufacturers.

The officials of the Joiners' union at Glasgow, Scotland, have posted notices in all the shops of that city forbidding members of the union to hang doors which have been made in the United States or to use manufactured joinery which has been imported from America. The reason for this notice, it is said, is that speculative builders have been importing large quantities of all classes of manufactured wood.

Ex-Treasurer Booker Missing.

Ex-State Treasurer Booker, of Grand Forks, N. D., is among the missing. Some time ago Booker was indicted by the Federal grand jury for making a fraudulent report to the controller of the currency on the condition of the Grand Forks National Bank, of which he was president. When his case was called in the United States court, Booker failed to respond, and his bonds were declared forfeited.

Pope Takes a Hand.

The papal nuncio at Madrid has been called to Rome by the vatican and instructed to exhort the clergy and people of Spain to do their utmost to support the present dynasty. News has reached the vatican that the situation in Spain is extremely grave. Carlisle risings are imminent in the principal towns of Spain, and the queen regent is continually receiving menacing letters from the Carlisle.

Stands to Lose $500,000.

Ten cases, involving $1,500,000, are upon the calendar of the Appellate court at Albany, N. Y. David C. Robinson, a son of the late Gov. Robinson, is either plaintiff or defendant against the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York. FOOD SCARCE AT DAWSON.

Canadian Officials Consider It Expedient to Collect Royalty.

The steamer George W. Elder has arrived at Nanaimo, B. C. Among her passengers was Donald Nicholson, who left Dawson Sept. 23. Mr. Nicholson says the food problem was a most perplexing question when he left Dawson. Seven steamers were then overdue. Nicholson says that Skookum Gulch proved an absolute failure outside of one claim. He believes the country to be rich, but it can never be properly developed until provisions are cheaper. Work is plenty at $1.50 per hour. The gold commissioner and mounted police do not consider it advisable, under existing circumstances, to collect the 20 per cent. royalty and to reserve alternate claims for the Government. The miners are not required to take out licenses, but have to pay $15 for staking claims, which pays for surveying and recording, and $100 for the claim the second year. F. W. Vaille, assistant superintendent of the railway mail service at Portland, Ore., has received a letter from Dyea stating that a party started Oct. 22 with 300 pounds of late mail for Dawson. The Canadian police were in charge, and the mail was drawn by dog teams.

Triple Crime at 'ea.

The United States steamship Lancaster dropped anchor in Hampton roads from Bahia, Brazil. In military confinement on the warship were five men of the crew of the schooner Olive Pecker, whose Captain, J. W. Whitman of Rockland, Me., and First Mate William Saunders of Sandy Cove, N. S., were murdered at sea in August last. In the ship's brig, closely ironed, is J. Anderson, the schooner's cook, who is the self-confessed perpetrator of the murders, and who afterward set fire to the vessel. The Olive Pecker sailed from Boston on June 27 with a cargo of lumber for Bahia, and the story of the tragedy is told by the murderer, who gives a signed version of his crime. The seamen remained in the old prison at Bahia for four weeks before the arrival of the Lancaster. When the men were sent aboard the cruiser they were found to be so filthy and poorly clad that it was necessary to give them baths and new wearing apparel.

THE HALF NOT TOLD.

RICHEST OF ALASKA'S WEALTH YET UNKNOWN.

A Canadian Surveyor Returns from the Gold Country with Very Favorable Information—Sensational Allegations by Kansas Commissioner.

Lots of Gold There.

William Ogilvie, surveyor of the Canadian department of the interior, who left Ottawa for the Yukon country June 19, 1895, and is now returning, reports that there are one hundred claims on Bonanza creek capable of yielding from $250,000 to $500,000 and thirty claims on El Dorado creek that will no doubt yield an average of $1,000,000 each. These two creeks, he says, form but a small percentage of the rich placers already discovered. The other streams in the vicinity, though not quite so rich, will rate very high compared with anything ever found in the country before. The gold-bearing area extends up the Yukon from the American boundary at least 400 miles, and is in some places 100 miles wide. Over all this area good indications have been found, so it is safe to assert that the greatest wealth, if not the richest individual deposit, is yet to be discovered.

Gross School Frauds in Kansas.

After an investigation State Superintendent of Instruction Stryker at Topeka, Kan., stated there are 781 district schools in Kansas where the average daily attendance is less than five pupils. Hundreds of thousands of dollars are annually wasted in this way. In many cases schools are under the control of one family. The parents and a son or daughter compose the school board, and they employ another member of the family as teacher at $30 to $40 a month, the only pupils being other children of the same family.

TELLS A GORY TALE.

MRS. NACK COULD NOT KEEP HER BLOODY SECRET.

Miserable Woman Reveals the Awful Mystery of How the Unfortunate Guldensuppe Was Murdered by Martin Thorn—Must Have a New Trial.

Confession of the Crime. The trial of Martin Thorn for the murder of William Guldensuppe, begun at Long Island City, was suspended owing to the dangerous illness of Juror Magnus Larsen. The jury was discharged and a new trial ordered. Juror Larsen was taken ill and physicians called to attend him found that he was suffering from appendicitis. An operation was successfully performed upon the sick juror, and it is expected that he will be able to leave his bed in two weeks. All evidence for the prosecution, whose case was nearly completed, will have to be introduced again, and Mrs. Nack will be required to go on the stand and tell her horrible story anew. The Guldensuppe murder was committed, according to Mrs. Nack's confession, on Friday, June 25, in a cottage rented for that purpose in Woodside, L. I. On that date William Guldensuppe, a Turkish bath attendant, was killed by Martin Thorn, a barber, and his rival in the affections of Mrs. Nack. The latter was at the Woodside cottage at the time of the murder and aided in covering up the traces of the crime.

MARTIN THORN.

The woman confessed in the witness chair that she and Martin Thorn murdered William Guldensuppe. She related the awful details of the crime without flinching, without a tremor. At times she even smiled as she spoke the words that doomed to the electric chair the pitiable wretch who had staked his soul for love of her.

How the Deed Was Planned. Mrs. Nack told of her arrival in this country; how she left her husband and went to live with Guldensuppe. Then she advertised for a lodger, and Thorn came. Early in June he and Guldensuppe quarreled. They fought, and Guldensuppe got so much the better of it that Thorn had to go to the hospital for two weeks. Thorn came back, and with Mrs. Nack planned revenge. Woodside, L. I., was selected as a good place for the consummation of the plot. "We hired the house," she continued. "Thorn gave the name of Brown. Thorn said to me that I should bring Guldensuppe over, and that Guldensuppe should be killed. I went home and told Guldensuppe that he should come with me and look at a house. We left New York between 9 and 10 o'clock in the morning. We came in the ferry, and took the trolley car that passed the house."

THE WOODSIDE COTTAGE.

"When Guldensuppe and I got to the house I gave Guldensuppe the key. He went in. I went to the back; then I heard a shot. Thorn came downstairs and said: 'I've shot Guldensuppe. He's dead.' I was almost dead myself. Thorn told me to go home and come back. I got oil cloth to cover the parts of the body and went back to the Woodside house. Thorn was there. We went over a ferry. Thorn had the head. It was wrapped in gray paper. He told me he threw it in the river. When we landed in New York we took the First Avenue car. I went home. I met Thorn Thursday morning at the Thirty-fourth street ferry. We went to the house in Woodside by a trolley car. Thorn told me he had a big parcel; he could not carry it. I hired a carriage. We were not long in the house on June 26. We took the breast part and went to New York together. We took a downtown ferry. When we were crossing the ferry Thorn left me. He came back and said he had thrown it overboard.

"On Saturday I got the carriage and we went to Woodside again. Thorn told me he had a bottle of ammonia, and to clean up the blood stains. I cleaned up blood stains. I took a parcel Thorn gave me and put it in the bottom of the carriage. We drove to a place where both sides was woods. He said: 'This is the place where we're going to fire it down.' We took it out and fired it down over the bank. It was dark. We drove back. I got out and went home. He delivered the carriage. I met Thorn Monday night at Twenty-third street and Ninth Avenue. We had no conversation. I went home. I don't know where he went. I did not see him again after that at all."

MRS. NACK.

Sparks from the Wires. John F. Farley has been made chief of the Denver, Col., police force. Rev. George Reader has practically been expelled from Boston University for marrying a couple in a lion's cage. Lizzie Burke and Bertha Ingle were probably fatally burned by the explosion of a gas generator, which also wrecked the Piqua, Ohio, hosiery factory.

SEALING COMES FIRST.

The International Conference Begins in Washington.

The experts representing the three governments, the United States, England and Canada, assembled at the State Department in Washington. There were present Messrs. Jordan, Thompson and McCoun. In addition Gen. Foster and Mr. Hamlin were in attendance for the United States and Sir Louis Davies for Canada. Sir Julian Pauncefote sent a note excusing himself from coming on account of illness.

The meeting lasted for about an hour, and presumably the proceedings were mainly preliminary and designed to outline a plan of procedure. Mr. Hamlin was elected chairman. It was officially stated that the proceedings were in the sense that nothing could be given out for publication before the end of the deliberations. The treaty which was negotiated last week between the United States and Japan and Russia for the further protection of the seals was not referred to in the first meeting, although its general provisions are known to the British delegates. The feature of the treaty is said to be the short time it is to continue in force, the limit being one year.

President McKinley received Sir Wilfrid Laurier, premier of Canada, in the blue room at the White House. Secretary Sherman introduced Sir Wilfrid, who was accompanied by Sir Julian Pauncefote, British ambassador Sir Louis Davies and Prof. Thompson, the British seal expert. The visit was entirely formal.

The Canadian premier received callers in very democratic fashion at his apartments in the Shoreham, but to all he gave the reply that it would be manifestly premature at this stage for him to discuss the outlook on the Bering sea question or any other subjects which concern the United States and Canada. He and Sir Louis desired first to communicate with the seal experts of the United States and Great Britain before indicating any course of action. He made it clear, also, that they would give their exclusive attention to this subject until some conclusion was reached, and that other questions, such as reciprocity, border immigration, etc., would not be referred to until the first purpose of the visit was accomplished. It was stated that the official purpose of the visit was to consider the Bering sea matter, and that future circumstances would develop how far other questions would be opened to consideration.

FARMERS CONGRATULATED. An Improvement in the Price of Most Products of the Farm.

The National Grange, Patrons of Husbandry, convened in the Supreme Court chamber at Harrisburg, Pa. Delegates from almost all the States represented in the national body were present. National Master J. H. Brigham, assistant Secretary of Agriculture, was in the chair and submitted his annual report. He said:

We have reason to rejoice over the marked improvement in the prices of most products of the farm. The prices now received are not burdensome to the consumer but remunerative to the farmer and if maintained will cause a marked advance in the value of farm lands. It is also a highly gratifying sign of the times that the business failures in the South and Southwest in July, August and September of the present year represented in the aggregate of their liabilities only $4,394,000, as compared with $11,498,000 during the corresponding period of the preceding year.

Earnest efforts are being made to extend our markets in foreign countries and to secure the abolition of the discriminating restrictions and prohibitions unjustly maintained by certain foreign countries against the agricultural products.

Congress will undoubtedly be urged by interested associations to appropriate large sums of money to build dams, reservoirs and canals for the purpose of irrigating the arid lands of the West. It is not the policy of our grange to espouse the cause of any political party or endorse the policies advocated by either, but when the people have settled the questions at issue, we accept their decision and try to secure for agriculture fair treatment in the legislation carrying into effect the policy endorsed by the people.

WED OR LEAVE HOME.

Four St. Louis Girls Must Hustle for Husbands.

In St. Louis is a father who has grown tired of seeing young men call on his daughters with no apparent intention of marrying them. To prevent any more dilly-dallying, he has issued to his four girls an ultimatum which compels them to either marry before Dec. 1 or leave the parental roof and shift for themselves.

THE BURKHART GIRLS.

The man's name is Jacob Burkhardt, the daughters being Lotta, Emma, Ella and Laura. The family lives at 4511 North Twentieth street, at least Mr. Burkhardt does, for all his daughters have now left him. The girls are good-looking, domesticated and accomplished. Each would make an excellent wife. One of them, Ella, might have been married before Dec. 1, but that her father's ultimatum has caused her to defer her plans rather than yield to his insistence. She has fled from her home, not waiting for the feds of November to pass.

RECORD OF THE WEEK

INDIANA INCIDENTS TERSELY TOLD.

Free Rural Mail Delivery Experiment in Delaware County—Preferred Death to Arrest—The Bridegroom Failed to Appear—Murderer Cuts His Throat.

Rural Free Delivery. An interesting trial of rural free delivery is about to be made in Delaware County. Starting from the four post-offices of Daleville, Albany, Eaton and Eelma, especially appointed letter carriers will establish a daily free delivery and collection service over carefully selected routes, which will take in as far as possible every farmer or other resident within a radius of many miles from these points.

Cuts His Throat. Charles Pinkerton, the murderer of his nephew of the same name, who was sentenced to life imprisonment, committed suicide in the jail at Laporte by cutting his throat from ear to ear. It is supposed his wife, who has been allowed to occupy the cell with him and to go in and out freely, furnished him with the knife.

Groom Failed to Appear.

William Vanness and Miss Ida Smock, highly connected Elwood young people, were to have been married, and all arrangements had been completed for the event. The groom failed to show up and investigation later showed that he had returned the license and declared the engagement off for some unknown cause.

Death Before Arrest.

Frank Hayden of Gaston, who escaped from jail at Muncie, was captured in Remington, but as the sheriff cornered him at the home of William Hammond with the remark: "I'll not further disgrace my people," Hayden pulled a revolver and sent a bullet through his left lung.

Improvements for Hobart.

The Town Board of Trustees of Hobart have accepted the proposal of John P. Dales of Crown Point for the construction of water works and an electric light plant at the cost of $20,500. The plant will be completed this year.

Farmer Fish Shoots Himself.

Herbert J. Fish, a farmer near Valparaiso, attempted suicide by shooting himself through the head. The bullet entered his right temple and lodged back of the left eye. He is alive, but blind. No cause is known for the act.

All Over the State.

The law on quail in Indiana has expired. Birds are reported plentiful.

Elwood has taken the first steps toward holding a gas belt exposition next fall.

Judge Vaughn of the Blackford Circuit Court has decided that the city of Montpelier cannot sell its public square.

A tank containing 250 barrels of oil at the Harry Carrell oil well, a mile and a half west of Hartford City, exploded. No one was hurt.

The new Presbyterian Church of Elwood was damaged by fire, the heaters becoming overheated. Loss, $1,000; fully covered by $1,500 insurance.

George Smith and Thomas Dodge fought over a game of dice at Greenville, and Dodge was shot near the heart and fatally wounded. Smith made his escape.

Orson Wheeler, aged 83 years, at one time one of the most prosperous farmers in that section, died in the Porter County poorhouse, where he had been an inmate several years.

James Lynch, known as a habitual drunkard for eighty years, who would have been 119 years old had he lived forty-seven days, died at the county infirmary at Muncie.

Albert Carpenter of West Virginia, who was in Brazil in search of employment, was struck by an east-bound passenger train on the Vandalia and so badly injured that he will die.

The Marion lodge of Elks, by a practically unanimous vote, has decided to ignore the order of the Grand Exalted Ruler to expel James Fitzsimmons under penalty of losing its charter.

State Senator Thomas E. Ellison of Fort Wayne resigned as a member of the board of managers for the State reformatory at Jeffersonville. Representative W. H. Eichhorn of Bluffton is named to succeed him.

St. Paul's Catholic Church, a magnificent building, was dedicated at Marion. Bishop Rademacher was the celebrant, and the sermon was delivered by the Very Reverend Andrew Morrissey, president of Notre Dame.

Assistant Postmaster General Heath has made arrangements for the consolidation of postoffices in the vicinity of Indianapolis, in conformity with the greater Indianapolis plans. Fifteen additional carriers will be allowed.

Clarence Richwine, a mail carrier dismissed from the service with others by Postmaster Albert Small of Anderson, was reinstated by the civil service and postoffice commissions, and it is understood that similar action will be taken in the cases of the others.

Gov. Mount is being urged to call out the militia to stop the investors in oil lands from wasting natural gas. The contest is between the gas companies and the citizens of the State, who want the gas saved, on the one side, and the investors in oil lands on the other.

Mrs. Nellie Brooks, en route from her home in southeast Missouri to her parents' home, about eighteen miles from Birdseye, surprised the stage driver early in the evening by telling him she "would not go a bit further," and requesting him and a lady passenger who was along to make a pallet for her in the stage. The request was complied with, and one hour later a pair of bouncing twin boys were added to the list of passengers.

GOVERNMENT CROP REPORT.

The Average Yield of Corn Shown to Be 23.7 Bushels to the Acre.

The November report of the statistician of the Department of Agriculture gives 23.7 bushels as the average yield per acre of corn according to the preliminary returns of the department's correspondents. The corresponding preliminary estimate last year was 27.3 bushels, and that of 1895 26.2 bushels. The average yield in the principal corn States is as follows: New York, 32.5; Pennsylvania, 36.0; Ohio, 32.5; Indiana, 28.0; Illinois, 31.5; Iowa, 29.0; Missouri, 25.0; Kansas, 19.0; Nebraska, 29.0. The average per cent of quality is 86.3, as compared with 88.4 in 1896 and 92.3 in 1895.

The preliminary estimate of the average yield of buckwheat is 20.7 bushels per acre, as compared with 18.7 bushels last year and 20.1 bushels in 1895. The averages in New York and Pennsylvania, the two States of principal production, are 22 and 21 bushels per acre, respectively. The average per cent of quality is 94.3, as compared with 94.7 in November of last year. The average yield per acre of tobacco is 646 pounds, against 679 pounds per acre last year and 743 pounds in 1895. The estimated average yield per acre of Irish potatoes is 64.6 bushels, as compared with 86.8 bushels last year and 100.7 bushels in November, 1895. The average per cent of quality is 81.3, against 89.2 in November last year and 94.8 in November, 1895.

The average yield of hay is 1.42 tons per acre, against an average of 1.21 tons per acre for the last fifteen years. In point of quality the average is 92.8 per cent, as compared with 92.9 per cent in November, 1896, and 91.3 per cent in 1895.

Favorable conditions for the sowing of the fall crops are reported from most parts of Europe, and the condition of the crops, so far as sown, is likewise favorable. The opinion is freely expressed that an increased area has been sown in wheat, but this appears to be more as a matter of inference from the natural tendency of high prices to produce such an effect than as an observed fact. The crop reports from India continue favorable, and on the whole this is true as to those from Argentina and Australasia, but in all these countries the harvest is too remote to permit any very confident prediction as to the final outcome. In the case of Argentina it may prove that more damage has been done by the locusts and the spring frosts than is yet apparent. There is nothing to indicate that the wheat shortage in Europe is any less than has been supposed, while the crop of Manitoba is now represented to be much below the official estimate issued in August and that of the Canadian Northwest territory is poor.

EMPLOYING COOLIES.

Illinois Mine Owners Said to Be Importing Chinese Labor.

The news that Chinamen are to be imported into the mines at Carbon Hill is not considered very seriously at Spring Valley. Men stood around the corners in knots discussing this latest phase of the strike situation in Northern Illinois, but the coolies did not interest them as much as the reported settlement at Braceville, where it is stated the miners have accepted the operators' offer.

The men in the Spring Valley district are indignant over the action of the Braceville men in accepting a settlement below the scale. The Spring Valley men claim to have the strike won, and the leaders say that no matter if Braceville does return to work at a non-union scale the Spring Valley men will hold out until next May, if necessary, for the scale formulated at Springfield. Ladd, Seatonville, La Salle and Peru are equally firm.

The labor leaders scoff at the idea of the coolie movement being a success. They say it is only a bluff. Said one prominent leader: "What if they do succeed in working one obscure mine with Chinamen? That does not necessarily break the strike. We are not going to let 200 Chinamen at Carbon Hill make the price of coal digging for 2,000 white miners of Northern Illinois. The very fact that the Northern Illinois operators are importing 'coolie' labor is an indication that the white miners are poorly paid and evidence of their cause."

A remonstrance against allowing Chinese coal miners to be imported into the State for the purpose of mining coal at Wilmington and other towns in place of striking miners will be placed before Gov. Tanner in the name of the United Mine Workers of Illinois. The Governor will also be asked to co-operate with the State secretary of the Miners' Federation in keeping out the coolie labor.

EVIDENCE IN NOVAK'S TRIAL.

The Jury Is Secured and Witnesses Are Called to the Stand.

The trial of Frank A. Novak, who is charged with the murder of Edward Murray at Walford, Iowa, last February, was begun at Cedar Rapids Tuesday. The work of securing a jury was completed by the noon recess. Immediately after noon the jury was sworn and County Attorney Tobin made the opening statement to the jury.

He said that the State expected to prove that Novak was on the brink of financial ruin and insured his life for large sums of money, and that in murdering Edward Murphy, which was a part of the preconceived plan, it was for the purpose of causing the people to believe that he (Novak) had perished in the ruins, and that it all was done with the intent of defrauding the insurance companies. Judge Ney, assistant counsel for the defense, made the opening statement for the defendant. The taking of testimony was at once commenced.

The steamer Diana, which went to the Hudson Bay coast last spring with a party of Canadian Government surveyors and scientists to determine the feasibility of Hudson Bay route for ocean steamers, passed through the Straits of Carso on her way back to Halifax.

IN HONOR OF LOVEJOY

HANDSOME MONUMENT TO THE FREE SPEECH MARTYR.

Formal Dedication in Alton, Ill., Is Witnessed by Many Visitors—Story of the Killing of the Great Abolitionist—Durrant Is Doomed.

Shaft to a Hero.

The Elijah P. Lovejoy monument, recently built at Grand View Cemetery, in Alton, Ill., was formally dedicated Monday. The dedication was first to occur in June, but an accident to the monument while in course of construction necessitated a postponement, and it was decided by the committee in charge to dedicate the structure on the anniversary of the killing of Lovejoy. It was on

E. P. LOVEJOY. Nov. 7, 1837, that a mob, angered by the abolition editorials appearing in Lovejoy's weekly paper, the Alton Observer, came across the river from Missouri and besieged the editor and his friends in Godfrey & Gilman's warehouse, where they had taken refuge. The doors and shutters were strong and the mob was unable to gain admission. The infuriated men sought to dislodge the Lovejoy party by throwing burning brands upon the roof. Lovejoy climbed from the window twice and snatched the brands, receiving a bullet wound the second time from which he died shortly after rejoining his friends.

Through the efforts of the late Senator C. A. Herb of Alton an appropriation of $25,000 was made by the State Senate, but Gov. Altgeld refused to sign the bill till the citizens of Alton had raised $12,000 by popular subscription. The Lovejoy Monument Association was then organized, and succeeded in raising about half that amount. The Governor then allowed the appropriation to pass into the hands of the association. Plans and specifications were immediately drawn up, the work was started and was pushed to completion in a short time. The monument cost $30,000. The architect was Louis Mulgaard of St. Louis, and the sculptor Robert Brinighurst of St. Louis.

The first speaker on the program at the dedication was Thomas Dimmock of St. Louis. Lieut. Gov. Dimmock is better acquainted with the story of Lovejoy than any other living man, having been a resident of Alton at the time and an intimate friend of the family.

Dr. Wilkerson, a colored divine of Upper Alton, representing the colored people, made a speech. Lieut. Gov. Northcott delivered an address and a choir consisting of the different singing societies of the city furnished music for the occasion, accompanied by the White Hussar band. John W. Harned of Greenville, Ill., who was an eye-witness of the death of Lovejoy, was present at the dedicatory exercises.

TO AID ICE-BOUND MEN.

Movement to Send the Cutter Bear to Point Barrow.

There was a conference at the White House in Washington Monday, attended by Secretaries Gage, Long and Alger, Commodore Melville and Commander Dickens of the navy and Capt. Shoemaker, commander of the revenue marine service, to consider measures for the relief of the American whaling fleet said to be icebound in Bering sea. It was decided to send the revenue cutter Bear to the relief of the whalers. She is now at Seattle, Wash., having just arrived from Alaska. Orders have been issued to put her in commission for the voyage at once, and Capt. Shoemaker says she will be ready to sail as soon as she can be provisioned, which will take but a short time.

DURRANT'S FATE IS SEALED.

California Murderer Must Suffer the Death Penalty.

The United States Supreme Court has affirmed the decision of the Circuit Court for the California district, refusing a writ of habeas corpus to William Henry Theodore Durrant, under sentence of death for the murder of Miss Blanche Lamont in San Francisco in April, 1895.

The case has attracted attention throughout the whole of the United States and this decision permits the law to take its course with the condemned man. Chief Justice Fuller announced the court's conclusion, but made no remarks in doing so, save to cite a few authorities on which the court based its decision.

The Crying Sin of the Age: What is it?

By Miriam A. Marsh, of Plymouth,
Delivered at Inwood at a Sunday School Convention.

The subject assigned is not a pleasant one; there is in it no place for beautiful smiles, or happy comparison, for of sin, that moral leprosy, whose smallest taint is a festering plague spot, nothing pleasant can be said.

The crying sin of the age; what is it? Every age has abounded in sin. The human heart is like the soil of our gardens; the weeds of sin spring and grow spontaneously, while every plant that is good, or beautiful, or lovable, must have protection, cultivation and care. Every transgression of God's law is sin, and every transgression brings punishment. There are sins, and sins. Sins of commission and sins of omission. Crimes committed openly and in the light of day, with boldness and bravado, and those that are cowardly and hypocritical hiding in darkness. The railway trains and their loads of pleasure-seekers break the quiet of our peaceful Sabbath as they blare out, "God will not hear," and our newspapers advertise and report Sunday base-ball games. One individual sins against another by taking advantage of technicalities in the law, not heeding that higher law.

"Whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you do ye even so to them" and still another is robbed of that which is of more value than houses or lands by the foul breath of enmity.

And there are still sins like those of Felix when convicted made him tremble under the preaching of Paul, and he put it from him for a more "convenient season." Is atheism any worse than that?

We who are trying to be followers of Him who is all goodness, truth and holiness, profess to hate sin. We have such an abhorrence that we feel sure we shall never commit any of those out-breaking wrongs we are entrenched against the strong roaring lions, and then, the little foxes steal in and spoil our vines. The sins peevishness and murmurings, of uncharitableness toward our fellow men and unfaithfulness to our Master, and the verifullness seems to cry out "Oh! Lord, how long?"

But what shall I say of that sin which is the "sum of all villainies," the faithful foster parent of every other vice? More deadly than the pestilence working greater devastation than the sword. It takes the temple built for the indwelling of the Holy Spirit, and makes of it a sepulcher of dead hopes; a cage of unclean birds. It takes the child from a loving mother's arms and transforms it into a monster. A few days ago I met one I had known as a pleasant intelligent pupil; a bright eyed, sweet-lipped little boy. I did not know him, now a mandarin bearded drunkard whose touch it seemed would have been contamination. Oh! how few inebriates ever reform for when one has descended to the depths of a drunkard's degradation, the way up is steep and difficult. The day of miracles is not past, and "God's grace can reach them."

But what tongue can tell of the black iniquity of him who sells the liquid poison, who fills his coffers with the price of blood, who builds his stately mansion on the ruins of happy homes, and who turns a deaf ear to the cries of his heart-broken victims. Oh! swift and sure the righteous retribution that will overtake the guilty.

Let us be up and doing—doing all the time. Let there be "fine upon line, and precept upon precept." Let no opportunity be lost for a "word fitly spoken;" in the half hour we have with our classes each week, some influence can surely be exerted, and may God in His own good time and in His own way sweep from the earth the crying sin of the age.

A few weeks ago the editor was taken with a very severe cold that caused him to be in a most miserable condition. It was undoubtedly a bad case of la grippe and recognizing it as dangerous he took immediate steps to bring about a speedy cure. From the advertisement of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the many good recommendations included therein, we concluded to make a first trial of the medicine. To say that it was satisfactory in its results, is putting it very mildly, indeed. It acted like magic and the result was a speedy and permanent cure. We have no hesitancy in recommending this excellent Cough Remedy to anyone afflicted with cough or cold in any form.—THE BANNER OF LIBERTY, Libertytown, Maryland. One of Two Ways.
The bladder was created for one purpose, namely, a receptacle for the urine, and as such it is not liable to any form of disease except by one of two ways. The first way is from imperfect action of the kidney. The second way is from careless local treatments of other diseases.

CAUSE.
Unhealthy urine from unhealthy kidneys is the chief cause of bladder troubles. So the womb, like the bladder, was created for one purpose, and if not doctored too much is not liable to weakness or disease, except in rare cases. It is situated back of and very close to the bladder, therefore any pain, disease or inconvenience manifested in the kidneys, back, bladder or urinary passage is often, by mistake, attributed to female weakness or womb trouble of some. The error is easily made and may be as easily avoided. To find out correctly, set your urine aside for twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates kidney or bladder trouble. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root, the great kidney and bladder remedy is soon realized. If you need a medicine you should have the best.
