Cadets Impressive In 31-7 Victory Over Central Catholic

In scoring their second win in two starts by trouncing South Bend Central Catholic last Saturday, 31-7, Russ Oliver's Academy football team showed that what a squad lacks in size it can readily make up by good condition, hard tackling, and well coordinated playing.

When the South Benders ran back the opening kickoff from their own three-yard line to score on the first play of the game the visiting Dads down for Fathers Weekend were sure the Indians meant to continue their upset winning ways of the previous week when they defeated South Bend Catholic High.

Although the cadets were still behind at the half, 7-6, they had already served notice, however, that they had the measure of their first IHSAA opponent. In the third quarter they not only kept South Bend out of threatening territory but also forged ahead 18-7 on five running plays mixed with deceptive passing.

Two more touchdowns for the cadets in the final period, one on a 98-yard run back of a pass interception by Co-Captain "Ace" Mueller and another by a 35-yard broken field dash of third-string halfback Bob Springer gave the corps and visiting parents a gratifying introduction to Indiana High School Athletic Association competition.

The next three Saturdays will provide the cadets with their most formidable opponents of the season all at Homecoming games.

This Friday they will travel to Greenbrier Military Academy for the highly touted West Virginia school's homecoming. Greenbrier won over Culver last year 35-26 in a see-saw battle here. The following week Culver will entertain one of the strongest teams from the South, K. M. I., whose college-brand ball beat the cadets, 13-0; and for the third of the rough series, the Academy will travel to Delafield, Wis., on October 28 for the St. Johns Homecoming celebration. In five games played there since 1940 Culver has won only once. Last year the St. Johns cadets were trounced here in the most thrilling game on the schedule 16-7.

But win or lose in these three games, the Academy team showed Saturday that they are one of the hardest fighting teams seen on the cadet gridiron in many years.

Culver H. S. Wins 1950 County Baseball Crown

Culver high school's baseball team won its second county baseball championship in a row last evening as Coach Sering's nine defeated Lapaz, 9-0. The crucial and deciding contest was played at Plymouth.

Pitcher Tom Hurt in allowing only two hits struck out twelve of the opposing team. The local slab artist who had been out part of the season with an injury issued only two passes, while his teammates converted nine hits for nine runs.

Culver lost only one game during the season, posting a record of six wins.

Seek Re-Opening of Public Right-of-Ways To Maxinkuckee

Conservation minded citizens appeared before the regular meeting of the Marshall county commissioners at Plymouth last week to petition the group to re-establish and to re-open the public right-of-ways and roads to Lake Maxinkuckee.

For several years fishermen and those who utilize the Lake have felt that roads and public right-of-ways are gradually being closed and that public access to the Lake will be hampered unless action is taken to keep the roads open. This statement has been expressed a number of times in conservation meetings and in local civic discussions.

Conservation groups represented at the meeting included the Marshall county Conservation Council, the Indiana State Council, and the East Side Conservation Club. An attorney representing the State Conservation Department attended the meeting with the county commissioners as did the county prosecuting attorney.

While it is felt that nothing can be done about those public right-of-ways that have been closed because of long disuse and which have reverted back to property owners, it is felt that action must be taken at once towards cleaning all roads and easements which even though in present disuse, have not legally and officially been closed.

The possibility of securing a roadside park on State highway 17 along the west side of the Lake was discussed. If there is enough public interest in the project there appears to be a possibility that the park could be realized.

Following a thorough discussion of the problem, the commissioners formed a committee to conduct an investigation and submit a report. The group appearing before the commissioners were headed by John Bigley of Culver, Otto Grossman of Argos, Omer Bixel of Plymouth, Harry Lower, conservation officer, and Galeman Dexter, prosecuting attorney.

Richard McFarland Takes Marilyn Matticks as Bride

In a formal fall wedding on Saturday afternoon, September 30 in St. John's Catholic Church, Galva, Ill., in the presence of several hundred guests, Miss Marilyn Lavon Matticks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore W. Matticks, became the bride of Richard S. McFarland, son of Mrs. Mary H. McFarland, of Culver, and the late Robert T. McFarland.

Rev. Walter F. Buche read the service for the double ring ceremony. The couple were attended by Miss Marianne Jones of Galva and Robert McFarland of Culver, Ind., brother of the groom.

The bride escorted by her father was preceded down the white carpeted aisle by the groom and the bridal party including little Teresa Troline, a second cousin of the bride, who served as flower girl. Mrs. Verna Bowman Anderson played organ selections as the group entered the church.

The bride's gown, with long train, was fashioned of heavy white satin with fitted bodice, and trimmed in front from the double collared high neck to the hem of the skirt with tiny white satin covered buttons. The long sleeves came to a point over the hands and were closed with covered buttons. Her silk net fingertip veil fell from a white satin Juliet cap trimmed with a row of seed pearls. Her bouquet was of yellow rose buds and variegated ivy centered with a white orchid.

Miss Helen McFarland, sister of the groom, Miss Ann Sauerman, Miss Elinore Benson, Mrs. Gerald Hagney and Miss Verna Youngstrom serving as bridesmaids, and the maid of honor, wore long floor length off the shoulder white satin gowns styled similarly to the bridal gown. They carried lavender orchids on white satin books and wore circlets of tiny lavender mums in their hair.

"Jesus did not organize any church." The day of Pentecost, Acts II, was the first birth of the church, when Christ's followers were endued with power from on high, which was the fulfillment of Luke XXIV-49. "Behold how these Christians love one another," which statement was made of the early Christians and which is a challenge for us today.

Let's Not Forget The Brownies

Early last week some 40 girls, ages 7 to 10, met at the Boy Scout Cabin for an important meeting; a meeting that is worthy of more attention than will probably be attracted to this all too brief and inadequate editorial stint.

The meeting of the group of enthusiastic girls brings into sharp focus a challenging problem to adults in this community. It is an urgent challenge which must be met and met quickly. The group is an aspiring group of Brownies, who anxiously want and rightly expect a worthwhile program during the forthcoming year. They met with Mrs. Barbara Hughes, who has unselfishly served as leader of the group for the past three years, and Mrs. Martha Robinson.

The responsibility of planning and directing the Brownie program for more than 30 girls is a large order for these two patrons, who are urgently seeking aid. In fact, Mrs. Hughes had hoped to be relieved of the leadership responsibilities this year, but fortunately she has finally consented to help out another season.

The problem is not alone with the Brownies, but as Mrs. Hughes and Mrs. Robinson point out, there is a real need for civic sponsorship, leadership, and organization of a program for Girl Scouting and Boy Scouting, as well. While local civic groups have lent their sponsorship approval and have made some invaluable contributions in years past to the Girl Scouts and the Boy Scouts, the program, at best, has been somewhat of a hit or miss affair.

To secure an effective and continuous program which would insure effective leadership for these worthwhile organizations for our boys and girls, a local Scout Council or Youth Council is needed. At the least, the mothers of the Culver vicinity might well consider the formation of a Girl Scout Council now.

In the meantime the Brownies cannot wait. So how about co-operating with the sponsoring American Legion Post and particularly Mrs. Hughes and Mrs. Robinson. Leaders are needed now. Mrs. Robinson meets with her group on Wednesdays between 4 and 5 p. m., and Mrs. Hughes meets with another Brownie unit on Tuesdays between 4 and 5 p. m. Two assistants are needed now; the pay is actually nil, but in respect to the compensations which go to those in community service, there is a real opportunity here, so apply at once.

"The Voluntary Way Is The American Way"

Virtually every advertising medium in the land is being utilized this week to remind the public "That the Voluntary Way Is the American Way."

Sponsored by the doctors throughout America the message rightly calls attention to the importance for each and every individual weighing the facts for and against socialized medicine. More than 10,000 organizations have gone on record opposing the "Compulsory Health Insurance." Among these organizations are the General Federation of Women's Clubs, the Farm Bureau Federation, the Grange, the American Legion, the VFW and the U. S. Chamber of Commerce.

The topic has been roundly discussed pro and con before civic and professional groups and through the press and radio during the past several months. The important point in today's message is not from fear of any decision of the mass of individuals who make up the public, but that a decision may be due to public apathy or a complete lack of democratic action. In other words it is better to look ahead, than to be sorry when it becomes a reality.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir,

It has been called to my attention that there are conflicting opinions existing relative to my views on the recent assessment increase ordered by the State Board of Tax Commissioners in this County.

You will recall that the order increased the values of our Real estate assessments by 10%.

In order to eliminate any doubt that any taxpayer may have relative to my stand, I wish to state again as I have before, both in public and in private, that I am without reservations opposed to this action by the State Board of Tax Commissioners.

1) The purpose of the Reassessment was two-fold, (a) to pick up omitted property not on the Tax Rolls, and (b) for equalization of property now on the Tax Rolls.

2) The Legislature that passed the Law, the officials who enforced it, and the General Public were all led to believe that the object the Reassessment was not to increase the total taxable valuation of the Real Estate in any taxing unit (town, city or township.)

3) As a result of the Reassessment I am opposed to any increase for the following reasons: The Real Estate value of Marshall County was increased 8%, (chargeable to omitted property.)

4) A higher assessed valuation will only aid and abet any local officials or pressure groups who desire to Bond any town, city, or township for other than educational or necessary civic improvement. In other words, with high valuations it is easier to raise and spend excess tax money under the guise of "only increasing the tax rate a few cents."

5) We have at present sufficient valuation in every taxing unit to operate both efficiently and economically.

In summary, I wish to state that I have actively protested the action by the State Board of Tax Commissioners, and now that an injunction has been filed that will necessitate a Court Decision in the matter, I will continue to oppose any increase of assessments, and again will appear in behalf of the Taxpayers.

Respectively,

William W. Oberlin,
County Assessor

Your Life Insurance

The New York Life Insurance Company now issues policies on the lives of children of all ages. Of course, it is of primary importance that the father should have adequate life insurance himself in order to protect the family. But there are many excellent reasons why your child should have a policy, too.

An important point to remember is that your child can probably qualify for life insurance now. Later on it may be different. Every year thousands of persons become uninsurable and many who want insurance are unable to get it.

Suppose your father had helped you to obtain a New York Life policy on your life when you were only a child. Today you would prize such a policy highly, wouldn't you? How about your own son or daughter?

Local Candidates In Complete Agreement On League Questionnaire

There is apparently no difference in opinion among candidates for township political office on the four questions which they answered for the Culver League of Women Voters. The 4-question questionnaire submitted to the candidates sought answers to questions concerning a bond issue to build a new school and three queries concerning school administration.

All but one of the candidates had returned the questionnaires at the time the Citizen went to press. In reply to the question "Would you vote for a bond issue to building a new school as soon as it is legally possible?" all candidates answered "Yes."

Six of the seven stated that they were "In favor of better supervision of present grade school recreation." There was one hundred per cent agreement concerning the question "Will you vote for adequate recreational facilities in the new school?" Four candidates of the seven indicate they favor appointing a principal in the grade school. One stated "I don't know," another "If present supervision is inadequate, yes," and another "Perhaps, but should be a young man trained to supervise recreation and physical education in the lower grades."

Three of Coke Smith's runners entered the home stretch beyond East Shore Drive neck and neck but young Eric Schonblom, a junior from Bradford, Pa., sprinted out ahead in the last 75 yards to win.

Vets to Receive Bonus Forms

The Indiana Veterans Affairs Commission recently authorized the Bonus Division of the Indiana Department of Veterans Affairs to commence the mailing of the "Advice of Bonus Allowance forms." Forms totaling 100,000 will be mailed by October 15. This is not negotiable nor it is an order to pay. It is an official notice that the claim has been examined and that the amount shown will be paid when the Bonus Division is authorized to do so.

In addition to the amount allowed it will show the number of days and months of domestic and foreign service as computed by the Bonus Division examiners. This allows the veteran to become informed as to the amount and the manner by which it was determined. In the event the veteran feels this is incorrect, he is invited to write or to contact personally the Bonus Division Indiana Department of Veterans' Affairs, Indianapolis.

Of the estimated 365,000 veterans in Indiana, 240,000 have filed for their bonus. Of that number 196,000 have been examined and allowed. The remaining 44,000 are in the process of examination and are being held for further clarification.

Farmers To Observe
Fire Prevention Week

Hoosier farmers will join in the national observance of Fire Prevention Week, Oct. 8-14, according to F. R. Willsey, farm safety specialist at Purdue University. Emphasis on prevention of needless fires will be stressed in gatherings of both rural adults and youth during the week. Suggestions for discussions of the topic are available from the farm safety office at Purdue.

Prevention of rural fires has been a major part of the work of the State Safety Committee and received special attention at the annual Summer Agricultural Conference at Purdue. One of the aims of the committee has been the encouragement of communities to either improve or acquire adequate fire fighting equipment. The need for a supply of water on every farm, such as a pond or extra well, has been stressed as the first step towards prevention of fire damage.

Willsey adds that needless fires can be stopped by regular inspection of farm property. This point has been given particular attention by the hundreds of 4-H club members who have carried on farm safety projects. Club members have been alert to detect fire hazards and to remove them immediately.

The safety specialist gives a number of simple rules for fire prevention. These are:

Don't overload wires. When adding electrical devices such as motor or corn driers, get an expert to check whether new circuits are needed.

Prohibit smoking in the barn or where flammable liquids are stored.

Have lightning rods of the proper type installed on major farm buildings.

Make a careful inspection of heating equipment and see that chimneys are in good repair for the winter months.

Three regiments of Negro volunteers were raised in Alabama at the outbreak of the Spanish-American war but hostilities were ended before the troops were sent into action.

PERILOUS PATROL . . . An extremely dangerous but necessary operation is underway in a village somewhere in South Korea. U.S. troops carefully scout a captured village, searching for Communist stragglers and snipers. This army patrol gets underway whenever U.S. troops take a village, in order to make the areas safe for our advancing troops.

Modern Highways Lure Autoists to Mexico

American tourists continue to pour across the Mexican border. The lure of modern highways, Mexico City, cathedrals, bullfights and spectacular scenery is drawing record numbers.

A total of 12,380 touring automobiles crossed the border at Laredo during the first four months of 1950, compared to 10,412 for the same period last year. Another 5,627 cars crossed at Brownsville and El Paso during the first four months of this year.

The Pan-American highway and the new Central highway will carry most of the 175,000 motor tourists expected to enter Mexico this year. They start, respectively, at Nuevo Laredo, across the Rio Grande from Laredo, Texas, and at Ciudad Juarez, opposite El Paso. They join at Mexico City.

The Pan-American or, officially, Inter-American highway, takes the tourist through Monterrey, the "Pittsburgh" of Mexico. It enters tropical lowlands below Ciudad Victoria, then rises over 7,000 feet to the Central Plateau of Mexico.

The Central highway has only been open in its entire length since May of this year. The latest achievement of Mexico's road

IN STATE UNEMPLOYMENT STRIKES CAUSE RISE

Job insurance claims rose for the third consecutive week, John W. Crise, director of the Indiana Employment Security Division, reported this week. The 17 per cent increase for the week ending September 16 was attributed by Mr. Crise to the secondary effects of an unauthorized strike in the steel mills and to small layoffs caused by material shortages, plant maintenance, and the changes in production. In spite of the rise, claims in Indiana were still 71 per cent below the number filed a year ago.

Employment in the state continued high during the week. There was an increase of 33 per cent in the number of job openings received from employers who were attempting to bring their working force up to a level necessary to meet production schedules. Employers were also seeking to replace students leaving jobs to return to school, and workers reporting for active duty with the armed forces.

1897 Differ From
Mid-Century Quotations

"December Wheat Jumps to $1.05," is the intriguing headline heading a story in a copy of a December 10th, 1897 issue of "The Semi-Weekly Drovers Journal." The copy of the old paper is the property of Wallace Keen, R. R. 1 Lakeville, Everett Young of Culver brought the interesting issue to the Citizen office.

The Cattlemen's paper quotes hog prices at $3.42, Beef Cattle at $3.55, and Lambs at $4.50, — quite a difference from the mid-century live stock market prices.

Indiana Conservation Magazine Tells Of Lake Maxinkuckee Fish Story

Were these two antagonistic specimens of the dogfish family we might caption this photo "Dog Eat Dog," but inasmuch as they happen to be large-mouth black bass we can only remark "Grandma, what a big mouth you have."

Whether it was hunger or just pure animosity is hard to determine, but at any rate the two fish were found locked in the pictured deadly embrace floating in the water of Lake Maxinkuckee by Roy Cromley of Culver. Mr. Cromley was wiring a pier at Culver Military Academy.

According to Mr. Cromley and C. N. Cowen, assistant director of purchases at the Military academy, who was present at the time, the larger of the two bass weighed about two pounds and the victim about a pound and one-half.

The larger of the two fish was still alive when the two were taken ashore but passed on to his reward a short time later. They were wedged so tightly that it was impossible to pull them apart.

Social Security
Payments Now
Increased

Each of the 470 social security beneficiaries in Marshall County will receive a substantially larger insurance check during this week according to R. A. Hoyer, manager of the South Bend office of the Social Security Administration.

Throughout the country, the September checks for old-age and survivors insurance went into the mail on their usual schedule, the second day of the following month, but the three million beneficiaries who are receiving them will find that the amounts have been increased as authorized by the recent amendments to the Social Security Act.

The amendments, signed into law by the President just one month ago, on August 28, provided that larger payments should begin for the month of September. Most beneficiaries received their new larger payments yesterday.

The increased September payments will be made automatically to all those who received August checks and are still eligible. Hoyer said that new claims filed since early August are in process.

Increases range from 100 per cent for those who were receiving the lowest amounts under the old law, to about 60 per cent for those whose payments were in the higher brackets. The August, 1950 payments in Marshall County, paid under terms of the old law, amounted to about $9,000. The new monthly payments to be received next week will total approximately $16,200, the local manager estimates.

Sponsors Thrift Essay Contest in State Schools

"Save! It's the American Way to Success," is the subject of a Thrift Essay Contest, sponsored by the Savings and Loan League of Indiana, and now being conducted in the Senior High Schools in the state. The essay contest is sanctioned by the Indiana Association of Secondary Principals.

Winners of the contest which closes on October 22 will receive tuition accounts in Indiana schools of higher learning amounting to $1,500. In addition to the prizes made available on a state basis, Delph McKesson, secretary of Marshall County Building and Loan Association has announced that the county loan association is offering a $50 award for the best essay from schools in the county and $25 for the second best.

Choose Furniture For Usefulness, Size

When shopping for wooden furniture, the homemaker should keep in mind the many ways she may use the piece, the style and the size.

Martha Jo Bently, extension home furnishing specialist at Purdue University, points out that the family wants to live with and enjoy the furniture, rather than have it only for visitors to admire. Therefore, it should be selected carefully.

Whatever the way the furniture is to be used, it should be large enough to fulfill its need. As an example, if the homemaker is selecting a chest for storage, she should buy one large enough for that particular storage need. A coffee table or end tables may be used for magazines or newspapers or they may be a point of interest for grouping chairs. Rooms with established "units" make them more inviting. A table beside a comfortable chair with a good light makes a useful "unit."

Those pieces of wooden furniture which have simple, graceful lines remain in style for a long time. They are easier to clean and may be used in either the traditional or modern rooms.

When considering the size of the pieces, the homemaker should keep in mind the size of the room in which they are to be used.

Those which are too large make the room appear smaller, while too many small pieces cause the room to have a cluttered appearance. In the case of a small room, Miss Bently suggests selecting a few good sized pieces and several smaller ones. The correct size relationship should be kept with different pieces of furniture. A large lamp on a small table or a small lamp on a large table should be avoided.

GROUP II OF BROWNIES NOTICE

Mrs. Harold Robinson as the leader of Group II of the Brownies announces that the meeting for this group will be held on Wednesday evening after school at the Scout Cabin.

The overall volume of trade for occupied Japan has risen from more than $100,000,000 during 1948 to $460,000,000 during the fiscal year 1949.

Who Runs America?

RUNNING AMERICA is the joint job of 150,000,000 people. It's the biggest job in the world today—keeping it running for liberty and for freedom. And the whole world's watching to see whether Americans can do it!

IN MUCH OF THE WORLD today, the people have resigned from running their own countries. Others have been quick to step in—first with promises of "security"—and then with whips and guns—to run things their way. The evidence is on every front page in the world, every day.

FREEDOM COMES UNDER ATTACK. The reality of war has made every American think hard about the things he's willing to work and fight for—and freedom leads the list.

But that freedom has been attacked here recently—just as it has been attacked in other parts of the world. One of the most serious threats to individual freedom has been the threat of Government-dominated Compulsory Health Insurance, falsely presented as a new guarantee of health "security" for everybody.

THE PEOPLE WEIGH THE FACTS. In the American manner, the people studied the case for Socialized Medicine—and the case against it.

They found that Government domination of the people's medical affairs under Compulsory Health Insurance means lower standards of medical care, higher payroll taxes, loss of incentive, damage to research, penalties for the provident, rewards for the improvident.

They found that no country on earth can surpass America's leadership in medical care and progress. They found that able doctors, teachers, nurses and scientists—working in laboratories where Science, not Politics, is master—are blazing dramatic new trails to health for Americans—and for the world.

THE "GRASS ROOTS" SIGNALS CONGRESS. In every community in the Nation, people stood up to be counted on this important issue. Thousands of local women's clubs, civic groups, farm, business, religious, taxpayer, medical, educational and patriotic organizations spoke out—giving the great United States Congress its unmistakable Grass Roots signal from home!

And ever watchful, ever sensitive to an alert people, The Congress saw that signal, and heard the people speak out, loud and plain. That's democracy in action. That's the American way!

Today among the 10,000 great organizations on militant public record against "Compulsory Health Insurance" are:

General Federation of
Women's Clubs
American Farm Bureau
Federation
National Grange
Veterans of Foreign Wars
National Conference of Catholic Charities
American Protestant
Hospital Association

American Legion
National Association of

• Doctors of this Nation are grateful that the people refused to be wooed by the fantastic promises of this un-American excursion into State Socialism. • Doctors of America are dedicated to serve their fellow citizens at home and their comrades in uniform, wherever service to this Nation may take them. • And the thing they stand ready to fight for—to sacrifice for—to die for—is not the alien way of life of Socialism, but the prideful security of a free and self-reliant people!

THE VOLUNTARY WAY IS THE AMERICAN WAY!

• Throughout the Nation, free men and women, working and planning together, are finding the American answer to every question of medical service, care and cost. Hundreds of Voluntary Health Insurance Plans are in healthy competition—sponsored by doctors, insurance companies, hospitals, fraternal organizations—by industry, agriculture and labor. • Today in America—70 million people are protected by Voluntary Health Insurance! • Throughout the Nation, families are insuring themselves against the major costs of illness—at reasonable, budget-basis prices. Voluntary Health Insurance takes the economic shock out of illness. Protect your family now. • For information, ask your doctor—or your insurance man.

LIBERATION OF 15,000 QUAIL TO BEGIN

Crews of conservation employees at the Wells County

Game Farm and Preserve near Bluffton and at the Jasper-Pulaski Game Farm and Preserve, Medaryville, last week began the task of catching nearly 15,000 quail for liberation throughout Indiana.

The broad expanse of pens housing the game birds that provide much sport for Indiana hunters will be the scene of much activity as the birds are placed in boxes each of which will contain six, or three pairs. In turn these will be loaded on four trucks for distribution throughout Indiana. According to Hovey Pritchett, Superintendent of Game Farms, it was planned to begin distribution the first of this week. The state has been divided into two zones, the Jasper-Pulaski Farm servicing that part of the state west of the north and south center line and Wells County taking care of the eastern section. Approximately three days will be required to complete the liberation process.

From Pills to Penicillin

Over the years, behind our counters, we've sold many kinds of accepted medicines and we've filled thousands of prescriptions for people of this community. We've helped measure out a lot of medical progress. We've seen new treatments and new drugs turn illness into health, despair into hope.

This progress is more than statistics—it's people!

And the people we know don't want it tampered with!

Free America has no place for a bureaucracy that stands between people and progress, between doctor and patient, between physician and pharmacist.

Our business is selling merchandise—the best we can buy—at the most economical price to you. It's a good business, and we like it.

Nothing FOR Something

It's an old trick of the curbstone pitchman

"Tell you what I'm going to do, Ladies and Gentlemen,
I am going to give you, absolutely free..."

Yes, it's an old trick. But it's still a popular one. Salesmen of Socialism use it the world over. Yet when analyzed, their Something for Nothing always turns out to be—NOTHING FOR SOMETHING!

That isn't the way America became the greatest, healthiest Nation in the world. American business has reached its present stature because it believes in giving the customer his money's worth.

Through healthy competition, and the will to serve, American medicine has created the finest system of medical care in the world.

Through ingenuity and free enterprise, American citizens have higher incomes, better education, better health and more freedom than citizens of any other great Nation on earth.

Freedom is America's heritage, and Americans cherish it deeply—for themselves and for the entire world. In exchange for this good way of life, the political pitchman offers us the quack remedy of Something for Nothing...of "free" medical care, doled out by politicians.

Farm Fields Need Winter Overcoats

Winter preparation on the farm now includes a "winter coat" for the fields. No farmer would have his family unprotected and neither would he fail to protect his land if he were aware of the danger, says R. O. Cole, extension conservationist at Purdue University.

The land needs protection against erosion during the winter as well as in the spring. A good covering has an indirect benefit to the soil, that of helping to maintain the proper earthworm population and soil structure.

Cole cites recent studies at several Midwest Agricultural Experiment stations which showed that the use of a covering, even of insulative material, helped both earthworm population and prevention of erosion. The scientists determined the benefits by measuring the rate of water seepage into the soil, the time that water remained, and the size of the air spaces between the particles of soil.

Among the materials which were tried as covers, a hay mulch was more effective than asphalt roofing. This mulch, Cole explains, reduced the depth and the frequency of freezing and thawing. These processes in turn affected the water-holding capacities of the soil.

While this study gave a new approach to cover crops, the idea of growing cover crops is as sound as ever. Cole recommends that rye, ryegrass, and sweet clover be included in crop rotations. Although it is difficult to seed cover crops, in standing corn or in a rotation including corn, soybeans, wheat and clover, the protection to the land justifies the effort and work, he declares.

USE OF REFLECTING DISCS

Reflecting discs placed upon abutments and ends of bridges on Indiana's highways by the Indiana State Highway Commission avoid an unknown number of accidents which might otherwise occur. It is an effective safety measure.

If the railroads would adopt that plan, placing the reflectors on the sides of unlighted railway cars, hundreds of accidents might be prevented, lives saved, huge property loss reduced. In the last annual figures released by the National Safety Commission it was revealed that there were 3,592 such accidents, and that is only for one year. This largely preventable slaughter is continuous. Driving into the side of an unlighted train could be avoided by the simple, inexpensive safety measure used by the State Highway Commission in marking Indiana bridges.

Mid-Century Hosteling Journey Through Europe and North Africa

(Editor's Note: This is the third in a series of articles by Walter Johnson, Jr., describing his trip through Europe and North Africa this past summer. Mr. Johnson served as a leader of an American Youth Hostel group on the interesting tour. In the previous article, the writer told of the planning for the trip, the trip across aboard the SS Columbia, and an interesting journey through Portugal, Spain and North Africa.)

BY WALTER JOHNSON, JR.

Scars of Tunisian War

As we neared Tunis we expected to see signs of the recent war but none were seen until we were in the city. More G. I. equipment was being used and worn than probably exists in all the surplus stores of America. The English language used on the streets had definitely been picked up from American soldiers. This was Tunis. There were beggars, poverty, and filth. We had our problems. We were in Tunis and our bicycles in Constantine, but the American consulate assured us they would have them before our sailing date for Italy. The consulate was successful while we saw the sights of Tunis and Carthage.

Late one evening we boarded the ship for Palermo and thought how different this trip would be than others had been a few years ago. The next morning we saw the mountains of Sicily rimmed by a fruitful plain. Destruction of the city was still to be seen. In fact reconstruction was slower there than anywhere else. Little was seen in the city except ruins, a good plate of spaghetti, and the colorful Sicilian carts. That evening we boarded the same ship for Naples.

On this morning we saw another dirty city, Naples, which had no appeal to the group. However, at the docks was a sign informing us of a launch leaving for the Isle of Capri. This was for us! With no time lost we were on our way.

Wonderful Capri

Capri was what we expected but more beautiful. A resort area like Catalina with wealthy people from all over the world. The scenery was very striking against the beautiful blue water. The town with its picturesque streets were full of tourists in shorts and slacks. The shops were full of baskets, cameos, coral, and other tourist articles. One day was enough; we had to keep going so we would have time for Paris.

The evening was spent back in the Naples hostel. Next morning we prepared for our ride to Pompeii. At the edge of Naples we saw the ruins of her industrial area which was in a process of reconstruction. On walls and buildings the hammer and sickle were drawn. In the distance mighty Vesuvius could be seen.

In Portugal there were no signs and billboards to mar the countryside, but here it looked like America. Even Colgate and Singer were doing a good job, but nothing like Coca Cola which existed in every country except Portugal and Spain.

The ruins of Pompeii, which were uncovered in the eighteenth century, were extremely interesting. On the way we stopped at a cameo factory to watch some of the Italian handiwork.

From Naples to Rome we saw much of the war's destruction. Little has been done toward reconstruction in these areas, and we realize the Italian peasant is worse off than his city friends. The land is very fertile and is being utilized, but how overpopulated they must be, when we compare that country side with ours.

Spent Four Days in Rome

Four days were spent in Rome whereas we should have spent weeks. We were amazed to see how ancient and modern Rome mixed together was. There was the Forum, Colosseum, Pantheon, Foro Mussolini, Appian Way, Catacombs, and much more to see. For the historian it was a poor time to visit the city because of crowds there for the Holy Year. St. Peter's was something never to be forgotten along with our mass audience with Pope Pius.

By train we moved to Florence. We thought this to be the best in Italian cities. Still showing some of its scars it is most beautiful with its churches and bridges over the Arno. We couldn't miss the Pitti Palace and the Uffizi Galleries where most of the art treasures have been replaced. And to marvel how these buildings still stand while a few feet away buildings were bombed.

Friendly Neapolitans

This city was such a contrast from Naples and the people so friendly. One would think he were in a different country from the other. Today lace, linen, and leather work are the chief industries. These people seem to fit in perfectly with their city, the seat of culture for so many years.

From Florence we went by from Naples and the people so need for bicycles here—we shipped them to Switzerland. Yes, Venice is beautiful, but it has a different beauty than Florence. It is a resort city and unique in its construction. Situated on hundreds of islands two miles from the mainland we traveled by gondolas or walked through narrow streets and over numerous bridges. We avoided the art museums and just enjoyed the city in general.

With difficulty, after two days, we pulled ourselves away from Venice. We had to hurry for there was so much to see. Switzerland was next, but there was so little we had time for. Two days were spent in Geneva, and a little of the Swiss Alps were seen from the train. Geneva was beautiful and modern. There was no poverty and we felt good in the land of plenty. The shops were full of watches and music boxes, and the streets full of bicycles. It wasn't America but the nearest thing to it. Prices were high and no place for a hosteler to spend too much time. A visit to United Nations and we were off to Paris.

A Visit to Paris and then Home

Books have been written about this place, and we could only spend five days here, but what a five days it was. There was the Louvre, ballet, opera, and public buildings all mixed with The Folies, Pigalle, and Montmartre. We were glad to have bicycles, for it was a reasonable way to see Paris. The French were ready to soak the rich tourists, but who would expect an American on a bicycle.

We all realized how the Europeans viewed Americans. First, our soldiers and the army had money to throw around. Now the American tourist was there with more money. "All Americans are rich, just look at the movies!" Many Europeans couldn't believe we were Americans dressed as we were. In the hostels the young were glad to get acquainted with us and to know more about what America is really like.

Tired from cycling around Paris all day and seeing it at night, we took the train for Cannes. Here on the French Riviera we spent two days ogling the bathing beauties and waiting for the Columbia to take us back to America.

NATIONAL HEALTH INSURANCE IS Socialized MEDICINE

How many of these names have you heard?

- 1 Government Health Insurance
- 2 The Wagner Plan
- 3 National Health Insurance

Don't be misled by any of them. They all mean the same . . . all add up to Socialized Medicine.

Simply, Socialized Medicine is a government-controlled compulsory sickness tax—forced on you whether you like it or not.

Every Nation that has tried it totters on the brink of bankruptcy—and the government takes the workers' spending money in extra taxes.

Our Nation's health is at an all-time high under the present system. Let's keep it that way.

Let those who represent you in Washington know you are against government control of medical service.

Remember, it's your health . . . and your money!

Press Assn. Official
To Again Head State
March of Dimes Campaign

The appointment of Wray E. Fleming, Indianapolis attorney and newspaperman, as Indiana State Chairman of the 1951 March of Dimes, was announced today by Basil O'Connor, president of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. This marks the second consecutive year that Mr. Fleming will serve as head of the National Foundation's fund-raising drive in Indiana.

In this capacity he will coordinate the work of county and city March of Dimes campaign directors in this state.

In accepting the re-appointment, Mr. Fleming declared that the people of Indiana, by boosting March of Dimes contributions from $482,808.09 in 1949 to $745,206.96 in 1950 had placed their stamp of approval on the work being done by this great voluntary agency. "The March of Dimes is close to the heart of every Hoosier," Mr. Fleming said. "We have learned that to most people giving to fight infantile paralysis is a pleasure and a privilege. We expect to surpass even 1950's impressive record in every county in the state."

Mr. Fleming, a native of Shelbyville, has been general counsel for the Hoosier State Press Association for the past eleven years.

President Jefferson Davis of the Confederacy reportedly spent 15 out of every 24 hours at his office desk in the Montgomery, Ala., capital.

Farmers May Obtain
New Inbred Line of Hogs

Word has been received from Gordon J. Graham, Agricultural Alumni director at Purdue University, that farmers still may obtain the new inbred line of Chester White boars.

Applications for the purchase of these boars may be made in the County Extension office, Plymouth. According to Mr. Graham, the Agricultural Alumni Seed Improvement Association now has between 30 and 40 boars for distribution to Indiana farmers.

In order that the animals will be fairly distributed, the following system will apply. Applications submitted by the farmers will be numbered and placed in a hat, and the boar numbers will be placed in another hat. Every time an application is drawn from the hat a corresponding number will be drawn from the hat with the boar numbers.

The boars will be distributed on October 16. All interested farmers should apply in the County Extension Office by Friday, October 13.

Selling Milk

Our service to this community has much in common with that of the medical profession.

The wholesome diet of American families—and the place of milk in that diet—has a lot to do with the high standard of health our country has achieved.

We believe, and all experience proves, that free men do the best job of running industry, professions and business.

That's why today we publicly reaffirm our faith in American initiative, American progress, American FREEDOM.

that most Americans prefer to solve their problems—medical or otherwise—by means of self-reliance, free choice and voluntary methods.

that most Americans will work and fight to preserve freedom, both at home and abroad.

The menace from abroad is Communist tyranny.
The menace at home is creeping Socialism.

Rugged NOT RAGGED

A great American statesman has defined "rugged individualism" as a "eulogy of those God-fearing men and women of honesty whose stamina and character and fearless assertion of rights led them to make their own way in life."

What better way to describe the builders of America... the America to which the ragged, regimented oppressed peoples of the world look for release, for inspiration.

As businessmen, we know the value and the blessings of freedom. We know how the exercise of freedom has made America great. We want to keep our right to voluntary action.

Suffocating Socialism at home, like communism overseas, threatens the America we cherish.

To the doctors who are fighting for freedom, our salute. Their crusade for liberty is all America's crusade.

Freedom is worth defending—at home as well as abroad.

FARM MAGAZINE CITES

WORK OF LOCAL DAIRYMAN

How J. Dick Newman, Culver, Indiana, turned a haymow into maternity stalls for dairy cows is told in the October issue of Capper's Farmer.

"Newman's mow is different," says a story in the farm magazine. "He built it on the ground instead of putting it above the cow stable. It is several feet from the barn. Hay is wheeled down a roofed corridor to the feed alley. In case of a mow fire, he has better chance to save the barn and cows. "The hayshed is 34 feet wide, 60 feet long. It has curved, laminated rafters, and is covered with corrugated metal sheets."

CRANBERRIES TO BE MARKED IN CELLOPHANE BAGS

Shoppers will see red on fruit and vegetable displays at the fall markets. The cranberry crop is expected to equal or beat the 1948 record of 967,000 barrels. The great majority of berries at retail will be sold in transparent cellophane bags flaunting the brightness of the ripened fruit in 1-pound packages, says the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Half the crop sold in this type package in 1948 and nearly three-quarters last year, the Production and Marketing Administration reports. The old-style wooden box holding about 25 pounds is going out. Some packers had to call back boxed berries last year and repack in cellophane to insure sales. Growers now find it wise to sort and grade closer than ever to assure bright red "eye appeal." Cranberry packers insist on the most transparent packaging materials available so that the beauty of the product will help the selling.

Eighty percent of toothbrushes in use in U. S. homes are in unsatisfactory condition.

Police to Learn of Statewide Emergency Program at Meetings

Plans to coordinate and to strengthen emergency road blockade systems throughout Indiana to cope with criminal forays and possible enemy action will be unfolded at major meetings of law enforcement officials Wednesday, (Sept. 20). Representatives of all town, city, county and state police departments will gather at ten points in the state to work out final details and receive instruction on the latest techniques involved.

Central cities where meetings will be held are Chesterton, Ligonier, Lafayette, Pendleton, Indianapolis, Greencastle, Rushville, Seymour, Jasper and Charlestown. Practice tests of the statewide blockade system, organized on a district basis, will be conducted in the near future.

The wear-out age of motor vehicles has quadrupled since 1925. According to comparative surveys, vehicles were being scrapped in 1925 after 25,000 accumulated miles. Current average mileage on a car being scrapped is 120,000 miles.

ACCIDENTS TAKE HEAVIER TOLL THAN DISEASES DO

Accidents kill more young people than any disease. Here are the figures for 1948, just announced in the 1950 edition of "Accident Facts," the annual statistical yearbook of the National Safety Council:

	Death Rate per 100,000 Population
1 to 4 Years:
Accidents	41
Pneumonia	22
Congenital malformation	13
5 to 14 Years:
Accidents	25
Heart disease	4
Pneumonia	3
15 to 24 Years:
Accidents	55
Tuberculosis	17
Heart disease	9

In the 1 to 14 year group alone, accidents claimed 10,741 lives — more than the combined toll of pneumonia, congenital malformation, cancer, tuberculosis, leukemia, aleukemia and heart disease. In this same age group, accidents caused 10 times as many deaths as polio in 1948.

Multiflora Living Fence Now available to Farmers

The Indiana Department of Conservation through its Pittman-Robertson Wildlife restoration project announces that they are again going to furnish up to one mile of living fence free to Indiana farmers.

Multiflora Rose as a fence for Indiana farms has several advantages over the old wire fence. It does not spread or sap the ground and requires no pruning or trimming. It can be planted either in the fall or spring. Planting sites should be prepared now for fall plantings. All fall plantings should be heavily mulched with straw, manure, or sawdust.

Multiflora Rose is very beneficial to Indiana wildlife by furnishing excellent nesting cover, food, and protection from predators.

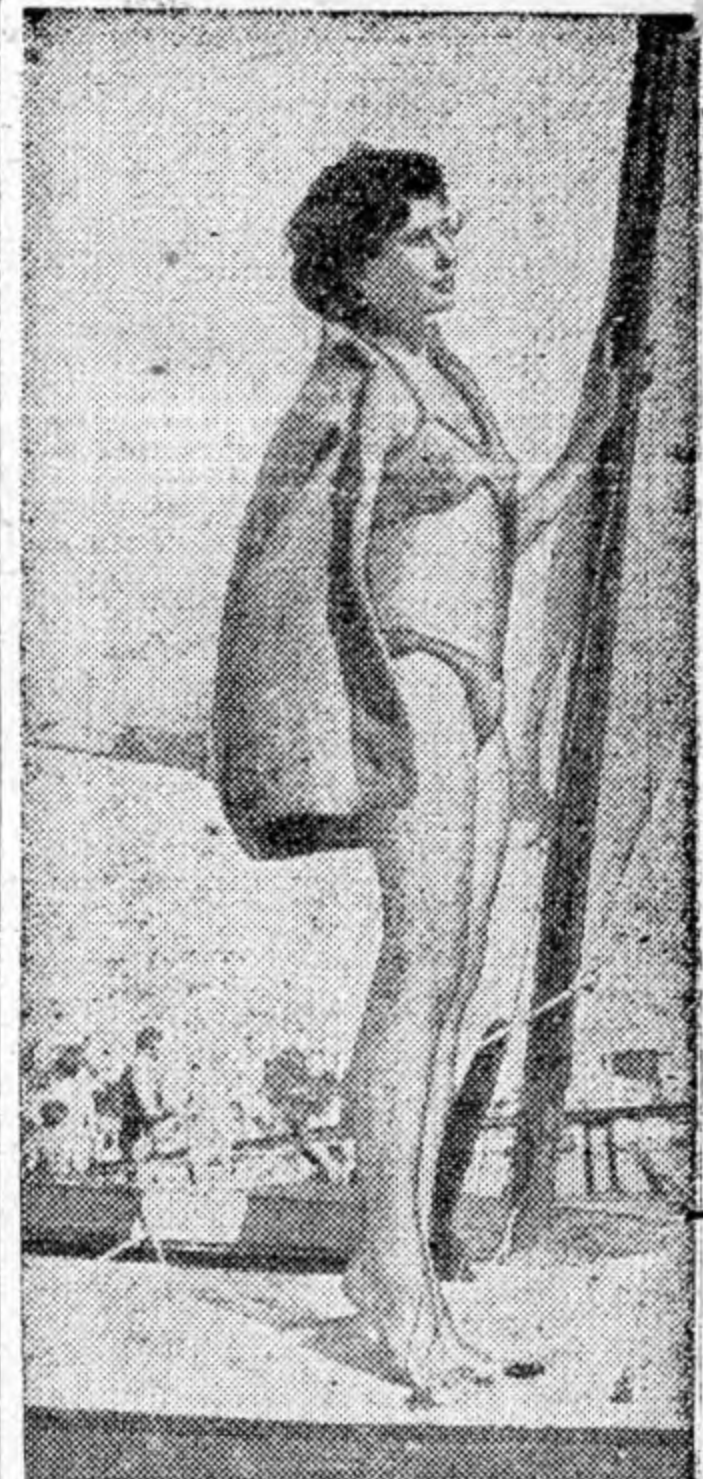

Persons desiring applications to receive shrubs may write to Pittman-Robertson Project 6-D, 311 West Washington Street, Indianapolis, Indiana.
