WE'LL LOOK BACK SOMEDAY

We've got a lot of stories to tell,
We've got a lot of memories to share,
And even if we go separate ways,
It's been okay.

We've learned to do a lot for ourselves,
We've learned a lot about how to care,
And even if it ended right now,
It's been good anyway.

Someday, we'll look back someday,
we'll look back and say, "We had it made,
When we were together."

Someday, we'll look back someday,
we'll look back and say, "We had it made."
These are the good old days.

1. B. Enger and C. Hopley — caught in the camera. 2. L. Hickman, T. Deery, W. Hinchell, G. Lewis, B. Enger, B. Halsey — boast their cooking abilities. 3. C. Bennett, T. Carlos and B. Thompson show homecoming spirit. 4. J. Algeo takes a break between games. 5. K. Richards, G. Hight and V. Bush — rent the new turf. 6. T. Goodman invites you to take a ride.

WHEN WE WERE TOGETHER

1. Our cheerleaders show that their spirit is on fire. 2. E. Ringer and T. Bennett cozy and comfortable. 3. R. Hirstberger and S. Stetson take a walk on the wild side. 4. A. Davis and J. Allen dress down for school. 5. M. Shaffer, G. Weaver, R. Goffman, M. Lough bring in a bag in a bag. 6. T. Bennett and L. Bently show signs of mischief. 7. Miss O'Leary and M. Garrett are unusual interlovers in the hallway. 8. D. Hinton keeps the beat.

... THESE ARE THE

GOOD OLD DAYS.

L. T. Weiss, J. Hartz and D. Boser all some time at lunch. J. T. Farrow takes a nap in between classes. J. T. Goud gives a funny look at the cameraman.
E. C. Shidaker and J. Bentley take time out to tell yearbooks. S. K. Kinsler gets caught by surprise. S. K. Roberts was swabbed for cancer chemo. J. D.
Gut and K. Mallory stay "peek-a-bo".
S. C. Rickman and C. Harris work hard in their parts for the play. D. P. Giffey wonders if his socks will live.

SCAPINO

The fall play presented this year was "Scapino", the story of a con artist.

The story was a confusing one of two sons who wanted to marry two girls that the boys' fathers would not approve of. The young men found that they were also financially unable to marry. It was then that they enlisted the aid of their friends Scapino and Scapina to pull off the double con. As the story progressed, it was learned that each girl was actually a long lost daughter of each father. Each father then joyfully married his daughter to the other's son. Luckily for Scapino and Scapina everyone was to happy to notice that their efforts had been worthless!

HOME COMING

Homecoming was an exciting event this year. The annual float contest and club activities created a lot of enthusiasm. The CCHS band led a parade of interesting and unique floats through Culver. The freshman class won the float contest with their "Cavs will send the Redskins to their Happy Hunting Ground" float. The cheerleaders led a pep rally after the parade.

1. Juniors can the Redskins. 2. F. Stayton, "Cavalier carpenter". 3. J. Kline, S. Stayton, S. Zechiel, Homecoming queen candidates. 4. B. Johnson toots his trombone. 5. J. Milo, take a wild ride.

HOME COMING

That evening, last year's queen, Shan Smith, crowned Julie Kline 1982-1983 Homecoming queen. The winners of the float contest accepted their awards.

During the game, the fans were very supportive of the Cavaliers as they tried to "whomp" the Redskins. Once again, the homecoming events proved to be a huge success.

1. Cavalier tests the ground's softness. 2. Cavaliers kick off the big game. 3. Cavalettes, G. Hooker, P. Woodward, C. Banks, L. Reinhold, B. Krull, and S. The C.C.J.S.H.S. Drama students presented "The Apple Tree" as the musical this year. It was a play made up of three smaller plays.

In the first scenario Eve is faced with the temptation of knowledge in the garden of Eden. She is then tempted in a barbaric kingdom and finally in the present day.

She goes through a day, a dark night and into the redemption of a new day.

SENIOR TRIP

This year's Senior trip composed of visiting Niagara Falls, Toronto Canada, and Canada's Wonderland amusement park.

The Seniors visited both the American and Canadian falls. They were given a guided tour of the Canadian falls and lunched at Skylon Tower.

From the falls, they went to the Welland Canal and viewed the ships passing through the locks.

When the Seniors reached Toronto, they checked into the Delta Chelsea Inn near downtown Toronto. They were given a guided tour of the city and visited Casa Loma, a castle in the city. They also visited the CN Tower, the tallest free-standing structure in the world, and went to the Ontario Science Center.

The last day of the trip was spent at Canada's Wonderland amusement park. The Seniors were free the whole day to play in the park. At the end of the day, it was back on the bus and on the road home.

1. M. Elliott & T. Bennett make a point that they are in Canada. 2. Horseshoe Falls as seen from Table Rock House. 3. The Senior class resting after a rigorous tour. 4. C. Carranza, J. Pollock, S. Overmeyer, K. Berger, L. Bigley, L. Currens, & T. Mattison toast a special occasion. 5. Mr. Fujimura gives a thumb up for the Senior trip. 6. The beautiful Niagara Falls. 7. Horseshoe Falls viewed from the rotating restaurant.

Ketter as close as they can be.

GRAD- UATION TIME

The Seniors stood at the doors, anxiously awaiting the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance". When the music began they proceeded proudly down the aisle in gowns of silver and bergundy. They sat with anticipation of hearing their name called. Each senior in turn, stepped forward to be recognized and honored. As each graduate descended the steps, he/she was handed a traditional red rose.

After all had completed this step, the final symbol of the ceremony — the turning of the tassel was performed. A new life for them had begun.

1. Class President T. Mattison presents T. Fujimura with a plaque as a token of appreciation for being class sponsor. 2. F. Drang receives a friendly handshake from T. Mattison. 3. K. Robertson, B. Over 80 years strong.

Since 1901, The State Exchange Bank and Farmers State Bank have been a vital part of the Marshall County business community. Even today, in 1982, both banks are continually growing stronger, thanks to sound financial investments, innovative services and the steady support of our many customers.

It really is nice to know some things haven't changed since 1901. Like the old-fashioned business sense of The State Exchange Bank and Farmers State Bank. Over 80 years strong . . . and still growing.

Pride In What We Do

And about every printing establishment will boast of its quality, capabilities and service. That's because just about every printer has at least a little of each to offer.

But so easily removed basis of pricing knows: the profit is in the performance. Not the price. The performance depends on more than just equipment but on numbers of people. It depends on an attitude. An approach to the business that requires thoughtful professionalism.

Quite often our new customers regret not a bit skeptical. "Can they really deliver what my list of town judges delivers?" The fact is, most prospects who give us a try and let us deliver customers.

That's why we use time in college classrooms at the right side first during the production phase, and make sure you look good in the end. Rolls! and leave the handles to us.

Barb,

Sometimes the paths we followed were long and winding, but I wouldn't have wanted to travel them with anyone but you.

If I had to do it all over again, I'd do it with you. And I'd never change one single thing we've been through.

To see you is to love you. And I'll love you ... forever.

Love Always,

Scott

Mr. Schwartz,

I don't see how you put up with me in typing. I know that wasn't one of our better classes. I did have fun in business law. Good luck with the upcoming seniors.

Thanks for Everything
Always, Stephanie

Donna and Kris,

Well, we made it! It is great having you two for friends. I'm glad I got to share my high school years with you.

We have a lot of memories to reminisce about, some day. I wish the best for both of you for the future. Let's stay in touch.

Love,

Stephanie

Best Of Luck To All The Seniors

Larry, Ruth Ann, Susan
Dean & JoAnn Zechiel

Like the wind that glides across my cheek, so is that one love I'll never meet.

My Love,

I used to think I'd never find that one special person. For so many times I felt that wind pass by me without letting me know what was there. Then it seemed the wind brought you here to me. And if it was destiny that brought us together, I pray destiny keep us that way.

My love for you grows stronger and brighter each day, like a candle wafted in a steady breeze. I can only hope our future is filled with as much happiness as you've given me since we've met. I guess what I'm really saying is thank you for everything you've done. I love you, Beauty. And I'll always love you, more than you'll ever really know. I hope you'll always keep a special place in your heart for me, for my whole heart is yours.

All My Love,
Just Me

Vickie,

Thanks For Always Being

My Last Will And Testament

I, Lisa Ann Girton, hereby bequeath the following things to the people so mentioned in this will:

To my engleesh teechnairs I want to dank dem for all da time and naulidge dey give me.

To someone like me who bragged a little about their height, I give you my locker #157 and a step ladder.

To X-ina Hildebrand, I leave my Spanish IV book and an award for being a GREAT actress. Keep your chin up and you'll go far!

To Bonnie Mevis, I leave a I.O.U. for being my mailman for my whole senior year. I really appreciate it!

To Tracy Mevis, I leave your name in my will so you can't say I left you out. (Ha, Ha)

To my co-partner and friend Mindy M. I leave Great Memories of the Yearbook seminar, the yearbook, the newspaper, Mr. Beckham, Mr. Button and long walks at lunch time.

To all my coaches: I leave new vocal cords from yelling too much and the feeling of relief from finally getting rid of me. I also leave my gratitude for teaching me discipline, teamwork and how to keep a good attitude.

To 9 SPECIAL SENIOR GIRL ATHLETES (Barb 'B.B.' Talciet, Bev Quivey, Shelli 'Shea' Overmyer, Lori Currens, Julie 'J.K.' Kline, Kim 'K.K.' Keller, Darci 'Day' Lowry, Tammy Engel and Rose Jacobson) I leave a collection of all my 'Wacky' headbands and wristbands collected through my 6 years of team competition.

To Roxanne Jamieson, I leave my phone bill for April 1983 and all the silly memories that occurred in the back of the school bus.

To Mr. Button, Mi Amigo de español, Yo salieron mi amor para el cuarto de 303. Mi vida es en las clases de Cavalcade y Espanol. Yo espero que tu tiene bueno suerte y no me olvida.

To all seniors, I leave my blessings and good wishes for the future!!!!

When I walk along the rocky shores of my life,
I often stop to look at the horizon.
For so long I've looked at my far and distant goals,
never realizing that maybe my standards were too high.
For I've never taken the time to stop and take a long, hard look around me,
to see the vision clear and realistically.
Never before have I viewed those small, yet beautiful stones that I walk upon, those stones which were washed ashore from the powerful, yet beautiful tide.
Those stones which have smooth surfaces and rounded edges.
All of those stones were ever changing, like my torn and broken dreams.
Those stones which we all walk upon, what purpose do they serve?
The sea must have a reason for sending in the tide.
My life must have a purpose.
I need not continuously look at the horizon, but simply be aware of its existence.

THE TRUE MEANING OF GRADUATION

We've come to the end of another year our friends and classmates have moved on.
We'll never forget those great memories here
as long as we continue on.

We must let our own hearts and move along to be the best we can be.

The only wish that we know what was right,
That we had just to be me.

As we leave this class of '63
we can think of much to say.
And give a hug to all our friends
and hope that we'll meet again someday.

-L. Newton
