Teachers Ask For Mediation

CULVER TEACHERS, BOARD AT IMPASSE OVER CONTRACTS

After nearly eight weeks of fruitless negotiation, the Culver Community Teachers Association bargaining team called for mediation under the provisions of Public Law 217. Steve Richie, CCTA president, said that an impasse had been reached and that a state mediator has been requested to enter the negotiation.

"The board has not seriously

GRANT APPLICATIONS ARE AT THE LIBRARY

Applications are now at the Culver Public Library for Basic Educational Opportunity Grants. These grants are made by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare's Office of Education, and this year are limited to those students who began their post-high school education after April 1, 1973 or will begin it after that date. Further details regarding the program may be found in the booklet enclosed with each application.

LITTLE LEAGUERS SUITING UP

The Culver Little League program is in full swing for the summer season, reports Bob Lindvall, Little League commissioner. Twelve area businesses are sponsoring seven major league and six pee wee league teams this year, with a total of 160 boys participating.

In order to raise funds to meet the costs of supporting the Little League program, the boys will be canvassing the area in the next few days with packets of TV-Time Popcorn and Toffee Corn for sale. Funds raised by these sales will go toward the purchase of T-shirts, balls, bats, and other equipment, and will help build the concession stand now under construction at the Little League field. Prizes will be awarded to three boys who sell the most popcorn.

The Little League needs the support of the entire community if it is to continue to provide young boys in our area with a wholesome program of summer sports. Anyone wishing to help in any way should contact Al Triplett, head commissioner of the Little League.

responded to our proposals," he said. "We are hopeful that an impartial third party can indicate to the school board that delaying tactics and surface bargaining will only harm the Culver School Corporation and intensify an already bad morale situation," Richie said.

Richie reported that the school board and Association have met eight times for a total of approximately thirty hours without any significant movement on the part of the school board. In a letter to Indiana Education Employment Relations Board Chairman Franklin DeWald, Richie said, "The Association remains resolved to meet at any place and at any time to resolve the differences that exist in bargaining."

RETIRED TEACHERS TO MEET

The Marshall County Retired Teachers will meet at the Conservation Club House in Plymouth at 11:30 a.m. June 6th for a picnic dinner. All retired teachers in the area are invited.

BAND ACTS AS AMBASSADORS ON RECENT TRIP

The Culver Community High School Senior Band recently attended the Holland, Michigan Tulip Festival and participated in band performances there and at Greenfield Village, which was the second leg of their excursion.

Funds for the trip were contributed by the community in various projects sponsored by the Culver Community Band Boosters.

Bandmaster Charles Byfield, interviewed after the trip, reported that the bandmen and bandswomen were perfect gentlemen and ladies throughout the trip, and reflected well upon their home community at all times during the weekend. He expressed his appreciation not only to the students for their deportment, but also to the adults who made the trip possible and members of the community who supported their band.

TULIP TREES IN BLOOM!

Bob Kyle reported Tuesday that several tulip trees on the east side of Grace United Church of Christ are in full bloom. Since the trees, which are examples of the Indiana State Tree, are rather rare in Culver, they are worth getting a look at, especially if it means the opportunity to take a walk in the lovely summer weather Culver has been experiencing.

1920 Musical Opens Season

WAGON WHEEL PLAYHOUSE OPENS 1974 SEASON

The Wagon Wheel Playhouse is joining the wave of nostalgia rolling across the country when it opens its 1974 Season on June 11th at 8:30 E.S.T. The first production is "No, No, Nanette," the show that started the nostalgia craze on Broadway.

"No, No, Nanette" is not a new show, but a sassy new version of an old one - the outstanding musical hit of the fabulous 1920s. This modernized version of the carefree decade in America between the First World War and the Depression brings back such memorable songs as "Tea for Two" and "I Want To Be Happy," and such dances as the Castle Walk, Bunny Hug, Tango and the Charleston.

The Wagon Wheel Company this season contains many new faces, but they make up an extremely talented, well-qualified group of young entertainers. Tom Roland will be directing again this season and will also bring his acting ability to the stage in this production when he portrays the leading role of Jimmy Smith. Sharing the lead will be Roslyn Cohen, a student at the University of Maryland. She was recently honored by being chosen to appear for the American College Theatre Festival at Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C. Shirley Bonnell, a newcomer to Wagon Wheel, will be seen as the demure Nanette everybody says NO to, as she bristles against a too-strict upbringing. Shirley is also from Maryland and has studied voice with Paul Hill of Washington, D.C.'s famed Paul Hill Choral.

In addition to these principals, the show will feature a large chorus of flappers and sheiks. These energetic representatives of the '20s will pour onto the stage and pour forth with tap-shoes and soft shoe routines, complete with hobbled hair and billowing organdy dresses on the girls, and argyle golf socks and plus-fours on the guys.

Now is the time to say "Yes, Yes" to "No, No, Nanette" while there are still tickets available for some evenings. Curtain time is 8:30 week nights and 7:30 E.S.T. Sunday night. Mail orders are accepted, or phone reservations can be made by calling 267-8041.

Pennies Worth 1.1 Cents!

MINT APPEALS FOR RETURN OF THE PENNY

Mrs. Mary Brooks, Director of the U.S. Mint, has recently called upon Americans to get the penny back in circulation and keep it there. "I'm calling on the banking industry to welcome the return of pennies during the month of June. I'm Urging schools, churches and charities to examine ways and means to involve their members in collecting pennies for deposit," Mrs. Brooks said.
The price of copper has retreated, closing at $1.15 per pound on May 20th. There will be no aluminum penny. The 62 billion pennies produced during the past 15 years have no numismatic value and because of the huge mintage they will never attain great value.
Nevertheless, speculators and hoarders of pennies have caused what seems to be a shortage of pennies in certain areas of the country.
But there is no shortage in the supply of pennies.
Creating a shortage where it does not exist can adversely affect every public spirited citizen, taxpayer and conservator of the earth's resources. It is inflationary in that merchants might be forced to round off sales to the next nickel due to lack of pennies to make change.
Mrs. Brooks re-emphasizes that there are plenty of pennies. "But they are in the wrong places," she says.

It is estimated that over 30 billion pennies are in circulation - doing the job for which they were intended. Somewhere in the nation, however, in excess of 30 billion pennies are in hiding. These are the pennies the U.S. Mint is appealing to the American public to return to circulation. They are in dresser drawers, shoe boxes, pickle jars; many are stored in this manner because they are a nuisance to their owners.
For the Mint to be forced to continue increasing its penny production to meet the current extraordinary demand is wasteful - wasteful of a natural resource - copper - that cannot be replenished by man, and wasteful of the taxpayers' hard earned money. One billion pennies returned to circulation will save the taxpayers $10,000,000.
The current price and supply of copper allows the Mint to continue production and distribution of the copper-bearing cent. During the past 15 years, the Mint has pumped out over 62 billion pennies using some 202,000 tons of copper in their manufacture.
This year alone, the Mint expects to use 33,000 tons of copper in cent production - making about 35 million pennies each working day. If just 15 billion pennies could be lured out of hiding, according to Mrs. Brooks, the Mint, at current production figures, wouldn't have to make pennies for almost two years and it would represent a saving of $150 million.
Fifteen years ago, the reverse design of the Lincoln cent was changed from wheat to a view of the Lincoln Memorial. The Mint produced 25.7 billion Lincoln wheat pennies during a 50-year period.
The Lincoln wheat pennies do enjoy collector interest - some years commanding more numismatic value than others. Rarity is one of the determinants in establishing the value of almost any collectible item. This holds especially true for coins. A general rule is, the lower the mintage of a given coin, the higher the numismatic value.

Sixty-two billion pennies of identical design, however, can never qualify as numismatic rarities and so cannot ever reach great numismatic value. The true collector knows this and collects only those pennies needed to complete his coin collection sets. The true collector likes bright, uncirculated coins rather than the dull and discolored ones, unless they are rare.
For every $25 worth of pennies cashed in at a bank, the Treasury and the Mint are prepared to issue a Treasury Department certificate to the individual or group responsible. Banks are being asked to forward names to be cited for an award to Mary Brooks, Director of the Mint, 55 Mint Street, San Francisco, California 94175.
The State Exchange Bank is doing its part to help ease the penny problem. The bank is offering, for a limited time, a 10% premium to persons cashing in pennies. Please refer to The State Exchange Bank's advertisement in this issue for details.

Terre Haute Hosts New Festival

ON THE BANKS OF THE WABASH—A FESTIVAL!

From May 31st to June 9th, Terre Haute citizens have been launching that community's first annual "Banks of the Wabash" Festival.

Promising to be one of the most colorful and interesting new celebrations this year, the ten-day festival has focused on telling the story of Terre Haute's past and present. The festival caters to a wide variety of talents and interests for both participants and spectators of the dozens of games, contests, exhibits and events.

In the realm of the performing arts, nightly performances of an old-fashioned melodrama entitled "Curse You, Jack Dalton" is encouraging audiences to keep in step with the customs of old-time drama by unabashedly cheering the hero and throwing peanuts while booing the villain. In addition, musical performances and youth-oriented drama are being staged throughout the festival days.

There are exhibits by the National Muzzle Loading Rifle Association, cabin raising, nature tours of Terre Haute and Vigo County, business-educational-industrial exhibits, and regatta-river tours on the Wabash. From 8:00 a.m. until dark, the festival offers daily variety in athletic events and contests, arts and crafts displays, parades, river activities, and antique shows.

Re-living the recreational activities and everyday chores of the community's forefathers, log rolling contests, raft races, pole chopping-rail splitting contests, and log heaving demonstrations challenge the skills and talents of the twentieth century "frontiersmen" and provide good old-fashioned entertainment for those content to be spectators.

Today, frisbees, hula hoops, tag relays, tug of war, fishing derby, and sack races mark Youth Day at the festival as Terre Haute salutes young people and their role in the community's present and future.

Friday, honored guests for the Community Progress Day will include Indiana mayors and city and state officials. The slated agenda for the day will feature tours of new community facilities, a Junior Tennis Tournament and activities for the physically handicapped.

The Banks of the Wabash weekend festivities culminate the week's spirit of community involvement and sharing in fun, recreation, and entertainment.

Saturday will get off to a brisk start at 7:00 a.m. with a "Marathon Marathon." Later in the morning, sporting events ranging from a golf tournament, track and field events, tennis tourney, and canoe racing to pioneer activities (such as rail splitting and pole chopping) will keep the athletes and their supporters busy most of the day. Saturday will also be Jewish Ethnic Day at Fairbanks Park.

The schedule of activities reveals without a doubt that the Banks of the Wabash Festival features something for everyone. Sunday, June 9th will be highlighted by an Antique Auto Show, horseback trail rides, chicken barbecue, Syrian Ethnic Day, and row boat racing events to conclude ten days of festivities on the city's Banks of the Wabash River.

HOOSIER CERAMIC INDUSTRY DEPENDS ON ANCIENT MUDS

Clay and shale, composed of sediments from ancient streams, are used to manufacture brick, tile, sewer pipe, pottery, and many other ceramic products. Often the color of these products is important, and color is commonly related to the presence of iron in the raw clay. Clays with relatively high percentages of iron turn red, brown, or orange when heated or "burned." Clays with low percentages of iron, such as the underclay found below coal seams, burn pink or even white. By using certain clays or by mixing clays with differing iron content, the desired color can be achieved in a given clay product.

Information from the Indiana Geological Survey files aids Hoosier ceramic industries in locating clays with suitable percentages of iron.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR DAY CAMP PROGRAM

The Marshall County Extension Office, in cooperation with Purdue University, has sponsored a Nutrition Aides program in the county for the past several years. These aides offer their assistance to low-income families who are in need of assistance in organizing their budgets, planning nutritionally well balanced menus, and other areas of family living. The salaries of the aides are paid through Purdue's Extension Service.

Each year, the County Extension Office sponsors a Day Camp for the children of these families. This year the camp will be held Wednesday through Friday, June 26 through 28th, at Myers Lake. The Nutrition Aides teach courses in basic nutrition during the camp, and volunteers teach classes in recreation, nature study, and crafts. The volunteers are members of various communities who are interested in helping expand the horizons of these children. Area 4-H Junior Leaders help out with recreation supervision and other jobs.

The kids need transportation, though. Volunteers are needed from Union Township to drive the children to and from the camp each of the three days. Money is also needed, for the bare necessities of the project - the cost of renting the campground, food, and supplies for the craft projects. Anyone who can help in any way is urged to call Mrs. Robert Kepler, 892-5420, or the Extension Office in Plymouth.

School Board

SCHOOL BOARD DISCUSSES ATHLETIC FIELD LIGHTS

The Culver Community Schools Corporation Board of Trustees met in regular session Tuesday, June 4th, at 8:00 p.m. in the Superintendent's Office.

Following approval of claims, the meeting convened at 8:35 p.m., at which time the minutes of the last regular meeting May 21st and a special meeting held May 28th were approved. The Board heard first from Holding Corporation members Ralph Osborn Jr., Cecil Lucas, and Wayne Kline, who reported that they felt that $40,000 could reasonably be given toward installation of new lights at the athletic field. Mr. Osborn explained that such a sum would not jeopardize bonds.

After some discussion as to how many poles would be needed and what type light to use, Mr. Cecil Lucas voiced his objection to proceeding with installation of lights until there was some evidence that the Board could indeed field a football team within the next two years. Mr. Allen explained that the lights were a necessary first step in launching a varsity football program, since the Three Rivers Conference, of which CCHS is a member, is expanding their program and changing their requirements for membership. The Board feels that continued membership in the conference is necessary in order to provide CCHS athletic programs with adequate competition in all sports areas. Among the new requirements for membership in the conference is that member schools that do not already have one must field a varsity football team by Fall of 1976. Since other schools in the conference have lighted fields and thus play games at night, Mr. Allen stated that it would be necessary to equip CCHS to operate on the same terms.

Mr. Lucas then pointed out that there were many costly items needed to equip a football team that are much more necessary than lights. Mr. Lucas pointed out the high cost of personal equipment for each player, field equipment, coaches' salaries, and other expenses. Mr. Allen pointed out that the Holding Corporation could only contribute to physical plant improvement, and that salaries would have to come from the school corporation. He further stated that funds for equipping the players would probably be able to be raised only by private contributions. Mr. Allen also pointed out that, because of the length of time required to install lighting systems of this kind, plans would have to be made soon if the lights were to be installed and working by mid-1975. Mr. Allen also noted that a varsity team could be playing a half-schedule after only two years, based on his experience in other school corporations.

Mr. Lucas also expressed his concern that the community might not be in a position to support a football team at this time. He pointed out that the athletic field was originally built to serve as a football field when the CCHS complex was built. Since then, nothing has been done to initiate a football program and little, if any, support has been heard from residents of the school corporation. Board member Paul Snyder, Jr. commented that this summer is the first time the athletic field was in a condition to be used as a football field, and still shouldn't be put into use until fall. Board member Ralph Stayton stated that he felt the superintendent should obtain some figures on the cost of equipping a team, as well as sound out various segments of the community to determine whether support for such a program exists. The other board members agreed. Mr. Allen stated that he felt that it would be useless for him to seek support for the program unless he could guarantee that lights would be installed. Holding Corporation member Kline commented that he felt that the lights were as necessary as the field itself, and the superintendent was authorized by the Holding Corporation to renew contractual obligations with Russell Eck, who drew the original specifications for equipping the athletic field. Mr. Allen will direct Mr. Eck to concentrate on revising his specifications in the areas of lighting, bleachers, rest rooms, and a concession stand. Mr. Eck's original specifications called for four light poles, and other electrical consultants have since said that 6 poles would be necessary to adequately light the field. Mr. Allen stated that a "ballpark figure" on the cost of installing the lights might be in the $35,000 range. The board concluded its discussion with the members of the Holding Corporation by stating that it felt that the community will support a football program.

In other business, Mr. Allen reported on progress in obtaining a Cafeteria supervisor for the school system. After talks with building principals Mills and French, it was decided that the cafeteria could not be supervised using existing staff members without considerable rearranging of students and programs. Mr. Allen stated that the supervisor would not have to be a certified teacher, if the right individual could be found. The board authorized Mr. Allen to continue looking for such an individual, and consider a retired teacher as an alternative.

Mr. Allen then shared with the board copies of staff reports compiled by Mr. French, CCHS principal, and some information on specifications for bids to be received in the near future for gasoline, fuel oil, and tires.

The board then went into executive session to discuss administrative salaries. They returned to open meeting and approved increases for clerical staff members and bus drivers for shuttle bus service and increased total allowable sick leave. The meeting was then adjourned.
