DIFFERENT ROLES IN A CHANGING COMMUNITY..

First a school, shown here as the Osborn Hotel, later the Culver Hotel, this building may one day soon be the Osborn Center, a focal point of activity for our mature citizens.

A Very Special Message...the Citizen Grows On!

YOU HAVE TO LOOK A LONG TIME TO FIND SOMEONE IN THE CULVER AREA WHO DOESN'T READ THE CITIZEN. What that statement means is that more than eighty years of serving this community and the surrounding area has brought this publication the honor of being a part of most everyone's life. That is something to respect, an honor not easily forgotten.

ABOUT ONE YEAR AGO THIS ISSUE, we had occasion to thank our readers on the front page for their support following a change in ownership and conversion of printing method. Now, a year later, we wish to reaffirm our dedication to the community we have come to call "Home." No matter what our future holds, we want you to know that this newspaper will continue to serve the readers and businesses of the Culver area. In return, we ask for your subscriptions and your advertising support. A newspaper is a business, and several hundred families pay for our product EVERY WEEK! We try to support the Culver area in every way, and hope that we can earn your trust and business at the same time.

In case you haven't looked at the sign in our window lately, it says that we are Culver's home town newspaper since 1894. With your help and support, another eighty years will go by before we all know it, and the CITIZEN and the Town of Culver will continue growing, side by side, as always. We're growing, and we thank you.

NEXT WEEK'S HOROSCOPE

By Clay R. Pollan

★ If your birthday occurs this week...

...you are a square shooter and attract persons whose aim is to help, not hinder. Because of your contacts your position in the world is due to be elevated. Your love of life will take on new sparkle and opportunities to participate in pleasant social functions will present themselves.

Aries Mar. 21-Apr. 19 Pluto ☿
Gaming and speculation can be great fun and mildly profitable this week, if you keep to small stakes which you can reasonably afford to lose. Don't push your luck too hard. A family matter which has been delayed will begin to move. Take your mate to a rendezvous holding pleasant memories for both of you.

Taurus Apr. 20-May 20 Venus ♀
Any talent which you may have (art, music, sports or entertaining others) will be much in demand and will find appreciative audiences. New friendships started now will open new doors socially. An exciting happening in your locality will capture your interest. Exciting news is upcoming.

Gemini May 21-June 20 Mercury ☿
Remember, enough is enough. Sidestep the attempts of friends of your own sex to load their problems and worries onto you. Adjustments in your domestic scene will work out well. Relatives will be extra nice and will go out of their way to please you. Someone of influence will "pull strings" to help you.

Cancer June 21-July 22 Moon ☾
Without intending to, you'll get yourself more involved than is usually the case in the lives and affairs of people you work with. Your efforts will not be properly appreciated, so be discreet in your actions and conservative in your promises. Strangers will be lucky. Look up brand new contacts.

Leo July 23-Aug. 22 Sun ☼
You are now on the brink of a period when you can be blamed when things go wrong, even though you are not at fault. There's bound to be a certain amount of buck-passing, intrigue or backbiting in your circle. If trouble seems to be brewing, stop it before it starts snow-balling into unsavory issues.

Virgo Aug. 23-Sept. 22 Mercury ☿
This week's stars warn of an attempt to mislead you. There'll probably be a lot of over-optimistic talk in an effort to "cover up" the trouble that is brewing. You must see that this attempt won't become successful. Believe in your abilities. Push ahead with new ventures. Tie up loose ends. Act decisively.

Libra Sept. 23-Oct. 22 Venus ♀
Throughout the week you've got to be deliberately self-reliant. This especially applies to your dealings with comparative strangers. Limit your dealings as much as possible to people whom you know as trustworthy. Activities should be creative and self-expressive. Things won't be all they seem to be.

Scorpio Oct. 23-Nov. 21 Mars ♂
You'll have a favorable week for organizing get-togethers and having confidential talks with long-standing acquaintances. You can't go wrong if you follow your intuition. In moving about, avoid gloomy or lonely places. Property deals are under bright stars. Good progress is indicated in negotiations.

Sagittarius Nov. 22-Dec. 21 Jupiter ♃
Insofar as your income is concerned, you cannot afford to be complacent. You are going to have to struggle to make ends meet and there'll be little cash to throw around. Cut your losses ruthlessly and limit any future commitments. This is not a time to worry about lost causes or be over-idealistic.

Capricorn Dec. 22-Jan. 19 Saturn ♄
There's strong stimulation of personal interests now. An increase in faith is revealed in your chart. Contracts can be put together successfully and new partnerships are favored. New opportunities occur to broaden your long-range security. Money matters in general take a turn for the better.

Aquarius Jan. 20-Feb. 18 Uranus ♅
You are certain to have the feeling that people of lesser ability than yourself are being given opportunities which really should be yours. Patience and tenacity will be your best assets. Prospects are certain to improve. You've got to spread your net just as widely as possible. Concentrate your efforts.

Pisces Feb. 19-Mar. 20 Neptune ♆
Uncertain aspects prevail this week. It may mean that this is going to be a hectic and rather erratic period. Nervous tension can be far too easily built up and you'll feel unsettled and restless. Your normal routine can be thrown out of gear and you may have difficulty in getting along with people.

MISS DUNNELL, MR. HELD WED

Mrs. Stewart Nigel Held

AT HOME IN CANADA

The wedding of Gwendolyn Gail Dunnell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard V. Dunnell, 444 Liberty Street, Culver, and Mr. Stewart Nigel Held, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Held of Ontario, Canada, was held at St. Thomas Episcopal Church, Plymouth, on September 1st at 3:00 p.m. Rev. James Greer, rector at St. Thomas, performed the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with white mums and pink gladioli. Mrs. Kenneth Cryser of Plymouth was organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white nylon over taffeta with long sleeves accented by ruffles at the cuffs. The gown was appliqued with daisies and seed pearls, and the skirt flowed into a chapel train. She wore an elbow-length illusion veil held by a cap of daisies, and carried a nosegay of daisies and white mums.

Mary Bruce was maid of honor, and Deborah Brown and Meredith Dunnell served as their sister's bridesmaids. The bride's attendants wore long empire-styled gowns of cornflower blue crepe with puffed sleeves and carried nosegays of daisies and bachelors buttons.

Ian Held, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Terry Cook and Mark Held, also the groom's brother.

A dinner for forty guests at Pinder's Restaurant followed the ceremony.

The Program will entitle all Senior Citizens to secure a Complimentary Ticket for all school activities (with the exception of athletic tournaments) and to be guests of the school corporation for these activities. These tickets are now available in school offices throughout the corporation. They will be good for athletic, drama, and musical activities. The purpose of providing this program is to encourage the Senior Citizens of the area to attend and support Culver Community School activities.

Christian Science

MATTER is the subject of the Lesson-sermon in Christian Science. The Golden Text: Joshua 24:15 - "Choose you this day whom ye will serve." The lesson also includes Matthew 6:24 - "No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other."

From the Christian Science Textbook, Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy - "Material beliefs must be expelled to make room for spiritual understanding. We cannot serve both God and mammon at the same time; but is not this what frail mortals are trying to do?"

All are welcome to the church services.

VFW Ladies To Sell Candy

VFW AUXILIARY MEETING

Seventeen members of the Ladies Auxiliary of VFW Post 6919 met Monday evening at the Post Home with Mrs. Mary Lou Wise, president, presiding at the round-table session.

The group voted to sponsor candy sales for the purpose of raising funds to fight kidney disease. The candy will be available shortly, with Mrs. Ted Strang in charge of the project.

Mrs. Wise reported that a total of 81 bicycles were taped with luminescent tape in this year's "Lite-A-Bike" program. The bikes are taped as a public service to the youngsters of the community so that they may be seen more readily by motorists. Any youngster or adult who wishes his bicycle taped should contact the Auxiliary president and arrangements to do so will be made.

The application of Mrs. Max Geiger was accepted for membership in the local unit. Initiation will be held at the next meeting.

On October 7th the District President, Mrs. John Berg of Bremen, will make the annual inspection of the local unit. Social committee for that evening will be Mrs. Hickman, Mrs. Cihak, Mrs. William Haydanek, Mrs. James Tally, Mrs. Collie Hoffmeister, and Mrs. Brown.

Winner of the mystery prize and membership drawing for the evening was Mrs. Washburn. A social hour followed with a birthday cake centering the table in honor of Past Auxiliary President Mrs. George Lemar. Presiding at the refreshment table were Mrs. Washburn, Mrs. Lemar, Mrs. Phillip Scruggs, Mrs. Kenneth Kemple, and Mrs. Kenneth Tasch.

FEDERATED CLUBS TO MEET

The Marshall County Federated Women's Clubs will hold their Fall Council Meeting at 7:30 p.m., September 23rd, in the Argos State Exchange Bank Lounge. All officers, club presidents and department chairmen are urged to attend.

PARADE PLANS BEING MADE

The Veterans Day Parade Committee met last Thursday evening at the Plymouth V.F.W. Post Home with representatives of the National Guard Co. "C," Plymouth and Culver V.F.W. posts, Plymouth American Legion Post, and the Marshall County chapter of the Disabled American Veterans.

Plans are underway for a parade and memorial ceremonies at the Marshall County Courthouse on November 1st at 2:00 p.m. Veterans' organizations and their Auxiliaries and county school bands will be participating in the tribute to the deceased veterans of this country.

Any units wishing to participate in the parade may contact First Sgt. Clarence Dean, Plymouth Army, at 936-2715 or 935-5073. This will be a county-wide parade and all units in the area are invited to participate.

BICENTENNIAL NEWS

LAWSON NAMED TO LOCAL BICENTENNIAL POST

Latham Lawson, social studies teacher at Culver Community High School, has been appointed chairman of the Culver-Union Township Bicentennial arrangements, Marshall County Bicentennial director Robert K. Kyle announced.

Mr. Lawson is interested in early American history, and during vacations has visited many historical sites throughout the United States.

Committees will be appointed soon, Lawson said.

The Culver Academies have elected to have a separate celebration for the next two years, and an elaborate program is being planned. David Gaskill, director of public relations for the Academies, is in charge.

TRI KAPPA MEETING

The Epsilon Nu chapter of Tri Kappa met at the home of Mrs. Russell Hippensteel on Monday, September 16th. Mrs. Ed Schultz, president, guided the discussion of new programs and read the carnation award letter in CROSS KEYS written by the chapter's corresponding secretary, Mrs. W.F. Crise.

Tri Kappa history and constitution were examined in preparation for the biannual inspection meeting next month. The dinner-inspection meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Chester Cleveland with Mrs. Bryce Rohrer, Province Officer, as honored guest.

Refreshments were served from a candle-lit table decorated with white flowers and crystal. Mrs. Jack Spencer and Mrs. Robert Curtis assisted the hostess.

Against the backdrop of a world changing hands in the 1960's, John Masters, in THUNDER AT SUNSET, has set his tale of action and passion, and above all, choice; for Brigadier Jones must choose between duty and morality, as the country he serves prepares to betray the country, and the woman, he loves.

WHILE STILL WE LIVE, the third novel by Helen MacInnes written in 1944 and now being reprinted. The novel's heroine is an English girl who had spent that fateful summer of 1939 visiting a great Polish estate not far from Warsaw. She endured the siege and bombardment of that country and became entangled in a net of espionage and counter-espionage.

Millie Considine and Ruth Pool have written an entertaining book

MAGICWORD

HOW TO PLAY: Read the list of words. Look at the puzzle. You'll find these words in all directions - horizontally, vertically, diagonally, backwards. Draw a circle around each letter of a word found in the puzzle then strike it off list. Circling it will show a letter has been used but will leave it visible should it also form part of another word. Find the big words first. When letters of all listed words are circled, you'll have the given number of letters left over. They'll spell out your MAGICWORD.

CHANNEL 34 OFFERS SPECIAL CAPTIONED NEWS TELECAST

Through the cooperation of WSJV, Channel 28, the ABC Evening News with Howard K. Smith and Harry Reasoner now has a late night offering captioned for the deaf at 10:00 p.m. on Channel 34.

These broadcasts will use the sound and picture of the ABC Evening News presented at 5:00 p.m. Printed captions will be added to communicate the sound portion of the broadcast for those who are hearing-impaired. Thus, regular viewers and the hearing-impaired will have a late night network news program.

By special arrangement with the American Broadcasting Company, WGBH, Boston tapes the ABC Evening News at 5:00 p.m. Central Time. A team of trained writers then produces captions in time to present the full broadcast on the Public Broadcasting Service at 10:00 p.m. each night, Monday through Thursday.

The newscast is aired exactly as ABC presents it, with no changes in audio or video, except for the addition of the captions. However, news updates or late breaking stories are inserted into what would normally be the commercial breaks.

As for the captions themselves, they are not a literal printing of the audio track. Rather, they are specially prepared for the lower reading level of the hearing-impaired audience at a comfortable display/reading rate. Editing is done to adjust the language level and vocabulary or to control the reading speed but in such a way as to not distort the news item. In addition to providing news to the completely deaf, these captions support what the hearing-impaired "thinks he hears" on the audio track.

BUYING THE BEST BIKE -- II

For running around the neighborhood, a three-speed bike will probably fit all your needs. For more serious cycling you may want to buy a five- or 10-speed cycle. These are "derailleur" bikes - the derailleur mechanism derails the chain and moves it from one gear to another. It's essential for long trips and for riding in hilly areas. You can shift to a different speed on hills, which means you'll go slower but with no more effort.

Bikes come in a wide range of prices - roughly from $90 to $250 - but they look pretty much alike, which is why you should buy at a bike shop, where they know all about the machine. Price depends on the quality of steel in the frame and in other parts. Experts say the best bikes use Reynolds "531" tubing, and advise buying aluminum rims rather than steel rims. A good bike will have quick-release hubs that permit you to remove the wheels in seconds without tools. You'll have a choice of two types of caliper brakes: center pull and side pull. Again, experts prefer the center pull, as it works more smoothly. You'll have a choice of two kinds of tires: tube and sew-up. Experts say the tube type is less prone to flats and easier to repair, while the sew-ups are lighter and usually preferred for long-distance cycling.

Now that you've laid out your good money for a good bike, remember that the key to its long life is cleanliness. Front and rear hubs and pedal bearings should be cleaned and greased every six months. The chain should be cleaned and oiled every month. Does this sound like too much work? Fear not. The bike is essentially a simple mechanism (no engine, transmission, electrical system, etc.) and with a few tools and an instruction booklet you can do the work yourself.

For protection while riding you should have reflectors at front and rear, a headlight for riding at night. You can get safety lights that strap to your legs for added visibility. Experts advise against using baby carriers and also suggest, for shopping, a two-wheeled trailer. If you're determined to ride in rain or shine, you can get excellent rain suits to keep you dry on the way to the office.

Little League

CULVER LITTLE LEAGUE MEETS

The Culver Little League Commissioners, Coaches and Umpires and guests met Wednesday, September 4th at the Town Hall to discuss this year's Little League program and begin plans for the 1975 Little League baseball year. The coaches adopted the same rules we have used in the past with the addition of one new rule. It was decided to add: "If for some legitimate reason a team cannot show for a game, it will be re-scheduled for a date mutually agreed on by both coaches, provided that the Little League commissioners are notified at least a week in advance."

The coaches were satisfied with this year's schedule of games and would like to have the same schedule with the exception that they would like to have them more evenly spread.

Bob Lindvall was appointed to a new three year term as Little League commissioner. It was noted that although all bills have not been paid at this time, the organization is still in the black. The commissioners stated that popcorn sales were a success and expressed their appreciation to the citizens of the community for supporting the project.

The coaches voted to charge an entry fee of $5.00 per family next year. A family would only pay one fee regardless of how many boys they had participating in the program.

The coaches approved the new commissioners request to inquire into purchasing new uniforms for the Major Little League teams. The commissioners would like to thank all coaches, umpires and fans for making the Little League programs successful.

After the meeting, Mr. Reese, head High School Baseball Coach, and Mr. Anderson, Assistant High School Basketball Coach, talked to the group about the baseball teams at various levels. Mr. Reese was very enthusiastic about the total Culver baseball program and stated that Culver had a history of having good baseball teams.

There was also some discussion of forming a 13-15 year old league for the coming year. Mr. Reese, Reinhold, Mr. Snyder, Mr. Triplett, Mr. Mills and Mr. Anderson were appointed to look into the matter for the coming year.

THE UNITED STATES
AIR FORCE BAND

And

THE SINGING SERGEANTS

Colonel Arnald D. Gabriel, Conductor

In Concert, Thursday, September 26, 7:30 P.M. At Eppley Auditorium

The U.S. Air Force Band is a musical organization with an outstanding record of achievement. In an amazingly brief time span its members have been acclaimed as "America's International Musical Ambassadors," and the organization has won the hearts of over 35 million music lovers throughout the world.

The band's history dates to 1942 with the formation of the Bolling Army Air Corps Base band, becoming the official musical representative of the U.S. Army Air Corps on March 1, 1943. Following growth and the end of World War II, the band was disbanded, only to be reorganized within six months. It followed its original group when the United States Air Force became a separate branch of the armed services in 1947, assuming its present title. Foreign and domestic appearances since that time have built upon the fine start made in the 1940's.

Colonel (then Major) Arnald D. Gabriel joined the organization as Commander in 1964. It was he who instituted the semi-annual tour series that brings the United States Air Force Band and The Singing Sergeants to Culver.

MAKE YOUR OWN BUTTONS

Trims for a dress, jumper, suit or blouse can lift the garment out of the humdrum, making it truly special. A lovely, supple, easily managed wool flannel in one of this fall's nature colors, glowing in maple leaf tones or subdued in luscious browns, or in cool beige or gray, can be simply stunning when decorated with unusual buttons.

True, some of the most beautiful buttons are expensive. But you can make your own of fabric and not just the kind that is simply a circle of fabric stretched over a metal form.

Keeping in mind that the button must match the mood of the fabric and the garment style, try your hand at one of the following. An Oriental-looking ball button can be made with silk cording. To make the cording, cut bias strips, which are one and one-half inches wide. Having selected a lightweight cording, tightly sew or knot a string to one end of the cording. At this joining of string and cord, sew to the center of the end of the strip of bias fabric as it lies flat on the table. Lay the string along the right side of the fabric; fold the bias strip with right sides together and stitch along the cut edges. The string is enclosed. Remember to calculate a tube width that will accommodate the width of the cording. While stitching the bias strip, stretch it slightly so the thread will not break when the tube is turned inside out.

Trim the seam close to the stitching. Pull the string out of the tube. This automatically draws the cording into the tube.

A fancy, fringed button can be made by starting with a plain wool-covered button. Cut a 12-inch by one-and-three-quarter-inch strip of fabric along the selvege. Draw out the lengthwise (warp) threads. This leaves the selvege and fringe. Wind the selvege around the button twice and fasten it securely with a running stitch in extra-duty thread.

You can also use the cording to make a swirl button. After covering a plain button form, cut a 15-inch piece of cording. Turn in each end and secure. Starting at the center of the button, wind and swirl the cording, tacking as you go with small stitches.

A smocked button would be elegant in satin on a wool dress. Cover the usual button form with plain fabric. Cut a five-inch square of fabric, satin or silk, and make chalk dots, which divide the square into one-half-inch squares. Smock with a cable stitch. Draw a circle on the smocked fabric, which is one-half inch larger than the button to be covered. Sew a small running stitch around the circle. Draw it up and tuck in the edges, hemming the margin against the button form.

INSIDE TV

CONFIDENTIAL REPORT - REDD FOX, who reconciled with the producers of "Sanford and Son," has also reconciled with his wife, BETTY JEAN, saying "You don't throw 19 years down the drain like that. I love Betty Jean and I knew I had to have her back." ... JACKIE GLEASON has climbed on the wagon in an effort to lose weight for upcoming TV specials on NBC. ... SONNY BONO continues to line up guest stars for his television show this fall. So far he has commitments from PHYLLIS DILLER, TWIGGY, JILL ST. JOHN, DYAN CANNON, and, of course, JOEY HEATHERTON. He has also been escorting Joey around town for a few weeks now, and they are about as permanent as any Hollywood couple, looks like. Sonny also tried to land BRIGITTE BARDOT for the series, but no go - she had never heard of him. ... JEAN STAPLETON would like to see more of Edith Bunker. She says, "I think it would be a heck of a thing to witness Edith's metamorphosis from a sheltered, naive housewife into an independent woman. Imagine her trying to cope with the pressures of an outside world. Imagine her involved in a romantic situation. I think we'd discover a woman like Edith Bunker has emotional resources which would make her a remarkable person."

HOLLYWOOD TV TICKER - His many fans will be happy to learn that popular ED McMAHON has just renewed for another three years with NBC. Ed has been at the same station for at least 12 years. He also finds time for a little moonlighting, like his recent stint with VICKIE CARR in LAS VEGAS. And he also finds time with his lady love, VICTORIA VALENTINE, who recently moved to Hollywood to be near him and who left her job with one of the major airlines. ... Rumors around Hollywood that the romance between CHER and recording executive DAVID GEFEN has cooled of late are not true, say friends who have been following the progress of a bitter Sonny and Cher court dispute. It is known that Cher is seeing less of Geffen these days, but not because she wants it that way. It's just that Cher is being extra-careful about her love life right now, - and with good reason! Sonny has an army of private investigators tailing Cher constantly, looking for evidence to prove that she would be an unfit mother for 5-year-old CHASTITY! That means Cher has to play it very cool - and the frustration is beginning to tell on her!

TV HOTLINE - DOUG McCLURE has the type of good looks that women just can't resist. This, unfortunately, has been his downfall. Three marriages and a million dollars later, Doug McClure is having second thoughts about being a male sex symbol. The former star of TV's "Virginia" is still hounded by autograph-seeking women. The amazing thing is that McClure is happily married, and looks back at his other marital failures with a certain resignation. ... Just got word that JOHN LINDSAY has just signed with The William Morris Agency, the most powerful agency in the business, and has told the big guys there that he is interested in doing a TV series as well as movies.

Town Board

Makes Several Appointments

The Town Board made appointments to several local positions at its regular meeting Monday evening.

Ora Reed of the Plan Commission was appointed to the Board of Zoning Appeals (BZA). Mrs. Gordon Roberts was also appointed to the BZA, representing the town at large. Both positions fill recent resignations. Mrs. William McBeth was appointed to the Park Board to replace Doris Koebe, who recently resigned.

The Board authorized Everett Easterday of Easterday Construction Company to contact various sources regarding major repairs to be made to wells and pumps in the town water system. It was reported that the town water tower has been repaired and will be back in use shortly.

In other business, the Board decided not to appeal a County Tax Commission cut of over $3300 in the proposed town budget. The Board appointed member Don Muehlhausen to act as its representative in the suit between the Town and Culver Military Academy, which will come to trial Monday, September 23rd, at 9:30 a.m. in Marshall Circuit Court.

The Board authorized a temporary loan to the Park of $2,500 from the Water Depreciation fund. The loan must be repaid by December 31st of this year, according to law.

The Board opened bids for a new fire truck at the meeting. The high bid came from American Fire Apparatus Company. A figure of $59,980 including trade was bid. The bid did not include some options the Board felt necessary on the truck. Low bid was submitted by Fessco Fire and Safety, who submitted two figures, $58,868 without trade and $56,368 with trade. They also included a quote on the desired options that would raise the price of the truck approximately $3,000. The bid also included a price guarantee if accepted within fifteen days. The Board then conferred with the Union Township Trustee, and it was agreed to accept the low bid. The Board has the option of accepting the trade-in offer up to thirty days before delivery, if they cannot find an independent buyer for the old truck in the meantime. Delivery date on the truck is approximately two years.

In Loving Memory—
Goldie L. Hinkle, who passed away one year ago, September 23rd.

Please God, hold your arms around her. Keep her in your care. Make up to her for all she suffered. And everything that was unfair. And to all of you who still have "Mom," Cherish her with care. For you will never know the heartache. Till you find she isn't there.

Missed by her family.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

"Lending" Your Home

Members of your church, club, lodge, or political party may want to hold a meeting in your home. If you say yes, what kind of legal responsibility are you taking on in case somebody gets hurt?

The answer usually depends on whether those who come are classified as social visitors or business visitors. Most courts say you owe only a moderate degree of care toward social visitors, but a high degree of care toward business visitors.

Which classification is the correct one for people who gather in a private home? They are not ordinary social guests, yet they have not come for business reasons either.

As a rule courts have decided that in the social category, even if not exactly right, at least fits better than the business category. The practical effect is to reduce the home owner's responsibility for accidents.

Consider a typical case:
A woman opened her home for a meeting of college alumnae. During the evening, one of the visitors skidded on a loose throw rug and injured her shoulder. As a result, the hostess soon found herself facing a suit for damages. But the court held her not liable. The court said the victim, just like an ordinary social visitor, had to take the premises as she found them.

On the other hand, the home owner's risk goes up when there is a business element in the day's arrangements. In another case, a woman allowed the local garden club to send sightseers to her home as part of a tour. But each person who signed up had to pay the club a fee.

This fact made all the difference later on, when an injured sight-seer sought damages from the hostess. The court said payment of the fee gave the visitor the same special rights as a cash customer in a place of business.

...It Must Be THE LAKE WATER

By Bob Kyle

OLIVER C. SHILLING, developer of both land and ideas, just returned from Mayo's at Rochester, Minn., with a hot flash—extraordinary for one of his age!

It centers around a flock of Canada Geese that inhabit the lake inside the corporate limits of Rochester and are as famous as the albino squirrels at Olney, Ill.

It has become the custom of townspeople and patients to gather and watch the geese return to spend nights under protection the year around. During the winter with no feed available they are fed by persons living on the lake.

It would be necessary to contact both Federal and State wildlife authorities to see if it is feasible under their regulations to declare Lake Maxinkuckee and surrounding territory a Federal Game Refuge.

According to Oliver, who is a conservationist, there hasn't been a wildfowl flight through here since 1938, a few nature hatched and stragglers. Of course, there will be wild-eyed opposition from coot hunters but if they want to hunt ducks or geese they had better go to Kankakee or Willow Slough state preserves where you have to register and pay fees.

Canada Geese can be lured here very easily and they understand protection. They are the most intelligent of all feathered creatures.

Let the community give this a fair trial and put Culver and Lake Maxinkuckee further on the map—in a nice goosey way.

SOW YOUR GARDEN to rye now and turn under early in the Spring to put humus in your soil. Just broadcast, if you can, seed about four or five inches apart after you have scratched all accessible places with a rake. It's not necessary to cover the seed but let the next rain do its work. Rye is expensive this year. Lake Water paid $8.75 for 50 pounds and it's so scarce a large seed house had to send to New York State for it...The Great Drought of 1974 was broken last week with rains on consecutive days of 3.1 inches one day and 1.4 the next. The summer's high temperature to date is 98 degrees and low was 42 by our recording thermometer...Paul Hirstein, artist, of Bremen has contributed to their Bicentennial by painting the fire hydrants in pleasant imagery.

SPEAKING OF HISTORY, now it is a hot item on the networks. Designed to turn America around, novelist James Michener is preparing a six-part chronicle of an American family for NBC, and CBS, besides the daily "Bicentennial Minutes" will run four ninety-minute specials on Benjamin Franklin. No one has ever tried to deal with the Revolution theatrically, says Robert Culp, the actor. First story, filmed in Georgia, takes a travelling peddler on an odyssey across the colonies, meets Washington, Hancock, John Adams, Paul Revere and other historic figures present day social studies school kids scarcely ever heard about.

ROGER STORY, proprietor and mixologist and one of Plymouth's most elite citizens, is about to make the Hall of Fame, providing the Secret Service are patient.

Last week a patron, who Henry L. Mencken would have described as sophisticated, came into Roger's Temple of Virtue and gave him a $2½ gold coin for a penny in change and walked out. Roger was stuck, he had no right to possess the gold coin, so he placed it on the cash register, hoping the spifficate would come back and claim his $2½ which was now worth almost $10 at current inflation prices. He showed it to friends who offered only as much as its face value. They were coin collectors. Roger was afraid to get in the clutches of the Secret Service and anytime a well-dressed young man enters his emporium of oh-be-joyful he shudders. Nonetheless, like all rich men, he is unhappy. Various methods are being suggested by his coterie of the idle poor to no avail and he is about to quit business but if he did he wouldn't know where to go to avoid a brush with the law.

He has great ancestral backing. On his mother's side he is a descendant of the famed Story & Clark piano people; another ancestor is Meriwether Lewis of the Lewis & Clark expedition who nearly ate each other up for sustenance when they crossed the Donner Pass on the way to the goldfields in California, and he wants to maintain the family's good name. So he asked me to do something about changing his name to Feibelbaum.

Through Your great love, dear Lord, many unknown and unseen people influence our lives through beautiful writings and lovely music.
